Relative to recognizing and congratulate Darlene Eay Quichocho, Language Arts and Drama Teacher, George Washington High School, on receiving the Jane Wha-Young Kim Award; and does further express Un Dangkolo Na Si Yu'os Ma'åse' to her for her commitment to innovative teaching, her exemplary contributions to student learning, and for building brighter futures.

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA TRENTAI KUÅTTRO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, the Jane Wha-Young Kim Foundation was formed twenty (20) years ago, and is a non-profit foundation that provides scholarships on Guam; and

WHEREAS, the foundation has named Darlene Eay Quichocho, better known to her students as "Mrs. Q," as the first recipient of the Jane Wha-Young Kim Award for Teaching Excellence; and

WHEREAS, her work over the past ten (10) years have proven that she was an excellent nominee and recipient. She celebrates this wonderful achievement with her husband and children; and

WHEREAS, in 2008, Darlene received her Bachelor's Degree in Secondary Education with an Emphasis in English Literature from the University of Guam. She has been a teacher at George Washington High School (GWHS) since August 2008; and

WHEREAS, Darlene has been nominated for various awards, such as: Teacher of the Year, MagPro Award – Most Inspirational; MagPro Award – Community Service & Volunteerism; Most Inspirational Teacher; and High Qualified Teacher to name a few; and

WHEREAS, besides her many accolades, Darlene is also a member of the Guam Department of Education Intramural Volleyball League; GWHS Liaison to the Guam Håfa Teen Magazine; GWHS Activities Coordinator, Advisor to the GWHS Book Club, Cheer Club, Wrestling Club, Nursing Club, Performing Arts Club, and the Rugby Club; and also, GWHS School Climate Facilitator/Positive Behavioral Intervention and Supports; and

WHEREAS, throughout Darlene's teaching career, she has also spearheaded various activities, competitions, and contests, such as: Anti-Bullying, Red Ribbon activities, Hurricane Harry Coin Drive, 5th Annual Island-wide Song Festival, Guam Volunteers, and Youth Preparedness & Leadership Summit to name a few; and

WHEREAS, in addition to Darlene's teaching duties, she also serves as a drama teacher and has produced several very successful productions such as: Snow Queen, Hercules, Peter Pan, Aladdin, Cinderella, the Wizard of Oz, Frozen, and the Grinch Who Stole Christmas; and

WHEREAS, Darlene puts in the time and hard work in everything she does. She is dedicated to her students and has inspired them to reach new heights; and she has developed a great, bonding rapport that only those who have experience in play productions can understand. Darlene and her students have produced incredible plays with the little resources available to them. They made things happen because of their passion; and

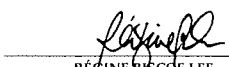

WHEREAS, Darlene's students believe she is an amazing role model and great source of insight and influence. Though she has a diligent schedule, she makes the time to support students in interscholastic sports and academic competitions. She is known to offer impeccable knowledge, materials and tools, her classroom, as well as her time and energy in and out of school. She motivates and encourages students to participate in events and programs that benefit the community and the students in a positive manner. These are a few of the many qualities that encompasses what an inspiration Darlene is to her students and teaching community and the reason for being a recipient of this exceptional award; now therefore, be it
