I MINA'TRENTAI KUÁTTRO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÁHAN
2017 (FIRST) Regular Session

Resolution No. 64-34 (COR)

Introduced by:

FRANK B. AGUON, JR.

Relative to recognizing and commending Lieutenant Jennifer Zeigler, United States Navy for her generosity and exceptional contributions to the Guahan Ayudante Lions Club and the people of Guam; and to further extending Un Dangkolo Na Si Yu'os Ma'åse' to her for her dedication, selfless service, and sacrifices to our island and country.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I
MINA'TRENTAI KUÁTTRO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÁHAN:

WHEREAS, Lieutenant Jennifer Zeigler served in the Ambulatory Procedure Unit and Post Anesthesia Care Unit at the U.S. Naval Hospital (USNH) Guam from January 2014 to April 2017. During her service on Guam, her noteworthy accomplishments were many and her efforts fostered unity within the community; and

WHEREAS, the Command End of Life Program Director, she coordinated, organized, and instructed three (3) End of Life courses to fifty-two (52) military healthcare professionals and civilian nurses at the Veteran's Administration Clinic and other local medical treatment facilities. It enabled all participants to be better equipped to care for, provide education to, have crucial conversations with, and advocate for patients and their family members in a holistic, multi-disciplinary, and culturally sensitive approach. Additionally, she streamlined the Essentris Electronic Health Record (EHR) End of Life Set that ensured standardized comfort care measures to all dying patients; and

2017 MAR 22 AM 11:59

1 WHEREAS, as a strong patient advocate, she initiated and authored the USNH
2 Guam End of Life Care Brochure as a resource to educate patients and family
3 members. As a subject matter expert, Lt. Zeigler was sought out by Guam
4 Comprehensive Cancer Control Coalition as a panelist for the 2015 Palliative Care 5 Conference attended by two hundred (200) medical care providers on Guam; and

6 WHEREAS, a seasoned and certified Wound Care nurse, she taught pressure 7 and ulcer prevention and wound care principles to three hundred seventy-one (371)
8 nurses and Corpsmen during the annual Nursing Skills Fair and during the monthly
9 Command Orientation to all incoming healthcare personnel. A knowledgeable 10 clinician, she independently managed patients in the ambulatory care settings and 11 inpatient units who are at risk or have developed early signs of skin breakdown by 12 utilizing evidence-based wound care principles that either prevented or promoted 13 wound care healing; and

14 WHEREAS, Lt. Zeigler was well known amongst members of the Guam
15 Nurses Association, she was asked to be a guest speaker at the 2016 Guam Nurses 16 Association Annual Nursing Convention. She presented “Opioid Abuse Among 17 Health Care Workers” to ninety-eight (98) military nurses and local civilian health
18 care providers and nurses. The presentation increased awareness and generated robust 19 discussion amongst those in attendance as it is a relevant issue facing all healthcare 20 professionals during the present time; and

21 WHEREAS, she is a distinguished ambassador and civic minded individual,
22 she has volunteered numerous hours towards the Islandwide Beautification Task
23 Force, the 2016 Annual Guam Coastal Clean-up, and the International Lion’s Club,
24 District 204 Adopt-a-Road efforts (2016-2017). She organized and recruited other 25 hospital staff during the Guahan Ayudante’s Adopt-a-Road clean-up activities and

1 dedicated many off-duty hours painting and maintaining a bus stop that was adopted
2 by the Guahan Ayudante Lions Club; and

3 WHEREAS, she eagerly volunteered her expertise during the Lion's Club
4 International's (LCI) Annual Medical Health Fair 2016 where she provided blood
5 pressure screening and health counseling to over five hundred underprivileged people 6 on Guam. She was sought out by members of the LCI's Board of Directors to 7 spearhead and organize the recruitment and oversight of the screening tables for the 8 Annual LCI Medical Health Fair 2017. She also provided nursing coverage during the 9 International Lions Club, District 204, first Annual 5K Run/Walk event and helped 10 raise over $5,000 towards the beautification of the children's playground in Hagatna; 11 and

12 WHEREAS, she is a strong supporter of the United Service Organization 13 (USO) Guam and has volunteered her time during several of their activities, such as 14 the coastal clean-up and the 2016 Guam International Marathon manning the Sasa Bay 15 tent; and

16 WHEREAS, having recently joined the Guahan Ayudante Lions Club in April 17 2016, she has performed in an exemplary manner that is worthy of recognition. She 18 ardently stepped up to the plate when the club's secretary resigned unexpectedly and 19 has been very active and supportive of all planned meetings, events and activities that 20 has inspired club members; and

21 WHEREAS, Lieutenant Jennifer Zeigler's admirable performance, leadership, 22 and invaluable community service with numerous organizations on Guam will be 23 remembered and appreciated; now therefore, be it

24 RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of I Mina'Trentai Kuattro Na
25 Lihselaturan Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of I Lihselaturan Guåhan and the people 26 of Guam, recognize and commend Lieutenant Jennifer Zeigler, United States Navy for

1 her generosity and exceptional contributions to the Guahan Ayudante Lions Club and 2 the people of Guam; and to further extending Un Dangkolo Na Si Yu'os Ma'ase' to her
3 for her dedication, selfless service, and sacrifices to our island and country; and be it 4 further

5 RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules 6 certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of 7 the same be thereafter transmitted to Lieutenant Jennifer Zeigler, United States Navy;
8 and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga'lahaen Guåhan.
