Relative to recognizing Commander Christina M. Hicks for her service as Commander of the United States Naval Computer and Telecommunications Station (NCTS) in Guam; and commending her for her leadership and commitment to the operations and efforts of NCTS Guam.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA TRENTAI SINGKO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Commander Christina M. Hicks is a native of Alabama where she earned an undergraduate degree in Professional Physics from the University of North Alabama in 2000. She also holds a Master of Engineering Management degree from Old Dominion University, and a Master of Space Systems Operations from the Naval Postgraduate School; and

WHEREAS, after receiving her commission through Officer Candidate School, Commander Hicks reported to the U.S.S. Ashland to serve as the Combat Information Center Officer and earned her Surface Warfare Officer designation. She then served on the U.S.S. Enterprise as Reactor Mechanical Division Officer where she deployed to the North Atlantic during Summer Pulse in 2004; and also served as qualified Nuclear Engineering Officer; and

WHEREAS, after a lateral transfer to the Information Professional community, Commander Hicks served on the Chief of Naval Operations staff in Washington, D.C. as the Joint Net Centric Operations Section Chief. She then served at U.S. Strategic Command as the Military Ultra High Frequency Strategic Satellite Communications Manager. While there, she earned her designation as Information Dominance Warfare Officer, and was selected to serve as Aide-de-Camp to the Commander; and

WHEREAS, Commander Hicks returned to serve on the U.S.S. Enterprise as the Combat Systems Information Officer and deployed to the Persian Gulf in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. At U.S. Central Command, she was the Executive Officer to the Director of Command and Control Communications and Computer Systems, and the Chief of Operations for the Joint Cyber Center. She then served as the Operations Officer at the Naval Computer and Telecommunications Area Master Station Atlantic; and

WHEREAS, Commander Hicks was awarded the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Navy Meritorious Service Medal, the Navy Commendation Medal, and the Navy Achievement Medal, in addition to other unit and campaign awards. She also received the 2009 "Admiral William Adger Moffett Space Systems Award" for her contributions to the application of emerging space technologies, and the 2015 "Sparky Baird Award" for the outstanding SIGNAL Magazine article of the year; and

WHEREAS, Commander Hicks is currently the Commanding Officer of U.S. Naval Computer and Telecommunications Station (NCTS), Guam; and

WHEREAS, as Commander of the U.S. Naval Computer and Telecommunications Station in Guam, Commander Hicks worked to provide high morale and a superior quality of life for two hundred thirteen (213) military, civilian and contractor personnel while delivering unmatched communications and information assurance support to U.S. Central Command and U.S. Indo-Pacific Command, including Naval, Joint, and Coalition Warfighters; and

WHEREAS, Commander Hicks's leadership has set conditions for the Command's numerous inspections from 2017 to 2018, which had resulted in the Station being awarded the "Retention Excellence Award" and the Defense Information Systems Agency "Facility of the Year"; and

WHEREAS, Commander Hicks's innovative joint approach was vital to the establishment of the Defense of Guam Communications Working Group, which enabled nineteen (19) local commands to develop solutions to improve the resiliency and survivability of Guam's communications infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, Commander Hicks's strategic planning and leadership was essential in meeting all operational requirements and rebalance efforts across the Western Pacific; and

WHEREAS, Commander Hicks has combined a diverse set of skills and personalities into a single cohesive unit, and represents the best and brightest this nation has to offer and this island has had the privilege to have; and

WHEREAS, on May 22, 2019, after two (2) years of service as Commander of the U.S. NCTS in Guam, Commander Hicks will be relieved of her position in a Change of Command Ceremony; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of I Mina Trentai Singko Na Liheslaturan Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of I Liheslaturan Guåhan and the people of Guam, recognize Commander Christina M. Hicks for her service as Commander of the United States Naval Computer and Telecommunications Station (NCTS) in Guam; and commend her for her leadership and commitment to the operations and efforts of NCTS Guam; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Commander Christina M. Hicks; to Rear Admiral Shoshana Chatfield, Commander, Joint Region Marianas and to the Honorable Lourdes A. Leon Guerrero, I Maga'hågan Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA TRENTAI SINGKO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 17TH DAY OF MAY 2019.
