Relative to recognizing the American School Counselor Association and its visiting members; and to commending them for their continuing mission of excellence in our school counseling program and in school counseling programs across the nation.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI SINGKO NA LIHESLATURAN GUAHAN:

WHEREAS, the American School Counselor Association (ASCA) is the leading association of its kind, empowering over thirty-six thousand (36,000) school counselors with the knowledge, skills, and resources necessary to facilitate the success of students; and

WHEREAS, the Guam Association of School Counselors (GASC) follows the standards set by the ASCA, helping Guam's students through realizing effective methods of counseling; and

WHEREAS, Cory Notestine, a visiting member of the American School Counselor Association, is the Chairperson of the ASCA Board of Directors; and his experience in both rural and urban school environments has allowed him to assess the needs of school counselors on a national scale. In recognition of his work ethic, perspective, and passion for students, Cory Notestine was named as the "2015 School Counselor of the Year" by the ASCA; and

WHEREAS, another visiting member of the American School Counselor Association is Katherine Pastor, who is the Assistant Chairperson of the ASCA Board of Directors; and her counseling strategies and her dedication to the students of Flagstaff High School have directly improved the lives of their student community; and for these counseling strategies and community involvement, Katherine Pastor was named as the "2016 School Counselor of the Year" by the ASCA; and

WHEREAS, Brent Burnham, a visiting member of the American School Counselor Association, is a certified ASCA trainer with over thirty (30) years of K-12 experience; and his work has helped spread anti-bullying initiatives, and has helped to instill good values in all children to prevent potential delinquency and criminality. Mr. Burnham's work has allowed for many schools to implement counseling programs and strategies that meet the high standards set by the ASCA; and

WHEREAS, Estela Calata is the President of the Guam Association of School Counselors (GASC); and through her dedication to improving the standards of Guam's school counseling programs, the GASC has provided this unique opportunity with the visiting members of the American School Counselor Association for our school counselors to enrich their knowledge and improve our programs for our students who are at risk of crises; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of I Mina'trentai Singko Na Liheslaturan Guahan does hereby, on behalf of I Liheslaturan Guahan and the people of Guam, recognize the American School Counselor Association and its visiting members; and to commend them for their continuing mission of excellence in our school counseling program and in school counseling programs across the nation; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Mr. Cory Notestine, Chairperson of the American School Counselor Association Board of Directors; to Ms. Katherine Pastor, Assistant Chairperson of the American School Counselor Association Board of Directors; to Brent Burnham, certified trainer of the American School Counselor Association; to Ms. Estela Calata, President of the Guam Association of School Counselors; and to the Honorable Lourdes A. Leon Guerrero, I Magsa'hagan Guahan.
