II. TESTIMONY & DISCUSSION

(Note: Chairman Michael San Nicolas held the confirmation hearings of Christopher Murphy and Odessa Martinez concurrently as they were both nominated for the Real Estate Commission)

Chairman Michael San Nicolas convened a hearing for the nominations of Christopher Murphy and Odessa Martinez to both serve on the Real Estate Commission. He spoke briefly about the Real Estate Commission being inactive for many years and expressed his desire to see the Commission work on many of the issues surrounding real estate.

Christopher Murphy stated that he would like to see a fully functioning Commission. He mentioned that reestablishing the Commission would be beneficial for the island because the members would be able to establish rules and regulations for Guam's real estate industry. Mr. Murphy stated that with the impending buildup, an increase in development, and greater visitor arrival numbers, having an established and functioning Commission will give individuals more confidence when choosing Guam as a destination for investment and development. He stated that he would like to see the Commission grow its role in community issues.

Chairman San Nicolas spoke about the makeup of the Commission. He proceeded to highlight some of Mr. Murphy's application information. Senator San Nicolas asked Mr. Murphy how he intends to ensure that any rules and regulations adopted by the Commission will be equitable for everyone.

Mr. Murphy stated that his years of experience will help guide him with his decision making. He mentioned that having an experienced individual such as himself on the Commission helps add credibility.

Chairman San Nicolas mentioned that Mr. Murphy not only possessed real estate experience in the private sector but highlighted his time in the government sector. He stated that Mr. Murphy will bring a great perspective to the Commission.

Senator Frank Aguon thanked the nominee for accepting the nomination. He asked Mr. Murphy how the real estate industry currently polices itself.

Mr. Murphy stated that it does not. He did state that the Guam Association of Realtors has an ethics committee that is responsible for receiving and investigating complaints; however, they are only allowed to deal with individuals who are members of the Association. He further stated that the Association cannot revoke licenses or impose monetary fines.

Senator Aguon asked if the policing of the real estate industry would now go under the purview of the Commission, once reactivated.

Mr. Murphy stated that issues brought up by real estate agents fall into two categories with regards to the Guam Association of Realtors: members and non-members; non-members are not allowed to bring issues up to the Association. He stated that is where the Commission would come in.

Senator Aguon asked about landlord/tenant laws and why previous legislation introduced with regards to that did not gain traction.

Mr. Murphy stated that he believes that, oftentimes, the individuals who possess the most knowledge on the issue being discussed are not consulted from the onset. He mentioned that a functioning Commission could take the lead on addressing issues and proposing ideas to the Legislature by getting feedback and working with relevant stakeholders in the real estate industry.

Ms. Odessa Martinez stated that, as part of the real estate industry, she focused primarily on property management and that she possessed experience with landlord/tenant issues. She stated that current landlord/tenant laws need to be adjusted. Ms. Martinez reiterated the point that having a Commission in place will bring more real estate industry experts together – appraisers, lawyers, and brokers – and will help to better advise lawmakers on real estate related issues.

Chairman San Nicolas asked both nominees how their nominations came about and if they knew of other nominees and how their nominations came about.

Mr. Murphy stated that, to his knowledge, the Guam Association of Realtors has not made any effort to reestablish the Commission.

Chairman San Nicolas asked both nominees if they were members of the Guam Association of Realtors and if the Association was aware that the Commission was in the process of being reestablished.

Both nominees stated that they were. Mr. Murphy mentioned that the Association has a contingent that follows government meetings and sends email messages to its members.

Chairman San Nicolas stated some of the functions of the Real Estate Commission. He stated that two of the major functions are the formulation of its rules and regulations as well as its ability to have the Office of the Attorney General approve the rules and regulations. He further stated that the reestablishment of the Commission will be good for the island. He thanked the nominees for their willingness to serve on the Commission.

Senator Aguon thanked Ms. Martinez for accepting the nomination to serve on the Commission. He stated that he hoped that the Commission, when formed, will "hit the ground running" in establishing rules and regulations because he believed that the process will be time consuming.

Ms. Martinez stated that Guam has many laws with regards to the real estate industry and she believed that the biggest role is to oversee those laws and ensure that those laws are followed.

Chairman San Nicolas thanked the nominees for their participation and adjourned the hearing.
