He is also a past recipient of the Guam Humanities Council when I was Executive Director there. Bill has also served as a teacher, university instructor, columnist, historical researcher and legislative aide and legal counsel to the Department of Education.

He has a Master of Arts in Micronesian Studies and a Juris Doctorate from The American University in Washington D.C.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: Håfa adai todus hamyo. Thank you for your participation in today's virtual public hearing. The virtual public hearing notice is also posted at the Guam Legislature's website at www.guamlegislature.org.

Today is Tuesday, October 6, 2020, and the time is now 5:39 p.m. This virtual confirmation hearing is now called to order. Si Yu'os ma'åse for your virtual attendance at this evening's hearing. On the agenda for this evening's virtual confirmation hearing is the appointment of Simone E.P Bollinger to serve as a member, literature representative, on the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency, Board of Directors; and the appointment of Simone E.P. Bollinger to serve as a member visual arts of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency Board of Directors.

The Committee will receive oral testimony for I Magahåga's nominees at this public hearing. For the viewing public's benefit, the Committee will continue to accept written testimony that will be made a part of today's public hearing record. Joining us this evening are Simone E.P Bollinger and William V. Pesch, who are I Magahåga's nominees to serve on the Board of Directors of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency upon their confirmation.

In our presence, we also have Ms. Jillette Leon Guerrero, the Director of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency. Thank you all for joining me at this confirmation hearing. Before we receive and hear oral testimonies from each nominee present at their confirmation hearing, I'd like first to set some general rules of conduct for those who are virtually participating in today's virtual hearing.

The conduct of the hearing shall be as follows: All participants must abide by rules of conduct and quality assurance standards, including broadcasting from a quiet room with little to no interruptions. The use of virtual backgrounds is not permitted. All participants must broadcast from a room that has adequate lighting, specifically to ensure that a participant's face is not backlit but visible at all times when speaking. When speaking, please ensure that you are unmuted and that you are speaking clearly into your microphone. I will moderate this hearing by recognizing each participant before presenting their oral testimony. Before speaking, please clearly state your name and title for recordkeeping purposes.

The order of questioning will begin with me. Oral testimonies received shall be kept to the substance of the issues on the agenda. The personal inference as to the character of a nominee, Senator, or any individual testifying is not permitted. Any violation of this general rule of conduct will be removed from our virtual public hearing by the host. I ask that all participants generally keep our comments and testimony to about five minutes, but it's just us, so we can go a little over if we need to. Let me move forward on this virtual public hearing.

Håfa adai! A Board or commission member's work involves much volunteer time and commitment and provides an important link between the public and agency, the legislature, and the Governor. Each Board is unique in its purpose, mission, and role. It is especially important that members be familiar with their boards governing statutes or other authorizing directives to understand the framework within which the Board must operate.

I want to call upon Ms. Simone E.P Bollinger to provide her testimony to serve as a member on the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency Board of Directors. And then receive testimonies from individuals who are confirmed to participate in this nomination. As I mentioned earlier, I want to acknowledge the Director of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency, knowing that she is very busy with other obligations but has made time to participate in today's virtual hearing.

The Committee has received written testimonies, all supporting the nominee's confirmation. For the record, we have received positive testimonies from Dr. Judy Flores, CAHA Board Member. Teresita L. Perez, faculty and coordinator of the English Placement test at the University of Guam. Victoria Lola Montecalvo Leon Guerrero, the managing editor of UOG press.

With all of that out of the way, I like to recognize Simone E.P Bollinger to provide her testimony and general comments to the Committee. With that, just remember to unmute yourself and begin with your name for recordkeeping purposes. (End of Chair's opening public hearing remarks.)

The Virtual Public Hearing for Simone E.P Bollinger was concluded at 6:18 pm and segued to the nomination public hearing of William D. Pesch.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: Now we will go ahead and begin the confirmation hearing for Mr. William D. Pesch. I want to call upon Mr. William D. Pesch to provide his testimony to serve as a member on the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Council Board of Directors. Then receive testimony from individuals present to participate in his nomination. The Committee has received positive written testimony supporting the nominee's confirmation. For the record, testimony for Mr. Pesch was submitted to the Committee from Dr. Judy Flores. Again, I'd like to acknowledge the Director of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency, Director Jillette Leon Guerrero, who will provide her remarks after Mr. Pesch's testimony.

With the formalities out of the way, I would like to recognize by I Magahåga to serve on the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Board of Directors. Please unmute yourself and present your oral testimony and general comments to the Committee.

WILLIAM D. PESCH, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY, MEMBER NOMINEE: Senator, thank you very much. I want first of all to make sure you can hear me. We have a delay. I'm not sure. I'm going to assume you can hear me. First of all, I want to say that Simone Bollinger is a tough act to follow. Very impressive. Again, can you hear me?

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: I think between my internet and your internet it's a little spotty, but I can hear you.

WILLIAM D. PESCH, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY, MEMBER NOMINEE: I'm just going to continue in hopes that you will. First of all, I've got to say I apologize. I'm doing this from home, and I'm a little nervous. I'm going to keep this very brief because my grandson is going to wake up from his nap at any moment, and you don't want to see a four-year-old running back and forth in my living room, which could happen at any moment.

First of all, I'm very appreciative of Jillette Leon Guerrero's nomination of myself to be on the Board of CAHA. Just by way of background, I came to Guam in 1976. I was a high school biology teacher. I taught for three years, then went back to law school in Washington, D.C, and I've been back in Guam practicing law since 1983. Humanities have always played a big role in my life from my early teenage years. I enjoyed art. I loved to sketch and paint, although I've lost all that over the years. I kind of got distracted with other things. I've always enjoyed history, and I have been the recipient of two grants from the Guam Humanities Council. One was back in 1992-93 when I did an exhibit on the history of Japan and Micronesia. I traveled throughout Micronesia, gathering information about the Japanese administration. Not World War II, but between World War I and World War II. It was a fascinating experience it culminated in an exhibit. I think I had over 250 pictures and artifacts that were on display. Then a few years later, really as a result of that, Don Rubenstein recommended that I consider being in the Micronesian studies program, and I found that fascinating. It took me a while to get my degree my master's degree in Micronesian studies, but I did it, and again it exposed me to so many new things and just how many different cultures we have in the area. Those cultures' contributions sometimes involved art, learning about art history in some of the areas.

It was just a fascinating experience. Over the years, I've also written a number of articles on different matters. Between 2014 and 2017, I had a weekly column called Love, Life, and the Law, which was more centered on law but looked at different issues.

After that, I'm currently sitting on the Board for Humanities Guahan. I've been doing that for the past year or so. I've never forgotten my love for humanities. If I have any quality that I would potentially take to CAHA, it would be my sense of curiosity. I love to learn. I like to learn from other people, so it's really with that curiosity that I was curious when Jillette recommended I think about this. I thought, yeah, I think this is something that I would enjoy, and I think with time, and after the learning experience, I'll have some contributions to make.

With that said again, I am appreciative of this nomination, and I'm humbled by it and again, thank you very much.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: Excellent. I think where we met was in the Micronesian Studies Program, and I to be returning students, it can go a couple of different ways. You can get through it more quickly, but if you're working and have family obligations and other things, I say I took the scenic route. I took my time to get through the program.

WILLIAM D. PESCH, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY, MEMBER NOMINEE: I think I took seven years, Senator.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: I just wanted to make that clear that I've known you for a real long time and have appreciated you and the way that you contribute to the community and the way that you think about our island in our region. I think that you are working in so many different ways to make those beneficial sorts of contributions. In thinking about your nomination and your background in Micronesian studies, I was thinking. You discussed it a little bit that we live in a region with so many different art forms, from chanting to visual arts to weaving, carving, and cooking culinary arts. The list goes on and on and not just Micronesia but Southeast Asia, of course, and all of this, so I think that educational background, having lived here for so many years, is not mandatory, but I do think it brings something with it. Some experience, some understanding, some depth of knowledge about potential and possibilities, and what exists there and one of the things that I found and perhaps have had come to similar realizations is Art within our region I think can be unified.

We do talk about the struggles of discrimination and things like this. There are a lot of efforts in Hawaii that are going on to try to get past some of those issues of discrimination. I think Art is one of the ways that they're bringing people together. To talk about some of those uncomfortable issues in place or otherwise, I was teaching "Fatinas i Latte" or latte carving. We were exploring together the possibility of how latte carving might have been to try to recapture it. I learned so much about how on Yap island and Yap's outer islands, to use modern terms. Places like Feis and Wooly Eye and then farther out, Okinawa and just elsewhere had these traditions of stone pillars and carving stone, and you know we were able to have this be something that people could see themselves in whether they were from Guam or not. I just think that there's so much potential in what you offer and not only in the Micronesian studies, but I think that can be a strong element to it.

I did want to ask about the Humanities Guahan. This is an interesting nomination because your nomination wouldn't go into effect until January, I believe. When is the Government of Guam ever like a few months ahead of time? Apparently, we're very organized sometimes. I was curious with the Humanities Guahan. Are you still going to be on the Board then, or is that when your Board seat would end?

WILLIAM D. PESCH, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY, MEMBER NOMINEE: No, I will still be on the Board. I want to be upfront. I still have a couple more years on with them. To be candid again, I wasn't sure how the two would melt together if that poses any type of a problem.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: I'll leave that up to the Director to figure out, but I think actually in many ways it may have some very good potential. We are a small community. We have a limited size number of organizations. I think what better than to know very directly, firsthand, what both of the humanities entities are doing so that they're running in tandem, they're coordinated. They're doing different roles. Whatever it ends up being, that may end up working out very well, I think. I hadn't noticed that until just before this hearing started. I don't think it'll be an issue. I think it can be something that can be quite beneficial, actually. We will continue to sort that out, but I think that's going to be okay.

You spoke about your background and some of what you hope to do or see. Is there anything further that you'd like to see about types of Art to promote?

WILLIAM D. PESCH, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY, MEMBER NOMINEE: You know we were talking before about the fact that Guam today is a multicultural place. We have many different cultures here, and you were also talking about how Art can unite, so I really would like to see if amongst all these different cultures here, how has that influenced Art. Do we see some influence, let's say, from traditional CHamoru Art creeping into other ethnic groups artwork? I think that's one thing that would be a fascinating plus to see a number of shows about different artwork of different ethnic groups. I like the idea of trying to expose as many people in the community to Art and into the humanities and something I'd like to see and is maybe bringing it to shopping malls, to bring it to the mall where we have where it can be on display for a period of time so that more and more people are getting exposed to it.

I'm interested in just seeing a broader exposure of the Arts to the community and taking advantage of the different technologies we have. With the pandemic situation, this whole thing exposes the older generation a lot more to technology, and I'm thrilled with it. I think it's so interesting that the potential is there to use this technology to really get information about the humanities out to everyone. So I think that's where I'd like to go. I'd like to see it infiltrate more community areas and more approaches within the community to expose people.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: That sounds very exciting. Art, as you're mentioning, it's very dynamic, and you know I don't know the true history about I do, for a storyboard for Palau. When storyboards became an art form on Guam, you know maybe it is because of Palauans' interaction. But I don't know that history.

WILLIAM D. PESCH, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY, MEMBER NOMINEE: Absolutely.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: I think having maybe even some discussions. I mean, obviously, it's up to the Board to decide. I would find it something really beneficial to the community to see the hundreds or thousands of years that they've been interacting with each other and how these art forms have impacted and influenced and inspired one another over time. When I sit down with weavers, I know they'll talk about the Yapese style and the Palauan style, and I think those could be some really beautiful moments that highlight our weavers here. But all of the influences and all of the weavers here and their different art forms. I always get excited. I always look forward to these confirmation hearings with CAHA because we talk about art, which I love doing. I appreciate that very much. Your other hat is being an attorney.

I imagine with recusing yourself, you've got that down covered about when would be the right time to recuse yourself and not.

WILLIAM D. PESCH, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY, MEMBER NOMINEE: I have no problem if there's any potential conflict, absolutely I would recuse myself. Again, I think there's a possibility because I sit on Humanities Guahan Board, there may be some times when I'm going to have to step back in matters that may affect the Humanities Guahan. I am very prepared for that.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: Very good. That's very good to hear. I'm thankful my internet has stuck it out off of my phone, so I'm going not to take any more chances though, and I'll let you get to not waking up your four-year-old grandson as well.

I'll go ahead and conclude this unless there's anything else you want to add. But I will conclude the confirmation hearing for Mr. William D. Pesch to serve as a member of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Board of Directors. The Committee will continue to receive written testimonies for the next few days for either nominee. Please address your written testimony to the Committee on Heritage of the Arts, Parks, Guam Products, Hagåtña Revitalization, Self-Determination, and Regional Affairs. Written testimonies may be submitted by email to office.senatorkelly@guamlegislature.org or may be delivered physically to the Guam congress building. Si Yu'os Ma'åse for your attendance and participation.

You know, I'm just realizing, did I give Jillette a chance?

JILLETTE LEON GUERRERO, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: No.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: I didn't give Jillette a chance, so rewind that. I'm just going to tell them to rewind that. I am so sorry. I was having such a conversation, and on my phone, I only see one person at a time, so I only thought of Attorney Pesch. Let me give you a chance, Director, to provide you with testimony for Mr. Pesch.

JILLETTE LEON GUERRERO, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: I'll be brief, but I did want to come on. Let me just read my remarks first. Do I need to say my name again? My name is Jillette Leon Guerrero, Executive Director.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: Sure.

JILLETTE LEON GUERRERO, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: Okay. I wholeheartedly and without reservation fully support the nomination of William Pesch to the Board of Directors of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities. I've known Bill for many years and know him to be an intelligent, committed, and honest individual whose contribution to the island includes his legal services and community service, including serving on the Board of CAHA's sister organization Humanities Guahan. I've also known him as a past recipient of the Guam Humanities Council when I was Executive Director there, and I remember one project, Praying Against the Tide, that you did. That was one that I really remember. Bill was also a teacher, university instructor, columnist, historical research legislative aide, and legal counsel to the Department of Education. He has a Master of Arts in Micronesian studies and a Juris Doctorate from the American University in Washington, D.C.

His expertise and experience will greatly enhance the council's development of programs that target underserved communities as well as provide guidance and our review for the development of Board and operational policies and procedures. We're very pleased to have Bill nominated for this position and look forward to working alongside him to bring the life-enhancing aspects of the arts and humanities to all the people of Guam. But I'd also like to say that he mentioned a lot of things in his testimony. We actually have plans in our strategic plan that we're currently working on, the whole multicultural idea of having different groups. We also had ideas of bringing together contemporary and traditional art exhibits so that you don't make any distinctions between different forms of art and contemporary, traditional, and multicultural. That was one of the ideas. Then the other thing that we're working on is upgrading our website. We're currently working on that so that we can have podcasts and reach out to a wider audience. Actually, Simone's ideas I'm thinking of readings that we can have you know instructional videos that are widely accessible. Let me see. I wrote some notes here. Now I'm trying to rush, sorry. Making connections between the different communities and investigating how we all connect is really one of the areas that we're also looking into. We do have a lot of plans. We also hope to move into our office a new office and have a gallery space. We're just waiting for the GSA to finish that, and if that happens, then we will have a place, actually a meeting place that we can use to have small events and book readings and exhibits and lots of things.

I'm excited to have Bill nominated and work with him again to bring the arts and the humanities and have a little bit more, like you said, of the humanities infused with the art for CAHA. I guess that's it. Thank you. I rushed through that.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PH.D., CHAIR: I apologize. As I said, the way my phone is set up, I only see one person at a time and just focused on Bill and forgot everything else. I'd like just to read a couple of sentences from Dr. Judy Flores as well to have it be put into the record. She mentioned that she is also a Micronesian Studies graduate. I'm not sure if they met there. They probably knew each other long before that, but she said I had known Attorney Bill Pesch professionally for many years as a very competent Family Law Practitioner. He is also a collector of my art and other local artists. This combination of professionalism as a practicing attorney and as one who appreciates and supports the arts is a perfect fit for the qualities desired for the CAHA Board. My testimony is in favor of his confirmation.

I look forward to working with him. Sincerely Judy Flores, CAHA Board Member. With that, I can now get back to closing. But I'm glad we were able to get those last two testimonies in there. Thank you. I will read the time all over again. The time is 6:41 pm. To remind everybody, you can send in written testimonies for the next several days. You may submit them to my office by email at office.senatorkelly@guamlegislature.org, or you can present them physically at the Guam Congress Building, or well, that would be the way to get to us quickly, yes.

Si Yu'os Ma'åse for your attendance and participation in today's virtual confirmation public hearing. Today's hearing is now adjourned. Si Yu'os Ma'åse, for everyone for your attendance and participation in today's virtual public hearing, the time is now 6:42 pm. Thank you all for hanging in there, and all the internet ins and outs and have a good night.

The public hearing was adjourned at 6:42 pm.
