Jillette Torre Leon Guerrero

PRESIDENT, GUAMOLGY INC., 2009-PRESENT

Founder of Guamology Inc. a business dedicated to providing the community with information and resources about Guam, her history and people. The business has a publishing division and has published the following books: The Useful Plants of Guam by William Edwin Safford, Guam ABCs and Guam 123 by Carlene Okiyama and Ric Castro, Afterthoughts by Lois Scruggs, Seeing Guam Through Our Eyes by Jillette Leon Guerrero, Enchanting Tales of Guam by Tina Pablo and Estorlan Inalahan by Judy Flores, Face Familiar by Carina Fejerang and the award winning book, A Year on the Island of Guam 1899-1900. This book won the gold medal for 2018 nonfiction book of the year [Australia/New Zealand region] at the Independent Publisher Book Awards [IPPY] in New York. The most recent publication is a periodical entitled, The Guam Genealogist, that offers tips, tools and resources for those interested in the genealogy and or family history of the Mariana Islands. Guamology's products can be found online at GuamologyInc.com and Guampedia.com as well as at island bookstores, the Guam Museum, Payless Supermarkets and a variety of smaller establishments. Guamology also offers research services. Current contracts include preliminary genealogical research for the Rojas and Atoigue families of California.

FREELANCE WRITER AND RESEARCHER, 1990-PRESENT

Freelance writer for various publications and video productions. Current projects include genealogical research for the Atoigue family in California and a memoir of Justo Torre Leon Guerrero's WWII experience. Ongoing work includes genealogical research for the Leon Guerrero and Torre families and the Hispanic origins of families residing in Hagåtña prior to 1898. Past work includes a monthly series on Guam history for Guahan magazine. Articles and interests can be viewed at www.guamhistorybuff.com contracts for the National Park Service which included the research, development and implementation of exhibit components for the War in the Pacific National Historical Park's Visitor Center. Also provided contractual work for Ancestry.com on the roots of the Angoco family (California) and genealogical research for a local attorney regarding land inheritance.

CONSULTANT FOR ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, 2003 -PRESENT

Assist community groups and nonprofit organizations to build support for their cause through workshops utilizing techniques from the Fundraising School, Center for Philanthropy, Indiana University/Purdue University at Indianapolis. Completed coursework in Fund Raising Management. Previously contracted with Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities and the Guam Humanities Council Guampedia project. Duties include grant writing, fund development, collaborating with potential audiences of Guampedia to ensure final product is user friendly, networking with community, local government, and federal stakeholders to ensure transparency and ongoing communication regarding the development of the Online Encyclopedia.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, GUAM HUMANITIES COUNCIL, 1999-JULY 2005

Responsible for day-to-day operations of a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting the humanities in the Guam community. Responsibilities included overseeing federal grant program, supervising personnel, federal reporting to the National Endowment for the Humanities, overseeing production of marketing materials, carrying out fund-raising activities, grant-writing, and organizing council projects. Duties also included maintaining cooperative relationships with local, regional and national arts and humanities organizations. During my tenure the Council income increased from a negative balance to an annual budget of over a half a million dollars. Prior to my tenure, the Council's programming had been curtailed. The Council was able to restore community programming and establish five anchor programs and numerous special projects and fundraisers under my leadership. The Motherread/Fatheread Literacy Program and Guampedia, an online encyclopedia, were two of several programs established under my leadership. Within two months of my hire, fiscal credibility was restored and the Council received a clean bill of health from federal funding agencies and independent auditors. Annual audits revealed no findings under my leadership.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, AMERICAN RED CROSS (ARC) GUAM CHAPTER, 1997-1998

GWC is the oldest women's organization on the island known for its fundraising capability. During my tenure as President significant changes were made to the operations of the club. We raised a record amount of money and contributed over $55,000.00 to a record number of nonprofit groups (26).

NATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION (NSDAR), OCTOBER 2012 – PRESENT

MARIANA ISLANDS CHAPTER

CHARTER MEMBER, REGISTRAR

Non-profit, women's organization for the descendants of individuals who aided in achieving American independence. Engaged in historic preservation, genealogy, education and patriotism. As one of the most inclusive genealogical societies in the country, DAR boasts 170,000 members in 3,000 chapters across the United States and internationally. Any woman 18 years or older-regardless of race, religion, or ethnic background-who can prove lineal descent from a patriot of the American Revolution, is eligible for membership. The Guam Chapter was chartered in April of 2012.

Re: Testimony in support of Ms. Leon Guerrero's appointment to serve as the Director of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency

Dear Chairwoman Marsh (Taitano) and Members of the Committee:

Håfa adai! I am pleased to submit testimony in support of Ms. Jillette Leon Guerrero's nomination to serve as the Director for the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency.

Ms. Leon Guerrero has an impressive resume that details her experience as a writer, researcher, businesswoman and executive for many reputable nonprofit organizations. I first met Jillette when she was the Executive Director of the Guam Humanities Council in the 1990s. But I got to know her better when she was a CAHA grant recipient for her media and publication projects "Across the Water in time – a genealogical journal" and "Guam through Our Eyes: Stories celebrating a Sense of Place". Through my interaction with Jillette, I found her to be meticulous, willing to share her knowledge with others and committed to seeing those projects to fruition which I found to be commendable. Both were successful projects that the Council takes pride in having supported.

Today, Jillette is on the opposite of the table and instead of receiving funding support from CAHA, she has been appointed to be the agency's director. Since her appointment over a month ago, I can attest that she has hit the ground running meeting the challenges faced by our agency head on. She's shared with the staff what she would like to accomplish during her tenure at CAHA. This is especially challenging in light of our current economic situation and the unprecedented changes in our lives resulting from the pandemic. Jillette is passionate and driven and I am confident that under her leadership we will be able to secure a permanent home and better the services provided by CAHA.

Based on her experience and the wealth of information she possesses I fully support the consideration and nomination of Ms. Leon Guerrero as the Director of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency. I believe she can bring CAHA and the arts to the forefront of our community and improve the quality of life for the people of Guam.

Si Yu'os Ma'ase for the opportunity to provide testimony.

Respectfully,

Jackie Balbas

SUBJECT: SUPPORT FOR JILLETTE LEON GUERRERO FOR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF CAHA

I am pleased to learn of Jillette Leon Guerrero's nomination for the position of Executive Director of CAHA. She is unquestionably qualified for this position. I have worked with her professionally for more than 30 years, since I first served as a member of the board of directors for the Guam Humanities Council when she was Executive Director. Jillette was very conscientious about consulting with her directors and involving each of us in particular activities according to our skills. Through fundraising activities and discussions for evaluating grant project applications submitted to us, she exhibited the best of what we all wish to find in an executive director. Her creativity in planning activities furthered the mission of the Humanities Council. Through her administration, the Guam Humanities Council was well-known and respected at the National Endowment for the Humanities level, where she built lasting networks. Projects generated and community partnerships formed set standards for other arts and humanities organizations to follow. We at CAHA are very fortunate to have her expertise and leadership.

Jillette's thorough attention to detail and impeccable execution is a characteristic for which she is known in every project she undertakes. She visualizes her goal, and then sets out to achieve it with professional expertise in research, writing, promoting, fundraising and publishing/producing. In her personal and professional life, Jillette has supported art and artists in a wide range of media. I look forward to working with Jillette Leon Guerrero as Executive Director of CAHA.

Sincerely,

Judy Flores

Hafa Adai Senator Marsh,

Thank you for allowing us the opportunity to submit our letter of support for Jillette Leon Guerrero as Director for the Guam Council of the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA).

Jillette Leon Guerrero has been an advocate of Historic Preservation through her involvement with organizations and projects that support our mission at the Guam Preservation Trust. Through a grant from the Guam Preservation Trust, Jillette was able to publish her work on genealogy as it relate to Guam's people in history. Her past involvement with Humanities Guåhan opened the door to history and technology through Guampedia, an online peer reviewed encyclopedia of Guam's history. Jillette possesses the knowledge and skills to manage federal programs as she managed Humanities Guåhan many years ago.

Thank you again for this opportunity to submit this testimony in favor of Jillette Leon Guerrero's appointment as the director of Guam CAHA.

Si Yu'os Ma'åse,

JOE QUINATA

Chief Program Officer

TESTIMONY: For the appointment of Jillette Leon Guerrero as the Director of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities

Dearest Senators,

A valiant person in Guam's community who has proven her dedication and promise to our people through culture, research, and philanthropy is none other than Jillette Leon Guerrero. If you do not know her by now, then you are greatly passing the opportunity of being inspired.

I recently read an article in the Guam Daily Post, with a senator questioning the nomination of Ms. Jillette Leon Guerrero and her qualifications to the position of CAHA. I was completely shocked by the lack of research and how articles, now-a-days, have shifted away from fact finding measures and would rather elude to misguided notions in order to stir up public rhetoric, specifically during this stressful time such as this pandemic – Covid 19. If the article would have gathered the necessary information to answer the Senator's questions, it would have provided the following.

First of all the Guam Council of Arts and Humanities has been preserving our history and encouraging the arts since 1967. It is a Government of Guam public corporation having the ability to receive federal, local and public assistance to build the development pot, which then distributes funding and resources to the community. In 2018, around $130,000.00 were given to individuals and other non-profit groups who then shared their projects to the island. CAHA is an outlet for marketing our small business and non-profit art community. It would be wrong to not include this demographic as one of Guam's economic staples. The growth of this corporation is necessary as we are now witnessing our young generation hungry for past reflections of what was and understanding their sense of place. It is a feeder to the Hafa Adai Pledge and an enhancement to the "Buy Local" movement. IF we do not continue to encourage and promote our heritage, then we are lost as a people.

It was smart for Governor Lou Leon Guerrero to asked Ms. Jillette to take the helm of this corp. Although their last names are shared, in no way has the Governor nominated her, according to public nonsense claims, because of familial relations. I have witnesses past incidents of Ms. Lou Leon Guerrero turning down promotional sponsorship for Jillette's work specifically her book "Seeing Guam Through Our Eyes," which became one of Jillette's top selling publications and still today is highly requested. The Governor at that time was seated as the Bank of Guam's director and played a tough card, as she should. She later became a believer of Jillette's works.

Jillette Leon Guerrero has an extensive background in research, genealogy, publications, marketing, non-profit start up, Guam history, business, philanthropy and more. She is my mentor and at a time when I was just new in the business world on Guam, she took me under her wing and till this day encourages my growth as a business women. She is brilliant, a giver, hardworking, passionate, innovative and most importantly honest. She does what is right at all times, she understands formalities, and is driven on procedures and researches everything and when she does not know something, she researches again till she does.

Jillette's accolades should not go unnoticed. She was the founding member of the Guam Humanities Council Board and later served as the Guam Humanities Council Director which under her leadership provided Guam's most resourced site – Guampedia. Her nonprofit repertoire is extensive and in each, she has made her mark to remember.

Recently, Jillette is proving another great feat by pursuing, yet another Masters Degree, this time in her long awaited Genealogy, Paleographic and Herald Studies. She is gifted and our island truly needs her.

She is well deserving of this nomination. You would be a fool to not agree.

Si Yu'os Ma'ase,

Carina R. Fejerang

Guam, May 30, 2020

Dear Hon. Senator Marsh Taitano,

I would like to convey my written testimony endorsing the nomination of Jillette León Guerrero as Director of the Guam Council of the Arts and Humanities Council (CAHA).

Her nomination is good news for those of us involved in the multiple disciplines under the Humanities and the Arts. Ms. León Guerrero has the perfect balance between the cultural understanding of Guam's multi-ethnic and multi-cultural realities, along with a deep understanding of the indigenous cultures of Guam, the Mariana Islands, and Micronesia at large.

Ms. León Guerrero has been devoting more than two decades of her life to the advancement of these fields. Based on my professional experience working with her, I am positive that she will be a great asset at CAHA. She can carry on the great work that office has been conducting, her generosity in devoting her time to this often complicated but always rewarding endeavor, is always inspiring to the rest of us to continue our own work following her push for excellence.

I would like to respectfully ask you to take this testimony into positive consideration.

Sincerely Yours,

Hafa Adai,

I am testifying in favor of Ms. Jillette T. Leon Guerrero's appointment as the director of Guam's Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency.

Ms. Leon Guerrero and I have been affiliated since our college years in the late 1970s. We worked as editors together at the Pacific Daily News, and from then on in various arts and humanities projects over than past 40 years. We have also become good friends as you can expect!

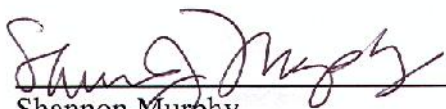

In 2002 Ms. Leon Guerrero sought me out to start up an online encyclopedia for Guam with funding from the National Endowment for the Humanities. She was the executive director of the Guam Humanities Council at that time.

From this collaboration came Guampedia.com, a project I first led and am still affiliated with 18 years later. Though we left the Council once Guampedia was launched and became our own non profit organization, Ms. Leon Guerrero has continued to contribute by writing and editing many historic entries for Guampedia. Every thing she does is of high quality and exceeds expectations.

Ms. Leon Guerrero has proven herself to be a capable leader with vision who can get things done. I assure you that she is the right person for this job and commend Governor Lou Leon Guerrero and Lt. Gov. Josh Tenorio for convincing her to take this job.

There is much to be done at the Guam Council of the Arts and Humanities Agency and Ms. Leon Guerrero is a great choice for the job. I urge you to confirm her for this important position.

Sincerely,

Shannon Murphy

Hågatña, Guam 96910

Dear Senator Marsh:

I am providing written testimony to fully support the confirmation of Jillette Leon-Guerrero as the Executive Director (ED) of Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA). I have known Jillette professionally for fifteen years and believe she will be a very effective leader during this important time for the agency.

Jillette has been actively engaged in arts and culture for most of her professional career, often in leadership positions. She successfully served as the ED of Guam Humanities Council (now dba Humanities Guåhan) for eight years during which time she established important programs, such as Motherread/Fatheread Family Literacy and Guampedia, which later incorporated as its own nonprofit organization affiliated with the University of Guam Micronesia Area Research Center.

In 2005 as the outgoing ED of Humanities Guåhan, Jillette provided me, as the new ED, an informative 2-week orientation of the organization that proved very helpful in the initial years of my tenure. She has also continued to be involved with our organization as a grant recipient and participant in many of our other programs.

Jillette also lead or worked in other Pacific-based organizations and institutions. In 1997, she was the ED of the Consortium for Pacific Arts and Culture in Honolulu, Hawai'i. From 1988-1992, Jillette worked at the South Pacific Commission (now the Secretariat for the Pacific Community) and then the UN Development Programme in communications.

Currently, Jillette runs a successful business, Guamology, Inc., committed to providing Guam and the broader community with information and resources about the island's history, culture and people. She also continues her work as a freelance writer and researcher, and consultant for nonprofit and government organizational development.

In terms of her civic work, Jillette served on the Board of Regents, University of Guam for seven years, 2012-2019, where she chaired the Academic Promotion and Tenure Committee. She was also a board member for the Research Cooperation of the University of Guam from 2017-2019. For several years, Jillette has also been a member of the Guam Women's Club, where she held several positions, and is a Charter Member and Registrar of the Mariana Islands, National Society of the Daughters of the Revolution.

Given her professional background and experience, along with her important civic work for the Guam community, I highly recommend that the 35th Guam Legislature confirm Jillette Leon-Guerrero for the CAHA Executive Director position. As the ED of a close partner organization, I look forward to working with Jillette on various arts and culture, as well as humanities-based projects for our island community.

Thank you for your consideration.

With best regards,

Transcription of Hearing (block formatted)

The Virtual Public Hearing was called to order at 5:45 pm.

June 2, 2020, virtual public hearing “Call to Order” beginning with Mr. Joseph D. Certeza’s confirmation hearing as a member to the Board of Directors, Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities segued to Jillette T. Leon Guerrero, Director Nominee, Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PHD., CHAIR: Hafa adai todus hamyo, thank you for your participation in today’s virtual public hearing. This virtual public hearing is convened by the Committee on Heritage and the Arts, Parks, Guam Products, Hagåtña Revitalization, Self Determination, and Regional Affairs. For the record in accordance with the Open Government Law, public hearing notices were given to all Senators, stakeholders, and leading media broadcasting outlets with the first notice being distributed on Tuesday, May 26, 2020, and the second notice distributed on Sunday, May 31st, 2020.

The virtual public hearing notice is also posted on the Legislature’s website at www.guamlegislature.org. Today is Tuesday, June 2nd, 2020, and the time, and we got a bit of a late start the time is 5:45 pm. This virtual confirmation hearing is now called to order. Si Yu’os ma’åse’ for your virtual attendance to this afternoon’s hearing.

On the agenda for this afternoon or early evening’s virtual confirmation hearing, are the appointment of Joseph D. Certeza to serve as a Member of the Board of Directors, Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities; the appointment of Jillette Leon Guerrero to serve as the Director of the Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities; and third, the appointment of Monica Giger to serve as the “Youth Member” on the Department of Parks and Recreation Commission.

The Committee will receive oral testimony for I Maga’håga’s nominees. It will continue to accept written testimony from the general public, which will be made part of today’s public hearing record. So right now, we are fortunate to have the Minority Leader Senator Telo Taitague. Si Yu'os Ma'åse' for your attendance. There may be a couple of other Senators that will be joining us later on.

So next, we'll go to introducing Mr. Joseph D. Certeza, the CAHA Board nominee. We have Ms. Jillette Leon Guerrero, the CAHA Acting Director, who is nominated to be full Director, as well as Monica Giger, the DPR Commission Nominee. We have the Department of Parks and Recreation Acting Director, Mr. John Burch, and we also have two of my Committee staff members; Mr. Roland Villaverde and Mr. Victor Lujan.

Thank you so much all of you for joining me. Now before we receive and hear oral testimonies from each nominee listed on our virtual public hearing agenda, I'd first like to provide some general rules of conduct for all those who are participating and in attendance. The conduct of this hearing shall be as follows:

- All participants must abide by rules of conduct and quality assurance standards, including broadcasting from a quiet room with little to no interruptions.
- The use of virtual backgrounds is not permitted.
- Broadcasting from a room with adequate lighting, specifically to ensure that a participant's face is not backlit but visible at all times.
- Please ensure that you are unmuted and that you are speaking clearly into your microphone when it is your time to speak.
- I will invite a nominee in the order listed on the agenda and then recognize individuals who have signed up to testify for the nominee.
- Individuals providing oral testimony shall first be recognized by the chair before speaking and shall state their name and title for record-keeping purposes.
- The order of questioning will begin with the panel of Senators who shall complete their line of questioning for each nominee. It may just be the minority leader and me, so we will just go back and forth and take turns.
- Each panel member will be allowed to pose one question to the nominee and then be provided another round to ask questions, should that be necessary for the nominee or the testifying panel.
- Oral testimonies received shall be confined to the substance or the character of the nominee. Discussion of motives of any Senator or individual testifying is not permitted. Any violation of this rule of conduct will result in removal from the virtual meeting room by the host.
- I ask that all participants keep their comments or testimony to within 5 minutes.

So with that being done, hafa adai! The work of a Board or a Commission Member involves much volunteer time and commitment and provides an important link between the public, the agency, the Legislature, and the Governor. Each Board is unique in its purpose, mission, and role. It is especially important that Members must be familiar with their Boards' governing statutes, or other authorizing directives so that they understand the framework within which the Board and the entity, the agency, or such itself must operate. With that being said, I'd like to call upon Joseph D. Certeza to provide his testimony to serve as a Member of the Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities Agency, AKA CAHA, and then receive testimony from individuals who are confirmed to participate in his nomination.

I'd first like to acknowledge before we start with Mr. Certeza, the Acting Director of CAHA, Jillette Leon Guerrero, who is participating in this virtual hearing and to find out if she will be providing oral testimony after Mr. Certeza is done. So Acting Director if you could unmute yourself and then let us know if you'll be providing oral testimony.

End of segue leading in to Jillette T. Leon Guerrero, Director Nominee, Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities confirmation hearing.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PHD., CHAIR: The next confirmation hearing and this will be a nice situation where I believe Mr. Certeza is going to give oral testimony for the Acting Director as well. We will be hearing from Mr. Certeza again. Let me begin the confirmation hearing of Jillette T. Leon Guerrero, I Maga'hågan Guåhan's nominee, to fill the position of Director to the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities.

We will first hear from Ms. Jillette T. Leon Guerrero and receive testimony from the others who have confirmed their participation in her confirmation hearing. After Jillette Leon Guerrero is done, as I mentioned, we'll be calling on Mr. Joseph Certeza. With that, I'll go ahead and call Jillette Leon Guerrero to go ahead and start with your name for the public record, your current position, and then you can provide your oral testimony.

JILLETTE T. LEON GUERRERO, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS & HUMANITIES AGENCY, DIRECTOR NOMINEE: Thank you, Madam Chair. My name is Jillette T. Leon Guerrero. I'm the Acting Director of CAHA, and I must say I'm honored to be here today and excited at the prospect of working with you and your Committee, the talented staff and Board of CAHA and the Guam community of artists to promote the Arts and Humanities on Guam.

A little bit about myself. My past experience includes being the Executive Director of several nonprofit organizations, including the American Red Cross during typhoon Paka, The Consortium for Pacific arts and cultures in Honolulu and Guam Humanities Council. Of these, the most relevant to CAHA is the Guam Humanities Council. I served as Executive Director between 1993 and 1996 and again from 1999 to 2004. I was responsible for the day-to-day operations, which included overseeing a Federal grant program, supervising personnel, federal reporting to the National Endowment for the Humanities, overseeing the production of mature marketing material, carrying out fundraising activities, grant writing and organizing council projects. Duties also included maintaining cooperative relationships with Local Regional and National Arts and Humanities organizations. I was the second Executive Director of the council. When I started, it was only the grant program. I expanded the programming to include a resource center, several projects, and fundraising activities. I stepped down in 1996 when we moved off-Island temporarily.

In 1999, I was asked to come back to rebuild the council because it had lost its federal funding due to criminal activity. I started again with only a computer in my home office. I was able to restore fiscal credibility, and within a month, the council received a clean bill of health from federal funding agencies and independent auditors. Annual audits revealed no findings under my leadership. The council income increased from a negative balance to an annual budget of over half a million dollars during my tenure. The council was able to restore community programming and established five anchor programs. Of these, I am most proud of the mother-read, father-read, family literacy program, and Guampedia, the online encyclopedia. Both of which continue to operate today.

I've also served as a Member of several Boards of Directors, including being a Charter Member of the Guam Humanities Council, a Charter Member of Guampedia, the Vice-Chair of the University of Guam Board of Regents and chair of the Academic Promotion and Tenure Committee. I've been a Member of the research corporation at the University of Guam, President and Historian of the Guam Women's Club and Registrar of the Marianas Island chapter of NSDAR.

My experiences with these organizations have prepared me for this position—my knowledge of nonprofit management and programming administration of federal grants related to the Arts and Humanities. My familiarity with the arts and humanities community and my work on various Boards of Directors. In my decisions, as I move forward; and, I won't bore you with further details of my qualifications, you have my resume. What I do want to tell you is that I bring a lifelong passion for the Arts and Humanities. It is evident in the work that I have accomplished.

My motivation comes from genuine love and belief that the arts and humanities enhance society.

While some see the arts is either decoration or recreation, the truth is the arts not only enhance our lives but give us opportunities to connect with others, it elevates us. It allows us to express ourselves and leave a legacy of our culture. After all, when you think about societies that have long gone, it is through their art, music, dance, architecture, sculpture, literature, the language that we learn about them. Sometimes, their art is all that remains.

The Arts and Humanities is the vehicle through which we express all those things that make us human. They influence society by changing opinions, instilling values, and translating experiences across time and space. Research has shown that art affects the fundamental sense of self. Painting, sculpture, music dance, literature, and other forms are often thought of as the repository of a society's collective memory. They give meaning, and they affect our emotions.

Think about the last time you witnessed a beautiful dance, watched an inspiring film, listened to beautiful music, or created something yourself. Remember the emotion. I remember how I felt when I witnessed various presentations at the Guam Festival of Pacific Arts. I remember some presentations made me feel very proud and happy, while others elicited sadness. I was moved to tears sometimes and inspired by others. It was fantastic.

Because of this ability to affect our emotions and well-being, art and the humanities are often used by therapists, counselors, teachers, social workers, and others to work with children at risk. It is by prisoners, the elderly, immigrants, and those who need help with connecting to others all who need help with self-expression, self-confidence, anger, and a number of other issues.

Please bear with me while I read an excerpt from an article entitled "Art in the Time of Crisis," by Louis Netter, a senior lecturer in illustration at the University of Portsmouth who talks about our current situation. I think it's important, and he says quote, "people have died critical resources are stretched." The very essence of our freedom is shrinking, and yet we are moved inward to the vast inner space of our thoughts and imagination. A place we have neglected of all the necessities we now feel so keenly aware of. The arts and their contribution to our well-being are evident and, in some ways, central to coronavirus confinement for those locked in a home. For some, there are more pressing needs. But momentary joys even in dire circumstances often come through the arts and collective expression.

Now I'm going to get into the other stuff. What is my vision for CAHA? When I was offered this opportunity, I thought deeply about what it was that I would like to accomplish. What I envisioned was an organization that really represented the best of the Arts and Humanities in Guam. And, an organization that was a leader, collaborator, promoter, and facilitator of the Arts and Humanities program. An organization that brings together all the stakeholders of the Arts and Humanities, individuals, informal groups, businesses, and organizations.

When someone wants to know about the Arts and Humanities in Guam, I want CAHA to be the place they turn to. What does this mean in practical terms? Well, I believe in building a strong foundation. The first step then is assessing and evaluating the organization and its operations. Board and staff are instrumental in achieving this through strategic planning, which will not only result in the collective vision of stakeholders but identify resources needed to accomplish the goals set. And we've started this.

The staff will be completing their work plans as they relate to the strategic plan. The next step is to hold planning sessions with the Board and other stakeholders to flush out the plan so that it will be ready for our 3-year grant application to NEH, which is actually due by the end of September. And in tandem with this, we have created a survey of Guam artists that includes questions regarding their internet capabilities, their practice, and their suggestions for programs and assistance from CAHA. This will inform us of areas that we need to focus on that will be most relevant to the community.

We are currently revising our grant program to include special calls for proposals. Something that I've told has never been done. We are currently finalizing three grant lines for the upcoming grant cycle. In addition to the Cares Act Funding for organizations, and if I can just tell you a little bit about them. The first one is called Arts and Humanities in the time of Crisis. Literature and arts have always held a prominent place in helping to define who we are as human beings and enriching our lives. This is all more apparent during moments of crisis like the COVID-19 pandemic. CAHA is soliciting projects from individuals and groups that consider the role and value of their practice during times of crisis. Also accepted will be projects that provide interpretation and speak to the importance of the role and value the Arts and Humanities contribute to society during challenging times.

The second grant line would be called "Keeping Your Distance." Exhibitions, showcases, concerts, recitals, book readings, and poetry slams all require an audience. How do artists present their work to the community while keeping a safe distance? CAHA is soliciting projects from individuals and groups who will utilize technology such as Internet streaming, podcast, broadcast mediums, and other vehicles to bring the product of their practice to the community while keeping their distance. Artists will be encouraged to find creative solutions to this situation, which I think will be exciting.

The last one is sustainability. With resources stretched to the limit, how can artists make their practice more sustainable? CAHA is soliciting projects that make use of recycled, reused material and or natural resources found in Guam. This grant line is also open to projects that use or discuss the theme of sustainability in their art form.

We have received Cares Act Emergency Funding, and this is going to be available to organizations. NEH has awarded CAHA a hundred and sixty-four thousand and four hundred dollars in emergency funding. A hundred and fourteen thousand four hundred is available to organizations for personnel and operational costs through a special grant. We are working on developing this grant line and are seeking grant management software paid with NEH funds to facilitate this process. Not only will this save paper and make the grant-making process more efficient, but it will also do away with several menial tasks that the small staff currently have to undertake when processing applications.

In addition to this, we are updating our operations in line with sustainability and in-light of our current reality. We are investigating ways to connect, display, and interact with our public through technology. We're going to update the CAHA website to make it more useful, and interactive plans are to include online exhibit space for artists, an artist blog, a podcast section, and updated artists directory and many other resources for the artists and the public.

We would like to establish a CAHA podcast and our YouTube channel for artists to upload demonstrations and how-to videos, presentations, and discussions about their practice. And this will also provide them with more exposure that they might not be able to get otherwise. I'd like to look into the feasibility of crowdsourcing online to gain support for projects and raise funds that way.

To further promote the Arts and Humanities on Guam, we're also looking at establishing collaborations with broadcast media such as public television and KPRG to bring weekly CAHA programming to the general public. This will allow us to provide more exposure for local artists. We hope to establish this through a special grant initially, but eventually make it sustainable through advertising and sponsorships. And of course, we have many other ideas that you've heard Joey. We have a good team. I think that increasing the public's accessibility to the Arts is going to be something that we're going to be able to accomplish because we have a cadre of creative minds at our disposal.

One of our long-range priorities is to have a permanent home for CAHA. What I envision is a civic center type of place that is not only the administrative home to CAHA, but the Center for the Arts and creativity. Small studios for artists, to demonstrate and teach their art and or craft. A performing arts stage that doubles as a conference lecture area and visual arts exhibition space and a cultural display area and shops for the artist to sell their work.

I'm a dreamer, but I truly believe that it is possible. And we do have more immediate needs. CAHA needs stable office space. I was told by one staff member recently that CAHA has moved locations over ten times during her tenure. At present, CAHA is without adequate office space. We hope to be able to lease a place of our own in the near future. We're waiting for the process to find out, but we're continuing to have to work at home. But to accomplish all of the things that I've laid out here, the one thing that we need is stability.

On Friday, we lost our administrative officer who has been with the council for over 20 years, and we are feverishly trying to get her replaced. The one I do have, while I have administrative and programming experience, I do not have familiarity with the government processes. This is proving to be a challenge.

The bottom line is I think that this is all possible. It will take effort, collaboration, vision, and adequate resources. If we have these elements, there is no way that we cannot succeed at elevating the well-being of our artists and our residents, and that is what it's all about.

Thank you for your time, and I welcome your questions.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PHD., CHAIR: Si Yu'os Ma'åse Acting Director. I'm quite inspired, and I'm quite excited about all that you've mentioned. The minority leader does need to dash off to another meeting if I could let her comment before she goes.

SENATOR TELO T. TAITAGUE: Thank you so much, Madam Chair. I really appreciate it. I am so sorry. I have to speed off to another one. But like I said to Joey, Jillette T., I've known you for years, and just listening to your testimony, I'm excited. I'm excited for you. It's almost overwhelming everything that you mentioned. I wish you luck. You know, you've always had my support. We've known each other for many years longer than Joey. Good luck to you. And fundraising, I know you're the woman to do it. To get your home a stable place, a foundation for CAHA to be for the rest of their time.

Monica, I am so sorry I can't be here for you, but you had me as a surfer girl. I'm a former Surfer as well, you know, and when I saw that you were a surfer, I'm just like oh, that's my girl. And I'm sure you're going to do a great job. Good luck to you, Monica, and thank you again, Madam Chair, for the opportunity, and you all have my support. Thank you again.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PHD., CHAIR: Si Yu'os Ma'åse minority leader for taking the time to come here. I know it's been a long day, and you have some more to attend to but thank you for stopping in. Next, I will hear from Senator Joe San Agustin.

SENATOR JOE S. SAN AGUSTIN, COMMITTEE MEMBER: Thank you, Madam Chair. Ms. Leon Guerrero. I look forward to hearing from you and seeing your budget.

JILLETTE T. LEON GUERRERO, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS & HUMANITIES AGENCY, DIRECTOR NOMINEE: Something happened. Hello?

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PHD., CHAIR: All that waiting, and I think he froze up. But we might have maybe Victor to tell him that he's frozen and to try maybe to log out and re-login. While he's fixing that, I'll go ahead and go through a few things myself. With your appointment, part of the responsibility and you're right on track, is increasing efficiency while carrying out the duties; and, certainly, with all that you've mentioned. It's phenomenal to think about all of that restructuring. Those work plans and the many visions that you've had, where you have already put in, your very short time so many things are in place. I was also very excited to hear about the survey that you've got. That's such an important way to hear from those that you're serving and to hear from the artists themselves.

And part of one stuck out to me in going through some of the testimony which I'll go through is it reminded me of the humanities part of the Council of Arts and Humanities. I think for a whole lot of us we've been really appreciative of the Arts, and maybe it's our public part where we haven't always remembered that the humanities are part of what it provides; and, so in the testimony, some of that came out as part of your background. If we haven't picked up on it, I think that there will be plenty of opportunities for us to be picking up on more of that.

Some of what I know, and I must say that your nomination packet is one of the thickest that I've come across. There have been many positions as you've mentioned that you've had over the years and very successfully. But one of them that I know because I've known you for a while and I've done other projects with you, is your early work at the university where you worked with the Archaeology Lab. You worked with the Archaeology Lab, and then one of the testimonies that we have is from Joe Quinata. He is the Chief Program Officer for the Guam Preservation Trust. He pointed out that you have, for many years, been a very large supporter of historic preservation.

I think for a lot of people, they wouldn't necessarily make that connection between having a background in archeology and being supportive historic preservation. I'm not sure if Senator Joe is coming back in, but maybe you could spend a few minutes of connecting those dots for us. I know that Joey gets it because I see that influence in his art, but could you explain to us how it is connected for you, and how it feeds into the humanities and arts?

JILLETTE T. LEON GUERRERO, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS & HUMANITIES AGENCY, DIRECTOR NOMINEE: Historic preservation and the arts? You are breaking up; I did not quite get that.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PHD., CHAIR: Oh, how historic preservation and archaeology; how they feed into what something like CAHA provides in arts and humanities.

JILLETTE T. LEON GUERRERO, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS & HUMANITIES AGENCY, DIRECTOR NOMINEE: Like I said earlier, it's through the arts that we're able to project a lot of things. For instance, in archaeology and historic preservation are sort of, I guess you could say, but how do we bring that to the public? How do we bring that information to the public? And it's through the arts. The arts is the vehicle through which we convey many of that type of information—also culture in itself. I mean, think about Festpac. I keep going back to Festpac. When you look at that, you see remnants of our past, and it gives people their sense of identity and connectedness. It is very important to the well-being of people and is what brings us all together. I guess that's what I would say.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PHD., CHAIR: Very good. We do have Senator Joe San Agustin back in. Senator Joe if you'd like to ask a question or make a comment.

SENATOR JOE S. SAN AGUSTIN, COMMITTEE MEMBER: Real simple Ms. Leon Guerrero. You know, I looked at your background. I look forward to seeing you at the budget hearing. I will support your nomination. There's no doubt about that. I liked the part there in 2003. You got a certificate for fundraising. I like that part, and I like what you talked about grants. Because you know, number one, the government doesn't have a lot of money, but there are means to get funding to help CAHA, and I wish everybody all the other directors would do the same thing, but that's asking too much I guess. But for CAHA and I like how Mr. Certeza laughs, but I know Mr. Burch is going to be catching that real soon. But if there's a way to do it and you have the will to do it, you can get it done. You have proven it. Your background states a lot for that and kudos to you.

I look forward to supporting you on the floor when your name comes up. I'm definitely going to call you. I'm going to be calling you soon for the budget. I would hope that if it's not Joe Certeza, it'll be somebody that deals in money. Whoever it is; and, then we start talking about the ways for you to get money other than grants. You got QC's out there. There is, I think, is in the works where Public Works is supposed to be providing you; for whenever anybody's building things. There are ways for you to be funded, and we got to get you funded, and CAHA needs their own building and promotes the culture, and then we'll be on our way. All right. take Care.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PHD., CHAIR: Yes, and I heartedly agree that you know CAHA deserves to have a permanent home. They have so much to offer the community and having that space where the community can come in. There can be workshops and programming and exhibits and a lot of interactivity happening there that needs space, and it makes a lot of sense to me that it's a permanent space something that people readily recognized, and they know where to find it. It just continues to serve our community for a long time period. It becomes an investment in everybody's future that way

With that, I'd also like just to mention that you have a background in genealogical research as well. And again, people might not always get the connection, but I think there are so many ways that research like that really serves the community on both the art and the humanities level. I know that you made a film. So again you mentioned that being the vehicle to get that information to people. Then what you found out was information that humanity's level of connecting families across the waters. And in that case, you actually found somebody, real family when you were in that process. It's just a wide breadth of an experience that you bring from fundraising. Senator Joe is so pleased with and all the rest of us, of course, knowing how to put structure into place; at how to get those work plans into place, how to get things going so that there is real forward movement in what the council is providing and how it is serving the community; and, that the community learns the many ways that it can be appreciating the Arts and Humanities. The ways that it benefits all of us in our health and well-being.

Just real quickly. I'll just pull out a few highlights from some of the testimony. Dr. Judy Flores, she also wrote testimony, and she said you are unquestionably qualified. That your creativity and planning activities are just outstanding and that through your administration, of the Guam Humanities Council was well-known and respected at the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Then she also mentioned your attention to detail, and impeccable execution is characteristic for which you are known in every project that you undertake. Very high praise indeed. And then this is from Ms. Jackie Balbas, who I mentioned before has been with the Council for I believe about 30 years. She definitely knows the ins and outs of what she is speaking to.

She mentions that you have an impressive resume and that based on your experience and wealth of information that she fully supports the consideration and nomination of Ms. Leon Guerrero as the Director of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities. She believes that you can bring CAHA and the arts to the forefront of our community and improve the quality of life for the people of Guam. As she goes on at other paragraphs, but for consideration of time, it will be part of the permanent record for anybody who wants to read further. Mr. Joseph Quinata, who I mentioned who is the Chief Program Officer of the Guam Preservation Trust. He does mention that you've been an advocate for historic preservation through your involvement in the organization, in the projects, and other work that you do.

Jillette T. possesses the knowledge and the skills to manage Federal programs, which is no small thing really and has managed very successfully, the Humanities Guahan as it's known today those years ago.

Dr. Carlos Madrid, who is the Director of Research at the Micronesian Area Research Center for the University of Guam. He is supporting your nomination. He mentions that you have been involved in multiple disciplines under the Humanities and the Arts. You're going to bring the perfect balance between the cultural understanding of Guam's multi-ethnic and multicultural realities, along with the deep understanding of the indigenous cultures of Guam, the Mariana Islands, and Micronesia at large. He ends it was saying that you are always inspiring to the rest of us to continue our work and push for excellence.

I believe the final testimony that I have here to pull excerpts from, is from Ms. Karina Fejerang and she starts it off by saying you are a valiant person in the community who has proven her dedication and promise to our people through culture, research and philanthropy and she points out several other things. Agreeing with you in that if we do not continue to encourage and promote our heritage, then we are lost as a people, and so it is a great responsibility. Still, it also comes with great rewards for everybody that we all benefit from living in a place that understands its history, its arts, culture, and its people; and, has respect for that.

She said it was smart for Governor Lou Leon Guerrero to ask Jillette to take the helm of this Corporation, and she mentions one of your publications seeing ‘Guam Through Our Eyes,’ which is an excellent model of what humanities can bring to the community. That was a book where I believe you got multiple perspectives from various parts of the community and shared them. And then she mentions that Jillette’s accolade should not go unnoticed. She was a founding member of the Guam Humanities Council Board. She later served as the Guam Humanities Council, Director, as you mentioned; and, that Guampedia breathed itself into existence. Those are my words there, but breath itself into existence under your leadership, but she notes that as well. With that, we’ve already heard from the panel.

Senator Joe, was there anything else you wanted to mention before we close out this nomination hearing? Okay, so I think he’s good. He got his fiscal responsibility comments in, so I think he’s good.

JILLETTE T. LEON GUERRERO, GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS & HUMANITIES AGENCY, DIRECTOR NOMINEE: Yes.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PHD., CHAIR: What we will do is we’ve completed the last round of questions from the Committee and the panel. That will conclude our confirmation hearing for Ms. Jillette T. Leon Guerrero to serve as the Director of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities, Board of Directors. I do want to make one final point. I meant to mention is that part of what we have in your nomination packet. The Board has already gone through the process of approving you or adopting you into their fold. They have certified this by resolution. They have sent that resolution over. We have it as part of the nomination. For you, it’s a two-step process. It goes through the Board, and then it goes to the Legislature. We know that the Board is comprised of really substantive and very thoughtful board members, and so we take it to heart this approval from them and the support from them by resolution. With that, I will note that the time is 6:50 pm. This ends this confirmation hearing for Ms. Jillette Leon Guerrero.

Si Yu’os Ma’åse for your participation, and we understand if you either choose to stay or if you are going to be moving on will be moving into our next confirmation hearing next. Have a good evening if you stay or go either way. I hope it’s a good evening.

June 2, 2020, virtual public hearing ‘Adjournment’ segue after the completion of Monica Giger’s confirmation hearing.

SENATOR KELLY MARSH (TAITANO) PHD., COMMITTEE CHAIR: Great, that’s very good to hear, and Ms. Giger and I had talked about that a little bit that we will get your confirmation packet to all, through all the processes as quickly as possible. But even if you are not confirmed until next month as it works its way through the processes, we certainly want you to be a part of the Board meeting so that you’re well-versed, you’re meeting everybody, and you’re part of the activity from the get-go. So, let’s see... Was there anything else that anybody wanted to provide us a comment? I think probably pretty good.

So, we’ve completed our questions and our comments from the Committee, the panel, and everybody else who was here on the confirmation hearing for Ms. Monica Giger to serve as the “Youth Member” to the Department of Parks and Recreation Commission Board of Directors. So what I will do is I will read our adjournment, and I will announce the time of this end.

We are ending that confirmation hearing of I Maga’håga’s nominee, Ms. Monica Giger, for the position for being a Commission Member of the Department of Parks and Recreation. The time is now 7:10 pm, and I just will go through some closing adjournment business.

So, a public reminder, the Committee will continue to receive written testimonies for the next few days. Please address your written testimony to the Committee on Heritage and the Arts, Parks, Guam Products, Hagåtña Revitalization, Self-Determination, and Regional Affairs and submitted via email to office.senatorKelly@guamlegislature.org or to my office located at the second floor of the Guam Congress Building and that applies to any of the three confirmation hearings that we heard today for a Mr. Joseph D. Certeza, for Ms. Jillette Leon Guerrero or Ms. Monica Giger. Si Yu’os ma’åse’ for your attendance and participation in today’s virtual confirmation public hearing. Today’s hearing is now adjourned. Si Yu’os ma’åse’ for your attendance and participation in the virtual confirmation hearing. Have a good evening, and thank you all for your patience in waiting to be the third in that round.

The Virtual Public Hearing was Adjourned at 7:10 PM.

III. FINDINGS & RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee on Heritage and the Arts, Parks, Guam Products, Hagåtña Revitalization, Self Determination, and Regional Affairs provides its findings on the confirmation of Jillette T. Leon Guerrero, for the position of Director, Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities.

- The applicant meets all legal requirements on her selection by the Guam Council of the Arts & Humanities, Board of Directors; and, further affirmed by I Maga'hågan Guåhan's nomination of the Board's pick to serve as the Director, Guam Council of the Arts & Humanities.
- The oral testimony received by the Committee supported the confirmation of Ms. Jillette T. Leon Guerrero. Mr. Joseph T. Certeza, a board member of the Guam Council of the Arts & Humanities, was the sole participant providing oral testimony.
- All written testimonies received by the Committee supported the nomination of Ms. Jillette Leon Guerrero. The written testimonies submitted were from:
 - Jacqueline Balbas, Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities Agency, former acting director;
 - Judy S. Flores, PhD., Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities Agency, Board Member;
 - Joe Quinata, Guam Preservation Trust, Chief Program Officer;
 - Carina R. Fejerang, resident and business owner;
 - Carlos Madrid, PhD., Micronesian Area Research Center, Director of Research;
 - Shannon Murphy, of Guampedia.com; and
 - Kimberlee Kihleng, PhD., Humanities Guåhan, Executive Director.
- There were no oral or written testimonies submitted that were in opposition to Ms. Jillette Leon Guerrero's appointment during the virtual confirmation hearing or prior to the submittal of this report to the Guam Legislature Committee on Rules.
- Ms. Jillette Leon Guerrero acknowledged the heavy responsibility and need to exercise integrity, transparency, extreme care, and review and balance with decisions that are made by the Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities.

The Committee on Heritage and the Arts, Parks, Guam Products, Hagåtña Revitalization, Self Determination, and Regional Affairs, hereby report on the appointment of Jillette T. Leon Guerrero to serve at the pleasure of the Governor as the 'Director' of the Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities Agency, with a recommendation 'TO DO CONFIRM.'
