Tsubaki Tower project nears completion

A sneak peek at the nearly finished Tsubaki Tower project on Friday revealed a luxury hotel that will offer new things for tourists and island residents to experience as soon as next month.

The hotel announced on its social media accounts it plans to open July 1, which is also the expected reopening date for Guam's tourism industry.

Finishing touches are under way at the luxury hotel, positioned and designed for its guests to spend vacations in rooms and amenities that offer one of the best views of Tumon Bay.

Some of its features include an outdoor cinema by the bay, a nighttime infinity pool that stays open close to midnight, a wedding chapel on the 27th floor, a pool bar by the sea, a gym, a 236-seat buffet featuring global cuisines, a fine-dining Italian restaurant and a 26th-floor club lounge for VIPs, among other amenities, according to the hotel's website.

The officers and board members of the Guam Chamber of Commerce were given a tour of the hotel on Friday.

The project was initially scheduled to open in April, but with COVID-19 and the continued lull in Guam's tourist arrivals, the hotel's website announced a target opening date of July 1.

The hotel will offer 340 rooms, including 62 suites. Its July rates range from about $400 a night to $586 for a junior suite.

The project is another development of PHR Ken Micronesia Inc., an operational company for the hotel holdings in Japan-based Ken Corp. Group.

From Spam to corned beef, sales of canned meat are booming

SPAM: Cans of CJ CheilJedang Spam ham sit on the production line at the company's factory in Jincheon, South Korea.

SeongJoon Cho/Bloomberg

(Bloomberg) - Canned meat is having a moment.

Demand is booming across the globe. In the U.S., sales surged more than 70% in the 15 weeks ended June 13. In the U.K., consumption of canned corned beef has taken off. Even in South Korea, where Spam is an old favorite, sales are expanding at the fastest pace in years.

At first, people were loading up on pantry staples with a long shelf life during lockdown conditions. Then, shortages of some fresh meat supplies, especially in the U.S., also helped to drive sales. Now, the economic downturn is underpinning demand.

There's the obvious factor of income here. With millions thrown out of work in the last few months, consumers are looking for a way to cut back on grocery bills, and they're trading in fresh meat for canned varieties. But there's also something deeper going on - a return to comfort food and nostalgia in troubled times.

Ray Herras, a graduate student at Columbia University, is a Filipino American. Spam gained popularity in the cuisines of Southeast Asia after occupying U.S. forces brought the canned ham with them. For Herras, Spam is a taste of childhood.

"I grew up eating Spam. It is deeply ingrained in Filipino culture, but I wasn't really eating Spam until quarantine," said Herras, who started adding it to his grocery purchases at least every other week. He's not sure how much longer he'll keep the buying up, but it's always a staple whenever he's "feeling homesick," he said.

Cult following

Canned meat has been available for more than 80 years. It's sometimes frowned upon by filet mignon-loving elites, but it's also got a cult following. Spam musubi - think of it like a porky twist on sushi - is a popular snack in Hawaii. In Korea, it's eaten with kimchi and steamed rice. In the U.S., a slice of fried Spam with eggs can be a breakfast treat. And in the U.K., tinned corned beef is served up as hash with potatoes and fried onions.

But while the die-hard fans are always there, the recent boom in sales is something even the canned meat makers didn't see coming.

"Even I thought it could be difficult to increase our sales of canned meat to more than what we expected," said Kasper Lenbroch, chief executive officer of the unit that houses the Tulip brand at Danish Crown Group, Europe's top meat processor. "It's not very often when you're in food that you can see traditional products like these grow as much as they have done right now."

Sales of Tulip Pork Luncheon Meat, sold in 120 markets around the world, are expected to go up 25% this year, Lenbroch said. Sales are "growing all over," including in the U.K., Germany, Greece, Japan and Singapore, among many others.

Marfrig Global Foods SA, the Brazilian beef giant, is seeing a similar jump at its Uruguay business, which supplies corned beef to the U.S. Sales of the product are expected to reach as high as 3,500 metric tons this year, said Marcelo Secco, CEO of the unit. That would be up almost double compared with 2019, when about 1,800 tons were sold, he said.

Secco points to the recent jump in U.S. meat prices as turning consumers on to canned alternatives. Some of America's biggest livestock slaughter plants were forced to close earlier this year after coronavirus outbreaks saw thousands of workers falling ill. That caused wholesale beef prices to double in about a month. While the market has come back down, corned beef was there to help fill supply gaps - and now that consumers have returned to the old staple, they may be more inclined to stick with it.

Coast360 receives Diamond Awards for marketing and business development

Coast360 Federal Credit Union was recently honored with six Diamond Awards, which recognize outstanding marketing and business development achievements in the credit union industry.

The awards were presented by the Credit Union National Association Marketing and Business Development Council, a national network comprising more than 1,200 credit union marketing and business development professionals. Awards are given in each of 35 categories ranging from advertising to community events and beyond.

Coast360 won in four categories for its new youth banking program, another for its annual report, and ultimately garnered top honor of Diamond Best of Show. For its youth banking program, the credit union won Category's Best in the following categories: Complete Campaign, Membership Marketing, Plastic Card Design, and Point-of-Sale and Merchandising.

"We are honored to represent Guam and be recognized among amazing credit unions throughout the nation. Guided by the people-helping-people philosophy, our work as individual credit unions help make a positive impact within our industry and the communities we serve," said Tia Borja, marketing manager for Coast360.

Amy McGraw, Diamond Awards chair and vice president marketing/chief experience officer at Tropical Financial Credit Union, said in the same press release: "It's an honor to bring recognition to some of the best-of-the-best in credit union marketing and business development."

CUNA Marketing and Business Development Council celebrated Diamond Awards Week by announcing winners in 35 categories through a series of daily virtual awards ceremonies.

This year's award competition had 1,295 entries submitted. Six credit unions won Best of Show Awards, 93 won Category's Best Awards and 255 won Diamond Awards. (Daily Post Staff)

GNC Guam stores will stay open amid holding company headquarters bankruptcy filing

The Guam stores for wellness retailer GNC at the Micronesian Mall and at Pacific Place in Tumon will stay open despite the Chapter 11 bankruptcy reorganization announced this week by GNC Holdings.

The bankruptcy filing came with the announcement from GNC headquarters that it will close up to 1,200 stores.

The GNC stores at the Micronesia Mall and Pacific Place are not affected by the bankruptcy, Globest LLC, which does business as GNC Guam, said Thursday in a statement.

"In response to GNC headquarters' plan of reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, we, Globest LLC dba GNC (Guam), would like to clarify that we are an independent company unrelated to GNC Holdings and not part of GNC's financial restructuring," GNC Guam said in the statement released by Jenny Yang, managing director of GNC Guam.

As a GNC franchisee on Guam and Saipan for more than 10 years, the Guam company stated, it "is confident to announce that the GNC headquarters decision has no impact on the GNC franchise businesses on Guam and Saipan."

"All of our retail outlets will remain normal operations. The relationships with our authorized retailers will also remain the same," the Guam company added.

"We are also working closely with our authorized retailer partners, including T Galleria by DFS, MallofGuam.com online shopping platform and ABC Stores on Guam, and T Galleria by DFS and Joeten Shopping Center on Saipan to bring more customers GNC's world-class vitamins and supplements," the company stated.

During the challenging time of COVID-19 crisis, GNC Guam launched its website www.gncguam.net, which provides curbside pickup and delivery services at its Tumon location to help customers who prefer to avoid the crowds.

"We remain firmly committed to our customers, employees, community, supply chains, and customer's royalty program benefits," GNC Guam said in its statement.

The Washington Post reported Monday that GNC Holdings has filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy, with plans to close as many as 1,200 of its 5,200 U.S. stores as it searches for a buyer.

GNC Holdings has struggled for years to shore up sales as it tried to pay down more than $900 million in debt, The Washington Post reported. Then came the coronavirus pandemic, which forced it to shutter about 40% of its stores.

The company reported a $200 million loss during the first quarter of this year, and last month it warned that some of its temporary store closures could become permanent, The Washington Post reported. (Daily Post Staff)

Dear Senators, Stakeholders and Media,

It is with great pleasure to provide a letter of support for Nadine Cepeda.

Ms. Cepeda worked as a Social Worker, Psychiatric Social Worker, and Psychiatric Social Worker Supervisor with Guam Behavioral Health and Wellness Center, formally known as the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse, and Judicial Therapist for over seventeen years. I have had the privilege to work with her in the Child Adolescent Services Division where she provided intensive case management services as a Social Worker for about four years from 2001-2005.

I have collaborated with Ms. Cepeda during her employment at the Judiciary of Guam working as a Judicial Therapist and as a District Psychologist with the Guam Department of Education providing counseling services to children, adolescents and their families.

I served as an officer with the Association of Individual, Marriage, and Family Therapists of Guam working under Ms. Cepeda's leadership.

Ms. Cepeda performed her duties in a professional and ethical manner engaging easily with the clients she provided services to; displaying a deep respect for their circumstances and demonstrating a caring attitude for their well-being.

It is with great confidence that I support Ms. Cepeda's pursuit as a continued member of the Guam Board of Allied Health Examiners. She is an individual with strong professional and ethical character and will be an asset in providing professional and competent work.

I will be glad to answer any questions you might have about her character and professionalism.

Warm Regards,

Re: Letter in Support of Nadine Taijeron Cepeda's Nomination

Hafa Adai Senator Terlaje!

I write this letter in support of Ms. Cepeda's nomination to the Guam Allied Health Board as the Marriage and Family Therapist representative. This recommendation is founded on her professionalism and degree of experience in working with individuals, families and groups. Ms. Cepeda is best described as a person with integrity and professionalism. Her extensive work experience in the field of behavioral health is very admirable. Ms. Cepeda has worked in various capacities in the field of behavioral health on Guam and in California. She is a licensed marriage and family therapist, licensed mental health counselor, and licensed professional counselor. Ms. Cepeda is working on her play therapy license as I write this recommendation.

In addition to her professional work history, Ms. Cepeda has been involved in numerous community programs. She is part of the Catholic Daughters of Guam group who are involved in projects to include feeding the hungry and the homeless. Ms. Cepeda served as the President of the Guam Association of Individual, Marriage and Family Therapists. She was instrumental in developing outreach programs such as the Ann Hardin Charity that helps with food, clothing and bus passes for our indigent population. Ms. Cepeda was also credited with establishing the Jeanette Sablan Tanos scholarship program that awards college students majoring in a behavioral health field with financial aid.

Ms. Cepeda is an inspiration to new therapists and has been very effective with her clients. She supervises graduates pursuing licensure as professional counselors and is constantly giving to the field of behavioral health. I highly recommend Ms. Cepeda for our Marriage and Family Therapist representative with the Guam Allied Health Board.

If you require additional information, I may be reached at [REDACTED] or via e-mail at [REDACTED]. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Lisa V. Baza, PhD

II. SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY & DISCUSSION

The Public Hearing was Called to Order at 6:55 PM

Senator Therese M. Terlaje, Chairperson of the Committee on Health, Tourism, Historic Preservation, Land and Justice called the public hearing to order at 6:55 PM. The Chairperson presented the agenda items that would be heard during the hearing and presented the general rules of conduct and Guam Legislature Virtual Hearing protocol. The appointment of Nadine T. Cepeda, to serve as a Marriage & Family Therapist Member of the Guam Board of Allied Health Examiners was the last item on the agenda.

Chairperson Therese M. Terlaje: We will now move on to the final item on the agenda. I want to thank you very much for your patience. This is on the appointment of Nadine Cepeda as Member of the Guam Board of Allied Health Examiners, as a Marriage and Family Therapist Representative, for a term length of three (3) years from December 2019 to December 2022.

Ms. Cepeda, welcome and congratulations. This is a reappointment for you as well, and so thank you for your service on the Board, for the years that you have been there and your willingness to continue to serve again, to put in the voluntary hours to lift up not just your own field but many health professions. You too have been here through this oversight hearing and heard our concerns regarding the Allied Health Board and concerns of the public regarding the Allied Health Board and what we were kind of expecting for this Board moving forward. I'm looking forward to some of those things being addressed by you and your colleagues. The Board deals of course with training of Allied Health Professionals and their continuing education. You are the ones who set the requirements and determine whether these are fulfilled. You are the regulators of all these different fields. And so, it is a very important role. You evaluate applicants whether they are really suitable. You have to put your foot down and deny applicants if they're not, as we talked about investigations on complaints, discipline, another tough role that you have to do and to act as adjudicators on these decisions, establishing fees, making sure that, you know, we get the right balance between what the public is going to pay to get licensed versus the need for these professionals in our community. All of that. It's about all of those balance issues which I'm sure you in your experience have already had. You've seen how difficult sometimes those might be.

We want to expand the Allied Health professionals here on Guam and so even those concerns as to recruitment, retention and how to get more services for Guam. And then the very mundane but yet very time consuming meetings that these boards have.

I want to thank you again for your work during the pandemic and your work for our community as a professional in the field and thank you very much for that.

We received written testimony in favor of your appointment from Dr. Lisa Baza in support and Jessie Baleto, MSW, LPC, also in support and we are going to welcome Erica Pangelinan, to also provide oral testimony today. Ms. Pangelinan.

Erica Marie A. Pangelinan: Thank You so much. Buenas yan Håfa Adai, madam chair Terlaje and members of the committee on health, tourism, historic preservation land and justice, I Mina'trentai Singko na Liheslaturan Guåhan.

It is with my great pleasure to provide this testimony on behalf of Ms. Nadine Cepeda in her appointment to serve as the marriage and family therapist representative of the Guam board of allied health examiners. I have known Nadine for almost eight years now and she is someone I look up to very much on both a personal and professional level. From the time that I've known Nadine, she has shown herself to be such an honest hard working and yet fearless individual, never afraid to ask the hard questions and I'm just so proud of her as she continues to mold and cultivate her skills to best help the people of Guam and really to make a difference in this world, in addition to those qualities, Nadine is dependable.

She's trustworthy and really one of the most caring people that I've ever met and like many of us human beings, we all go through hardships, we go through challenges and I've seen Nadine overcome some of the most challenging situations without ever faltering in her judgment and in her faith. My favorite thing about Nadine is that she is such a loving daughter, wife, sister and just a great person to be around. She's really rooted from a very strong family foundation and I'm sure I can speak on behalf of all of our friends and families and her esteemed colleagues when I say that we're lucky to have Nadine on the team.

Therefore, as a citizen of Guam and a member of our community, I hereby submit this testimony to the 35th Guam legislature testing to the exemplary character of Miss Nadine Cepeda, given her institutional knowledge and experience in serving in other governments of Guam health institutions and divisions along with her continuous contributions to the various communities of Guam. I believe she will be an asset and will make a great addition to the Guam board of allied health examiners. Na Dângkolo Na Si Yu'us Ma'ase, for the opportunity to speak before the committee. Si Yu'us Ma'ase.

Senator Therese M. Terlaje: Awesome and thank you for your patience in waiting with us. I loved your testimony, so thank you very much. So, eight years you've known her. I appreciate the depth of your testimony and the different facets that you focused on. I'm going to ask now our nominee Ms. Cepeda to discuss her nomination and then we'll open it up for questions.

Nadine T. Cepeda: Thank you, madam chair, and to the rest of the other Senators. I want to take this opportunity just to thank you again just to talk about what I've done. I've actually been in the mental health profession for over 20 years returning back from California.

I was committed that our people need much more than what they deserve. We need quality, we need people who care, who are compassionate and pathetic.

It brought me back home, being an idol woman coming back home thinking; I was going to live in California. It changed, opening my eyes to say why should I help people in California when they need me here? I am just one of many people with limited numbers trying to make a difference. I am an agent of change. I knew being at mental health for 15 years, I've been in several different boards and I continue to serve our people. I enjoy giving back, I know if I can make a difference, I want to be part of that process.

I'm not only active in mental health boards on legal services boards; I also was a founding member of catholic daughters of America in Santa Barbara. I continue to serve my community as a Eucharistic minister. I look at all facets, not just go on behavioral health or mental health, but I look at what we can do to make a change. Our community needs a lot of leaders and I would like to be one of them.

I think this is my second term. I'm also a licensed mental health counselor and I'm also an LPC and I'm a certified substance abuse counselor. I have had private practice for over 15 years. I recently closed down because I had to prioritize and I have to take care of my elderly mother, but with my sisters and my family, we stand strong with our faith. This is just one thing or one characteristic that I can say, that shows my dedication and commitment to the people of Guam, may not always be happy with what I do because I'm very straight forward and that's just part of my personality, but when I get involved I fight hard, I love hard and I work hard. With that dedication, again, thank you for this opportunity to speak and I'm very honored, privileged and humbled that I've been asked to actually again serve the people of Guam. I feel like I can do much more than that and I have so much more to do so thank you.

Senator Therese M. Terlaje: Thank you very much Ms. Cepeda. I appreciate your enthusiasm after waiting long and after the long day that Senator Muña and I have had. I very much appreciate it and your enthusiasm for what you're going to do on the board and in your profession. I, I love it. I'm very happy and excited that you've been nominated again. I'm going to read parts of your record here. You have graduated from Notre Dame High School in Talofofo. You went to Cal State University in Sacramento, where you received a BA, you've got an MA from Cal State University Northridge and then you've got another MA from University of Guam and you've worked, as you said, in private practice since 2010, many years at Guam Behavioral Health, the Judiciary of Guam, and now the Department of Education. I want to thank you for that special role that you are playing there, and the special training that you continue to put on your record to get yourself, you know, continuing education. I appreciate that very much.

Your service, as you said there are numerous boards, one of them is the Board of Guam Legal Services. I appreciate that. I'm a lawyer so I very much appreciate the service that we need there and the perspective. You were a member of the Protection and Advocacy for Individuals with Mental Illness Council for several years as well and ASW and different things. So, thank you again. Senator Muña, I'm going to open it for you.

Senator Louise Borja Muña: Thank you so much madam chair. You know Nadine, after you were done speaking, the one thing that came to my mind was drop the mic. I just felt like you knew your presentation was very straightforward and that's really what your personality is and that's why you fit this well and I'm so glad you brought up the Santa Barbara church. Your family and your sisters and your mom because that's where I've seen you and you know that parish and grow as a family unit and I just wanted to say that you know with God guiding you that's how you are able to accomplish all of this. I almost want to share your testimony to my daughter because I'm hoping that one day that she will bring her expertise that she learned through school to come back home again, so again I just wanted to thank you. Ms. Cepeda. I think we can, I just wanted to thank Ms. Cepeda for really stepping up to the plate again. If there's anyone who can do this job, I know you can.

Nadine T. Cepeda: Thank you.

Senator Louise Borja Muña: Thank you, drop the mic.

Senator Therese M. Terlaje: Again, the letters of support are going to be included as part of the report for your nomination and they will be loaded online and I wanted to say they're very nice letters with some detail. One of the lines I really appreciate is that it says Ms. Cepeda is an inspiration to new therapists and has been very effective with her clients and lots of other things, but to be an inspiration I think is really, not everybody can inspire. So I want to thank you for that, if we can get more counselors because of you, then excellent! e As you said, we still need more and Guam deserves more. Thanks Nadine T. Cepeda: That's right, thank you and I just want to thank Erica Pangelinan for speaking very eloquently. I appreciate her time because my other friends weren't able to do that and my other colleagues. So again, I just appreciate their support so thank you Ms. Erica Pangelinan for the eloquent speech I appreciate. Thank you.

Senator Therese M. Terlaje: Thank you and again that's it for today. We're going to end this hearing. Thank you again Ms. Cepeda. And the time is now 7:09 PM and the confirmation hearing for Ms. Nadine Cepeda is hereby concluded.

Nadine T. Cepeda: Thank you very much madam chair, thank you senator, thank you.

The public hearing was adjourned at 7:09 P.M.
