SKorea mulls measures against Japan

(Japan News-Yomiuri) - The administration of South Korean President Moon Jae-in will play up Japan's move to remove its neighbor's fast-track export status with the United States and other foreign partners until the measure is enforced on Aug. 28, with the aim of mounting pressure on Tokyo to withdraw the decision, according to sources close to talks among Japan, the United States and South Korea.

Seoul will take countermeasures when Tokyo eventually removes it from the so-called Group A list of trading partners qualified for simplified export procedures.

As one highly possible option, the South Korean government is mulling abandoning the General Security of Military Information Agreement, a framework for the two neighbors to share information on North Korea's nuclear and missile programs. The agreement is up for annual renewal in late August.

If South Korea decides not to extend the agreement, the move will likely trigger a backlash from the United States as it means Seoul would disrupt cooperation among the three countries against North Korea.

However, Seoul believes this could work to prompt the United States to call for Japan not to remove its neighbor from its fast-track export status, the sources said.

"We will step up safety measures starting with areas such as tourism, food and waste," said Hong Nam-ki, South Korean deputy prime minister and economy and finance minister, during a news conference on Friday.

According to the sources, the South Korean government is considering an option to expand its import bans on fishery products from Fukushima and seven other prefectures.

Another plan has emerged to boycott next year's Tokyo Olympics and Paralympics as part of efforts to reduce the number of South Korean tourists to Japan, which reached about 7.5 million last year.

GUAM DAILY POST • MONDAY, AUGUST 5, 2019

Trump: NKorea tests don't violate pacts

(Bloomberg) - President Donald Trump said that North Korea's recent tests of short-range rockets and missiles may run afoul of United Nations resolutions but haven't violated agreements with his administration.

North Korea on Friday conducted its third test in a week of a new short-range ballistic missile that weapons experts say was designed to strike U.S. allies in East Asia.

Trump has met three times with North Korean leader Kim Jong Un in the hope of persuading him to surrender his nation's nuclear arsenal. While the diplomacy has led Kim to cease tests of nuclear weapons and long-range ballistic missiles that once threatened the U.S. mainland, Trump has little else to show for his effort.

But on Friday, the president said that he believes Kim still seeks to reach an agreement with him.

"Chairman Kim does not want to disappoint me with a violation of trust, there is far too much for North Korea to gain," Trump said in the second of three tweets. "Also, there is far too much to lose.

"I may be wrong, but I believe that Chairman Kim has a great and beautiful vision for his country, and only the United States, with me as president, can make that vision come true," he added.

Secretary of State Mike Pompeo said at a Bangkok summit earlier on Friday that the missile tests wouldn't interfere with U.S. efforts to restart talks with Kim. The two sides haven't made progress since Trump walked out of a summit with Kim in Hanoi in February after the North Korea made what the U.S. side considered unreasonable demands.

"You should never doubt what we are communicating to North Korea, there are conversations going on even as we speak," Pompeo said in a question-and-answer session with Bloomberg TV's Haslinda Amin. But he noted the diplomatic road is often a bumpy one.

"We are still fully committed to achieving the outcome that we laid out, for a fully verified denuclearization of North Korea, and to do so through the measure of diplomacy."

Friday's projectile reached an altitude of about 15 miles and flew for about 140 miles at a maximum speed of Mach 6.9, South Korea's Defense Ministry said. This means it could strike some U.S. military bases in the country a minute or two after launch.

North Korea appears to be testing its KN-23, solid-fuel, short-range ballistic missile, with its first test coming in May followed by another volley that month and three more volleys since July 25.

The KN-23, similar to a Russian Iskander, is capable of carrying nuclear warheads and has been shown to fly as far as 30 miles — putting U.S. allies South Korea and parts of Japan at risk. It's designed to be mobile, which makes it easier to hide, and fly at a height and speed that makes it hard for U.S. interceptor systems to shoot down, weapons experts have said.

Hafa Adai,

For the record, my name is John Edward Grape Ilao. I want to first thank the Chair of the Committee on Environment, Revenue and Taxation, and procurement Senator Sabina Flores Perez and the rest of the members present today.

I am truly humbled and honored to have the opportunity to be re-appointed on the Alcohol Beverage Control Board. Currently, I am the General Manager at aGREE AirCon Depot and newly appointed treasurer for the Rotary Club of Northern Guam. For the past 6 months, I have sat on the board and learned a lot about the laws regarding alcoholic beverages, the process, and most especially the people behind it all. The team at D~~DT~~<sub>RT</sub> and the rest of the board have helped me tremendously in my transition into this new role.

From all these meetings, one thing is clear, we enjoy working with one another and only look out for the good of the individual and the people of Guam.

With your vote of confidence, it would be a privilege to continue to serve and work with the Alcohol Beverage Control board, the team at D~~DT~~<sub>RT</sub>, the respective individuals and business owners, and most especially, the people of Guam. Thank you! Si Yu'os Ma'åse and maraming Salamat po

Hafa Adai Madame Chairwoman,

I hereby submit this testimony in support of Mr. John Edward Ilaos's nomination to the Alcohol Beverage Control Board.

In the short time that I have known John, he has been a vital component to our group. His wealth of knowledge, involvement and input for the board has been positive and consistent to the laws and policies of the Alcohol Beverage Control board and division.

Thank you Madame Chairwoman for allowing me to submit this testimony in support of Mr. John Edward Ilaos's nomination.

Sincerely,

Håfa Adai!

Madam Chair, for the record my name is Joaquin Paulino Taitague. I submit this testimony in support of the nomination of Mr. John Edward G. Ilao's reappointment to serve as a Member on the Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) Board.

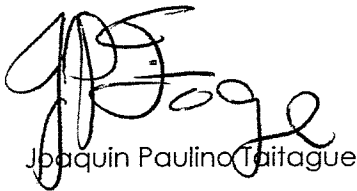

I have known John for the past eleven (11) years since we both attended Father Duenas Memorial High School (FDMS) and graduated in 2012. During that time period John served as our class president and played an important role in ensuring the class came together during BBQs and Songfest practice. John would put his fellow brother ahead of himself, and was eager to learn new things. John wants the FDMS Class of 2012 to remain close and offers to have class gatherings at his house during the year.

John has proven himself a capable young man in the world today and is currently the manager aGREE AirCon Depot. I am certain that this leadership position at the company and connection he fosters with his customers will better serve him as a member of the ABC Board.

In closing, I just want to reiterate the fact that it is time for the next generation of leadership to step up. I will remain hopeful that John exhibits the utmost respect while serving on the ABC Board. I look forward to the Committee's favorable report on the nomination of Mr. John Edward G. Ilao.

Should you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me at (671) 788-2462 or via email at joaquin968@gmail.com

Senators Present

Senator Sabina Flores Perez

Committee Chairperson

The confirmation hearing for Mr. John Edward G. Ilao commenced at 9:00 a.m.

II. SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY AND DISCUSSION

Chairperson Perez: I'd like to begin with testimony from John Ilao, in regard to his reappointment to the Alcoholic, Beverage Control Board. I would like to invite those who are going to provide oral testimony in support of his nomination.

John Edward G. Ilao, Nominee, Guam Alcohol, Beverage, Control Board: For the record my name is John Edward Grape Ilao. I want to first thank the Chair of the Committee on Environment, Revenue and Taxation, and Procurement Senator Sabina Flores Perez. I'm truly humbled and honored to have the opportunity to be reappointed on the Alcoholic Beverage Control board. Currently, I'm the General Manager at aGREE Aircon Depot and newly appointed treasurer for the Rotary Club of Northern Guam for this coming year. For the past six months, I've sat on the board and learned a lot about the laws regarding alcoholic beverages. The process and most especially the people behind it all. The team at DRT and the rest of the board have helped me tremendously in my transition into this new role. From all these meetings. One thing is clear. We enjoy working with one another and only look out for the good of the individual, and the people of Guam. With your vote of confidence, it would be a privilege to continue to serve and work with the Alcohol Beverage Control board. The team at DRT, the respective individuals, business owners, and most especially the people of Guam. Thank you! Si Yu'os Ma'åse and maraming Salamat po.

Chairperson Perez: Thank you, so much Mr. Ilao. In your stint. That's good to hear that you're gaining more experience and working collaboratively with those in the board. So, I appreciate your acceptance of the nomination. Thank you.

Candy Okuhama, Nominee, Guam Alcohol, Beverage, Control Board: Thank you. Good morning my name is Candy Okuhama. I'm a current ABC board member. I'm here in support of John Ilao for his confirmation to the ABC board, for his second term. John currently is the General Manager for aGREE Aircon Depot. He is a hard-working responsible person of good moral character, who has become a great asset to the ABC board. In working with John for the last six months, he has contributed invaluable input on the implementation, and enforcement of alcoholic beverage control law. He has demonstrated his competence and integrity in his chosen profession. He will do the same as an ABC board member. As a fellow board member. I'm in full support of John's confirmation on the board.

Chairperson Perez: Thank you so much Ms. Okuhama. It's great to see the actual outcome from his stint so far. I do look forward to hearing some ideas, as far as improving enforcement, in your line of duties, as board members. Thank you.

Ray Lanete, Chairperson, Guam Alcohol, Beverage, Control Board: Good morning, and Hafa Adai. My name is Ray Lanete. I'm currently the Chairman of the Alcoholic Beverage Control board. I've been the Chairman now for four years. I've been a member of the Alcoholic Beverage Control board for about eight years. I'm here to fully encourage and support the reconfirmation of John Ilao. We have a great team and John really complements our team. We're full on five members and we get a lot of things done. Although, John was not a member during the time that the board pushed out the Alcoholic Server Training Program. For the first time we fined three wholesalers and one store. He shows that if he was with us during that time. We would have done wonders. John to me is a great person and he's very intelligent. He's diligent and he currently serves as the board Secretary. Let me tell you. As the board Secretary the minutes of the meetings are done very well, on time, and with little corrections on my part. It's normally our internal requirement that the newest member become the Secretary do the minutes. It's good training for them. Whether you're male or female, you're the Secretary. Until such time as a new member comes in, he will be the secretary. I'm hoping that he will be our Secretary for a long time. With that, were a great team. I would like for John to continue. I strongly request that you reconfirm his nomination. So, that we can do more great things for the island of Guam. Thank you!

Chairperson Perez: Thank you so much for the testimony. That's a very strong endorsement.

Art Ilagan, Former Director and Insurance and Banking Commissioner, Department of Revenue and Taxation: Good morning Senator. My name is Art Ilagan. I was the former Director of Rev and Tax and I was the former Insurance and Banking Commissioner. I don't really know John Ilao, but I know his family. I know his father and grandfather. His grandfather and my father were from the same province. They were businessmen back then, when they were alive. ABC board is responsible for the liquor regulations in Guam. I am in support of John. I know John has been there several years before. I believe that with new minds and young people. John would look at the operations of ABC. See how short they are. They are to regulate all alcoholic beverage laws of Guam. In addition, they have a lot of other duties, that they are required to manage. One of them is gambling. The poker machines. Registration of the poker machines. There's just too much for four or five employees to monitor the alcohol beverage of Guam. There's so many of them. Violations occur. It has occurred when I was Director. It was just very hard to find all these violations out there that are happening. Without the proper enforcement employees. I am in support of John. I hope continues his work. It's voluntary work, and I know it's hard to find people to volunteer for these types of boards. Especially, when they get sued for $50.00 a month or something like that. Sometimes it's not worth it to put yourself in front of the people and take what they throw at you, and still volunteer, and help the people of Guam. I am supportive of John. Thank you.

Chairperson Perez: Thank you so much Mr. Ilagan and for everyone here, that has come in support of Mr. Ilaos nomination. I just want to thank you so much for continuing to serve Guam.

Chairperson Perez then adjourned the confirmation hearing for Mr. John Edward G. Ilaos

Written Testimonies:

- John Edward G. Ilaos, Nominee, Member, Alcohol Beverage Control Board
- Geri Leon Guerrero, Vice Chairperson, Alcohol Beverage Control Board
- Joaquin Taitague
