We found this in a couple of incidences where even board members have used money to promote not necessarily, it may seem that it is promoting their agency but in some instances it looks like they are promoting themselves for re-election and this is something that we should not let happen and waste money of government funds in doing so and I thank you for also being an author of this bill.

'Stories of Women Entrepreneurs'

(UOG) - The publication International Journal of Entrepreneurship which features "Stories of Women Entrepreneurs" will be released today at 2 p.m. at the University of Guam's School of Business and Public Administration, IT&E Lecture Hall.

Edited by UOG professor Maria Claret M. Ruane, Ph.D. and sponsored by the University of Guam School of Business and Public Administration, the issue features challenges, perseverance and successes by women entrepreneurs from Guam, New York, the Philippines and an emerging Asian country.

Each paper highlights the universality of the women entrepreneur's persistent and untiring spirit and the rewards for her hard work.

The papers in this issue highlight a number of important themes, including:

► How another entrepreneur in the family provides the inspiration to become women entrepreneurs as in the cases of Ms. Del Agahan, the evolving entrepreneur; Ms. Victoria Bello-Jardiolin, the fair lady entrepreneur; and one unidentified entrepreneur in "Spirit Inherited."

► How niche marketing can be an effective business strategy in the cases of Ms. Maria

Cecilia Tamura, Ms. Victoria Bello-Jardiolin, the fair lady entrepreneur; Ms. Nicole Kawabata; Ms. Stacy Evans; and one unidentified

► How some women entrepreneurs like Ms. Sharon Davidson and Dr. Audrey Claire Lucero Camacho were prepared by their education and work experience to seize the entrepreneurial opportunity, while others like Lee (Ms. Librada Angoco Sablan Borja) and Nene (Ms. Nemesia Magbuhat) did not have any preparation at all and yet took the chance to become women entrepreneurs as a means toward financial independence

► How a woman entrepreneur faced common challenges but responded to them with perseverance as in the case of Ms. Denise Mendiola-Herstlet

The Dean at the School of Business and Public Administration at the University of Guam, Dr. Anita Borja Enriquez, supported this journal issue and contributed one paper in this journal issue.

"I am also grateful to the Academy for providing us with the outlet through which we can share this issue with scholars, educators, students and entrepreneurs around the world. Special thanks are due to the members of my Editorial Review Board for their collegiality and service to our profession," Ruane said.

Consistent with the editorial practice of the Academy on all 17 journals it publishes, each paper in this issue has undergone a double-blind, peer-review process.

Information about the Allied Academies, the IJE, and the other journals published by the Academy, as well as calls for conferences, are published at www.alliedacademies.org.
