AN ACT TO AMEND SECTION 6 OF PUBLIC LAW 21-14, ENACTED ON APRIL 20, 1991 WHICH IDENTIFIED LOT NO. 513, MERIZO, TO REFLECT THE NEW DESIGNATED LOT NO. 528-2, MUNICIPALITY OF MERIZO.

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF GUAM:

2 Section 1. Legislative Findings and Intent. I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds
3 it necessary to amend language contained in Public Law 21-14 authorizing I
4 Maga'lahen Guåhan to exchange property in Malessu owned by Edward A. Cruz
5 and Dolores C. Cruz.

1 Section 2. Section 6 of Public Law 21–14 is hereby amended to read as
2 follows:

3 “Section 6. The Governor shall exchange for Lot No. 528-2,
4 municipality of Merizo, as shown on Land Management Drawing No. 14-
5 04T686, L.M. Checked No. 049FY2004, containing an area of
6 approximately two thousand four hundred seventy-five (2,475±) square
7 meters and owned by the government of Guam, with Edward A. Cruz and 8 Dolores C. Cruz, a portion of Lot No. 268, Merizo, as shown on Public
9 Works Project No. 140-D-1005-F-TER, on a current value-for-value basis.”

10 Section 3. Appraisals, Survey, Mapping, and Registration. Public Law
11 21–14, Section 6 identifies the government property as Lot No. 513, Municipality
12 of Merizo. The Department of Land Management maps reveal that Lot No. 513 is 13 an unregistered government property. Two (2) written appraisals prepared by 14 qualified licensed Guam appraisers were completed for the government on 15 September 12 and September 25, 1991, identifying the government parcel as Lot
16 No. 513, Merizo. The appraisals were conducted to determine the average
17 appraised value of said property. In fact, Lot No. 513, Merizo was eliminated
18 when basic Lot No. 528, Merizo was surveyed, mapped, and registered as the 19 government of Guam. Therefore, the government parcel acknowledged in the two 20 (2) written appraisals completed in 1991 as Lot No. 513, Merizo reflects the new 21 designated lot as Lot No. 528-2, municipality of Merizo and shall be used as the 22 values for the basis of such exchange.

23 Section 4. Severability. If any provision of this Law or its application to 24 any person or circumstance is found to be invalid or contrary to law, such 25 invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Law which can

- 1 be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the
- 2 provisions of this Law are severable.

The Committee on Tourism, Cultural Affairs, Youth, and Public Broadcasting convened a public hearing on Tuesday, October 20, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. in I Liheslatura's Public Hearing Room. The item on the agenda was the consideration of Bill No. 189 (COR) – “An act to create the 12th Festival of Pacific Arts Coordination Committee,” sponsored by J.V. Espaldon, B.J.F. Cruz and R.J. Respicio.

Notice of the hearing also was posted on the Guam Legislature’s website and published in the Pacific Daily News on October 19, 2009.

Senators Present

Vice Speaker Benjamin J.F. Cruz, Chairperson
Sen. Tina Rose Muña Barnes, Vice Chair
Sen. Telo Taitague
Sen. Jim Espaldon
Sen. Frank Aguon, Jr.

The public hearing was called to order at 2:00 PM.

II. SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY AND DISCUSSION

Vice Speaker B.J.F. Cruz called Francisco C. Lizama, Sylvia M. Flores, Mary C. Torres, and Jackie Balbas to testify.

Francisco C. Lizama, Member, Department of Chamorro Affairs Board of Trustees appeared before the Committee in support of Bill No. 189. Mr. Lizama greeted the committee members present, introduced himself as a member of the DCA Board, an artist and a student of Chamorro culture. He read from submitted written testimony, attached.

Vice Speaker Cruz recognized the presence of the main sponsor of Bill No. 189, Sen. James V. Espaldon, and invites him to make opening statements.

Sen. Espaldon discussed resolution presented in 2008 and the granting of the privilege to Guam of hosting the 2016 Festival of Pacific Arts. Stated Guam needs to start organizing now because a lot of development will be going on alongside the planning and he does not want planning to get lost in the buildup.

Vice Speaker Cruz thanked Sen. Espaldon and asked Jackie Balbas, Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency to read from CAHA Executive Director Patrick Bamba’s submitted written testimony.

Jackie Balbas, Program Coordinator I, CAHA, appeared before the Committee in support of Bill No. 189 and read from CAHA Executive Director Patrick Bamba’s submitted written testimony, attached.

Mary Torres, Member, Department of Chamorro Affairs Board of Trustees, appeared before the Committee in support of Bill No. 189. Torres stated for the record she is in full support of the bill and in agreement with Sen. Espaldon that the planning needs to begin now—specifically deciding upon a venue at which to hold the Festival of Pacific Arts. From her experience with the annual Micronesian Island Fair at Ypao, she said a permanent structure should be planned and built for such purposes. Ms. Torres also stated, a permanent panel that does not change with the executive administration should be established.

Sylvia M. Flores, President, Department of Chamorro Affairs, appeared before the Committee in support of Bill No. 189 and read from her submitted written testimony, attached. She also presented the Chamorro Village and Paseo de Susana Master Plan Summary illustration, both attached.

Sen. Espaldon addressed Mr. Lizama and clarified that he is suggesting the DCA has oversight of this. He then addressed Ms. Torres and clarifies that she suggested a permanent body be established to oversee. Both concur that this is what they meant. Ms. Torres does not want the committee established to change within a year or after a term of administration.

Ms. Flores said a priority is establishing one key location and an organized body.

Sen. Espaldon asked then if Ms. Flores is in favor of keeping FestPac under DCA. Ms. Flores responded that a lot of the emphasis falls under the DCA’s purview.

Sen. Espaldon said he is trying to resolve Ms. Torres’s proposal. If purview is granted to DCA, the President will leave after a given administration’s term ends. Ms. Flores responded that DCA has a staff to which she will leave the duties of overseeing FestPac.

Sen. Espaldon referred to the attached illustration, provided by Ms. Flores and asked whether this place could serve as the cultural activities center.

Ms. Flores responded “yes.”

Sen. Telo Taitague asked whether anyone has appeared from the Governor’s office and asked Ms. Flores whether he has accepted the bill.

Ms. Flores states she is not aware and did not speak to the Gov. on the matter. CAHA still has the open account of the Festival. Though she does not know how much cash is left in it, she has told CAHA to leave the account open “as we move toward fundraising for the Chamorro Village.”

Sen. Taitague clarified that the account is for FestPac specifically and asked whether they are allowed to receive donations.

Sen. Aguon stated that in conjunction with the promotion of this particular festival, he would like to see there is much more emphasis placed on the Chamorro culture and language. He affirmed he is extremely supportive of this and any proposal that would attempt to preserve our language and our culture. He then addressed Ms. Torres to clarify that, as yet, there is no venue.

Ms. Torres stated that Paseo, in its present state, is not suitable to host FestPac. She agreed with the conceptual design (attached illustration) and said if it is completed it will be suitable to host FestPac.

Sen. Aguon stated there is no direct request for funding and asks whether this is because they are waiting for the proposed coordinating committee to form and prepare a financial plan or because they are waiting for the next budget cycle.

Ms. Flores responded that it is the former reason.

Sen. Aguon then stated he would prefer providing the proposed committee with seed money.

Ms. Flores said she reached out to many of the planners for the American Samoa group and they received money from the Department of the Interior. She remembers she was hosted by a village once before and says Guam needs to reach out to its different villages to host the visiting communities.

Sen. Aguon stated that just by virtue of allowing some of the events to be held down south, we would be exposing all the different areas of our island, telling the entire Guam story.

Vice Speaker Cruz interjected that there may be some misunderstanding on the intent of the bill but the sponsors could add another section to it, as in, “With the passage of this bills, an appropriation of x amount of dollars for the director and one staff member.” He then addressed Ms. Torres, stating that her idea intrigues him and there is nothing worse than a change of administration while planning to host a large event. He referred to his experience with the South Pacific Games.

Ms. Torres said it is important to remember that this will be the core planning committee and although it will serve as the working engine, ultimately it is the government that has jurisdiction, Department of Chamorro affairs, for example.

Vice Speaker Cruz said this has to be a full-time job for a number of years for someone to oversee this.

Sen. Espaldon addressed Ms. Flores and clarified whether she means to use the FestPac account to raise funds for Chamorro Village Paseo master plan. He is concerned that a successful hosting of the festivities is not related to the successful completion of this plan (gestures to attached illustration).

Ms. Flores affirmed the account is there, the fund is there and it has nothing to with the Paseo de Susana or the Chamorro Village.

Vice Speaker Cruz advised against comingling the funds and said they will close the books on it and start a new account. He then calls Leonard Iriarte, Judy Flores and Rita Franquez to testify.

Rita Franquez appeared before the Committee in support of Bill No. 189 and stated she is very excited about projects and things of this nature happening in Hagåtña, though she does not see any real money put toward it. She went on to point out that before anyone pursues such “glorious and very noble” projects, they ought to take a look at Skinner Plaza and Plaza de España, as they are deteriorating. She then encouraged the Legislature to reclaim buildings it already owns.

Vice Speaker Cruz thanked Ms. Franquez and assures the Legislature is moving toward this direction.

Sen. Espaldon stated the one other edifice mentioned by Ms. Franquez, the Spanish Palace, is being addressed by the Guam Historic Preservation.

Judy Flores appeared before the Committee in support of Bill No. 189 and stated the first order of business is to get this commission going, get a dynamic person who can move forward with fundraising, a good grant writer.

Leonard Iriarte, I Fanalaian Oral History, appeared before the Committee in support of Bill No. 189 and concurred with all testimony previously given. He stated the incredible impact FestPac has had on Guam’s resurgence of culture.

Raphael Unpingco, Inadahen I Lina’la Kotturan Chamoru, appeared before the Committee in support of Bill No. 189 and concurred with all testimony previously given. He referred to his experience at Palau’s 2004 FestPac and stated his organization would like to give whatever help it can in the forming of the proposed committee.

Sen. Tina Rose Muña Barnes requested the addition of her name to co-sponsor the bill and suggested the mayors be included in the proposed committee.

Sen. Espaldon stated he is pleased there has been unanimous support and considered rethinking the composition in the interest of putting forth “our very best efforts.”

Vice Speaker Cruz thanked the public for coming and providing testimony and announced he will leave the record open for an additional ten (10) days for submissions of written testimony.

III. FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee on Tourism, Cultural Affairs, Youth, and Public Broadcasting finds that in 2016, Guam will host 12th Festival of Pacific Arts, the largest cultural event held in our region. Twenty-seven Pacific island nations and territories will send representatives to Guam to showcase their respective culture's visual arts, music, cuisine, dance, jewelry, crafts, and storytelling. Because of the magnitude of the event, the large number of guests expected to attend and the logistical planning for their accommodations and showcase venue, much consideration, planning, and fundraising must occur well ahead of the event. The creation of a 12th Festival of Pacific Arts Coordinating Committee, as called for in Bill No. 189 will enable Guam to adequately prepare to host the festival. The creation of a coordinating committee is absolutely necessary to produce an exhibition worthy of our neighboring islands' talent and audience.

The Committee finds further that the coordinating committee would be well-served by involving Guam's mayors in the planning and execution of the festival events. As such, the Committee recommends the addition to Bill No. 189 of a Mayors' Council representative to the 12th Festival of Pacific Arts Coordinating Committee. Accordingly, the Committee substitutes Bill No. 189 to effect this change.

A Fiscal Note was requested of the Bureau of Budget and Management research on August 28, 2009 and one was not received by the Committee. Pursuant to 2 GCA §9105, requirement for a Fiscal Note is waived.

The Committee on Tourism, Cultural Affairs, Youth, and Public Broadcasting, to which was referred Bill No. 189(COR), hereby submits these findings to I Mina' Trenta na Liheslaturan Guåhan and reports out Bill No. 189-30 (COR) as substituted by the Committee, with the recommendation TO DO PASS.

Dear Vice-Speaker Cruz:

Hafa Adai. My apologies, I am feeling under the weather and am unable to testify before you. However, please accept my written testimony on my behalf. As the Executive Director of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency, I am in full support of the passage of Bill No. 189, an act to create the 12th Festival of Pacific Arts Coordination Committee.

I have received communication that the Solomon Islands may not be able to host the 2012 Festival of Pacific Arts. This is attributed to the lack of government funding, organization and commitment. To date, there is no task force appointed yet to oversee their planning. As a result, their government is faced not only with funding issues, but is pressed for time to effectively plan and prepare for the festival.

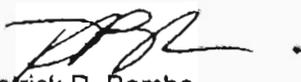

Guam is no stranger to hosting regional events, having hosted the South Pacific Games in the past. Although the festival is seven years away, I am confident that through early, effective planning, community support and collaborations with the government and the private sector, Guam will be able to meet the challenge and successfully host the festival in 2016.

The passage of Bill 189 will ensure and bring Guam's plan to host the festival to fruition. Visitors and temporary military guests will have the opportunity to view the Chamorro Arts and Culture at its finest as it is expressed through song, dance, chant, storytelling and through the skills and craftsmanship of our traditional and visual artists.

Guam will be able to share our culture with our Pacific Island brothers and sisters and further develop our relationships. In addition, the festival in 2016 will bring global focus and recognition to our island as media coverage will extend well beyond our shores.

Saina Ma'ase for your favorable consideration of Bill No. 189.

Sincerely,

Patrick R. Bamba

TESTIMONY ON BILL 189

Good Afternoon, I am Francisco Lizama, Department of Chamorro Affairs Board of Trustees Member. Thank you for allowing me to testify on Bill 189. I am in favor in moving our island forward in the preparation of a very prestigious event for our community, The 12th Festival of Pacific Arts, which I feel is not too far away.

Given the responsibility of hosting this event, what is first and foremost is for this able body to officially identify the one agency which is responsible to administer the task in leading this committee. Over the past years, administrations have struggled to identify the department to lead the plans and delegation to a Festival. It is important that we take the planning to heart and look at the objective of having this festival. The lead agency must be able to promote and preserve our precious Cultural Heritage; safeguarding, preserving, protecting and promoting of our cultural heritage regionally and nationally. I recommend this legislative body look at the Department of Chamorro Affairs as the lead agency so that there is no question where official files are stored and properly documented, as well as being the official contact for other Pacific Island jurisdictions to ensure a clear line of communication. In the past it has been difficult to access prior year festivals' documents in order to plan for upcoming festivals. For the record, prior to 2008, there was little to none of FestPac paraphernalia (videos, tapes, literature, etc.). DCA, however, has created a FestPac library to ensure accountability and future planning purposes. Therefore, it is imperative for a single Government entity to be responsible for official correspondences and administrative oversight of Guam's participation in the Festival of the Pacific Arts.

Si Yu'os Ma'åse for your time and I hope you consider my recommendation's when finalizing Bill 189.

Ref: Bill 189

Dear Vice Speaker Cruz:

Håfa Adai, I am Sylvia M. Flores, President for the Department of Chamorro Affairs. I am here to testify in favor of Bill 189 In the creation of establishing the 12th Festival of Pacific Arts Coordination Committee. It is timely that we move our island forward in the plans of such an important regional cultural event.

In 1975, the Council of Pacific Arts agreed that the aims of the Festival shall be:

- To encourage the preservation and revival of traditional arts and cultures of the Pacific
- To encourage new forms of cultural activities suited to the needs of the Pacific
- To encourage greater awareness of the cultural richness of the Pacific throughout the world
- To foster a greater sense of unity throughout the Pacific to promote excellence in arts
- To promote the development and use of traditional languages
- Value the wisdom of our elders
- Support the aspiration of our youth

In June 2008, during a meeting for the South Pacific Commission in American Samoa, it was decided that the Commission needed to engage an evaluation team to design and conduct an impact evaluation of the Festival of Pacific Arts. The Objective and Scope of the following elements to be addressed through the evaluation included:

1. The specific contributions of the Festival of Pacific Arts (FPA) to the safeguarding, preservation, protection and promotion of intangible cultural heritage regionally and nationally;
 2. The specific contribution of the FPA to building regional and international cooperation and cultural networks, as well as demonstrating the importance of intangible cultural heritage;
- "Department of Chamorro Affairs is an Equal Opportunity Provider and Employer"

DIPATTAMENTON I KAOHAO GUINAHAN CHAMORRO
DEPARTMENT OF CHAMORRO AFFAIRS

Honorable Felix P. Camacho
Governor of Guam

Sylvia M. Flores
Acting President

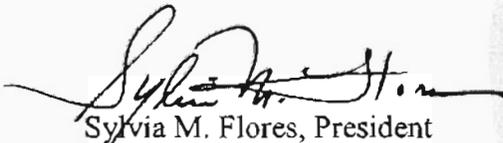

Honorable Michael W. Cruz
Lt. Governor of Guam

3. The effectiveness of the FPA in the transmission of the importance of intangible cultural heritage among the younger generations;
4. How the FPA might implement point (1) above more effectively; with particular emphasis on the media, including the internet;
5. The extent to which the FPA contributes to the full inclusion of women in Pacific cultures;
6. The economic, social and cultural benefits devolving from the FPA nationally and regionally;
7. How the FPA contribute to greater awareness about the links between culture and sustainable development nationally and regionally;
8. The extent to which the FPA contributes to poverty reduction through the creation of cultural goods, for the elite and village sectors of the market;
9. The efficiency of the organizational set-up of the FPA, acknowledging that each festival be examined on its merit and in its own context; and
10. The incidence of sponsorship and support by state and private interests.

I cannot say enough with the recent completion the conceptual assessment of the Chamorro Village and Paseo Peninsula which addresses approximately 80% of our infrastructural needs for the 12th Festival of the Pacific Arts. Again, this has many of the components of our venue needs. I would like to reiterate and emphasize the support needed to move this very plan forward! I am providing you copies of the conceptual plan itself.

As I represented Guam in its selection to host the 12th Festival of Pacific Arts, it is imperative that Guam does the right thing in the planning for the 12th Festival of the Pacific Arts. Guam was selected by the island nations to host the 12th Festival of the Pacific Arts in 2016. I am confident that this Committee will support and live up to the expectations of all island nations in the region. Un Dangkolo na si Yu'os Ma'ase!
