II. COMMITTEE PROCEEDINGS

(a) Bill Sponsor Summary

Senator Vicente (ben) Cabrera Pangelinan: Bill 59-31 (COR) An act introduced by Senator V. A. Ada. "An act to amend Section 20 of Chapter XIII of Public Law 30-196 relative to requiring all government of Guam agencies to comply with the staffing pattern disclosure mandates inclusive of the fourth quarter of Fiscal Year 2010."

Come and we'll listen to you again Mr. Wolford so we know that you like us all then. Before we start I let Senator Tony Ada explain the bill.

Senator V. A. Ada: Thank you Mr. Chairman. What this bill does require it the autonomous agencies to submit their quarterly staffing pattern to the Speaker. It will also require that the last staffing pattern of FY 2010 be posted on the internet. For FY 2010 budget act FY 2009 did not require the agencies to post their staffing pattern for FY 2010. Having the FY 2010 staffing patterns will allow the public to compare the fiscal year to the next and since the enactment of P.L. 30-237 agencies are now required to post their budgets on their website.

The posting of these budgets and staffing patterns can be compared to the projected staffing cost and needs for each agency. Mr. Chairman this also keeps in line the transparency in our government. Thank you.

Senator Vicente (ben) Cabrera Pangelinan: Thank you and si yu'us ma'ase Senator Ada.

(b) Testimony

1. Bobing Wolford

Bobing Wolford: It's like Quipua directing traffic in Agana and they almost had an accident.

Senator Vicente (ben) Cabrera Pangelinan: Then this bill Mr. Wolford I will listen to you now because you signed to testify on it. Before we start I let Senator Tony Ada explain the bill.

Bobing Wolford: I understand Bill 59-31. I favor and approve. You senators wrote it. I favor it. Thank you.

Senator Vicente (ben) Cabrera Pangelinan: Thank you and si yu'us ma'ase Mr. Wolford. With no other testimony we will move on to the next bill.

Penn, Fitch draw at UFC 127

SYDNEY — B.J. Penn and Jon Fitch fought to a majority draw Sunday at UFC 127, the UFC's second major show in Australia. English middleweight Michael Bisping stopped Jorge Rivera early in the second round of the co-main event with a brutal flurry of punches, later taunting his fallen opponent at Acer Arena. Former two-division champion Penn (16-7-2) spent most of the fight wrestling near the cage with Fitch, who has lost just once in the past seven years. Fitch (26-3-1) specializes in grinding victories, and he posted a dominant third round after Penn badly injured Fitch's nose in the second round. Two judges scored the bout as a draw, while a third favored Fitch 29-28. Both fighters say they're open to a rematch.

VP of operations

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. — Joe Torre has been hired as Major League Baseball's executive vice president of baseball operations. He confirmed the appointment to The Associated Press on Saturday before Commissioner Bud Selig was to make the announcement at the spring facility for the Arizona Diamondbacks and Colorado Rockies. The 70-year-old Torre likely will help Selig in a variety of roles. MLB lost chief operating officer Bob DuPuy last fall after he spent more than eight years as the commissioner's top aide. Torre won four World Series titles for the New York Yankees during a 29-year career as a manager. He retired after last season following three years with the Los Angeles Dodgers. He played parts of 18 seasons in the majors.

Goodell updates NFL owners

INDIANAPOLIS — NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell and the league's top labor negotiator used this week's annual scouting combine to update owners on the collective bargaining negotiations. In an e-mail to The Associated Press, league spokesman Greg Aiello confirmed Saturday that Goodell and Jeff Pash met Friday with the owner's labor committee at the Colts' team complex. Colts owner Jim Irsay, Aiello said, did not participate because he was out of town. "There was a meeting yesterday at the Colts' offices of the ownership's labor committee for another update from the negotiating team," Aiello wrote. The NFL Players Association and league owners are trying to work out a new collective bargaining agreement before the old expires at the end of Thursday. The two sides spent seven straight days negotiating in front of federal mediator George Cohen in Washington before talks ended Thursday. They are scheduled to resume Tuesday.

The views were gorgeous and I would most definitely come back to Guam again," said Peariso.

Rounding out the top five in the men's division were riders from Japan — Hamada Shimpei and Kenji Hashimoto. The two finished with times of 3:12:55 and 3:16:20, respectively. The first local male rider to finish the race was Peter Lombard who finished in sixth place with a 3:17:20 time.

Women's race

In the women's division, Saipan's Mieke Carey cruised through the course and beat out her nearest opponent by a little more than 10 minutes. Carey's time of 3:30:27 bettered second-place finisher Ji Hyun Lee's time of 3:40:47. Finishing in third for the ladies was Michelle Peariso, who had an official time of 4:02:01. Rounding out the top five for the women was Guam's Mylene Garcia (4:31:45) and Japan's Fumiko Yamaguchi (4:55:36).

Team races

The event also had a team division that was divided into several categories including: two-man male, two-man female, two-man coed, and a four-man.

The two-man male division was captured by Saipan's team Kinoath (Kieran Daly and Matt Macau) who finished with a time of 3:51:07. The female top duo was team Hormagesty (Julie Magee, Monessa Horton) of Guam. Capturing the coed title was Guam's Joe Dela Cruz and Karly O'Neal (4:09:04).

Four-man team honors went to another Guam group — Aki Ito, Yoshio Ito, Mikiya Fukimoto and Isa Kawasaki. Kawasaki finished the team's final leg with an official race time of 4:28:53.

Philippines marks 25 years since 'People Power'

MANILA (AP) — Philippine President Benigno Aquino III said Friday that the struggle for good governance and the fight against the corruption that characterized the brutal regime of Ferdinand Marcos continues 25 years after the late dictator's ouster in the "People Power" revolution. In a speech to mark the four-day revolt in 1986 that restored democracy and ended Marcos' 20-year regime, Aquino recalled that Marcos ruled with an iron fist as he enriched his family and associates amid the nation's poverty. Marcos died in exile in Hawaii three years after his ouster. Poverty, corruption and insurgency are still major problems in the Philippines.

raided government coffers," he said. "With good governance to fight corruption, we can free our people from poverty."

Arroyo held power for nine years, surviving several coup attempts by disgruntled military officers and impeachment bids by the opposition, who accused her of corruption, election fraud and human rights abuses. She has denied the charges.

Aquino is the son of the country's two democracy icons. His mother, Corazon Aquino, claimed victory against Marcos in the fraud-marred elections two weeks before the revolt, and was installed as his successor. His father and Marcos' archrival, former Senator Benigno "Ninoy" Aquino, was assassinated by soldiers in 1983.

Aquino has resumed peace talks with communist insurgents and Muslim separatist rebels to end more than four decades of armed conflict that has also stunted the country's economic growth.

Aquino said the revolt raised hopes that democracy would also bring prosperity and a government that would safeguard the people's money, but said that did not happen in the decade under his predecessor, Gloria Macapagal Arroyo.

"There were some who betrayed the public trust and
