Relative to posthumously recognizing and honoring Carmen Navea Mina as she celebrates her 100 years of life; and to further commending her as a "2014 Senior Citizens' Month Centenarian."

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUAHAN:

WHEREAS, Carmen Navea Mina was born on December 11, 1913, in the beautiful country of the Philippines. She fell in love and married the late Vicente Mina in June 1933. The Lord blessed the happy couple with four male children, two of whom are deceased, while the other two have their residences in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Carmen and her husband migrated to Guam in 1963, and established their new home in the village of Yigo. She valued family ideals and seven years later, Carmen and her husband moved to California to be closer to their children, living there from 1970 to 1984. Their children admired their love for them, but once the climate of California became a factor in their health, Carmen and her husband returned to Guam; and

WHEREAS, Carmen spent her time on Guam working to help her husband. She was able to obtain employment at the Guam Hilton Hotel, working as a dishwasher, and later on, she served as a housekeeper at the Guam Reef Hotel. She attended the Yigo Senior Center, but decided to work as a babysitter to support her husband with their daily expenses; and

WHEREAS, Carmen served her husband through all her hard work in the hospitality industry, but what mattered most to her was serving the Lord alongside her husband, and they were loyal members of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. In 2007, church members loved and cared for the happy couple as if they were a part of their family that when one of their church members noticed the couple's failing health, she applied for them to become residents of the St. Dominic's Senior Care Home, and they were approved right away; and

WHEREAS, during this time, Carmen and her husband had quiet, intimate moments together as they spent most of their time just by themselves. On occasions, they found contentment and joy just listening to church music. Carmen was a very caring spouse to Vicente, always looking after his needs and forgetting about her own. She was meticulous in providing care to Vicente and would even direct the employees as to how to provide care for him. She admired her husband, and loved him just as strong as she did when she had first met him, as Vicente was her hero; and

WHEREAS, Carmen's pleasing spirit had drawn people towards her that whenever individuals would converse with her, Carmen's contagious smile would bring joy to their souls. She manifested this especially when she and her husband were visited by the members of their church; and

WHEREAS, in 2008, Vicente was honored as one of Guam's Centenarians at the Government House. Although Carmen was very frail, she proudly attended the event, always looking for ways to support and show her love for Vicente. In December of that year, she lost her loving Vicente, after seventy-five years of a beautiful strong marriage; and

WHEREAS, after Carmen lost the love of her life, her health began to fail, but she continued to join in the morning activities at St. Dominic's with the other residents. Throughout her times at the Center, she enjoyed and looked forward to eating her favorite meal, fish sinigang (a common Filipino dish); and

WHEREAS, although very little was known in understanding what contributed to her long life, whether it was her faith in the Lord during Carmen's life as a young woman, a mother and a wife, or if it was possibly because she lived a simple, contented life with Vicente (the love of her life). On February 16, 2014, Carmen passed on from this life to join her husband, Vicente; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina Trentai Dos Na Liheslaturan Guahan does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, posthumously recognize and honor Mrs. Carmen Naves Mina as she celebrates her 100 years of life; and does further commend her as a "2014 Senior Citizens' Month Centenarian"; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary of the attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to the family of the late Carmen Navea Mina; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Magsalaba Guahan.

Relative to recognizing and honoring Carmen Navea Mina as she were to celebrate her one hundredth (101ST) year of life and further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian,” awarded posthumously.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF
I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Carmen Navea Mina was born on December 11, 1913, in the beautiful country of the Philippines. She fell in love and married the late Vicente Mina on June 1933. The Lord blessed the happy couple with four male children: two of whom are already deceased, while the other two have their residences in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Carmen and her husband migrated to Guam in 1963, and found their new home in the village of Yigo. She valued familial ideals that upon seven years later, from 1970 until 1984, they moved to California to be closer to their children. Their children admired their love for them, but once the climate of California became a factor to their health, Carmen and her husband returned to Guam.

1 WHEREAS, Carmen spent her time on Guam, working to help her husband.
2 She was able to obtain employment at the Guam Hilton Hotel as a dishwasher, and 3 later on as a housekeeper at the Guam Reef Hotel. She attended the Yigo Senior 4 Center, but decided to work as a babysitter to support her husband with their daily 5 expenses; and

6 WHEREAS, Carmen served her husband through all her hard work in the 7 hospitality industry, but what mattered most to her was serving the Lord alongside 8 her husband. They were loyal members to the Seventh Day Adventist Church. In 9 2007, church members loved and cared for the happy couple as if they were a part 10 of their family that when one of their church members noticed the couple's failing 11 health, she applied them to become residents of the St. Dominic's Senior Care 12 Home and were approved right away; and

13 WHEREAS, during this time, Carmen and her husband had quiet, intimate 14 moments together as they spent most of their time just by themselves. On 15 occasions, they found contentment and joy just listening to church music. Carmen 16 was a very caring spouse to Vicente, always looking after his needs and forgetting 17 about her own. She was meticulous in providing care to Vicente and would even 18 direct the employees as to how to provide care for him. She admired her husband, 19 loved him just as strong as she did when she had first met him; Vicente was her 20 hero.

21 WHEREAS, Carmen's pleasing spirit drawn people towards her that 22 whenever individuals would converse with her, Carmen's contagious smile would 23 bring joy to their souls. She manifested this especially when she and her husband 24 were visited by the members of their church; and

25 WHEREAS, in 2008, Vicente was honored as one of Guam's Centenarians
26 at the Government House. Although Carmen was very frail, she proudly attended 27 the event, always looking for ways to support and show her love to Vicente. In

1 December of that year, she lost her loving Vicente, after 75 years of a beautiful 2 strong marriage; and

3 WHEREAS, after Carmen lost the love of her life, her health began to fail
4 after his passing, but she continued to join the morning activities at St. Dominic's 5 with the other residents. Throughout her times at the center, she enjoyed and 6 looked forward to eating her favorite meal, fish sinigang (a common Filipino dish); 7 and
