Relative to posthumously recognizing and honoring Mrs. Estelle Greenway Minot she celebrates her 101 years of life; and to further commending her as a "2014 Senior Citizens' Month Centenarian."

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUAHAN:

WHEREAS, Estelle Greenway Minot was born on August 11, 1912, in Athens, Georgia; and is the daughter of Harvey Greenway and Salley Doster. She has four siblings (a brother and three sisters). "Essie," as she is fondly called, met, fell in love, and married Alfred "Al" Minot while attending the University of Georgia, where her husband was an All-American football player for the Georgia Bulldog. They have a son, Mike Lever Minot; and

WHEREAS, Essie and her husband came to Guam in 1950, after the war. Essie was a strong, driven woman and she started her professional career working as a buyer at the Navy Commissary. In 1960, she continued to work hard and strived to be the best that she can be in the workforce. Essie started her own business, Mandarin Fashions Dress Shop, which was located in Tamuning. Her shop was one of the few in Guam that carried elegant, exclusive ladies clothing from Hong Kong, Bangkok, and Europe. After Typhoon Karen destroyed her Tamuning store, she did not let this downfall stop her from achieving her dreams. She moved her shop to the Julala Shopping Center, where it operated for many years; and

WHEREAS, not only was Essie a business owner, but she was also a manager. Essie operated a wholesale snack food distributor, called Minot Snacks, even well into her 101st year. Her age did not stop her from being the hardworking woman that she is. She managed the company, as well as did personal deliveries to guarantee customer satisfaction; and

WHEREAS, Essie was also very active in our island community for several years. She had held fundraisers, such as fashion shows, for the Guam Women's Club, as well as for the GMH Volunteers Association, and for various military organizations; and

WHEREAS, Essie served the Lord continuously throughout her life that through His blessings, she became a Charter member of the Bayview Baptist Church, which was founded on October 5, 1958. Essie was an active member in church functions and taught Sunday school. She remained active until a few weeks prior to her passing; and

WHEREAS, whenever people would ask Essie, "How are you?" she would answer, "I am fine. I've had a good life. The Lord has been good to me." Essie's husband died in 1976, and she joined him in the afterlife on January 23, 2014; and

WHEREAS, Essie was from the village of Piti. She has a child, a grandchild, and four great-grandchildren; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina'Trentai Dos Na Liheslaturan Guahan does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, posthumously recognize and honor Estelle Greenway Minot as she celebrates her 101 years of life; and does further commend her as a "2014 Senior Citizens Month Centenarian"; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to the family of the late Estelle Greenway Minot; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga'laben Guahan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUAHAN ON THE 9TH DAY OF APRIL 2014.
