3 WHEREAS, the National Association of Secondary School Principals and the 4 National Association of Elementary School Principals have declared the month of 5 October as “National Principals Month”; and

1 WHEREAS, school principals are educational leaders who nurture, sustain and 2 advocate for the success of all students and instructional programs by facilitating the 3 development, articulation, implementation, and stewardship of a vision of learning 4 that is shared and supported by the school community; and

5 WHEREAS, school principals are educational leaders who promote the success 6 of all students, faculty, and staff by embracing a school culture conducive to student 7 learning, and the professional growth of faculty and staff; and

8 WHEREAS, school principals manage the organization, operations, and 9 resources of their schools to provide for a safe, efficient, and effective learning 10 environment; and

11 WHEREAS, school principals collaborate with families and community 12 members to respond to daily community issues and needs affecting educational 13 success, and to recruit services to address the diversity of student needs; and

14 WHEREAS, school principals act professionally with integrity, fairness, and 15 ethical standards; and

16 WHEREAS, school principals understand, respond to, and influence larger 17 political, social, economic, legal, and cultural issues that affect education; and

18 WHEREAS, school principals improve instructional practices through the fair 19 and purposeful observation and evaluation of teachers and staff; and

20 WHEREAS, the Guam Department of Education school principals who are 21 recognized and commended for School Year 2015-2016 include: Janice Chargualaf,
