II. SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY AND DISCUSSION

Senator Tommy Morrison

Provided an opening statement as the bill's author

Senator Morrison states that Bill 140-32 is a result of public safety agencies concern of the need to modernize and upgrade the 9-1-1 System. Senator Morrison further states that the bill will ensure that the surcharge is levied on all communication devices that can call 9-1-1, as in all states, with no exceptions like the 25-line cap in Public Law 25-55. Senator Morrison closes by stating that the bill will not only bring Guam "into compliance with federal mandates, and provide equity and fairness to all telecommunications providers and will provide support for one of Guam's most critical public services. ...if we [the Guam Legislature] do not address this proactively, it could literally mean the difference between life and death."

Acting Fire-Chief Micheal Uncangco (Assistant Fire Chief)

Provided written and oral testimony (see attached)

Acting Fire-Chief Uncangco states he and the Guam Fire Department are in full support of the passage of Bill 140-32. Acting Fire-Chief Uncangco further states Bill 140-32 would assist the Fire Department in moving forward as the additional revenue from the bill would help with GFD's current efforts to obtain a 9-1-1 system to replace the obsolete system as well as a stand-alone building to house the system. Acting Fire-Chief Uncangco continues by stating there are also problems with the administrative costs carriers retain in collecting and remitting the 9-1-1 surcharge. He alludes to OPA Audit 10-06 and the range of the percentage of administrative costs retained by carriers from as little as 1% to as much as 31% but clarifies that such retention by carriers was authorized by the Public Utilities Commission and this hearing [on bill 140] might not be the proper venue for that issue.

Lieutenant Philip J.E. Camacho (Officer in Charge – GFD E911 Communications Bureau)

Provided oral testimony

Lt. Camacho states that the E-9-1-1 employees are in support of the legislation. He further states that he has seven new hires who are tech-savvy and look at how old the system is, probably older than some of them, but he urges them to drive forward until the new system arrives and continue to serve the people as best as they can. He further states he agrees with the chief's testimony and supports Bill 140-32.

Discussion, Question and Answer:

Senator Morrison asks what other type of personnel are behind the E911 system as it operates currently?

Lieutenant Camacho states there are fifteen EMDs [Emergency Medical Dispatchers] certified as EMDs by APCO, the national certifying agencies and the reason for the new hires is because of the 24-hour/7 365 days a year shifts and the amount of overtime, which they may be able to stabilize.

Senator Morrison asks if the option or feasibility of privatizing the 9-1-1 system has been visited?

Acting Fire-Chief Uncangco states there has been and he believes there is still discussion with the Lt. Governor's office about privatizing and that he can provide more details when Chief Wusstig gets back.

Senator Morrison asks how many times the E-9-1-1 system has moved in the passed ten years?

Acting Fire-Chief Uncangco states that he was against the move to Civil Defense from Tiyan because GFD was not consulted when the space was built. He further states that the Guam Police Department's dispatch system; a standby or alternate PSAP – Public Safety Answering Point and Computer Aided Dispatch is also housed in the same area as GFD's E-9-1-1 system. He clarifies that the E-9-1-1 system has moved approximately four times within the last four years.

Senator Morrison asks whether there is a mover for a permanent home [for E911] in the future.

Acting Fire-Chief Uncangco states that the priorities at this time are for a next generation 9-1-1 system that is state of the art and meets all the requirements of the public and further states that should revenue be sufficient then they will move toward a new building to house the system.

Chairman Ada asks whether the seven new hires are uniformed personnel or civilian personnel?

Lt. Camacho states they are civilians.

Chairman Ada clarifies whether or not the employees will be at the E-9-1-1 system facility full-time?

Lt. Camacho answers yes they will.

Chairman Ada states that the GFD states it supports the bill because of the increase in revenues to potentially purchase a new system, but last he communicated with the Fire Department the procurement had changed from and IFB to and RFP and back to and IFB. He asks, what is the status of the procurement of a new 9-1-1 system?

Lt. Camacho states that he agrees it has been a tedious process, from the IFB to lease-to-own and back to IFB, but Chief Wusstig and Firefighter Reilly are off-island inspecting the trucks and they would be the ones who could answer the questions.

Chairman Ada states that he is afraid that the bill will go through and generate more revenue that will be used for different items and not for a new 9-1-1 system. He further states that is his concern and that the idea of building a stand alone facility is not as far out of reach as one might think, but a lot of these ideas have been tossed around and they have never gone beyond the idea stage. Chairman Ada states he recalls a group was formed to determine the specifications and needs of GFD's new system, but again, has not heard anything come out of that. He asks whether or not during the moves of 9-1-1 to Dededo whether or not he has the full features of a 911 center to record the person in panic or whether the dispatcher just has a phone and basic dispatch functions with the field?

Lt. Camacho states that's basically it. The COOP site in Dededo has GTA transfer the lines and the dispatchers have lap tops that have ALI and ANI information that they can access, but they do direct dispatch with the radios they have. However the COOP does not have the capabilities to record and when GFD does COOP, 9-1-1 calls are not recorded. Lt. Camacho clarifies that the GFD moved in 2010 and they were at Dededo for four months due to air conditioning problems.

Chairman Ada clarifies if that is a critical component of 9-1-1? [the ability to record 9-1-1 calls]

Lt. Camacho states it can be. And he alludes to a recent subpoena where they were cooped and only had transmissions, an attorney asked “where are the 9-1-1 recordings?” To which he answered, unfortunately at that time, we [GFD E911] were cooped.

Chairman Ada states what he is hearing is that GFD does not know where they are with the solicitation process. He asks whether GFD is ready to go to market or if they have an idea of what it is that they want?

Lt. Camacho states he was involved with the original specifications and management decided to test other waters, he was tasked to assist with the hosted solution but was unable to attend the meeting when the decision was made to go to lease-to-own, so he asked the chief if the original specifications would have worked to which he said yes. Lt. Camacho further states he cannot speak to the status since then.

Chairman Ada asks if the results or findings in approaching the Department of Administration to see if there was funding to back-up the solicitation where they stated there was no money is still the case?

Acting Fire-Chief Uncangco states yes, that is true [there was no funding].

Senator Tony Ada states that in May of 2011 he introduced Bill 205 that would have authorized the Governor to purchase a new [E911] system for the fire department. He further states he is taken aback by the stance today that it is a priority today, yet two and a half years they found themselves in an emergency and stated that it was a priority [then] when the system no longer had parts... Senator Tony Ada further states that here we are two and a half years later and the Fire Department is still saying it's a priority. He concludes by stating that maybe it is time he reintroduce the bill authorizing the governor to take out a loan to purchase a new E911 system.

Senator Yamashita states she too is disturbed because she was at the hearings when there was a healthy balance in the account. She states she left the hearing thinking things were moving forward and here we are where it is just as disturbing that there is no money in the account anymore.

Acting Fire-Chief Uncangco states that there is nothing available to the Guam Fire Department in that the budget act reverts all funds to the source. So in terms of lapsed funding, it is not available to the Fire Department. He further states that the GFD's ASO is currently working with DOA to determine the amount of cumulative lapses from the fund. Acting Chief-Uncangco further states that PL 25-55 states the purpose of the funds as just for the E911 system, but the last three budget acts have made funds available to things other than the 911 system to include GFD's operations. He further states that a good example is the Budget Law just passed where GFD has requested for $450,000.00 for contractual obligations from the General Fund. In the end, nothing was appropriated from the general fund for contractual obligations, but instead, GFD was expected to pay for these services out of the E911 Fund. He further states that right now he is trying to find out what is available in the fund that is not available to the GFD.

Senator Yamashita states that while the budget may be the problem, the steps taken and the process to the procurement may be the problem.

Chairman Ada states that he certainly is interested in supporting the passing of Bill 140, but there has to be two players where the Legislature provides the funding and on the part of GFD, the plan and use of the funds will get Guam to a Next Generation 911 system and a new facility. He further states however that he is concerned about voting for a bill that would increase the funds, but the other half of the picture is not there.

Acting Fire-Chief Uncangco states that he cannot speak to the progress now, as Chief Wusstig would be better able to answer that. He further states that in 2010 when Senator Tony Ada introduced the bill, they were in the process of providing specifications, but it was time-consuming because the department was trying to formulate specifications in an area where none of them were subject matter experts. They tried to engage vendors and the vendor feed back was for the Fire Department should not write specifications, they should have instead told the vendors what they wanted. The last he heard from Chief Wusstig was that Mr. Brad Hokanson to formulate what the Fire Department needs and what 9-1-1 needs.

Senator Morrison closes by stating he appreciates the concerns of the Committee and hopes GFD will provide timelines on any progress and how the Legislature can assist them. He further states the 9-1-1 system needs to get upgraded to address ADA compliance issues.

Acting Fire-Chief Uncangco states that he will provide feedback to the questions raised during the hearing.

Ref: Testimony on Bill 140-32(COR)
“An Act to Ammend Section 2(c) of Public Law 25-55
Relative to 911 Surcharges,”

Hafa Adai Senator Ada & Distinguished Senators,

The Guam Fire Department (GFD) fully supports the intent of Bill 140-32, and would like to thank Senator Morrison for introducing such measure.

The Enhanced 911 Emergency Reporting System Fund was created through Public Law 25-55, for the just and reasonable expenses of operating and maintaining the 911 system. This bill when passed and enacted, will provide additional revenues, which is a needed factor in our efforts to move the local 911 into the 21st Century.

For the past three years, the GFD has been attempting to purchase a new Next-Generation 911 System and Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD). This purchase is vital for better serving the people of Guam as the existing 911 system is so antiquated that parts are very difficult to find; are no longer supported (manufactured) by the existing vendor; and necessary functions such as GPS location, texting for the deaf community, and statistics gathering are not existing functions with the current system.

It is also the GFD's intention to build a Communications Center that will house both the Guam Police Department (GPD) and GFD personnel. In 2010, both agencies were mandated to move from the old Tiyan site to the existing one at the Guam Homeland Security/Office of Civil Defense (GHS/OCD) Building located in Agana Heights. Both agencies are functioning there, however, the proximity of both dispatch offices is at times insufficient due to background noise; and the space provided is inadequate.

As previously stated, GFD fully supports the intent of Bill 140-32, however, we would like to ask this body to address another issue relative to the 911 Surcharge Fund, either through inclusion in this bill or through another introduced bill. The issue on hand deals with the Administrative Costs being charged by the Service Providers to collect the $1.00 surcharge from its customers. As revealed and reported by the Public Auditor in OPA Report No. 10-06, the amount charged by the Service Providers are excessive and charge anywhere from 3% to as much as 31% for administrative costs. What basically this means is that GFD only receives anywhere from .97 cents to as low as .69 cents from the $1.00 collected from telephone subscribers. The OPA determined that the administrative costs are excessive as compared among stateside service providers, which charge anywhere from 1% - 5%. The average charges from all Service Providers equates to 12%.

I want to thank this Committee and its members, for allowing me the opportunity to provide testimony to this bill.

Michael F. Uncangco

Council nixes closure expansion near test site

THE Western Pacific Fishery Management Council has reiterated the concerns raised by fishermen in the Northern Mariana Islands, who are opposed to the Navy's plan to expand the closure around the Farallon de Medinilla testing range.

CNMI fishermen have expressed concern that the Navy's plan would cut their livelihood as the area planned to be closed is a prime bottom-fishing spot.

During the four-day meeting in Honolulu which concluded Friday, the fishery council noted that the military's plans for the expansion of activities around the islands of Tinian and Pagan may hurt fishing in those areas as well.

Farallon de Medinilla, which forms part of the Marianas

Land-Based Operational Range Complex, is an uninhabited island that is approximately 1.7 miles long and 0.3 miles wide (approximately 206 acres). The island is part of the CNMI and is leased for use by the U.S. government.

The island is located approximately 50 miles north-northeast of Saipan and approximately 150 miles north of Guam. FDM's operational training activities generally consist of aerial bombardment, naval surface fire support, and raiding craft fire.

During the meeting, the fisheries council decided to conduct a review of the current CNMI bottom-fish fishery and its existing management regime and develop an options paper for council consideration that would remove the large vessel area closure for bottom-fish in the southern portion of the archipelago.

Man dead, woman shot in Yigo

A MAN has died and a woman is now on life support at the hospital following an alleged domestic violence incident in Yigo on Saturday night.

The man, in his 60s, was found lifeless at a residence on Chalan Emsley, Yigo when officers from the Dededo Precinct responded to a reported shooting at around 8:06 p.m.

According to Officer A.J. Balajadia, Guam Police Department spokesperson, the woman was immediately rushed to Guam Memorial Hospital and was still in critical condition as of press time.

Both identities were withheld pending the notification of their relatives. They were both initially identified as Yapese. According to GPD, the woman is about 25 years old.

Initial findings by criminal investigation officers indicated the man died from a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Balajadia said the scheduled autopsy this afternoon is expected to reveal more information on the cause of the man's death.

Little information can be made available to the public while police officers are still conducting a death investigation.

Adelup files new appeal on solid waste

By Gina Tabonares-Relly

Variety News Staff

THE legal counsel of the Office of the Governor has filed another appeal before the Ninth Circuit Court, asking the court to clarify the role of the Attorney General in the solid waste case.

Attorney Sandra Miller, the legal counsel of the Office of the Governor, is bringing the issue to the Court of Appeals while District Court Judge Frances Tydingco-Gatewood is still reviewing a July 1 court order denying Adelup's motion to halt the procurement process of all consent decree projects.

On Sept. 26, Adelup also filed an appeal before the Ninth Circuit regarding the May 16 order of the chief judge denying the substitution of the Office of the Attorney General with a private law firm and appealing the district court's denial of their motion for reconsideration dated Aug. 13.

Since April 26, the Office of the Governor has been attempting to remove the OAG as its counsel, raising several issues which include conflict of representation and differences in litigation strategy with respect to the payment of Layon land with Section 30 bond funds.

The court had denied the substitution of the OAG and only allowed the Cabot Mantanona LLP law firm to represent GovGuam on the issues raised in the former landowners' motion to intervene.

Motion for clarification

During her decision on the motion for clarification, Tydingco-Gatewood reaffirmed the OAG's role, explaining that although the OAG has cooperated and assisted the federal receiver with a variety of issues, the government of Guam remains the actual client.

The Office of the Governor repeatedly stated their loss of confidence in the OAG's legal representation, accusing the government attorneys of taking sides against GovGuam in favor of the U.S. government and the federal receiver.

Pending motion

In a separate filing, attorney Miller asked the court to decide on the motion to stay and for further relief which she filed on Sept. 13.

According to Miller, the first motion to stay is still pending and the decision of the court could avert the need for a stay pending before the Ninth Circuit.

Miller raised concerns over the lack of GovGuam representation by the counsel of its choice since the Cabot Mantanona law firm had no further role in the solid waste case with the court's denial of the former landowners' motion to intervene.

"Even if the chief legal counsel of the governor or Cabot Mantanona LLP were asked by the court to appear at the Oct. 25 hearing, their appearance would be on behalf of the Office of the Governor not the government and would be clearly inadequate given their uncertain status and role," Miller said.

On Friday, at 9:30 a.m., the court will hear a motion to unseal and a motion regarding the request for order directing the federal receiver to participate in a mediation process before the presentation by Gershman, Brickner & Bratton Inc. of its quarterly report.

Like a previous order, the court wants the attendance of Gov. Eddie Calvo (or Lt. Gov. Ray Tenorio), Speaker Judith Won Pat (or Vice Speaker Benjamin Cruz), Guam Environmental Protection Agency Administrator Eric Palacios, and all members of the Guam Solid Waste Authority board.

The court is also encouraging members of the 32nd Guam Legislature to attend the status conference.

Velasquez defends UFC title

Dos Santos loses in 5th round via stoppage

HOUSTON (AP) — Cain Velasquez stopped Junior Dos Santos in the fifth round Saturday night at UFC 166 to retain the heavyweight title.

Dos Santos came out firing to start the final round, but Velasquez (13-1) worked him down to the mat only to have Dos Santos (16-3) get back up against the Octagon walls.

The two traded lefts before Velasquez landed a left and took Dos Santos down head-first to the mat, causing referee Herb Dean to stop the bout at 3:09.

"It was a pretty tough fight," Velasquez said. "It was very difficult. It was a tough night. I give him a lot of credit, he is a tough fighter. We were ready for everything. We trained hard in camp and prepared for everything. I tried to get him down this time. I was trying to throw crisp punches this time. I love the competition."

The fight was third between the two. Dos Santos beat Velasquez in 1:04 in the first meeting in 2011, and Velasquez won the second by unanimous decision in 2012.

"I'm definitely satisfied," Velasquez said. "I just hope there are no more excuses on his part. That's it. We don't look for the finish. We just put more pressure on and when it happens, it happens."

In the co-main event, Daniel Cormier (13-0) unanimously outpointed Roy Nelson (20-9) in a heavyweight bout, with all three judges scoring it 30-27.

Velasquez took Dos Santos down twice in a row midway through the third round with several rights and pounced on him on the ground, but Dos Santos was able to make it to his feet.

In the post-fight press conference Dana White said he thought the fight should have been stopped in the third round.

"I've been around this sport and boxing for a long time and seen men who are too tough for their own good," White said. "I think Junior Dos Santos is one of them in the last Cain fight and this Cain fight. I think that fight should have been stopped. I don't think he should have taken more punishment."

Velasquez remained on the attack, landing several rights with Dos Santos up against the wall, opening up cuts on Dos Santos' left ear and mouth.

Velasquez continued the attack to begin the fourth round, landing several combinations in the first 40 seconds of the fourth round, and he continued the assault up against the Octagon wall. Dos Santos was able to break free and land a left.

eye that stopped the fight for a moment before it was determined he could continue. Following the restart, Velasquez continued to land combinations, with Dos Santos getting in a left once.

"He beat me up. What can I say?" Dos Santos said in the ring after the fight. "He's a great fighter. I just want to give a good fight to the fans."

Dos Santos was not in the post-fight press conference.

Velasquez landed several lefts to start the second round and a kick to the head as well, cutting Dos Santos on the bridge of his nose. Velasquez had Dos Santos locked up against the walls of the Octagon several times in the second round, but Dos Santos landed a right at the end of the second round.

Velasquez took Dos Santos to the mat midway through the first round, but was unable to land any hard shots, and Dos Santos got to his feet. The two went after it from the start, with Velasquez landing a couple lefts, and Dos Santos hitting an uppercut to go along with two lefts.

The crowd was firmly in Velasquez's corner throughout the fight, yelling "Si, se puede" numerous times for the Mexican.

In the co-main event, Cormier took Nelson down in each of the three rounds, including less than a minute into the bout, but he could not keep Nelson down. Cormier controlled the bout, landing more strikes than Nelson, but Cormier was not able to land combinations.

Gilbert Melendez (22-3) earned his first UFC win, defeating Diego Sanchez (26-6) by unanimous decision — 29-28, 29-28 and 30-27 — in a lightweight bout. Melendez opened up a cut over Sanchez's left eye with a right hook with two minutes left in the first round.

The referee stopped the fight midway through the second and third rounds when the cut reopened but in both instances, the fight was continued. Sanchez came back with an uppercut and a flurry in the third round as the sell-out crowd chanted "Diego! Diego!"
