Jonathan Diaz	Tot Barrigada, GU	2013-10-21	Pot hafa Na reason? Maolekña at Decolonize fineness
Joseph Certeza	Agana, Guam	2013-10-21	It protects the the true nature of our indigenous culture on Guam.
Lucas Storts	Tamuning, GU	2013-10-21	The military has no business being involved in the planning nor execution of this event. Neither do the business interests of Tourism... If they have their say this event will be rampant with cheap chinese made goods that have no bearing or significance to any cultures represented.
Micky Huihui	Honolulu, HI	2013-10-21	Hasn't the US military done enough damage to the Spirit of Te Moana Nui?!!!
Lani Bordallo	Guam, Guam	2013-10-21	This event has nothing to do with the military and everything to do with "sharing" of cultural traditions of the indogenous peoples of Oceania... of which they know nothing about. "Taking" is the only thing they know.
cecily bishop	Kent, WA	2013-10-21	Keep the military and their assigns OUT of local celebrations! They've done more harm than good and are not welcomed!
dakota camacho	Madison, WI	2013-10-21	The Festival of the Pacific Arts is a response to the Military's destruction of our cultures, languages, and lands. If the military wants to participate in the festival planning, they can clean up the over a hundred toxic dumpsites on they have put on our Island, so we don't have to welcome our Oceanic family to a land of pollution.
Leonard Leon	Honolulu, HI	2013-10-21	Because I believe that a Cultural aevent, or any affair for that matter, is not a place for the u.s. military to hold a Voice. This is an Indigenous space to VOICE themselves through art and every decisions made should be by the cultures hosting the event, or participating in the events. Being american is not a cultural identity. This event is not about being an american, it's about the Pacific.
Erwin Bordallo	Tamuning, Guam	2013-10-21	So that the Arts can expand in a more open and free way.
Ronald T. Laguana	Mangilao, Guam	2013-10-21	INDIGENOUS RIGHTS IS STRAIGHT AND CLEAR. COLONIZERS ARE WHY WE FIGHT FOR POLITICAL INDEPENDENCE AND OUR CULTURAL FREEDOM!
Yuji Ankei	Yamaguchi-shi, Japan	2013-10-21	As an inhabitant of the Japonesia, we share the sea with these Peace-making peoples.
Hannah Middleton	Sydney, Australia	2013-10-22	Arts are life affirming; the military is death-dealing. Violence and war do not solve problems or help build a civilised and sustainable future. THERE MUST BE NO INTRUSION OF THE MILITARY INTO ARTISTIC ENDEAVOURS OF ANY KIND. Guahan is already an overmilitarised island with massive contamination, water and sewage disposal problems. It should not be further militarised.
Vani Catanasiga	Suva, Fiji	2013-10-22	Presence of military affects Pacific islanders ability to participate in a safe sapce
Patricia Blair	Hawaii, AL	2013-10-22	I support freedom for these Islands.
Kie Susuico	Guahan, Guam	2013-10-22	FestPac is a celebration of indigenous cultures in Oceania. Why would we let people who deny us our freedom have a say in who we are and what our culture is. Since 1895 the u.s. has been practicing cultural terrorism against CHamorus through radical dispossession. FREE GUAHAN and Free FestPac 2016.
Sus Shawhan	Waimanalo, HI	2013-10-22	Art and Pacific Islanders deserve respect! No military control; no global corporate control.

Jacqueline Cruz	Dededo, GU	2013-10-22	preservation of culture and history
Vincent Camacho	Sedro Woolley, WA	2013-10-22	this has NOTHING to do with the military of ANY nation.....it is about OUR nations.....OUR Culture.....
sinahi sinahi	Hafatna, Gu, Guam	2013-10-22	It is a time to GO INDIGENOUS SUPPORT INDIGENOUS!
George Lujan	Dededo, Guam	2013-10-22	Militarism's creeping footprint should NOT be allowed any more space in any land, ocean, sky, 'space', heart or mind. It should 'stay within its current footprint' and work more on returning everything it claims to own back to their indigenous owners. Demilitarize EVERYTHING. Start with Bill 179-32.
Raphael Unpingco	Sinajana, Guam	2013-10-22	the military wasn't there with us in any prior fest pac. nor do they need to be at any future Fest. Pac.. it was a life choice for many on Guam yes, but they are as much members of the community as Spain was in the 1600's. I fail to see how we can even consider sharing with our guests the art of killing for conquering. Dispensa.
Lynryd Puyat	Seattle, WA	2013-10-22	I don't support the militarization of the Marianas. There are many local concerns that need to be resolved. Pagan is a huge concern.
Moneka de Oro	Mangilao, GU	2013-10-22	The festival was created to celebrate our pacific heritage. Military forces on Guahan have historically and presently degraded Chamoru culture. (from banning the speaking of our language, discouraging the use of native traditional healing and denying access to sacred lands.) As islanders who at a drop of a dime can plan a party/bbq and are renowned for our hospitality we must have pride and faith in ourselves to host FestPac independent of the world's most deliberate force of hegemony. f baltazar bell	Tamuning, Guam	2013-10-22	I am concerned about my culture.
Daylon Cottingham	Tianjin, China	2013-10-22	An injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. Not to mention the fact that the destruction of indigenous cultures will be the destruction of the preservation of the human race.
Anthony J.P. Ada	ILIG, Yona, Guam	2013-10-22	This amendment is defective in that it allows for a designee. And it doesn't apply the litmus test of being ACTIVE in the promotion of our culture through the arts. You allow for a designee and you will get a long roll of red tape to get any support. They will only attend to show face and make lame excuses like "I need to check with my boss" or "I have to bring it before my group". They don't need to be part of the planning to support the main reason for this event. This event will mean nothing to them unless it will bring a faster warship of a overflowing cash register.
Anthony J.P. Ada	ILIG, Yona, Guam	2013-10-22	Are they ACTIVE in the promotion of the Arts on Guam? The bill is defective because it allows for a designee. Of course, the designee will be sent because the heads would be too busy for something as trivial as culture. Unless it means getting a faster ship or larger cash register.
Nick Deane	Sydney, Australia	2013-10-23	Keep the military at bay!
Bob Bordallo	New York, NY	2013-10-23	As often as "art" is experimental and seemingly distasteful and blasphemous to some observers, "art" usually points to issues that involve the human condition. Oftentimes, "art" exposes the brokenness of the political status quo, which in our world increasingly involves militarization. How free is the artist to comment on the military state when s/he is being monitored by that military state?
Vanessa Warheit	san francisco, CA	2013-10-23	The US military has nothing to do with Pacific art & culture and should have no authority over this important, peaceful gathering.

Name	Location	Date	Comment
Donna Hutchinson	Seattle, WA	2013-10-23	The indigenous people have a right to a peaceful festival without the interference of the military.
Denis Doherty	Surry Hills, Australia	2013-10-23	We need a demilitarise pacific not a pivot!
Joe Babauta	Hagat, Guam	2013-10-23	When was " CULTURE " added in any oath?
Paul O'toko	Weno, Chuuk FSM, Micronesia, Federated States of	2013-10-23	We dont have any enemies that need killing nor defending our selves from. We had histories of destructions by Foreign Bullies & Intruders who came and did their childish problem solving, in our homes, feeding grounds n boundaries, by killing and destroying our people and habitats, indiscriminately. We are still poisoned and made poor by the past wars USA had in our boundaries...and the Atomic Bombs USA Detonate in our habitats...which USA is not willing to take responsibility for, even today. We are looked down upon coming to USA claimed territories, after being destroyed and poisoned by USA Military Strategic Activities in our Moana Nui...Micronesian, in particular. .
Noelani Goodyear- Kaopua	Honolulu, HI	2013-10-24	The Festival of Pacific Arts should be a safe space for artists of Oceania to come together and share. Given the violence that militarization and tourism have often caused in our islands, the inclusion of military leadership in particular does not foster a sense of free and safe expression for artists. What the heck does the military have to do with arts anyway?
Mary Baker	Waimanalo, HI	2013-10-24	The Pacific Festival of the Arts is about peace and sharing not military and commerce.
Dawn Perez	Yona, Guam	2013-10-26	The Festival of Pacific Arts is a celebration of our native cultures....we are here to gather as pacific brothers and sisters, not enemies....there is no threat, just a gathering of our cultural families....the military does not need to be present. We don't need to be dictated to when we're simply celebrating who we are as Pacific Islanders.
Kathy Ferguson	Honolulu, HI	2013-10-26	Despite years of pretending to the contrary, the military is not "just another neighbor" - it is the representative and the instrument of dispossession. I do not think that the Festival's purpose is to either legitimate or celebrate dispossession.
Manuel Deguzman	Barrigada, Guam, Guam	2013-10-27	FREE GUAHAN and Free FestPac 2016
Abraham Eids	Vanuatu, Vanuatu	2013-10-31	I believe introduction of other cultures to this invaluable event can negatively affect our cultures over the coming years.
David Palaita	San Francisco, CA	2013-11-01	KEEP OCEAN IN OCEAN HANDS!
Andrew Grahaam	Sydney, Australia	2013-11-05	Militarism, particularly in its US interventionist form, threatens everyone's peace and prosperity in the Asia/Pacific.

Jacob Perez	Tumon, Guam	2013-11-06	Indigenous Peoples and Cultures are what makes this world thrive with all their healing from (non-GMO) organic foods, water and medicines known to cure any and all illnesses. I stand for the everlasting growth of Indigenous Cultures/Peoples' knowledge, wisdom and healing which militarization of any kind destroys and controls/enslaves. We are the 'minority' but don't forget the 'minority' of all Indigenous Peoples is the "Majority" and "Majority Rules" again and again. I stand peacefully and assertively to keep my and all Indigenous Heritages alive and thriving without militarization or political propaganda. Decolonization and demilitarization of our '12th Festival of Pacific Arts' is and will always be possible as long as the descendants of these beautiful and 'powerful-beyond-belief' Indigenous Cultures/Peoples AND our Allies continue to breathe, eat, drink, teach, dance, sing, chant, share, heal, protect, respect and love ourselves, each other and the world for as long as we are alive in body but, most importantly, in spirit which will always be eternal. "We are jungle-generations reaching through the concrete. Every species that we save, saves our own from being extinct." JMP (for "MINA")

David Topasna	Mangilao, Guam	2014-01-07	Preservation
Luis Mesngon Jr	Toto, Guam	2014-01-07	I believe it will be disrespectful to my culture, ancestors, families, friends, even further generations to come. There's so of the past glued to this site that it shouldn't be removed or changed.
Teresia Teaiwa	Wellington, New Zealand	2014-01-08	Hafa adai! I have signed this petition because I believe the U.S. military has no constructive role to play in organizing the 12th Festival of Pacific Arts to be held in Guam in 2016 since it has been a negative force in the continuation and revitalization of indigenous Chamorro cultural and economic practices in Guam as a result of its occupation of 1/3 of the island and its recent attempts to expand its territory, proposing to destroy vital terrestrial and marine sites of ecological and cultural significance in the process. Any organization that prioritizes military expansion over the long-term health and well-being of indigenous Chamorros has no business organizing the Festival of Pacific Arts either. As an academic who has studied the militarization of the Pacific Islands region, I encourage US military troops based on Guam and the Guam Chamber of Commerce to participate in the Festival as active learners. Pacific people have much to teach the world about sustainable living and the value of respect for both people and the environment in the age of climate change. Saina ma'ase.
Mokalagi Tamapeau	Wellington, New Zealand	2014-01-08	demilitarize and decolonise the Pacific to restore guardianship to the indigenous.
Danny Butt	Auckland, New Zealand	2014-01-08	Despite the English-language saying, war is not an art worth the name.
susanne dr. kuehling	regina, Canada	2014-01-08	The military doesn't deserve being part of this festival.
Maria Rova	Nadi, Fiji	2014-01-09	The Festival needs to retain it's grassroots nature and remain free of agendas other than promoting the indigenous arts and cultures of the Pacific!
Maria Baza	Yona, Guam	2014-01-09	I am from Guam and Palau. I am against anyone who wishes to sacrifice our culture at the expense of the dollar. Who's with me?

Robert Hunter	Staten Island, NY	2014-01-10	Why would you want to have the catalyst (the US military and its bases on Guam) responsible for the denial of the rights of the indigenous people of Guam, in particular the denial of a long overdue plebiscite to determine their political status and destiny, play any role at all in the planning of a festival celebrating and honoring Pacific people, and their heritage, culture, traditional knowledge, art and craft? Why would you want an entity that operates on Guam without the permission of the indigenous people of Guam, that use Guam soil and resources and propagates and enforces rules that deny Chamorros and other Guam residents access to resources, and that continues to move to take further resources, playing any role whatsoever in a festival whose purpose is to honor Pacific heritage, culture and art? Why on Earth would one want to denigrate themselves and the spirit of the Festival of Pacific Arts and Cultures (FESTPAC) like that? There are the larger Pacific issues as well, like the state of the people of the Marshalls who were taken advantage of to accommodate atomic testing and continue to get the sharp end of the federal shaft, and issues with the threat to marine life posed by military vessels, the use of islands for bomb practice and current moves to destroy further islands (like Pagan) with more bombing ranges, etc. I take this personally as I am an artist. I am also a Micronesian, an artist-delegate, a delegation organizer and delegation leader for previous FESTPACs, a former member of the Pacific Arts Council, a former president of what was the CNMI's largest visual arts guild Arts Inc., the Vice-Chair of the Consortium of Pacific Arts and Cultures, the former Executive Director of the Commonwealth Council for Arts and Culture, and as a former art teacher and Arts Program Coordinator for the CNMI Public School System. While I am not opposed to the Guam Chamber playing a role on the organizing committee, as local business surely has a role in facilitating the festival, I am wholly opposed to the participation of military representation on a coordinating committee of a Pacific cultural and arts festival. Of course we all want every segment of the community including military personnel and their families to be included and feel welcome, as is the Pacific way... you do that by sending them a schedule of the events and activities along with a kind invitation to attend.
Guillaume Colombani	French Polynesia	2014-01-10	Army has no place at all in a Festival dedicated to Arts !
Jenny Fraser	Brisbane, Australia	2014-01-13	doesn't have to be a culture war
Jeannette Hereniko	Honolulu, HI	2014-01-13	I am well aware of the uniqueness of the Festival of Pacific Arts to empower indigenous Pacific Islanders. Although I am not one, my world is enriched by knowing that they are free of military pressures in organizing the Festival. Pacific Islanders from Guam have made it clear that they do not want a military representative, and I feel strongly they should be listened to and prevail in this issue. Thank you for your attention to this important issue of representation and empowerment.
Yvonne Undehill-Sem	Auckland, New Zealand	2014-01-19	The tentacles of the military industrial complex cannot be left to wander into spaces which fundamentally work for high levels of humanity
