II. TESTIMONY & DISCUSSION

Chairman Michael San Nicolas: Bill No. 33-32, introduced by Senator Tony Ada. I will go ahead and yield to the author for his comments.

Senator Tony Ada: Thank you, Mister Chairman. Very simply, this bill requires that anyone who ships in a vehicle, who ships a vehicle to Guam, provide proof of payment of Use Tax as a condition of registering their vehicle on Guam. Thank you, Mister Chair.

Chairman San Nicolas: Thank you, Senator Ada. Are there any members of the community who wish to testify in behalf of Bill 33-32? Director Camacho, from the Department of Revenue and Taxation.

Mr. John Camacho: Good morning, Mister Chairman, and members of the Committee. My name is John P. Camacho. I'm currently the Director of the Department of Revenue and Taxation. It is a great pleasure to testify on Bill 33-32 that would ensure payment of Use Tax on vehicles acquired outside of Guam. Although I understand, and I want to congratulate Customs, that they are doing this job but there is always room for these types of imports or acquisitions outside of Guam to escape taxation. So, this bill really proposes to stop that gap. DRT really supports this and we are willing to comply, if passed, in implementing this law. We will set up our forms. Once passed, we will enforce this to ensure that the taxes, if not paid by importation with the Customs and Quarantine Division, that we will enforce that. If any exemptions exist, we will ensure that those exemptions are legitimate. At this time, if there are any questions, I will happy to answer them.

Chairman San Nicolas: Are there any senators who wish to pose questions to the director of revenue and Taxation?

Senator Frank Aguon, Jr.: Thank you very much, Mister Chairman. Just a quick question in terms of how the process works so that I can understand whether there is, in fact, double taxation. If a used car dealer were to bring vehicles in and try to sell it, are they required to pay the initial Use Tax?

Mr. Camacho: No. If they bring it in for resale, it is exempt from Use Tax.

Sen. Aguon: Okay. That would address my concern in terms of making sure that at least some businesses have that flexibility to be able to sell their vehicles but also have the user apply that particular fee. So, the used tax would be applied towards the eventual purchaser of that vehicle not necessarily...

Mr. Camacho: If someone were to bring in vehicles for resale, the Use Tax would not apply because the GRT would apply when that car is sold.

Sen. Aguon: Alright. Thank you, Mister Chairman.

Chairman San Nicolas: Thank you, Senator Aguon. On Senator Aguon's question, I have a follow-up question. When vehicles are brought in by individuals and they claim that it is for resale, are we trying to confirm that they are in fact resold and reported upon sale? Or is there a possibility that they could be bringing it in, claiming it is for resale but the inventory is not being checked by the Department, and they are selling it and not claiming the tax on it?

Mr. Camacho: Normally, Customs and Quarantine would be good at that. They will know if the license that is bringing in those cars is in the business of selling vehicles. Once they know that those who are exempt from Use Tax, those dealers that are bringing it in and selling it to the public, upon sales, they are obligated to pay the gross receipts taxes on those vehicles.

Chairman San Nicolas: Thank you, sir. Are there any other Senators who have any questions for Director Camacho?

Senator Vicente Pangelinan: If a military personnel was to bring his personal vehicle on to Guam, he's required to register it locally. Correct?

Mr. Camacho: Yes.

Sen. Pangelinan: Would he be subject to a Use Tax?

Mr. Camacho: There are some provisions of the law that would allow a person to bring in. There's a gap. If someone were to purchase a vehicle within three months and import it to Guam, I think that is one of the exemptions that would not apply. Even for personal goods. In other words, those are the things that they would claim. This is a car that they purchased within three months before they imported it to Guam. There is a particular exemption on that.

Sen. Pangelinan: I'm just not familiar with that exemption.

Mr. Camacho: It is an exemption that would allow people that bring in properties that have been taxed already. There is a gap of three months on the exemption that would allow those people to bring it in to Guam and not be taxed. They can claim it as an exemption... personal goods.

Sen. Pangelinan: But if I had a one year old car, I pay tax on that already. If I bought in the States, I pay tax on that already, right?

Mr. Camacho: Yes, but there is a law on the Use Tax. If a person were to go to school and, upon graduation from school, bring their car, I think they are exempt by law. Gifts are another thing. If you have someone from outside who gives you a car and it is a gift, those are exempt. We will look at the statute that those exemptions are there.

Sen. Pangelinan: Getting back to my original question, would the person that brings their car to Guam, that is not older than three months, be subject to a Use Tax?

Mr. Camacho: Yes.

Sen. Pangelinan: Thank you.

Chairman San Nicolas: Thank you Senator Pangelinan.

Sen. Pangelinan: [inaudible]

Mr. Camacho: We can come back and verify that. It is my understanding that it allows a three month period where people can move from one jurisdiction to another jurisdiction. The law is saying that if you bring it in and you show proof that you acquired this property within three months, I think those are exempt. And if I am wrong, I will get back to you.

Chairman San Nicolas: Senator Pangelinan, are you satisfied?

Sen. Pangelinan: Yes.

Chairman San Nicolas: Senator Ada.

Senator Tom Ada: When a car dealer sells a vehicle, they pay 4% GRT. They have to pay 4% GRT on that sale, right?

Mr. Camacho: Yes.

Sen. Tom Ada: How about the military car sales on base? Do they pay any GRT? So, I could order a vehicle from military sales at Andersen Air Force base and have it brought in?

Mr. Camacho: I can verify. GRT is exempt from military sales – like the commissary and exchange are exempt from GRT. If the entity that is selling those cars is a federal government then they are exempt from tax. Just like the government.

Sen. Tom Ada: I don't know that they are federal.

Mr. Camacho: That's why I have to check if they are federal. If they are not federal and just a vendor for the federal then they should be able to pay those GRT.

Sen. Tom Ada: They are a vendor of the same brand as one of the local dealers is selling.

Mr. Camacho: If they are not the federal government then they are obligated to pay the GRT on those sales.

Sen. Tom Ada: But you are not sure.

Mr. Camacho: I can verify that. If they are, then they are; I can't say. I just have to verify if they are.

Sen. Tom Ada: Thank you.

Chairman San Nicolas: Thank you Senator Ada. Are there any other Senators who wish to pose questions to the Director? If none, thank you sir for your testimony. Are there any members of the community who wish to testify regarding this bill? Sir, please come up to the table and state your name for the record.

Mr. Van Shelly: Relative to Senator Pangelinan's question, I think there is a little bit of confusion on two issues. One is the avoidance of tax. For instance, the state of California, and don't quote me, but I believe it's not even a time; it's 7,500 miles. If there is less than 7,500 miles on a vehicle that is coming from another state, the state of California wishes to go ahead and tax their sales tax on that vehicle. It can be offset by taxes paid in a previous state as long as you can show proof. In other words, if you were shipping a car from Guam and you pay 4% GRT and you want it in, the state of California would offset that but they want their tax. What we are talking about as a use tax here is if a military member brings his car in to Guam. He's not selling the car. He's already showing proof of ownership that he has owned it. He has a title vehicle, license and registration from the previous state he's in and now he's just re-registering it in Guam. Taxes wouldn't apply. I think that's what you're going for. He's not selling the vehicle.

Sen. Pangelinan: But if he resells it?

Mr. Shelly: If he resells it, then a new party will be responsible for that use tax as a private party. I was just trying to address the question you had.

Sen. Pangelinan: No, I think the Use Tax is anything you bring in – personal goods – that is not for resale, is subject to a tax.

Mr. Shelly: That would be news to me.

Mr. Camacho: The intent of the Use Tax is the equivalent of taxing GRT where GRT would not apply and the Use Tax would apply. If you bring in something... if you buy a car and you bring it in, that would escape GRT because you're bringing it in. So, the Use Tax purpose is to tax that. If you were to acquire it outside and bring it in, if none of the exemptions apply, then you would have to pay Use Tax. That's the equivalent of the GRT. It's a buffer to ensure that if that's not there then people can bring in anything and escape the GRT.

Mr. Shelly: I'm saying that all of us as dealers would want an individual party to pay it because we pay it. But an individual bringing in a car not for resale and re-registering, I wouldn't think they would be subject to the tax. All I wanted to say is that I think states are just looking to make sure they can collect the revenue and people are not trying to beat the system. For instance, if you are in a no sales tax state, and you buy a new car, then you ship it to Guam to avoid it... no, Guam should collect its 4%.

Mr. Camacho: If you have noticed in the past, people that brought in goods from the airport or the port, normally the use tax would apply except there is a 1,000 exemption back then that would exempt the person. I think back in the 2000s, there was a law passed to exempt those items from coming in. So, they are no longer taxed.

Sen. Pangelinan: For example, before I bought local – this year I bought all my campaign signs locally – a couple years ago, the old signs... I ordered those in the Philippines and they charged me 4% tax on those. So, this time I paid the 4% tax locally because I bought all my signs locally.

Chairman San Nicolas: Thank you Senator Pangelinan. Did any Senators wish to pose any questions to Mr. Shelly? Any Senators? If none, are there any other members of the community that wish to testify regarding this bill? If none, are there any other Senators who wish to provide additional commentary regarding this bill? If none, we will conclude the hearing for Bill 33-32. Thank you, Director.

Re: Bill 33-32 entitled: "An Act to Amend §7105 of Chapter 7 of 16GCA Relative to Requiring Proof of Use Tax Payment as a Condition of Registration for Vehicles Acquired Off-Island"

The proposed bill allows the Department to develop a standard form that an applicant will be required to fill out before registering a vehicle that was purchased from abroad. The Department's form will contain language consistent with other vehicle registration forms such as perjury penalties if information provided is found to be false. The bill also allows the Department to require any additional information, such as requiring documentation from the Guam Customs and Quarantine Agency that an applicant has obtained after paying the required Use Tax. This documentation will be proof taxes were paid to the agency and the Department sees it should be an essential part of the registration process.

The Department does not foresee any problems in the implementation of this bill. Because this Bill will help hold vehicle owners responsible for the payment of any applicable Use Taxes, the Department supports Bill 33-32.
