II. SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY & DISCUSSION

1. Ms. Ann Roth, Member of the Guam Environmental Protection Agency, In Support of the Appointment.
2. Mr. Victor Zhou, Member of the Guam Environmental Protection Agency Board, In Support of the Appointment.
3. Mr. William Nault, Member of the Guam Environmental Protection Agency Board, In Support of the Appointment.
4. Mr. Terrence M. Brooks, Member of the Guam Environmental Protection Agency Board, In Support of the Appointment.
5. Mr. Robert Perron, Member of the Guam Environmental Protection Agency Board, Provided Oral Testimony In Support of the Appointment.
6. Ms. Yvette Cruz, Deputy Director of the Guam Environmental Protection Agency, Provided Oral Testimony In Support of the Appointment.

Senator Rory J. Respicio called the public hearing for the reappointments of Ms. Ann Roth, Mr. Erning Victor Zhou, Mr. William Nault and Mr. Terrance M. Brooks to serve as Members of the Guam Environmental Protection Agency Board (GEPA) to order at 10:00 A.M. and invited the panel to testify.

Senator Respicio called all appointees up, Ms. Ann Roth, Mr. Erning Victor Zhou, Mr. William Nault and Mr. Terrance M. Brooks and Mr. Robert Perron, Chairman of the Guam Environmental Protection Agency Board along with the GEPA Deputy Director, Ms. Yvette Cruz to testify. Senator Respicio noted that all appointees are currently serving under the GEPA Board and that these were re-appointments. He noted his appreciation for them to continue to serve on the Board. He then gave the nominees and administrator the opportunity to provide testimony before the committee.

Ms. Ann Roth: I am here for reappointment to confirmation for the Guam EPA Board. I've served the past three (3) years and have learned a lot about EPA and different divisions. I'm not going to say its underfunded because most of the money comes from the federal funds. Its understaffed. There are still vacancies in the engineering and biology areas but it's a fantastic opportunity to serve the island because of all the divisions it covers: the air and land, solid waste division, the hazardous waste division. We are hoping that sooner or later we can get going with the bottle bill which is going to be big and important to handle. Unfortunately, we are going to go through some stumbling blocks on the way down but we do hope to get that off the ground in the next year or year in a half if that's possible. But I do ask for your support for my confirmation. I would like to continue to serve the agency. Thank you.

Senator Rory J. Respicio, Chairman: Thank you so much for your service to a critical and regulatory agency. I would now like to ask Mr. Zhou to present his testimony at this time.

Mr. Erning Victor Zhou: I am currently a board member for the GEPA since March 2011. For the past three (3) years, I also learned a lot as a board member for the GEPA and working for all the staff of GEPA. I would like to serve for the next term to help the people of Guam.

Mr. William Nault: I have also been serving since 2011 with Mr. Zhou and the rest of the board members. The GEPA Board has given be a lot of knowledge and to know the responsibility of what GEPA has been doing for the island. It is a very critical part of the island. It also protects the environment with our island's drinking waters and so forth. We also have issues with the violators on the island and we are very strong in going after all these issues and that years I've served on the board we have been working together and that we have a very good team that is really focused and is really on trying to get things going with the department.

Senator Rory J. Respicio: From my perspective, this is going to be a relatively smooth confirmation hearing because you have been reappointed to the Board and at some point, I would like to take this confirmation hearing into a round table meeting which I will have in the near future so we can discuss the challenges which we know what they are and what remains in the near future for your agency. We talked a lot about bringing EPA to be an autonomous agency and I know that is something Mr. Perron strongly supports. Also, to find out what is the balance of the Recycling Revolving Fund. I know that is a very critical issue too that although there is a bank balance, the cash is not there. We need to find a way to prevent the siphoning of these cash from the special fund into the general fund to take care of general fund obligations.

Mr. Robert Perron: I am here in support of the reappointment of Ann Roth, Terrence Brooks, William Nault and Victor Zhou to continue on the GEPA Board. All four (4) made significant contributions to the agency through their active participation, policy decisions and hearing on NOV appeal cases. The current board works in a professional and collaborative manner and these members have worked to make that happen. With been a pleasure working on the Board with these four (4) nominees and hope that the Guam Legislature will work swiftly to confirm these very capable individuals.

Senator Frank B. Aguon, Jr.: Thank you to the nominees for having served in your capacity in the course of the past few years and wanting to continue your service to the community. We look forward to implementing the Bottle

Bill. The biggest issue GEPA will be challenged with is the need for the marine relocation. We have the draft SEIS which will be out by June of this year if not sooner and that's where stewards of protecting our environment will be needed heavily to rely on their expertise that is provided out of your agency. Some of those decisions will ultimately come to the board for consideration. I look forward to your deliberation on some of those aspects. We want to partner in terms of the military relocation. We also want to make sure the process protects the environment for our future generations. There is one project which I'm not sure it reaches the level of the Board, but there is a project which I pass by every single day in Pago Bay, Yona which is that wonderful resort that has been established. Whenever wetlands are changed into useable property, there has to be some form of mitigation required by statute and by rules and regulations. Initially, when they started filling in that wetland area, there was a ponding basin in the middle. I was considering that as a mitigation factor associated with that development property. They eventually covered the ponding basin. The issue that I have is what the mitigation proposal is because there is no wetlands allowance with soil for future developments or park areas for residential homes. It's been an issue that has been on my mind. I don't know if this has ever come to the board, but certainly that's an issue that I would like to understand as to how the process proceeded.

Mr. Robert Perron: I don't believe it has come to the board. It would probably be brought up with the water division to send an inspector out there to take a look to see indeed if wetlands were impacted and proper procedures were done. This is something we have to check into to see if the agency has been alerted to that. I will follow-up.

Senator Frank B. Aguon, Jr.: There is a 2-1 plan for mitigation. I would like to understand this because my family and I use to go swimming and fishing in this area. But if this has not been brought up with the board, if you can communicate with some of your people so that proceeded because there may be new regulations which I am not familiar with federal regulations which have been adopted to protect our environment and properties. I look forward to your active participation as if applies to the military buildup because we would like to partner and preserve our environment.

Senator Michael Limtiaco: One of the items that came up when we were discussing the bill was what effect would the Solid Waste Recycling Program have on the redemption of those units and what conveniences does it drive into the program to be a deterrent to work in its favor? If recycling efforts is going to be provided by solid waste management and its more convenient for these individuals, that have paid this redemption fee, when they purchase the applicable bottles, if it becomes more convenient to put in the recycling bins, and outside their front steps, what is their enticement to take it to a redemption center? What would those fees be otherwise used for if in fact there is an alternative type method as opposed to taking it to these proposed redemption centers?

Ms. Ann Roth: The incentive would be cash. If they would like to put it out their door, it would still be redeemed. The idea would to make it convenient. The money will be there and that's the incentive. It costs money to get the machines and will cost money to staff them to operate right. The initial funding will go to education. You would have to get the distributors of foreign drinks, which are not compliant right now. You are going to get them on line so there is a big lag time and six (6) months would actually be very short before you can get all the different bottlers with the proper labeling of the cans and the bottles.

Mr. William Nault: Going back to the issue of going to redemption centers, I have personally experienced bringing bottles and cans to a redemption center when I use to live in Honolulu and it seemed them that it wasn't really a hard or difficult issue. You hold your bottles and cans then bring it to a temporary redemption center and they weigh it on the spot. Seeing a redemption center working, I do not know if there was excessive money at the end or not but the operation seemed simple and easy.

Mr. Robert Perron: I know that the new the new GSWA Board has been talking to the receiver about the possibility of having a curb-side green waste collection system and work towards a composting facility for Guam. That would be a step in that direction to collecting green and food waste.

Mr. Terrence M Brooks: I am here again to be reappointed with these other fine individuals. When you take a position like this, its not for the money, its for the love of your island and we all fit in that category. I grew up here and want to be here for the rest of my life. My boy was born here and I am here before the Legislature to ask you to reconfirm me so I can continue to serve the island. I've been on Boards and Commissions for about 30 years now and I look forward to continuing my service to the island.

Ms. Yvette Cruz, Deputy Director of GEPA: I am here to support these fine individuals. The vast experience is here and we have great guidance. I have been taking notes of all the questions and look forward to the round table.

Senator Christopher M. Duenas: I have done extensive research on waste energy. In my research and talking with JGPO and others in terms of integrated water system and their efforts towards renewables, waste energy is considered a waste energy. There will be amendments to a 2020 Renewable Footprint for Guam and we are a bit behind. This will be a challenge that has to be met. We need to move aggressively towards this. I look forward to your views and presentation during the upcoming round table.

Senator Rory J. Respicio: Has EPA taken a position on waste energy as a technology?

Mr. Robert Perron: I don't believe we've taken a position locally.

Ms. Conchita Taitano: From the best of my knowledge, the agency has not taken a position on weather its for or against waste energy. Reason being is that we have to follow on what in our existing regulation on what the law calls for and the current law prohibits waste to energy. No applications have been submitted for waste to energy. The only thing that has been submitted is for a municipal solid waste landfill.

Senator Aline A. Yamashita: There is a technical error in one of the packets from the Governor's office. Thank you for serving and I look forward to formulating policy to best insure that our land, air and water is healthy and clean.

Senator V. Anthony Ada: Thank you all for coming forward to serving our island and protecting our environment. I do recall we had a liaison from the federal government that sat up at EPA to make sure permits were moving swiftly or out on time. Has the issue been addressed for the delay of permits for federal projects and corrected?

Mr. Brooks: One of the first issues the board addressed when we all came on, was to get permits moving and I think that has been addressed and permits have been being issued in a timely fashion.

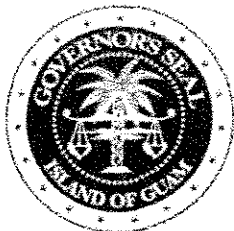

Senator Respicio thanked the panel for testifying and the senators present at the hearing.

No further testimony being offered, Senator Respicio then declared that appointment for Ms. Ann Roth to serve as a Member of the Guam Environmental Protection Agency Board was duly heard.
