RE: Re-appointee Mrs. Concepcion Duenas, Guam Parole Board

Hafa Adai Honorable Vice-Speaker Cruz, Committee Members, Honorable Senators,

I pray you all are doing well and thank you for your public service!

I am here on behalf of Mrs. Concepcion Duenas, AKA, "Auntie Connie." I am honored and privileged to have served with Connie on the Guam Parole Board for almost six-years. Connie is a major source of wisdom, strength, intelligence, courage, boldness, faith, grace and understanding. These are just seven attributes one ought to possess to be able to serve on this board. Connie has more. She has been steadfast and diligent in serving our island community even though as you all know, the Parole Board has experienced and continues to experience adversities.

She uses her 20-years experience as a Guam Police Department Officer, being firm, authoritative, and respectful and skillfully combines them with kindness, empathy and support as that of a victim's advocate. A unique and specialized "Hat," that Connie wears.

She's also a mother with that "Mother's intuition" and understands the challenges of parole clients as they present their cases for parole, especially as many have come from broken, father-less families.

I look forward to continue to serve with this Awesome Woman of God, who faithfully and diligently administers her duties, on the Guam Parole Board, to our Governor, you senators and to our island community.

I humbly request your confirmation of Mrs. Concepcion Duenas to continue to serve on the Guam Parole Board.

Dangkalu Na Si Yu'us Ma'ase and Si Yu'us Infanbenendisi!

Senseramente,

Michelle Hope Taitano
Chairperson
Guam Parole Board
