Re: Testimonial on behalf of Donna Kloppenburg

It is my pleasure to provide a recommendation for Donna Kloppenburg in support of her nomination for a Board seat at CAHA. I have known Donna for many years, but more recently, I have worked alongside her for the last six years on various non-profit organizations such as the Guam Women's Club, The International Women's Club, the Guam Symphony, the Salvation Army and the umbrella organization, the Guam Council of Women's Clubs of which Donna is currently the President. Furthermore, for the last eleven years, she was the Public Relations and Development Manager for the Salvation Army.

In all of these organizations, we conduct fundraising events, business affairs and operational management in making sure that the committees within the organizations handle the responsibilities as given by their respective boards. In this respect, Donna has been very instrumental in providing her guidance, her knowledge and her management skills in achieving the task at hand. She has a clear view and vision of the big picture and consistently goes above and beyond what is required. Her interest is in a quality outcome and always seeks opportunities to expand her knowledge and experience base.

I strongly believe, Donna is more than capable to be an asset to the CAHA board and she had proven that she can handle important and difficult decisions.

In closing, Donna will be invaluable as a Board Member of CAHA.

Sincerely,

Leo Jordanou

December 12, 2013

Hafa Adai Senator Cruz,

I am writing this letter of support on behalf of Mrs. Donna Kloppenburg for her appointment to the Board of Directors for the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA). Over the years that I have know Mrs. Kloppenburg she has proven herself to be an energetic and tireless supporter of the arts on Guam. I first met her upon my arrival in August of 2000, when she was a member of the Guam Women's Club, and organization that was helping sponsor my opening concert with the Symphony entitled "A Potpourri Of Pops". From that time on she has always generously supported the Guam Symphony Society, the University of Guam Jazz Band, and various other musical events that I have been involved with. The time and effort Mrs. Kloppenburg has put forth to help the arts on Guam is truly amazing, and with out her help many non-profit performing groups such as the Guam Symphony Society simply would not still be in business today.

Mrs. Kloppenburg joined the Guam Symphony Society Board of Directors in 2004 and served as president from 2007-2009. During her time with the organization, the Symphony Society saw tremendous grow both in its outreach in the community and in its vision as a performing entity on Guam. One of her first ideas that she put for upon joining the board was to shift the focus last concert of the season from a regular concert to a themed fundraiser. The first "Night at the Oscars" was a tremendous success, and the idea of doing end of the year themed fundraisers has continued to today. She also was able to help with the programing of the season, making suggestions that were always successful. One such suggestion was at the start of the 2008 season when she thought that the orchestra should do something more family friendly and interactive. The result was collaboration with Justin Locke, a composer from the Boston area, and performances of his "Phantom of the Orchestra" and "Peter vs. The Wolf". Both were hugely successful and revitalized audience for orchestra concerts. I mention this because it speaks to the fact that Mrs. Kloppenburg has a finger on the pulse of the arts community on Guam. She appears to have a knack for what people want to help boost the financial and artistic situation of an organization.

Another way that Mrs. Kloppenburg has supported the arts is through her work with various organizations such as the Salvation Army, Guam Women's Club, Council of Guam Women's Clubs, and the International Women's Club, just to name a few. She has involved the UOG Jazz Band in the annual GWC Mardi Gras event and also in the Annual Salvation Army Bell Ringers Brunch. The reason I mention this is that she takes care of the jazz band by providing them with an opportunity to eat at these events and insists that the host organizations make a small financial donation to the UOG Music Department. This speaks to her understanding that performing artists need to be treated well, since many of them on the island are volunteers and students.

I can think of no one more fitting to serve on the Board of CAHA than Mrs. Donna Kloppenburg. As I mentioned in the preceding paragraphs, she has her finger on the pulse of the arts community on Guam, both financially and artistically. She also understands the needs of the individual performing artists on the island. And lastly, she has a vast amount of experience and contacts from her many years spent serving a multitude of the island's various non-profit organizations. I am confident that she will prove to be a valuable asset to CAHA, and provide the knowledge, experience, support and leadership that is needed on the Board of Directors.

Re: In Support of Donna W. Kloppenburg, Nominee for CAHA Board of Directors

Dear Vice Speaker Cruz:

My name is Lina C. McDonald, a government of Guam retiree and a volunteer. I am writing to strongly support the nomination of Donna W. Kloppenburg to the Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA) Board of Directors.

I have known Ms. Kloppenburg for 18 years, since 1995, when she first joined the Guam Women's Club (GWC). I have been honored and privileged to work alongside Ms. Kloppenburg. As a club member, she is very dependable and excels in carrying out whatever committee duties she has volunteered to assist in or chair. She served the nonprofit organizations in several leadership capacity. She was club president for the following non-profit organizations, namely: Guam Council of Women's Club (GCWC), Guam Women's Club (GWC), Soroptimist International of Guam (SIG), and the International Women's Club, (IWC). I have found Ms. Kloppenburg to be extremely resourceful, dynamic, hard-working and committed to accomplishing the missions of each organization. She displayed initiative and follow-through, meticulously completing every task and function in a timely manner.

I have served with her on the Guam Symphony Society, the American Red Cross and the Bureau of Women's Affairs and attest to her commitment in fulfilling her duties as a board member. I have also co-chaired several fundraising events with her. She is very innovative. She would come up with new and "fun" ideas for fundraising. Fundraising projects under her leadership has always been very successful.

I was a Salvation Army Board Member while Ms. Kloppenburg worked there as the Director of Public Relations and Development. Her communication skills, both in writing and orally, is excellent. She has a very good rapport with the various print and electronic media as well as net working with other organizations and individuals. I was always very pleased with her performance and fine attention to details.

During this period of our time together, we have had good times, shared many wonderful memories and developed a warm relationship. She is a caring and compassionate individual whom I am very proud to call a friend.

Ms. Kloppenburg is an advocate and champion for the arts and humanities in view of her previous service as a Board Member of CAHA and organizing art shows with SIG and GCWC. She is always very supportive of the annual Women's Art Show.

Based on the foregoing, I strongly urge your favorable action regarding Ms. Kloppenburg's nomination. She will be a very capable and contributing member of the CAHA Board of Directors.

I thank you for the opportunity to submit this letter of support for Donna W. Kloppenburg for CAHA Board of Directors. If there is any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at the above address.

Sincerely,
