Dear Speaker Won Pat:

I am writing to support and recommend the confirmation of Elvin Y. Chiang for appointment as a member of the University of Guam (UOG) Board of Regents (BOR).

Mr. Chiang came to Guam in 1974 and has made Guam his home for the past forty years. He is a respected executive, financial advisor and licensed Certified Public Accountant (CPA). He has taught accounting courses as an assistant professor for the University of Guam from 1985-1987, and has previously served as a member and Chairman of UOG's School of Business and Public Administration (SBPA) Advisory Council and a member of the Guam Community College Advisory Council. Mr. Chiang recognizes the value of higher education and seeks to contribute to the University through his service.

Mr. Chiang's experience as a CPA and community involvement has provided him with the skills necessary to be a contributing member of the BOR. His financial acumen will be an asset to the BOR in maintaining sound financial policy and practice. As the University continues to develop its international program, Mr. Chiang's multi-lingual abilities in English, Japanese and Chinese languages will also enhance the University's ability to form relationships with Asian institutions. As a Regent, he will be able to apply his knowledge and leadership to further the University's growth and mission.

It is without reservation that I recommend the confirmation of Elvin Y. Chiang as a member of the Board of Regents.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Underwood

Re: Nomination of Elvin Y Chiang

Dear Speaker Won Pat:

This letter is written in support of Elvin Y Chiang's nomination to the Board of Regents of the University of Guam.

I have known Elvin for over twenty five years. I first met Elvin when he worked as the Chief Financial Officer of Sigallo Pac. Ltd. in Guam and I was corporate counsel. Our paths continued to cross when he was an Assistant Professor of Accounting at the University of Guam and I was legal counsel to the Board of Regents. Further, my former law firm used Ernst & Young for our accounting needs. To this day, I continue to use Ernst & Young for my personal accounting services. Elvin was a Senior Advisor and former Country Managing Partner of Ernst & Young and had direct involvement with my many encounters with the accounting firm. Since joining the bench, my wife and I have shared dinner evenings with Elvin and his wife Alice.

Elvin is extremely competent in the area of finance and management. His private sector experiences as chief financial officer of a large corporation and former country managing partner of a Big Four accounting firm will be a tremendous asset to the Board of Regents. He is uniquely qualified to examine the financial needs of the University and contribute to its budget discussions.

Elvin can also contribute in examining and determining the manpower requirements of the University. As a former managing partner of a major international accounting firm he understands the benefits of an educated, properly managed, and trained work force. With both the private and government sectors' having to do more with less, Elvin appreciates the need to produce a qualified and efficient work force within strict budgetary constraints.

Finally, Elvin is honest, dependable, and trustworthy. He is the type of person you want in your boardroom when you are discussing the complexities of running an organization. Without hesitation, I highly recommend Elvin Y Chiang's confirmation to the Board of Regents of the University of Guam.

Sincerely,

Dear Speaker Judith Won Pat and members of the Committee on Education,

Thank you for the opportunity to provide testimony in support of the nomination of Elvin Chang as a Regent for the University of Guam. I have known Elvin for many years both in his capacity as a partner with Ernest and Young and as Treasurer for the St John's School Board. Since his retirement, I have had the pleasure of knowing him more on a personal level.

Professionally, Elvin brings to the University of Guam his vast consulting experience and expertise in the areas of business performance, risk management, financial advisory, strategic analytics, investment strategies and many more that would indeed strengthen and augment the University's financial policies and plans. Central to the advancement of our Institution of Higher Learning is its Corporate Governance and with Elvin's experience he will indeed add to ways that the University's Corporate governance can be greater. He will help management navigate the many regulatory mandates and accreditation requirements it faces inherent to doing business as an accredited University. He can be a sounding board for the University's financial management and will be valuable in discussions of matters that are specific to audits, accounting, and finance. As you can imagine Elvin is undoubtedly a good choice.

Elvin is a well-travelled and well-read man. His knowledge of the many cultures, lifestyles, traditions, practices and histories of humankind is amazing. His interests in science and the humanities are vast. All this seem so natural about him and yet so modest. He is inquisitive, interested, keen and very considerate of his responsibilities and obligations. He has great respect for cultural diversity and differences. His work ethics are strict and his integrity honorable. This is his character attitude and personality which makes him a perfect fit for the duties and charges of a University of Guam Regent. Again, he is certainly a great choice.

In this regard, I ask for your unanimous vote to confirm Elvin Chang as a University of Guam Board of Regent.

Respectfully Submitted,

Lou A. Leon Guerrero

Honorable Speaker Won Pat,

I have personally known Mr. Elvin Y. Chiang for over 30 years and fully support his nomination as a Regent for the University of Guam Board of Regents.

As is well known, Mr. Chiang is a highly respected member of our community. He is cherished as a husband, father and relative to his extended family, as well as a good friend and valued confidante to many others. He distinguished himself in his chosen profession by adding multiple language abilities to his CPA training and applying these and other life skills to successful leadership roles as Managing Partner, and currently as retired Senior Adviser, of the Guam Ernst & Young CPA firm.

His exemplary values were further demonstrated through his commitment to youth and education by volunteering his time and expertise to teach at the University of Guam over a six-year period.

Mr. Chiang possesses a great many other fine qualities which are too numerous to detail here, but will undoubtedly benefit the University in many ways. I therefore unreservedly recommend your positive consideration of his nomination. Meanwhile, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you very much for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Subject: Appointment confirmation hearing –

Mr. Elvin Chiang
Appointment for Regent, University of Guam

Madam Speaker,

Please accept this letter in support of the Governor's appointment of Mr. Elvin Chiang as a Regent for the University of Guam.

Mr. Chiang has made Guam his home for many years and has been a vital contributor to our island community.

The University of Guam has had the privilege of having him serve as a past Chair of the Advisory Council of the School of Business and Public Administration. He also served as an Assistant Professor of Accounting. These past experiences and exposure to the challenges at UOG will allow greater understanding and support in advancing the University's Good to Great mission.

A Certified Public Accountant (CPA), by profession, his certifications will greatly enhance and expand the level of support that the Board of Regents provide.

Certainly, if you review his application package, you will agree that his professional and social achievements listed present the story of a gentleman who has spent much volunteer time assisting our community.

As a current Regent of the University of Guam, I humbly request the support of this Legislature to confirm this appointment to allow Mr. Chiang to serve as a Regent to the University of Guam.

Your kind attention and support is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours.

Committee of Education, Public Library and Women's Affairs

Honorable Speaker Won Pat and Committee members:

This is to support Mr. Elvin Y Chiang, who is being appointed for a position as a UOG Regent.

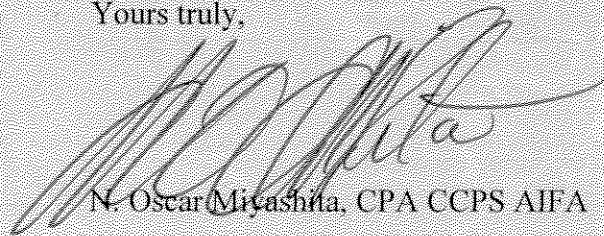

I have known Mr. Elvin Chiang from 1989 ever since he joined Ernst & Young (EY). Subsequently, he became a partner of EY and assumed the position of "Country Managing Partner for EY Guam, Saipan and Micronesia"

Elvin is a man of highest integrity with impeccable ethical standards always doing the right things. He is also a proven leader who has successfully ran the EY Guam, Saipan and Micronesia practice for years while I assumed the EY Far East Area executive role. He is also most the efficient, organized and well balanced individual I have ever known getting everything done so quickly, properly in an orderly fashion. With his excellent educational back ground as well as his invaluable experiences teaching at UOG in the past coupled with the leadership abilities he has successfully exhibited at EY, I am confident that he will be one of the most invaluable contributors/assets among the UOG Regents.

Accordingly, I hereby wholeheartedly support the appointment of Mr. Chiang for the position on the UOG Board of Regent.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions or if you require any clarifications.

Yours truly,

N. Oscar Miyashita, CPA CCPS AIFA
