II. TESTIMONY & DISCUSSION

Vice Speaker Benjamin J.F. Cruz: This evening we have one executive appointment of Kristal K. Koga to serve as Member of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA). I think I know you quite well. I received at least a dozen emails of testimonies in supports of your confirmation. So why don't we just start and have a fellow going-to-be board member go ahead and introduce you and hear your testimony.

Donna Kloppenburg: Okay, good evening senators. I'm Donna Kloppenburg and I'm also a current member of the Guam CAHA Board. I'm the most recent member and I'm very happy to be here this evening to support Kristal Koga's nomination to serve on the board of CAHA. I've known Kristal for probably about almost twenty (20) years now. We worked together on many different fundraising activities through the Guam Council of Women's Club, Soroptimist, worked on some things for the American Cancer Society. And I know her to be a very hard worker, very talented, and she will be a wonderful addition to our CAHA Board as we move forward in helping to plan our Festival of Pacific Arts (FestPac), which is coming up soon, and we really need her help.

Chairman Cruz: Please. We need a fundraising chair.

Mrs. Kloppenburg: Yes, I heard that. I did hear that. She's an excellent fundraiser. So I'm very happy to be here on behalf of the CAHA Board and say that we hope she gets to work quickly on the Board. I know she'll be a wonderful addition.

Chairman Cruz: Yes, after reading all the glowing letters of recommendation that I've received through e-mail over the last week and a half, I'm sure she will. Ms. Koga, if you would just introduce yourself and read your testimony.

Kristal Koga: Well, my name is Kristal Koga. I'm born and raised in Honolulu, Hawaii. And I graduated from Kalani High School. I then received my B.S. in Liberal Studies, Cum Laude, from Oregon State University. I have been on Guam for over two decades, have run my business called Kristal Kollection, which retails women's contemporary wear, unique accessories, men's exclusive printed island wear shirts, and specialized uniforms. We do many benefit fashion shows for the non-profits and large entities, such as the hospital in Palau – we were flown there and we did a fundraiser for them – as well as in Honolulu for the Kuakini Geriatric Hospital. I have been involved with non-profits since 1997 when I was inducted into the Soroptimist International of the Marianas (SIM), [of] which I still am a member. I have served as a president of SIM and president of Guam Council of Women's Clubs, which is the umbrella organization for the non-profit women's clubs on Guam, and was the 2010-2012 Federation of Asia-Pacific Women's Association International (FAWA) president. I was elected as president [of FAWA] in Taiwan in 2010, and our installation dinner was officiated by Taiwan Vice President [Vincent] Siew and the opening ceremony was conducted by Taiwan President Ma [Ying-jeou]. And we did present them with a Guam painting as an official gift, which was done by Ron Castro. Thereafter, Guam hosted the international convention of FAWA in 2012 and we welcomed delegations from all over the Asia-Pacific.

Ron Castro – once again, very generous and very involved with CAHA – created much of the local artwork for our convention, such as [this] front cover (scan of artwork appended to report) here. So he did the latte stone and the puti tai nobiu or the bougainvillea and the lavender color scheme, which was FAWA's colors, as well as this hand-painted original item that we gave to each delegate from off island as well as the local committee members and sponsors. So you see the Guam theme throughout his painting. This was exactly what we gave them.

And President Barack Obama, Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, and the late Senator Danny Noah also received these pieces of art, both items, as they supported FAWA Guam in our endeavors. And you will see their letters in our program here and the President's will be actually in the proceedings, which will come out later this month because his letter came very late. Apparently there's a one-month – he can't give a letter prior to one month before an event, and we had to put this to bed and print this longer than a month before the event so we couldn't include his letter.

I have attended many off-island conventions and conferences and [more] often than not, I ask Ron [Castro] for paintings I can bring as gifts, so I have been promoting Guam art and the artists here for many years. And I'm proud to do so. So I can leave these if you want to look through, they can be samples. And I just wanted to say that I read through CAHA's bylaws and all their mission statements. I'm familiarizing myself with them. It's a lot to go over. And as Donna [Kloppenborg] said, FestPac is coming up in 2016 as well as the Prevention and Early Intervention Advisory Community Empowerment (PEACE) Person for the Arts, one of CAHA's initiatives, I read through that. So I'm familiarizing myself with the Council. And I just want to thank you for your time and [that of] everybody here that supported me. Thank you very much.

Chairman Cruz: Well you promoted everybody but you didn't bring any of your artwork. I would have loved to see that.

Ms. Koga: My skirt [has my artwork design] (referring to her outfit). And I have a calendar with some of our designs. So I could leave one as well.

Chairman Cruz: Mr. Kloppenburg in the back, maybe you can get him to commission you a new shirt for us at Guam Visitors Bureau (GVB). We just came back from Seoul, Korea, and we got the Best Design for the booth and the dancers got Best Entertainment so maybe we'll get the Best Costume if you would design one for us for our next one.

Ms. Koga: In fact, FAWA will be held in Seoul in October 2014, so Guam will be sending a big delegation. Donna is the president of the Guam Council of Women's Club. They're going to be our head of delegation, so it should be a really nice representation.

Chairman Cruz: Okay, well, you're both on CAHA and that's before we do FestPac. We have lots of meetings and I know Donna's been very active with co-chairing one of the subcommittees. So I'm very excited by the fact that you're willing to go on. And I know we had a recent resignation on the board, right? Is that why we're filling? I thought there was a resignation.

Mrs. Kloppenburg: Oh no, maybe one of the committees.

Chairman Cruz: So I'm hoping we'll have a full board. If you guys continue to operate, and especially since CAHA has undertaken the responsibility of co-chairing all the subcommittees in FestPac, you'll have a very busy next two years. And with everything you've been describing about what you've done over the last two decades since you moved to Guam, you should make an excellent addition to the co-chairmanship. Your confirmation should be done within two weeks. So you'll be at work and we expect you to attend board meeting more frequently than some other people. Because there's lots and lots of work with FestPac and we look forward to maybe you heading up the group that does co-chairing, the textiles. That would be exciting and interesting to have done. Because I know there will be a whole display on that. I know there's a fashion show that's being planned with your background and clothing designs that may be your area to take up. I really have no questions; I mean, you're obviously very involved in the community with non-profits and I'm very happy that the Governor and CAHA Board has decided to ask you to come on board. Senator Ada, do you have any comments?

Senator Tony Ada: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I think the Chairman said it the best: it's a fresh new face to the CAHA Board. I think you'll make a great fit into there. I'd like to thank you for taking the Governor's call and stepping onto the Board, be a part of it, helping the community and the island. You will have my full support and vote for your confirmation. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Chairman Cruz: (to Nadine Cepeda) Did you want to testify? Please come on up. We have your written comment, but it would be nice to be read [it] into the record.

Nadine Cepeda read her written testimony (appended to the report) into the record.

Chairman Cruz: (to Ms. Cepeda) Thank you very much for that well-written testimony. If we don't have anything else, like what Senator Ada said, (to Ms. Koga) thank you very much for accepting the Governor's invitation to serve the community. You obviously have done a lot in the community in the past, anyway, so this should be nothing new. The next two years are going to be very, very, very busy, so put aside a lot of time because it's going to be a lot of meetings, a lot of preparations for FestPac and it should be a very exciting time. With your help, I'm sure Guam will shine again in 2016 when we host FestPac. On behalf of the Legislature, I want to thank you for offering yourself, and we should have your confirmation out within two weeks so you can get to work. Thank you, and this hearing is adjourned.

III. FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

It is with pleasure and enthusiasm that I write this letter in support of Ms. Kristal K. Koga for her appointment as a Member of the Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities.

Kristal is a beautiful designer who excels in retail and continues to be an artistic asset to the Guam community. She has also been involved with various women's organizations such as the Guam Council of Women's Club, Soroptimist International of the Marianas, and the Federation of Asian Pacific Women's Association.

The wisdom she has gained through her leadership as a business owner, as well as her experiences with non-profit organizations has prepared her well for this appointment. A few of her accolades are listed below;

- 2006 US Small Business Administration Women in Business Champion
- 2006 Guam Legislative Resolution
- 2006 US House of Representatives Congressional Record
- 2009 nominee First Hawaiian Bank/Glimpses Business Women of the Year
- 2009 Soroptimist of the Year

Feel free to contact me anytime should you need more information. In short, Kristal and I have been friends since high school. I am proud for her because she has grown into a wonderful person. Thank you so much for your consideration and time.

Aloha Senator Cruz,

I am writing to you about my dear friend, Kristal Koga and her involvement in The Guam Council on the Arts and Humanity Agency.

I have know Kristal for 30 years. We went to high school together and have remained in touch since then. During those years she had been a very smart and articulate student. She showed leadership qualities not seen a whole lot, at her young age.

She started designing and making clothes and has built up her own company which is still in existence today.

Her personality and calm and cheerful attitude would be an asset to the council. I am very proud and honored to know her. She will be a very good member of your agency.

Dear Vice Speaker Cruz:

Thank you for hearing testimonies regarding the appointment of Kristal K. Koga to serve as Member of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency.

I have known Kristal Koga since approximately 1993, when I was introduced to her clothing designs by a friend. Subsequently, we became friends, when she joined the Soroptimist International of the Marianas club where we worked on projects together, and she then served as President of Soroptimist International of the Marianas from 2004-2005. Kristal is also a member of several other non-profit organizations on Guam, including a Past President of the Guam Council of Women's Clubs, and she is the Immediate Past President of the Federation of Asia-Pacific Women's Association (FAWA) which is an international organization that was established to effect major changes to the status of women in Asia.

Kristal Kogais well known in the community and serves and supports these organizations graciously and sacrificially. She is a diligent worker and is successful in her business and leadership endeavors. Being in the fashion industry, Kristal has a keen eye for details and is likewise well known for the quality of her work, as well as, helping others to achieve the highest standards possible when working together. I can personally attest to this, as I was the Convention Chairperson for the 2012 FAWA convention hosted on Guam, when Kristal Koga was the sitting President. She worked closely with the organizing team, and motivated us to produce a highly professional and successful event. I was able to witness that Kristal is very diplomatic and knowledgeable of customs and protocols required when working with dignitaries and individuals of high society, as well as, foreign cultures.

I highly recommend Kristal K. Koga to serve as Member of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency. She will be a great asset to the organization.

Sincerely,

Sylvia K. Crafton

Re: Notice of Confirmation Hearing and Invitation for Testimony for Kristal Koga

Dear Senator Cruz:

Håfa Adai! It is with great pride that I endorse the appointment of Kristal Koga as a Member of the Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities Agency. I have known Kristal for 22 years, and I have witnessed first-hand her generosity and compassion for the people of Guam as well as her endeavors to celebrate the diverse cultures that compose the island. Kristal's leadership and work with the Soroptomists International (SIM), Guam Women's Council (GWC), and Federation of Asia-Pacific Women's Association (FAWA) are testaments to Kristal's ability to lead and inspire others. In addition, Kristal's involvement with numerous charity events held on island is indicative of her commitment towards helping the people of our island. Kristal is not only rooted in Guam's culture, but she is also invested in the mission of assisting with Guam's continuous improvement. Summarily, Kristal is an intelligent business woman, a community service leader, and a kind friend.

It is my belief that Ms. Kristal Koga will make an excellent member of CAHA. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this written testimony, please communicate with me at 671.688.7878 or at rowenavegacastro@hotmail.com.

With great respect,

Rowena P. Vega Castro, Ed.D.

To whom it may concern:

Dear Sir:

I write this letter to provide my unequivocal endorsement of the consideration of Kristal K. Koga to become a member of the CAHA Board.

I've known Kristal for about ten years in a professional and personal capacity. I've had the opportunity to work with her on many occasions in a number of areas. Kristal always projects herself to be a confident, mature, no-nonsense individual with outstanding leadership abilities. She never hesitates to assume additional responsibilities as a volunteer for many non-profit organizations. She has managed to earn the respect and confidence of fellow volunteers and friends from other organizations. This is evident in her election as lead in several non-profit organizations such as Past President of the Soroptimist International of the Marianas, Past President of the Guam Council of Women's Clubs and Past President of the Federation of Asian Women's Association. I've seen her actively recruiting, advising and providing information to potential and current volunteers during much of her personal time. She helped plan, organize, and execute major events that have helped their cause including raising tens of thousands of dollars of support.

In other instances where I was able to observe her, she clearly displayed fine qualities as an individual, a leader and a friend.

CAHA will greatly benefit if Kristal becomes a member of the Board. I am extremely confident she will perform superbly as a Board officer as she has for all organizations she's worked with. Kristal has been an asset to all organizations she belonged to and has greatly contributed to them through her leadership, experience, and positive attitude. The pursuit of this membership into your organization is more evidence of her desire for challenge and self-improvement, characteristic of a true leader and hard working volunteer.

Dear Vice Speaker Cruz,

This letter is to show my full support of the appointment of Ms. Koga as a Member of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency.

I have known Ms. Koga for more than 15 years on a professional and personal level. She is an individual with high integrity and strong work ethics.

As a self-employed individual, she is still able to give back to our community in her active participation of several women's non-profit organization (Soroptimist International of the Marianas, Guam Council of Women's Club, to name a few) and has held various Board positions in each of these organizations.

Having Ms. Koga as a Member would be beneficial addition to this Agency.

Re: Kristal K. Koga & Notice of Confirmation Hearing and Invitation for Testimony

Dear Senator Benjamin J.F. Cruz,

HafaAdai! I am writing today to endorse a highly suitable individual as a member of the Guam Council on the Arts & Humanities Agency, KRISTAL KOGA. In many ways exceeding the challenging requirements and expectations this position may entail, Kristal's ambitions, intelligence, and accomplishments complement precisely the stellar community of participants involved with this Council & Agency. I do believe that Kristal Koga is highly deserving of this Executive Appointment bestowed by the Committee on General Government Operations and Cultural Affairs.

To further support this invitation, I am pleased to express in more detail my personal insights into Kristal's unique talents and qualifications. I have known and worked with Kristal for the last six years and have always found her dependable, efficient, organized and unfailingly professional. In fact, I have never worked with a person who gives as much attention to detail as she does. Also, her willingness to take on various leadership positions in the community and see them to successful completion has repeatedly impressed me over the years. Kristal Koga is a business woman and a leader committed to sustainable development on Guam. She recognizes the cultural preservations of a value system to maintain and to build the foundation of Guam's future, and continues to empower women of all ages by her accomplishments. THIS is evident by her continued commitment to serve as a member and leader of many Women's Organizations on both a local, national and international level – making her an Ambassador of Guam. For as long as I've known Kristal Koga, she has served leadership positions over the years without hesitation, such as President of the Federation of Asia-Pacific Women's Association, President of the Guam Council of Women's Association and President of the Soroptimist International of the Marianas.

Her skills do not end with her office work and community involvement. She also projects a warm, cheerful attitude to those she comes into contact with. I have seen her resolve conflicts and handle other difficult situations with remarkable patience and admirable tact. In the community, she goes out of her way to help people in need by organizing charity drives and fundraiser events. She loves people, works hard, and always tries to lift the spirits of those around her. She is an example and role model for women of all ages in that she possesses and projects a strong self image and exudes confidence. I believe these characteristics represent all that is good and most important in the Council of Arts & Humanities, and I am honored and pleased to write this letter of testimony.

Hafa Adai Vice Speaker Cruz,

On behalf of the Guam Community College, I would like to submit this written testimony in full support of the appointment of Ms. Kristal K. Koga to serve as a member of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency.

Ms. Koga is an accomplished fashion designer who has successfully run her own clothing line, the Kristal Kollection, for the past 23 years. In 2006, the U.S. Small Business Administration honored her as Women in Business Champion of the Year for Guam.

She is also a leader in our community and in the Asia Pacific region. Ms. Koga served as president of the Federation of Asia-Pacific Women's Association (FAWA) when Guam hosted the 20th FAWA Convention in October 2012. She has held leadership roles in the Guam Council of Women's Clubs and Soroptimist International of the Marianas, and is a member of the International Women's Club.

In addition to Ms. Koga's artistic talents and business savvy, she has demonstrated that she is an effective leader who engages in productive dialogue and activities within the Guam community and in our region. I am confident that her presence as a member of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency will benefit and enhance this organization, and I fully support her appointment.

Re: Testimonial on behalf of Kristal Koga for the CAHA Board

It is our immense pleasure to provide our recommendation for Kristal Koga to an Executive Appointment as a Member of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency. Andy and I have known Kristal and her family for over 24 years while living in Honolulu and Guam. We consider Kristal to be a highly intelligent hard working self-starter who never loses sight of her goals. She is a fine person with a great deal of integrity and we are proud to call her a friend.

As an Entrepreneur, she has developed and created her own clothing line known as Kristal Kollection with loyal customers and a following on Guam. She is well respected, both as a person and a professional, by colleagues, suppliers and customers alike.

With her leadership and organizational skills, Kristal was elected President by members of the Soroptimist International of the Marianas, the Guam Council of Women's Clubs, a member of the International Women's Club of Guam and the Movers and Shakers of Guam. Most recently, she was the President of the Federation of the Asia-Pacific Women Association when Guam was the host of the convention for various Asian Country members as well as numerous non-profit organizations on Guam.

Kristal has the overall managerial, operational and business knowledge while being a strong team leader and player. She has vision, character and technical experience to provide the CAHA Board with making a strong sound decision.

We therefore have no hesitation whatsoever in giving our unreserved recommendation.

Sincerely,

Andy Jordanou

Dear Mr. Chairman,

I am writing on behalf of Kristal K. Koga regarding a position as a Member of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency. Kristal and I have known each other for the past fifteen years. During this time, I was able to get to know Kristal quite well and can thoroughly vouch for her character and abilities.

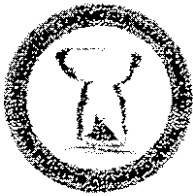

Kristal is a pleasure to work with because her pleasant and positive attitude can make nearly any work seem fun and interesting. She held several leadership roles in our community as well as Hawaii. She served on civic boards in Hawaii and served as President Elect, Soroptimist International of the Marianas, International Professional Service Organization which focused on women and girls, Ways and Means Coordinator to name a few. She has been recognized for numerous awards such as USA Small Business Administration, Women in Business Champion of the Year for Guam, Guam Legislature Resolution, and US House of Representatives Congressional Record.

She continues to be an active member in our community by sharing her talents and treasures in meaningful events that assist us in moving forward. She is able to communicate effectively with everyone she encounters. With her relentless motivation and her knowledge of business, Kristal would bring a wealth of knowledge and skills to the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency. I know she would be an excellent fit for your organization. She is an asset and would contribute to the purpose of the Council.

Subject: Testimony in support of the appointment of Kristal Koga to the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency Board of Directors

Dear Vice-Speaker Cruz:

Håfa Adai! Chairperson Monica Guzman and I, Joseph Artero Cameron, President for the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA), a Division of the Department of Chamorro Affairs is very pleased to provide testimony in support of the appointment of Ms. Kristal Koga to the CAHA Board. She is known as many things, an astute entrepreneur, philanthropist and patron of the arts.

Ms. Koga is highly qualified for a position on the Council. She has demonstrated a personal and professional commitment to the arts with an unwavering desire to improve the quality of life for the people of Guam.

She currently serves as the President of the Federation of Asia-Pacific Women's Association and been actively involved with many groups and associations including the Guam Council of Women's Club, Soroptomist International of the Marianas and International Women's Club of Guam. Ms. Koga possesses the knowledge, expertise, and vision to move the Council and its initiatives forward. Her strengths in business management, event planning, and public relations would make her an asset to the Council. We believe in Ms. Koga, her integrity, compassion and leadership. We are confident that through her the arts will flourish and thrive on Guam.

We fully endorse Ms. Koga's appointment to the CAHA Board.
