II. SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY & DISCUSSION

Chairman Rodriguez: Ms. Santos, we recognize you. We want to congratulate you on your appointment. I will give you an opportunity to speak about your appointment to the Council

Marcelene Santos: Good morning senators. I am the Public Guardian since July 2009. My role as a Guardian is probably what gave rise to the Department of Mental Health and the Governor in appointing me to the Advisory Council. As a Public Guardian of Mental Health I see it in a piece meal basis. Currently, I have about 80 boards and more than half of them are consumers of Mental Health. So, I attend multidisciplinary team meetings and I see what they have to offer in individual basis for my ward. I hope that by being a part of the Council I will have a bigger picture and offer my perspective as a guardian a good number of their consumer. I am a practicing attorney in Guam. This is my second career I used to be a psychologist and I have a Masters Degree in Psychology from UCLA and my Law Degree in from Southwestern Law in Los Angeles. I have been an attorney for 20 years and have been a school psychologist for 10 years before that.

My interest in individuals with disabilities has been my goal. When I came back to Guam, I worked for special education law, which is not called the IDEA. Even though I've practiced law in many areas, this is also where my heart is.

Chairman Rodriguez: So, before the Advisory Council, do you know if there is a panel. This is the first that we've received this term.

Marcelene Santos: Judge Consuelo Marshall was concern that the advisory council wasn't up and functioning. I believe it was through her orders that they made this push to try to build this position in the advisory council. I am not quite sure if it's the same group. I have one ward that is a member of the board that complains about the board. I am not sure if this is a council they have had in the past that is composed of consumers. I am aware that Judge Marshall was concerned about this advisory council that is a part of the law.

Chairman Rodriguez: that is the same concern that the committee received. We are happy that it was you and we want to figure out with the administration where they are heading out.

Senator pangelinan: that is the same question I have with the Chairman. A you know, the Guam Mental Health was recently reverted back to the Government of Guam. I was just wondering if you were asked to serve to the council. Was there a concern about getting additional people and their timeline in the administration in order to ensure to continue the progress that we have made there in gaining control? Is there anything shared with you by the administration?

Marcelene Santos: He did told me a time by when to submit my application. I understand that there were other candidates as well.

Senator pangelinan: We ask to encourage you to relay to the administration that the committee has expressed the concern and the senators as well that we get this thing moving and we make that transition from federal receivership from mental health and giving the resources it needs and the resources of the council in the permanent injunction. Your background does show that you will make a valuable addition to the Council.

Marcelene Santos: even when I advocate for my clients, I often times bring in Guam Legal Council to have another pair of eyes to monitor my work as well.

Senator Aguon: Thank you very much Marcie. Thank you very much for extending yourself to our community. A concern is basically the activation of this position in the council, particularly, the fact that it is active in nature. I do know that when the transition is occurred, I share also the sentiments of the speaker and the chair in making sure that the support is there. One question that I wanted to make is that is always gratifying to say that individuals who share concerns or receiving services from mental health that you are willing to provide that addition support. It does not only speaks of your work but also of the community in terms of looking at you moving in that direction with your heart and soul in providing the best advice and services that you can provided in that particular department. There are times where appointments are made to a particular position and the individual has very little experience in that arena but will do an excellent job but your credentials are taking a leap in making sure that you are able to provide the support and service. Marcie, you have my support. We want the council to make sure that the services are available to the community and that we can also get information within reason.

Senator McCreadie: Congratulations Ms. Santos. I was very enlightened that you are an advocate for disabled people. Last week we had a round table with individuals with disabilities. What would you do in your capacity as a member to make sure that we educate and communicate that self advocacy and absolute entitlement is given to persons with disabilities? How would you move that forward? It seems that they have momentum, how would you make sure that the momentum will keep on going?

Marcelene Santos: I agree with you that there is momentum in improving the department and that we want to maintain the momentum. From the consumers that I represent, I think that they are learning the skills of self advocacy that there are workshops and activities that are provided by organizations like Guma Mami. I think that they only needed to be encouraged to continue their self advocacy but also encourage other people who need help. I know that it is a part of the law is to use whatever supports there are in the community to help further encourage people who need the services and to seek services. If the current consumers feel as if they have been helped or have been listened to, I think they will be the best advocates for the people.

Senator McCreadie: you made a good point that it is part of the law. A lot of people who have disabilities do not know the law or do not follow the law. Do you agree that there should be programs for the community to be better educated to incorporate in their daily lives?

Senator Yamashita: I just want to say that Ms. Marcelene Cruz Santos would be an excellent addition to the council of Mental Health and Substance Abuse between our Manamko; and to the growing families and children in our island.

Marcelene Santos: education is always a good thing and that it can probably remove the stigma. Not only in regard with the law, but also in making that stigma less and having the people aware of it and understand that these things happened.

Chairman Rodriguez: There will be no other questions for the panel. We will keep the record for a few more days for those who wants to be included and provided testimonies. We will also follow up with the administration to see the status of this council as well.

SENATOR DENNIS G. RODRIGUEZ, JR.

Explain any periods of unemployment longer than thirty days: _____

I moved back to California in July 2003 after resigning my position at the University of Guam in order to spend time my mother who was then 86 years old. I spent the first few months renovating a rental property so that I could live there with my children in addition to being a stay at home mom while my minor daughters adjusted to their new school and activities. I remained unemployed until February 2004 when I began my employment at the LA County Office of Education as a Deputy General Counsel. I work for the full year of my probation however the General Counsel did not recommend me to become a permanent employee despite the fact that had the support of other administrators with whom I worked. Because I was at the end of my term, she was not required to give a reason. When my term ended, my daughter also fell ill and there were many doctors' appointments and hospital stays for the next 6 months. Therefore, she was my priority.

In 2008, Breon and Shaeffer lost a major client which forced them to lay off the associates and staff. See attached letter from Bill Shaeffer.

I applied for many jobs during 2008, however that was the year that the economy was taking a downturn and jobs were difficult to find.

RE: Marcelene Santos

To whom it may concern:

I am pleased to highly recommend Marcelene Santos for any position in your firm or office. We are a small law firm representing school districts and one county office of education. We recently lost our major client which reluctantly forced us to lay off Marcy, the other associates, and office staff. Otherwise, Marcy would still be working for us.

We primarily represent our clients in education law, employment law and litigation. Marcy always worked cooperatively and pleasantly with our clients, and the other attorneys and staff in our office. Marcy was presented with a wide variety of assignments during her employment with us. Marcy always performed the assignments timely, diligently, and in an exemplary fashion.

During Marcy's employment with us, Marcy was primarily assigned to all of our special education work. Marcy was the only attorney in our office who did this work, so our clients relied solely on her expertise without any supervision from the partners. Marcy also conducted many DFEH/EEOC investigations for our clients. She prepared the summaries of findings and recommendations for our clients. Marcy prepared the client's DFEH or EEOC responses. Marcy also assisted me in trial preparation, law and motion assignments, depositions and other discovery matters, and research on appeals. Marcy also prepared summaries of evidence and transcripts for administrative hearings. Finally, Marcy prepared a wide range of research memos for Keith Breon.

Please call me if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

BREON & SHAEFFER, PLC
