II. SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY AND DISCUSSION

The public hearing was Called-to-Order at 2:00 pm.

Opening Testimony

Francisco Santos

Provided oral testimony

Mr. Santos is the Chairman of the Board for the Port Authority. He stated that he knows Mr. Calvo as a friend and public servant. Mr. Santos stated he believed in Mr. Calvo's management, skills, leadership, and experience and furthermore, he stated he believed that Mr. Calvo would be a great help to the Board and projects of the Port. Mr. Santos closed by humbly asking for the Committee to support the confirmation of Mr. Calvo.

James Marquez

Provided oral testimony

Mr. Marquez stated he is a brother-in-law of Mr. Calvo. He spoke about Mr. Calvo's family background and described Mr. Calvo as being humble, respectful, religious, and a civic leader. He stated that he believes Mr. Calvo has the management skills to become a board member. He also stated Mr. Calvo is dedicated to his work, loyal, persistent, a team player and that these are attributes that make him qualified for the board when it comes to the making decisions that will impact the island. He asked the Committee to support the confirmation of Mr. Calvo.

Dale E. Alvarez

Mayor of Santa Rita

Provided oral testimony

Mayor Alvarez emphasized Mr. Calvo's character as a hard-worker, with determination, and the willingness to give back to the community in anyway he can, which is a great asset. Mayor Alvarez stated that more importantly because Mr. Calvo's a resident of Santa Rita, he remembered Mr. Calvo when he came to his office to offer his help to the community despite their political differences. Because of this, Mayor Alvarez stated he believes Mr. Calvo will display the same enthusiasm and energy he did, when he was the chairperson for Chamorro Land Trust Commission. Mayor Alvarez then stated Mr. Calvo possesses the qualities of leadership that are important in making sound and responsible actions and decisions and Mr. Alvarez asked the Legislature to fully support Mr. Calvo.

Henry Simpson

Provided oral and written testimonies

Mr. Simpson narrated his written testimony and described when he first met Mr. Calvo and his parents Herminia & Jose Calvo who owned a vast track of land in Apra Heights they let local motorcycle riders use for off-roading. Mr. Simson stated this began their friendship and now they are like brothers. Mr. Simson then proceeded to read an article written in 2001 when the Guam

International Raceway in Yigo was opened and named after Mr. Calvo's parents. (See attached article)

Joanne M.S. Brown

Former Senator and General Manager-Port Authority of Guam

Provided written testimony (See Attached)

Miss Brown read her written testimony in favor of Mr. Calvo's confirmation to serve as a member of the Board.

Question, Discussion and Answer

Senator Tom Ada disclosed that Mr. Calvo is his first cousin. He then stated he wanted to clarify items on Mr. Calvo's attached resume' under employment profile because it showed that from the year 2008 to present, Mr. Calvo was the Chairman for Chamorro Land Trust Commission (CLTC). Senator Ada asked if that was accurate?

Mr. Calvo answered no.

Senator Tom Ada asked if Mr. Calvo's tenure ended in 2012.

Mr. Calvo answered yes. (He then interrupted Chairperson Ada and reminded him that he was not given the opportunity introduce himself to the Committee)

Chairperson Ada apologized for his oversight and yielded the floor to Mr. Calvo.

Mr. Calvo then introduced himself to the panel and thanked those that supported him. He stated that he worked hard and is always out in the community giving a helping hand. He further stated that it took him three times to think and really consider this nomination because he does not want to go the same process that he has gone by the previous Chairman (when he was re-nominated as a member of the CLT Board and referring to Sen. Ben Pangelinan). Mr. Calvo stated Senator Pangelinan told him that the Committee recommended not to put his nomination on the floor because there were not enough votes and that he did not want to embarrass him. Mr. Calvo then stated that he insisted that he was willing to take the chance. Then, Mr. Calvo stated that he asked to see the Committee Report but Sen. Pangelinan denied the request. Mr. Calvo stated that he had to resort to the Sunshine Act and he stated he found out only Sen. Pangelinan was against him. Mr. Calvo then stated that as a veteran and a Chamorro, he did not feel he deserved this treatment. He stated this is important for him and he emphasized it now because he may not have a chance anymore and that he wanted to put it on the record.

Senator McCreadie stated that he has known Mr. Calvo for a while and everything his supporters said resonates. He further stated Mr. Calvo is passionate of what he wants for the future and the Legislature should give him the opportunity to have a day in Legislature. Lastly, Senator McCreadie stated he will support Mr. Calvo's nomination.

Senator Duenas began by telling the panel he was the Director of Land Management when Mr. Calvo was leading the CLTC and he further stated that he was proud of Mr. Calvo. Senator Duenas continued, stating, there were some unpopular decisions such as lease payments and he remembered walking into the office and no one would talk. He stated Mr. Calvo took charge of these issues and helped to hold the Trust intact. Senator Duenas stated that because of his experience with Mr. Calvo, he certainly would give his vote for his confirmation.

Senator Tony Ada stated for the record that Mr. Calvo is his Uncle. He further gave his hat off to Mr. Calvo cause he came back before the body. Senator Tony Ada then explained that it is an injustice for anyone who came before this body for confirmation to have their packet held in Committee and he stated that one individual should not have the power to decide for the entire body. Senator Ada stated it took away [Mr. Calvo's] right and [the body's] right to vote. He closed by stating he is glad he is back again and that Mr. Calvo would have his full support and vote.

Senator Morrison thanked those who provided testimony and stated he is inspired by Mr. Calvo's willingness to serve on Boards or Commissions. Senator Morrison stated that he believed with [Mr. Calvo's] experience, he will have the ability to navigate to Port's complex issues. Senator Morrison stated Mr. Calvo would have his full support.

Chairperson Tom Ada asked Mr. Calvo how he will fit in and contribute to the policy making role the board is responsible for?

Mr. Calvo answered that he went to the Board meeting the previous week and he stated he admits he has to learn more about the Port's system and management functions. He further stated it is premature for him to say he can do this and that. He then stated when he was the Director for CLTC he travelled around from north to south and his plan for the Port is to visit every department and see what are the weaknesses and how he can help. He further stated that if given the opportunity to serve, it would be an honor.

**It should be noted that at this point, Mr. Calvo again lamented at his treatment by the Legislature in the past. Mr. Calvo's statements were not related to his nomination to the Port's Board of Directors.*

Ann Marie Arceo, a teacher at Hurao Academy stated she was representing various Guam cultural organizations. She stated she has known Mr. Calvo since 2006. She further stated that in God's grace Mr. Calvo has been instrumental in assisting and identifying land needed for Guam's children to continue the preservation of the island's culture. She stated she supports Mr. Calvo and she will be disappointed in losing him. She then stated Mr. Calvo's heart is giving and assisting and if God so willed for him to serve in another capacity all in the name of giving; then she accepts the decision. She further stated that Ms. Joanne Brown will be blessed to have Mr. Calvo on the Board. Lastly she said in God's grace she thank him for giving her the opportunity to give favorable testimony. Then she asked the panel if they have a question to ask in Chamorro.

*(**Ms. Arceo presented testimony in Chamorro – translated to English by the Office of Senator Thomas C. Ada)*

Chairperson Ada stated that with no further questions for the appointee, the confirmation hearing for Mr. Oscar A. Calvo has been duly heard. The Public Hearing was adjourned at 2:43 pm.

III. FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

*The Chairman would like it noted that Mr. Calvo was given several opportunities to explain what he thought he could bring to the Port Authority's Board of Directors, but Mr. Calvo instead chose to explain the circumstances of a previous appointment to a separate entity unrelated to his appointment to the Port.

The Committee on Public Safety, Infrastructure and Maritime Administration hereby reports on the appointment of Mr. Oscar A. Calvo to serve as a Member to the Board of Directors of the Port Authority of Guam, for a term commencing on the date of his confirmation and expiring on December 31, 2015, with the recommendation to report out only.

Subject: LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Hafa Adai:

It is with great pleasure that I write in recommendation of Mr. Oscar Calvo. I have known Mr. Calvo for quite some time now and know him to be a trustworthy, sincerely dedicated and committed to improving and strengthening our island community.

I am grateful to have met Mr. Calvo during my time of need. His courteous attitude and patience in handling my specific issue has proven himself to be of good character and spirit. He was always willing to explain and answer my question in a courteous and respectful manner. He was sensitive to my needs and provided the quickest and most convenient solutions to my problems from his perspective.

My apologies for not attending the confirmation hearing due to death in the family and had to leave off-island.

I unhesitantly recommend Mr. Oscar Calvo and have no reservation that he will be an abundance of positive qualities as a board member for the Commercial Ports.

If you have any questions or need more information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Dear Senator Ada:

I am providing favorable testimony for the confirmation of Oscar A. Calvo to serve as a member of the Jose D. Leon Guerrero Commercial Port.

I have had the opportunity as the Assistant Director for Soil and Water Conservation at the University of Guam (UOG) from 2008 to 2010 to work with Mr. Calvo during his tenure as the Chairman for the Land Trust Commission (CLTC). Mr. Calvo recognized that the CLTC did not have the staff resources or the in-house capability to address the much needed review of the CLTC lease programs. He partnered with UOG and entered into a Memorandum of Understanding to bring additional technical resources and expertise to assist the Commission in addressing deficiencies within the Land Trust programs. During his term, Mr. Calvo initiated and in-depth review of CLTC agricultural and commercial leases to determine if the lease programs were being properly implemented and also determine if recipients of CLTC agricultural lands or the commercial lease holders of land trust property were properly abiding by lease requirements.

This was the first time since the creation of the CLTC that this type of work was undertaken to insure the accountability of the agricultural land lease programs and actually have CLTC leased properties inspected and assessed to determine compliance. The unfortunate reality as a result of this assessment initiated by Mr. Calvo and his Board Members is that a significant number of CLTC lands were not being used for their intended purposes and a number of commercial lease holders were also substantially delinquent for many years in paying the Land Trust their lease payments.

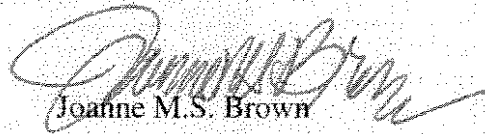

Mr. Calvo did not find these practices acceptable and was moving forward with addressing and enforcing compliance standards and accountability of CLTC recipients that were abusing Land Trust properties. Mr. Calvo also initiated the development of proposed Rules and Regulations for the lease of commercial Land Trust properties to insure the equitable and standardized administration for CLTC commercial land leases. These Rules were forwarded to the Guam Legislature for action. The significant steps taken by Mr. Calvo during his Chairmanship of the CLTC had not been made prior to his term or since the completion of his term with the Commission.

Mr. Calvo also previously served as an active member of the Guam Telephone Authority (GTA) Board during the transition of GTA from a government owned department to a privatized telecommunication company.

Mr. Calvo has now been appointed by Governor Eddie Calvo to serve as a Board Member of the Port Board of Directors and as General Manger of the Port. I and support his nomination. I have seen Mr. Calvo make tough decisions when many other individuals would simply complain and not take up the challenge to contribute their effort or expertise to improve our community. I know that he is an individual who will speak his mind when he sees an injustice and will continue to volunteer his time to make Guam better. I am confident that he will continue to do so as a member of the Port Board.

I request the Committee on Public Safety, Infrastructure and Maritime Transportation to favorably support the nomination of Mr. Oscar A Calvo to serve as a member of the Port Board of Directors and forward his nomination to the Legislative body for action.

Sincerely,

Joanne M.S. Brown

Honorable Senator Tom Ada, members of his committee, and Senators of the Guam Legislature.

My name is Henry Simpson and I am here to testify on behalf of Oscar Calvo for a position on the Board of Directors of the Port Authority of Guam.

1st met Oscar late 1960's, after arriving in Guam & working in a motorcycle shop. Co-works took me to the Track in Apra Heights. They told me, that is Mr. Calvo's land and he always lets us ride.

Over the years Oscar and I became good friends and his Mom & Dad, Herminia & Jose Calvo made me and many others riders feel like part of their family. Oscar always made me feel like a brother.

As a little back ground on Oscar and his family I would like to read to you an Article that was written in 2001 when the Guam International Raceway in Yigo was opened and the off road portion of it named after his parents. It is titled "Where it all Began"

Oscar is a wounded Vietnam Veteran. He was blown out of a 25' guard tower during combat. Oscar retired from GTA with an exemplary record. Has been an active member of the community - CLTC Board member.

His family has asked him to assume the roll of family leader and spokesmen to negotiate any family business. Oscar has many brothers and sisters and his ability to facilitate and enable them to work together is one of his many skills that will make him a great board member for PAG.

Lastly he is an outstanding cook!

Where it all began

Before Smokin Wheels, before the Guam Racing Federation, before people even began to recognize Guam's potential as a venue for motorsports, there was a core group of motor enthusiasts — and there was a local couple who let them ride bikes on their land. If not for the good will of that couple, Herminia and Jose Calvo, the racing events of August 4 and 5, 2001, might never have been. In fact, the park itself might never have been. Now, with the dedication of the off road portion of the track to Jose and Herminia Calvo, people around the world will link their names, and rightly so, to the success of motorsports on Guam.

Two of their sons, Rick and Oscar tell a story that shows Jose Calvo had a heart of gold. He also understood a thing or two about human nature.

"One day we were down here with my dad on the ranch — my dad did some farming," recalls Rick Calvo referring to family land in Apra Heights. "There were some guys riding around on motorcycles here, and I said, 'Dad, how come those guys are riding here? We need to tell them it's private property.' All Dad said was: 'Yeah.'

"As we were leaving, I was surprised when he stopped the Jeep and told one of the young riders to gather his friends because he had something he wanted to tell them. 'This is private property,' he told them. 'Just don't horse around, and don't kill the plants.'

"He stopped just short of deputizing them!" Rick Calvo jokes. "He let them keep riding. He said to me, 'Boy' — he called me Boy — 'Boy, where are they going to go if we don't let them ride here?'"

Jose Calvo recognized the passion for off-roading shared by the likes of John Benner, Eddie Sanchez, Pito Flores, Jesse Stein, Jimmy Cameron, Kenny Pier, Fred Benton, Kim Flores, the Pickelseimers and the Tajalle brothers, to name a few. They were going to ride their bikes no matter what, and they needed a place to do it.

"It was nice over here," said Henry Simpson, who today is president of the Guam Racing Federation. Back in the '60s, Simpson was one of those impetuous, young bikers happily cutting his own trails through the scrub on Calvo land. "It has beautiful natural terrain. We didn't have to build any jumps or anything ... just cleared a little. It was a great place to ride."

There were all kinds of bikes back then — big and small would race against each other — BSA, Bucatti, Norton, Suzuki and others. "It didn't matter," said Oscar Calvo. "It was jungle rules," he laughs.

"My parents never asked for anything in return," Oscar recalls, adding that his father would let people farm parts of the property, also. "My father was a real gentleman. If my parents got something, then O.K. But they didn't ask for it. There was plenty of room here." Of course, he admits, the Calvo's 11 kids got something out of it — free admission and the excitement of having a race track right next door.

Riders from those days will remember Herminia Calvo treating them to delicious baked goods that she made in the small family bakery. Her daughter operates Tita's Bakery using Herminia Calvo's recipes. Simpson said that Herminia Calvo, a selfless and happy woman, loved to see the racers enjoying themselves.

As the races got bigger and the racing scene grew more organized, Simpson said, various groups and clubs agreed to pay property taxes on the Calvo's land. Then a death in 1979, and a subsequent string of lawsuits threatened the future of the Apra Heights track. "After the death, they could have closed it down," said Oscar, "but they didn't. A lot of people would have said, 'That's it, no more.' ... My father was a very religious man. He believed that God would take care. No matter how hard the hardships were, the pain and agony would resolve itself."

Rick said family members had misgivings about continuing. Simpson said everyone involved learned a lot from the incident. It was clear that some legal arrangement had to be reached. Eventually, 60 acres of the property was leased to the racing groups to ensure protection of the rest of the family land from involvement in any legal action that might result from accidents at the track. Someday, the racers would have to find a new place, but for now, they were welcome to use Calvo land.

Rick Calvo says that the people in Dededo and Yigo will come to like their neighborhood attraction. "For one thing, it will be engineered by pros. Over here it was an eyeball thing," he laughs.

"Finger-thumb," Oscar demonstrates, sighting down his arm, laughing. "Yeah, we really miss the track. It's so quiet around here now!"

Today the Apra Heights land has been divided into lots for the family to share. Some of the survey stakes run down the middle of the former track. "My father was very supportive of motorcycle racing. He used to treat them as family," said Rick Calvo. "Up until the time he died, my father said to let the racers use the land as long as possible."

So, it is with honor and gratitude that the Guam Racing Federation has chosen to dedicate the off-road portion of the new Guam International Raceway Park to the couple who gave so much to the sport, Herminia and Jose Calvo.

Jose and Herminia Calvo.

Oscar Calvo, Henry Simpson, and Rick Calvo.

Re: Letter of Endorsement for Nomination of Mr. Oscar Calvo
(Port Authority of Guam- Board of Directors)

Buenas Yan Hafa Adai! My name is David V. Camacho. I would like to provide my endorsement of Mr. Oscar Calvo's nomination to the Port Authority of Guam Board of Directors.

I base my endorsement on the many years I have known Mr. Calvo as a long-time personal friend. I know Mr. Calvo as a man of integrity. He bases his attitude and approach to life on his humble beginnings and has remained grateful for all his good fortune. Mr. Calvo is prideful of his heritage and its traditions and culture as a Chamorro. It is here that I believe and have confidence of Mr. Calvo's ability and capacity to serve and prove instrumental to and in any endeavor he attempts to take upon himself. By accepting his appointment, it is clear he is prepared and ready to take on challenges and expectations placed before, should he be confirmed as board member.

Mr. Calvo commands discipline and integrity in his personal life, knowing all too well the value behind the meaning, "you reap what you sow". He has lived by this credo and has proven himself thus far gaining appropriate respect from his peers, subordinates, and the core of any organization he has been blessed to affiliate with.

With this I humbly request your kind and positive consideration for Mr. Calvo's appointment to the Port Authority of Guam's Board of Directors.

Subject: Testimony Supporting Oscar Calvo to the Port Authority of Guam Board

Dear Senator Ada:

I am offering my support for the nomination of Oscar Calvo to the Port Authority of Guam Board of Directors. I have had the privilege of working with Mr. Calvo as a commissioner of the Chamorro Land Trust Commission for the last two and a half years. During the time we served on the commission together, Mr. Calvo took a very active role on the commission working diligently for the commission and its constituents. His efforts were always selfless and always for the interest of the general public.

Mr. Calvo is an honest individual who takes great pride in serving the people of Guam in a public capacity. He is not shy to express his opinion and he always sought to promote efforts that enhanced the Chamorro Land Trust's ability to conduct its mission to provide lands to the Chamorro applicants. I believe he will continue to give his full efforts as a productive and constructive member of the Port Authority of Guam Board of Directors.

I humbly ask for your support of Mr. Oscar Calvo's nomination and confirm him.

Most Respectfully,

MICHAEL J.B. BORJA
ACTING CHAIRMAN, CHAMORRO LAND TRUST COMMISSION
