Honorable Speaker Won Pat and members of the Committee.

For the record, my name is Lea Santos and I am the Executive Director of the Guam Commission for Educator Certification. I support the nomination of Dr. Elisabeth Ichihara – Rosario to the GCEC.

The nominee is currently a guidance counselor at the George Washington High School. Her nomination meets the requirement of Public Law 29-73 for a Guidance Counselor Representative.

Elisabeth will be an asset to the commission and brings a different perspective as a teacher and guidance counselor. She is certified as a Secondary Science teacher who taught at the Agueda I Johnston Middle School for 9 years. Upon her return on island, Elisabeth has been a guidance counselor at the Guam Dept. of Education for the last 10 years.

She has also pursued training in various areas like HIV / AID and online distance learning and has a proven record of leadership in several school activities including accreditation.

I humbly ask the I Liheslaturan Guahan for your favorable consideration of Dr. Elisabeth Ichihara – Rosario's nomination. Si Yu'os Ma'ase and thank you for giving me the opportunity to provide this testimony.

31st Guam Legislature

Madam Speaker,

Thank you for the honor of allowing me to testify in behalf on Dr. Elizabeth Ichihara-Rosario, ED.D to the Guam Commission for Educator Certification. It is with deep pleasure that I highly recommend Dr. Elizabeth Ichihara-Rosario, to the position of Guam Commission for Educator Certification.

I have known Dr. Ichihara-Rosario since the early 1990's when she was the Guidance Counselor at Agueda Johnston Middle School. At that time, my wife and I accepted our close friends' adopted daughter, a full blooded Korean girl, to live with us because her parents can no longer handle her. The young lady supposedly got involved with the Los Angeles Gang "The Crib" and consequently she became highly incorrigible and only because of Dr. Rosario's professional demeanor, tenacity and patience, we succeeded in turning the young lady onto the right path. She is now a married mother raising three children and is holding down a steady job. In other words, she is now a productive member of the community.

Not to be redundant, Dr. Rosario has since achieved a Master's Degree as well as a Doctoral Degree in her related field of Education. She has also gained other experiences making her a better-rounded professional, as well as parent and a community services individual.

Because of all the above accomplishments and experiences, Dr. Elizabeth Ichihara-Rosario will be a definite asset to the Guam Commission for Educators Certification position and I recommend this Committee to approve her appointment.

Thank you,

Eloy P. Hara

Hafa Adai Madame Speaker and fellow committee members:

My name is Kelly Sukola and I am very proud and honored to testify today on behalf of Dr. Elisabeth Ichihara-Rosario, whom I have known for over 33 years. Lizz, as she is known to me... and by the way that is Lizz with two Zs, can be described with two words, Zest and Zeal and she truly represents her Zs well.

Lizz has the energy, passion, and commitment that is evident by her involvement with student organizations, school committees, and community outreach. Many times she takes on leadership roles in her participation with these activities such as Accreditation Coordinator, Department Chairperson, and Head Advisor for the National Honor Society. She advocates and supports her students in their endeavors and motivates them to reach their goals. "Momma Lizz" is what her kids call her at George Washington High School because she goes above and beyond for her kids to ensure they have what they need. She has a can-do attitude that is contagious and motivating, encouraging her students to meet graduation requirements and letting some of them know that Rainbow graduation is Graduation. She looks out for her at-risk kids connecting them with needed services in the community for them and their families. Her involvement with Education Talent Search and Upward Bound gives her the edge to steer kids towards college and help them realize that College is possible. Lizz has a huge heart that gives, and gives, and gives, and she is loved, not only by her students, but by all who know her.

Lizz's 20 years of school counseling experience has given her the skills and knowledge to help not only students, but also teachers, administrators, and parents. She has been the Eskuelan Puengi coordinator for many years, taking on an administrative role overseeing teachers and staff and working directly with parents. Her knowledge of our Educational system goes beyond the role of a counselor and includes understanding the various Board Policies, School Rules, and Standard Operating Procedures that are involved with running a school. The extensive knowledge she has with the Department of Education will help her fulfill her duties and responsibilities as a Commission member.

Another facet of Lizz's life that compliments her professional accomplishments is that of her personal endeavors. She has been married for 26 years and has four beautiful, loving, grown children. She earned her terminal degree in Educational Leadership from Argosy University, Hawaii in 2012. An effort made and achieved by few. Lizz has always made education first and foremost in her life, both personally and professionally. Her commitment and dedication to her personal and professional goals are met with success. She is someone who doesn't give up and lives by the motto "Where there is a will-there is a way." I can go on acknowledging the many ways that Lizz cares for and gives back to her students, profession, and community, always seeking to improve our future. The time allotted, allows me to just barely scratch the surface because she has done so many wonderful things in her life. Lizz is very qualified to serve as a member on the Commission and I hope that I have given you the essential information to help you make your decision.

Madame Speaker, I humbly ask for your support and affirmation of Lizz's appointment as a member to the Guam Commission for Educator Certification. For 33 years, I have walked alongside her and I know, unequivocally that she will contribute positively to the mission of the GCEC.

Sincerely,

Kelly Sukola, Ed.D., I.M.F.T.

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to recommend Dr. Elisabeth Ichihara-Rosario to represent the Guam Professional School Counselors in the Guam Commission on Educators Certification. I believe she will represent this professional in her utmost ability because she possesses the experience and the institutional knowledge in her career as a school counselor.

Dr. Ichihara-Rosario has exhibited excellence in her duties as a counselor and her relations with students, faculty and staff. Her work with the community has also been very good. As the current advisor with George Washington High School's National Honor Society chapter, Dr. Ichihara-Rosario networked with all areas in our community to promote fellowship and effective leadership.

Please consider her nomination to this important governing entity. She will bring great ideas and she will work tirelessly to represent Guam's school counselors.

Hafa Adai Speaker Won Pat:

My name is Dr. Elisabeth Ichihara-Rosario. I want to thank you for giving me this opportunity, to come before you to humbly ask for your confirmation to the Guam Commission for Educator Certification, Guidance Counselor member.

If I am given the privilege of being a member of the Guam Commission of Educator Certification I will work with educators to strengthen, and enforce the standards set by the Commission. This task requires an understanding, commitment, and dedication to the certification process that I willingly and wholeheartedly support. The work that the Commission has started since 2008 is vital to validating the profession of education. I am eager to help the Commission move forward with its goals such as implementing standards for professional conduct for Guam educators, Bill No. 420-32, introduced by you, Speaker Won Pat. I will be here to testify in support of the bill on November 24, 2014.

I received a doctoral degree in educational leadership from Argosy University, Hawaii in 2012. I completed my dissertation on Exploring Emotional Exhaustion Among Secondary Teachers in the Guam Department of Education. As a counselor I work with teachers and have observed over the years that they experience emotional burnout. This sparked an interest in me to examine the phenomenon of burnout among educators with the Guam Department of Education. I learned that female teachers are provided support through their relationships; therefore creating a more encouraging environment that helps them manage stress in their lives better than their male counterparts.

I have a master's degree in counseling, and over nineteen (19) years of counseling experience with the Department of Education. As a counselor, I work not only with students, but also with teachers, administrators, staff and various members in the community. As a counselor, I go outside my role and serve as an advisor to many clubs and organizations such as the National Honor Society, Educational Talent Search, Upward Bound, Math Club, Peer Mediation, and various class councils.

I am also involved in school committees such as Accreditation, Safer Choices, Crimestoppers, and I supported my department as department chairperson at different times throughout my career. Some of the community organizations I have networked with are Habitat for Humanity, Sanctuary, Girl Scouts, St. Dominic's, Big Brothers-Big Sisters, and many other social service type agencies.

Speaker Judi T. Won Pat, Ed.D.

Additionally, the professional organizations I have been a part of include Phi Delta Kappa, Guam Association of School Counselors, International Reading Association, and the National Association of Secondary School Principals. I have always chosen to be involved in many activities and find myself taking on leadership positions that have contributed greatly to my skills and knowledge. Without these opportunities, I would not be able to contribute as a professional and impact the lives of my students, colleagues and community.

Aside from my professional involvement and experience, I have gained strength and knowledge from my family and my Chamorro cultural values: values such as hard work and honesty. And faith, faith is very important at times when you need guidance and strength. I was raised by my mother, Leonila Okiyama Ichihara and my father, Jose Mafnas Ichihara in the village of Yona. I have a twin sister, a brother, and younger sister who have supported me in everything I do. I am married to retired MSGT John Joaquin Manglona Rosario and have four beautiful grown children between the ages of 18 and 25. My family is my inspiration that gives me strength and energy to always do my best, give back to my community and achieve my goals in life.

Again, I want to thank you for this opportunity to appear before you. Your positive consideration of my nomination will be greatly appreciated. I am open to answer questions you may have.

Very respectfully,

Elisabeth Ichihara-Rosario, Ed. D.
