Dear Vice Speaker BJ Cruz,

I am writing in support of the appointment of Agnes Malilay White to as a member of the KGTF/PBS Board of Trustees.

Agnes is a upright, solid citizen who strongly supports public radio and television broadcasting. She is civic-minded and passionate about issues that involve the community, as evidenced by her work as a diabetic home instructor-nurse. In particular, her six children have benefited from public television through their participation on academic challenge bowls over the years. As her sister, I have known her to be fair and open-minded.

I am sure she will be an asset to the board.

Re: Submission of Testimony in Support of the Confirmation of Agnes Malilay White to Serve as Board Member for PBS Guam.

Dear Chairman Cruz and Committee Members:

My name is Cynthia V. Ecube, and I am a solo practitioner licensed to practice law in all local courts of Guam, and in the Federal District Court of Guam. I am pleased to present my testimony today in support of the confirmation of Agnes Malilay White to serve as a member of the Board of PBS Guam.

I have known Mrs. White for most of my life through our close family ties and relationships. We also attended elementary and high school together at St. Anthony School and the Academy of Our Lady of Guam. Mrs. White was an exceptional student having graduated at the top of her class in both elementary and high school. Mrs. White continued in her academic success by obtaining her Bachelor of Arts in Biology and a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degrees from two (2) prominent universities in the U. S. Mainland.

“Aggie”, as she is fondly known by many of her family and close friends, is truly a product of success in both her professional career and her family life. Having grown up with Aggie since early childhood, her success and motivation to do well is largely attributed to the strong and positive influences of her parents who came to Guam in the early 1960's from the Philippines with the Camp Rojas project. After settling on Guam, her parents became active and productive members of our community, focusing primarily on the education of their children.

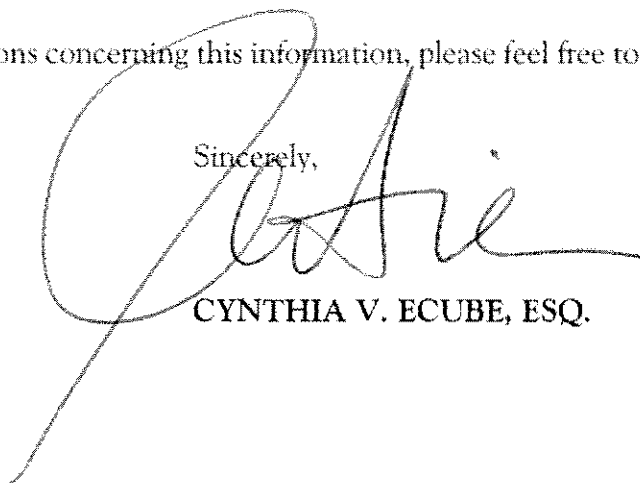

Mrs. White has followed the same mission as her parents. A mother of six (6) children, she along with her husband, Charles White, have worked diligently to provide the foundation, skills, and spiritual guidance to enrich and strengthen the lives of their children and their family. Mrs. White serves dual roles as an educator. She currently serves as a Health Educator and Trainer in the area of chronic diseases, and also has served as the primary instructor of her children as a home school teacher for over twenty (20) years. As a result of her structured academic curriculum and training, her two (2) oldest children have successfully advanced in their college education and are both currently enrolled in competitive graduate programs in the Mainland. She continues to actively homeschool her younger children and participates in various educational activities and events conducted with the HomeSchool Association of Guam.

One of the fundamental educational resources of her academic program has been the involvement of activities and events promoted by public television and KGTF/PBS Guam. For over two (2) decades, she has encouraged her children to write and submit stories for the KGTF Reading Rainbow Contest. Her children have also participated and continue to participate in KGTF/PBS's Academic Challenge Bowl competing against other middle school and high school students. She has also encouraged her children to watch public television programs such as Sesame Street, the Electric Company, WorldWorld, Super Why, Martha Speaks, and Dinosaur Train, which are designed to motivate learning and promote education.

Based on her educational training, experiences, and her commitment to promote the advancement of education in our community, Mrs. White will be a valuable asset as a member of the Board for PBS Guam. I am confident that, if confirmed, Agnes Malilay White will serve the best interest of our community and the people of Guam, and I urge you and your fellow colleagues with the 32st Guam Legislature to confirm her appointment as a member of the Board of Trustees for PBS Guam.

If you have any questions concerning this information, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Buenas yan Hafa Adai Chairman B.J. Cruz and members of the Committee on General Government Operations and Cultural Affairs.

Agnes Malilay White is a legend of the Academy of our Lady of Guam Class of 1979. While I didn't grow up with Aggie, the girls from the Academy would sell their newspapers at GW and every quarter I saw her name on the Principal's Straight "A" List.

Recognizing only her name, I got to know Aggie through a mutual friend. From what I learned, Aggie, while an RN by profession, committed herself to providing a wholesome education for her six (6) children. She chose to home school her kids to ensure they were provided with a solid educational foundation. Additionally, she served as the Home School Association's Academic Challenge Bowl Coach. Before my tenure at the station, Aggie was involved with KGTF, now PBS Guam, in the various programs the station provides the community. She has integrated some of our resources in her daily curriculum with her children. Aggie understands the value public television plays in our community and she will be a valued member to PBS Guam's Board of Directors. For this reason, I ask that you support Agnes Malilay White as a board member to PBS Guam.

Dear Vice Speaker Cruz and the Committee on General Government Operations and Cultural Affairs,

I strongly support the appointment of Agnes Malilay White to serve on the Board of KGTF/PBS. Her high level of commitment to children's education and to health education would contribute greatly to public television and its educational outreach on Guam.

Thank you for your consideration.

SUBJ: Ms. Agnes White's appointment to KGTF/PBS Board of Trustees

Dear Vice Speaker Cruz:

I would like to express my support for Ms. White's appointment to the KGTF/PBS Board of Trustees, as I strongly believe she will be an asset to the Board.

I have known Ms. White since 1976, as we both attended and graduated from the Academy of Our Lady of Guam. She received her bachelor's degree from Washington University in St. Louis, and returned to Guam to build her career and family.

Through the years, I've know Ms. White to be intelligent, trustworthy, compassionate, and strong in her faith. I am confident that these qualities are what the stakeholders of KGTF/PBS expect from its board members. Education is very important to her; so much so, she dedicated herself to homeschooling all her children and is continually seeking opportunities for them to expand their horizons.

Ms. White and I are members of a local paddling team, the Guahan Flyers. I still remember when Ms. White first joined the team. She totally immersed herself in the activity, open to learn and eager to "pull her own weight" in the canoe. Her sense of humor will defuse any stressful moment the team may be experiencing during competitions. She is thoroughly a team player.

This snippet of her life is indicative of the type of board member she will be – dedicated and hardworking. Together with her experience as a mother and a nurse, I am confident that she will contribute positively to the Board, and that her actions will be guided with the utmost level of integrity.

Thank you for your consideration.

Vice-Speaker, 32nd Guam Legislature
Committee on General Government Operations and Cultural Affairs

Dear Vice-Speaker and the Committee on General Government Operations and Cultural Affairs:

This letter is written by the undersigned on behalf of Mrs. Agnes Mallilay White who is being considered for the appointment as a member of the KGTF/PBS Board of Trustees. It is with pride that I support Agnes Mallilay White's appointment, who is one of my paddling teammates and a great friend whom I have had the pleasure of knowing for about 5 years now.

Integrity in thoughts, a great sense of humor, strong in her religious faith, and passion in doing the best she can are the best-known qualities that I have found to be her valuable assets in the years of our friendship. She has the ability to put on a cheerful face even during difficult times. Being a skilled athlete, dedicated wife and mother, and having a longstanding commitment to children's' education, she is capable of handling and contributing to the post that she is being considered for.

I can confirm that she is a woman of great principles, is extremely dedicated, and quick to volunteer or assist in areas where she is needed. Without a doubt, I am confident that she will be a valuable asset to the KGTF/PBS Board of Trustees.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any further questions. I will be glad to help.

Sincerely yours,

Vice Speaker,

I am writing this to encourage the appointment of Aggie White as a member of the KGTF/PBS Board of Trustees.

Frankly, I'm not exactly sure what a member does but I do know from experience Mrs. White succeeds at whatever she sets out to do.

I have known her for over 35 years and know her passion for community involvement.

As a home schooling mother, Aggie has contributed and supported others such as myself not to mention the entire Guam Home School Association.

Whether promoting "island style" fun and fitness as a paddler or "helping to save Guam's reefs" through the Coral Reef Monitoring Program Aggie is truly dedicated.

She is devoted to her family and this island. Her organizational skills, positive hardworking nature and ability to provide practical solutions will enhance any board she is on. Thank you

Hafa Adai Vice Speaker Cruz,

I'm writing in support of Agnes White's appointment to serve as a member on KGTF/PBS Board of Trustees.

I've known Agnes for the last six years. We have become great friends through our local paddling team, Guahan Flyers. As the captain of the team, I can attest to her commitment and dedication to her fellow teammates as well as our organization, Haggan Outrigger Canoe Club. She is truly a team player, always willing to contribute and assist beyond our expectations, and an advocate in the promotion of our indigenous sport.

Additionally, Agnes is an educator and nurse and has a longstanding commitment and passion for children's education and health education.

I am confident that Agnes will be a valuable asset to the KGTF/PBS Board of Trustees. Without a doubt, she will contribute significantly to public television and its educational outreach on Guam.

Senseramente,

Dear Vice Speaker Cruz and the Committee on General Government Operations and Cultural Affairs,

I support the appointment of Agnes Malilay White as a Board member of KGTF/PBS. I've known Agnes for the past 2 years as a fellow teammate in our master's women's paddling team. Being the newest member of our team, Aggie as she is affectionately called, always strives for improvement and never hesitates to provide guidance in techniques that I am unsure of. I constantly seek her advice in health related topics pertaining to running. She never hesitates in providing solutions or working through situations to improve performance and efficiency. She is a true team player! She is a great friend and dedicated mother, I am confident that she will contribute to the mission of PBS greatly.

Sincerely,

I'm casting my vote for Agnes White towards joining your prestigious board of trustees of KGTF/PBS. I've known Agnes for the last 6 years as a fellow teammate in our master's women's paddling team and find her laughter and competitiveness to be contagious in our workouts and overall camaraderie both on the boat and off. Her sense of commitment towards achieving our "6 makes 1" paddling efforts make it effortless as she is one you can always count for contributing greatly to our team goals. A great friend, mother and spiritual leader in the community. Please allow her this opportunity-- you will not regret it!
