Senators Present

Senator Dennis G. Rodriguez, Jr.	Chairman
Senator Aline Yamashita, Ph.D.	Committee Member
Senator Brant McCredie	Committee Member

The public hearing on agenda item Resolution No. 58-32 (COR) was called to order at 1:00PM.

II. SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY & DISCUSSION.

Senator Rodriguez: I would like to thank the former First Lady Joanne Ada in working with my office to discuss why this is needed to be introduced as a substantive resolution. When she spoke to my office about this issue, I right away agreed that this needs to happen, so we wanted to bring stakeholders here in order to provide testimonies regarding the resolution. After passed by the full body, we will request the Governor of Guam, through executive order, to designate SinA as the state advocacy for the island of Guam and also as recommended by the Guam Developmental Disabilities Council to promote and support the development of leadership and self advocacy among people with developmental disabilities. We hope that through this Public Hearing, which I am sure, we will have a positive response from the senators.

Lyn Tydingco and Andrew Tydingco: Before I start giving you information about SinA, I would like to make note to the senators that SinA is spelled S-i-ñ-A, for the official documentation process. [Please attached written testimony]

Lisa Cabrera Ogo: I am glad to be in the SinA organization. The word meaning "can do" surely speaks for itself. This organization does not only support a single type of disability, but other disabilities. This is good because we can all learn about the other disabilities where we can learn from it. We all help each other to get through things in life while we also have fun with each other. If we do not have the answer that we are looking for, SinA help us find that answer.

Senator Rodriguez: Thank you. There are other individuals who have also signed in for the record in show of support, but without any testimony.

Evelyn Duenas: Hafa Adai. I am actively involved with various organizations, SinA is one of them. I attended the first state conference in Self Advocacy Becoming Empower in Kansas in 2010. It is an educational process and pulls people together for empowerment and voice concerns. This brought a huge spectrum of disabilities nationally and other territories. We interacted with different communities and states as well. The legislature is my third home because I am always willing to speak when it comes to empowerment and advocacy. I am grateful for SinA as being recognized as the local self advocacy group for Guam. This organization was not as strong as then but it has grown since then. I am proud to see that we are growing and coming to the forefront and be heard in order to get what we need in terms of services. When we advocate for services, it will involved everyone in the community, and not only the individuals with disabilities. I thank all of you for recognizing the need for this and making it a reality for us.

Ben Servino: [Please see attached testimony]

Reymond Salas: [Please see written testimony]

Ginger Porter: [Please see written testimony]

Senator Rodriguez: Thank you very much. Once again, we have others who signed in to express their support.

Carol Darlow: [Please see written testimony]

Senator Yamashita: Thank you very much Mr. Chairman. Thank you for finding the courage and confidence in speaking up. I want to raise some issues. The resolution is to recognize SinA as the self advocacy group. My question is how can we ensure that the other disabilities are engaged and a part of the efforts you are going to have, whether it's through decision making, showcasing, policy development, and federal grant opportunities? How do we make sure that we become one at the state level?

Lyn Tydingco: if you remember at the beginning of my testimony, SinA is consisting of all types of disabilities. If you look around the room, we have members involved in various organizations. We all collaborate with other organizations and we work together and are all welcome and a part of the group.

Senator Yamashita: Throughout the morning, we have talked and showcased the friendship and how Ginger Porter helped you in the construction of the project. How do we make sure that there is always going to be this relationship with the organizations? Will it say in the rules and regulations where there is an open door to these organizations? I do not doubt that you are not open because I know you are. My concern is that structure, how can we make sure of that?

SENATOR DENNIS G. RODRIGUEZ, JR.

Lyn Tydingco: Our constitution and Bylaws already states that we welcome all persons with any types of disabilities. If there is something else you want us to include in the bylaws, I can certainly bring that up since that it something that we already believe in.

Senator Yamashita: There is something that we discussed on the floor many times. The purpose of policy and the intent of policy are critical. I know that you are all inclusive. I just want to make sure that the statute state that everyone is invited at the table and has a voice in the table. I just want to make sure that the inclusion is there.

Lyn Tydingco: Senator, I will assure you that I will bring this up for consideration and implementation in the bylaws.

Senator McCreadie: I think you cannot say it any better that Senator Rodriguez and I will just adopt her testimony. I stand in full support and I understand that empowerment is key.

Josephine Cortez: SinA has done a lot. They helped me a lot in my disabilities and that they can help us. If it was not for them, I am not sure where I will be right now.

Senator Rodriguez. I think this demonstrates and importance and highlights the work the group has done and organized. We will bring this up to the Governor for an executive order. We also have others who have signed in favor and we will keep the record open for any others who wish to be included.

There being no other testimony, or comments by Senators, Chairman Rodriguez declared the bill as having been heard, and concluded the public hearing on Resolution No. 58-32 (COR).

What is SiñA?

SiñA: Self-Advocates in Action, a 501(c)3 nonprofit charitable and educational organization consists of individuals with all types of disabilities and their families. SiñA is an acronym for a Chamorro word meaning “can do” or “it is possible.”

Purpose:

The purpose of SiñA: Self-Advocates in Action, is to promote self-advocacy and self-determination for Persons with Disabilities and their families by assisting, educating, forming alliances, participating together to further strengthen efforts to accomplish individual goals to improve one’s quality of life; to experience self determination; to choose and decide for oneself; to speak up to empower one's self; to promote and protect one's dignity; and to educate each other, members of the community, and public servants on issues that are important to us.

History:

SiñA grew out of self-advocacy workshops beginning September 2009. Seasoned self-advocates were trained to facilitate workshop trainings and mentor participants in completing their self-advocacy projects. This process facilitated the bonding of self-advocates into a group dubbed as "The SuperFriends." As an informal group, the SuperFriends engaged in social networking, provided peer support and mentoring, provided formal input in regards to policy and directorship of agencies, conducted two forums for agency heads and policy makers, expanded the pool of trained facilitators, and with empowerment expanded participation and membership on boards and councils and built bridges with agencies, providing solutions to overcome barriers to services.

Accomplishments:

- Trained 9 Self-Advocates as facilitator/mentors
- Conducted 10 Self-Advocacy Workshops

- 101 persons have participated in Self-Advocacy Workshops.
- Trained and empowered Individuals With Disabilities to serve on boards and councils to have a meaningful voice at the table
- Annual SiñA White Cane Safety Day Blind Relay & 5K Power Walk
- Coordinated and Facilitated Guam's First Self-Advocacy Conference
- Hosted two agency and public policy forums
- A member of the national Self-Advocacy Organization, SABLE: Self-Advocates Becoming Empowered. Represented Guam at two SABLE Conferences

- Participated in a transportation forum
- Provided testimony at 3 public hearings
- Contributed to an Americans with Disabilities Act Roundtable
- Helped draft legislation and provided testimony to amend Guam's accessible parking law
- Two self-advocates established "The SuperFriends Radio Show" on Newstalk K57 in March 2011, to educate and promote community awareness. The program has gained a following from audiences of individuals with disabilities on Guam, within the Pacific region, and the US mainland. The radio show is regarding individuals with disabilities and issues that concern us.

- Presented at four conferences promoting education and community awareness/service activities
- Annual Gold Star Awards recognizing excellent accessibility
- Coordination and participation in the Liberation Day Parade
- Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month Activities
- Participated in two NDEAM activities
- Collaborated with the Guam Election Commission, Guam Systems for Assistive Technology, and Guam Legal Services

Corporation for voter accessibility during the 2012 Primary Elections

- Education, awareness, and displays at conferences and fairs for community outreach
- Established two high school youth self-advocacy chapters at John F Kennedy and Simon Sanchez High Schools
- SiñA Ta Kanta Concert
- Represented Guam in the 2012 Administration for Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Self-Advocacy Summit in Hawaii
- Assessed bank ATMs for accessibility
- Collaborated with Homeland Security to evaluate the accessibility of the mayor's offices for mass care

- Received two certificates of appreciation from DISID for the education and community awareness of the Americans with Disabilities Act
- The Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands has sought SiñA's assistance in training their self-advocate leadership teams in self-advocacy skills, mentorship, development of mission and by-laws, and financial management

Goals:

- Collaborate with Commissioner of the Administration of Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities to lead the national discussion to change the label of being a “consumer”

- To establish more youth chapters
- To continue to educate, train, and empower Individuals with Disabilities with the Self-Advocacy and Self-Determination knowledge, tools, and skills needed to enhance their lives

Testimony of Carol Darlow
Chairperson, Children & Families Committee
Guam Developmental Disabilities Council

In Support of the Resolution to Recognize
Self-Advocates In Action (SiñA)
As the State Self-Advocacy Organization of Guam
Submitted March 8, 2013

My name is Carol Darlow. I am the Chairperson of the Children & Families Committee, Guam Developmental Disabilities Council. More importantly, I am the grandmother of a twelve year old girl who has been diagnosed with autism.

I am here today to express my Committee's support of Legislative Resolution 58-32, "Relative to the consideration of Self-Advocates In Action (SiñA) to become a state self advocacy organization of Guam as recommended by the Guam Developmental Disabilities Council (GDCC) to promote and support the development of leadership and self advocacy among people with developmental disabilities, family members, and to the island community."

SiñA has facilitated many activities and events involving people with a wide range of disabilities during the relatively short time that it has been in existence. I don't need to repeat SiñA's accomplishments as most of these activities and events are stated in the Resolution that is being publicly heard today. But what I would like to highlight in our testimony is the impact of this amazing and remarkable organization.

SiñA has grown from a Core group of folks committed to showcasing the positive abilities of people who traditionally have been viewed as being "consumers" and "needy." SiñA has promoted what its name says, the "can do" spirit. It does event planning and implementation, grant applications, and fund raising. In addition, they host a radio show to provide a voice for persons with disabilities. SiñA participated as part of the Guam team in last year's Pacific Rim Conference in Hawaii. The enthusiasm, optimism, and positive traits of the organization's members, guided by exceptional leaders, are translated into the belief and application of values that foster the independence and interdependence of people with different abilities.

For example, one mother reported in our committee that her son with disabilities was being bullied and himself became a bully. She encouraged him to join SiñA to learn that there is nothing wrong about having a disability and to self-advocate. Today he advocates for himself and others. Through SiñA, he has learned how to change a negative into a positive, and is a better person.

In short, we wholeheartedly support the recognition of SiñA as the state self-advocacy organization. We believe, without reservation, that this organization will continue to represent Guam residents with disabilities with dignity, grace, and diplomacy at all levels.

Sincerely,

Subject: Testimony on Resolution No. 58-32(COR)

RELATIVE TO THE CONSIDERATION OF SELF ADVOCATE IN ACTION (SINA) TO BECOME A STATE SELF ADVOCACY ORGANIZATION OF GUAM AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GUAM DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES COUNCIL (GDDC) TO PROMOTE AND SUPPORT THE DEVELOPMENT OF LEADERSHIP AND SELF ADVOCACY AMONG PEOPLE WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES, FAMILY MEMBERS AND TO THE ISLAND COMMUNITY.

Buenas yan Hafa Adai Senator Rodriguez, and Members of the Committee on Health & Human Services,
Health Insurance Reform, Economic Development, & Senior Citizens

For the record, my name is Benito (Ben) S. Servino, and I currently serve as the Director for the Department of Integrated Services for Individuals with Disabilities (DISID).

I am here today on behalf of the staff and management at DISID, to provide our support in seeking the Legislature's consideration and approval for the Self Advocate in Action (SINA) to serve as the designated State Self Advocacy Organization for Guam.

The SINA organization has been very pro-active in promoting a greater awareness of disability issues regarding education, employment, transportation, health, and housing through their member's involvement in hosting the "Super Friends" Radio Show at K-57, conducting Self Advocacy Trainings for Individuals with Disabilities at UOG/CEDDERS, participation in various Councils and Boards such as the Guam DD Council, DVR's State Rehab Council, GSAT/CEDDERS Advisory Council, and Guam Regional Transit Authority Board, to name a few.

They have collaborated with DISID to co-sponsor many of our outreach and awareness activities including our ADA Awareness Event, the 2011 Guam Liberation Event where many of their members marched in front of our float during the parade and contributed towards the barbecue and food that was provided for individuals with disabilities within our community at the event.

I thank you for providing me this opportunity to provide input on Resolution No. 58-32 (COR).

Sincerely,

BENITO S. SERVINO

Re: Resolution No. 58-32

Dear Senator Rodriguez:

The Guam Legal Services Corporation- Disability Law Center (GLSC-DLC) is pleased to be able to support SiñA as the self advocacy organization for Guam. We have begun to work with SiñA on a regular basis last year and were pleased to accompany them to the self advocacy regional conference last March.

They have shown a great deal of enthusiasm for following through on the principles of self advocacy. This was particularly recognized by the director of the national Agency for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities. As a result of the efforts of SiñA, Guam is recognized as one of the leaders in the area of self advocacy in this region. Self Advocacy is one of the pillars of the national developmental disabilities program.

GLSC-DLC remains committed to working with SiñA on helping individuals with disabilities on Guam. SiñA has earned the right to be recognized as the self advocacy organization for Guam. We commend the Legislature for resolving to so recognize and together with the other members of the Tri-Agency (the Guam Developmental Disabilities Council and Guam CEDDERS) we expect to continue to further the efforts on behalf of individuals with disabilities in the future.

Sincerely,

HAROLD F. PARKER
Executive Director

Testimony of Carol Darlow
Chairperson, Children & Families Committee
Guam Developmental Disabilities Council

In Support of the Resolution to Recognize
Self-Advocates In Action (SiñA)
As the State Self-Advocacy Organization of Guam
Submitted March 8, 2013

My name is Carol Darlow. I am the Chairperson of the Children & Families Committee, Guam Developmental Disabilities Council. More importantly, I am the grandmother of a twelve year old girl who has been diagnosed with autism.

I am here today to express my Committee's support of Legislative Resolution 58-32, "Relative to the consideration of Self-Advocates In Action (SiñA) to become a state self advocacy organization of Guam as recommended by the Guam Developmental Disabilities Council (GDDC) to promote and support the development of leadership and self advocacy among people with developmental disabilities, family members, and to the island community."

SiñA has facilitated many activities and events involving people with a wide range of disabilities during the relatively short time that it has been in existence. I don't need to repeat SiñA's accomplishments as most of these activities and events are stated in the Resolution that is being publicly heard today. But what I would like to highlight in our testimony is the impact of this amazing and remarkable organization.

SiñA has grown from a Core group of folks committed to showcasing the positive abilities of people who traditionally have been viewed as being "consumers" and "needy." SiñA has promoted what its name says, the "can do" spirit. It does event planning and implementation, grant applications, and fund raising. In addition, they host a radio show to provide a voice for persons with disabilities. SiñA participated as part of the Guam team in last year's Pacific Rim Conference in Hawaii. The enthusiasm, optimism, and positive traits of the organization's members, guided by exceptional leaders, are translated into the belief and application of values that foster the independence and interdependence of people with different abilities.

For example, one mother reported in our committee that her son with disabilities was being bullied and himself became a bully. She encouraged him to join SiñA to learn that there is nothing wrong about having a disability and to self-advocate. Today he advocates for himself and others. Through SiñA, he has learned how to change a negative into a positive, and is a better person.

In short, we wholeheartedly support the recognition of SiñA as the state self-advocacy organization. We believe, without reservation, that this organization will continue to represent Guam residents with disabilities with dignity, grace, and diplomacy at all levels.

Sincerely,

Carol Darlow, Chairperson
Committee on Children & Families
Guam Developmental Disabilities Council

Hafa Adai,

Please replace this copy of my public testimony for the original provided at the Public Hearing chaired by Senator D. G. Rodriguez, Jr. on March 8, 2013 for Resolution 58-32.

The attached copy has the proper heading for the Senator and his Committee. All else remains.

Honorable Dennis G. Rodriguez, Jr., Chairman Committee on Health & Human Services, Health Insurance Reform, Economic Development, and Senior Citizens
32nd Guam Legislature
Hagåtña, Guam

Hafa Adai Chairman Rodriguez and Senators,

I am Ginger Porter, a resident of Asan, Guam, and I am here as the Initiative Area Coordinator for Leadership and Systems Change at the University of Guam Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities Education, Research, and Service.

The development of self-advocacy and leadership within the self-advocacy movement in our community has been a project of personal and professional satisfaction for me. I have witnessed tremendous personal growth in self-advocates, have seen community perception about disabilities change, and have seen the development of pride and accomplishment within the ranks of those who are self-advocates. It is with honor and pride that I provide my support for the designation of SiñA: Self-Advocates in Action as Guam's state self-advocacy organization.

SiñA: Self-Advocates in Action is a uniquely structured organization of persons of all disability types gathered together to promote the ability of persons with disabilities to speak up for what they need and to participate as a group to improve the quality of life for persons with disabilities.

A hallmark quality of SiñA, as an organization, is the education and mentorship extended to each other to effectively communicate, understand rights and responsibilities, and take control of life choices, even when it means approaching age-old cultural values that may diminish choices to live a free and self-determined life.

It is through education and mentorship that SiñA promotes the skill of individuals with disabilities to sit at the planning and policy development table and express meaningful input, and to take on leadership roles to guide and direct community understanding of disability issues and how these issues affect all members of our community.

The University of Guam is an equal opportunity employer and provider

SiñA promotes self-advocacy, which embodies the belief that disability is a natural part of the human condition. Throughout their activities, they promote the understanding of self, the building of self-confidence, the generation of disability pride, and the recognition and celebration of the contribution of Guam's disability community.

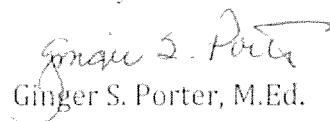

Just in the last two years, self-advocates have affected change in parking legislation and voter accessibility, voiced opinion for agency leadership, created alliances with service providers and agencies, and stimulated better access to businesses and services. The list of accomplishments in community access, policy, personal goals, employment, enrichment of daily life across the lifespan, and the development of alliances is extensive. But their mission has just begun.

As an organization, what else is on the horizon? As a state recognized self-advocacy organization, they will benefit from future federal recognition and funding support for the power of self-advocacy. I see their voice at the table for greater self-determination, more personal choice in their supports, their living arrangements, their mobility, equality in pay, and their freedom to make the same life choices as their non-disabled peers.

Collectively, SiñA is prepared to strengthen efforts to accomplish group goals to improve the quality of life for persons with disabilities. In the few short years of existence, they have a track record of great success in developing self-advocacy and advocacy. Therefore, I heartily request your support to designate SiñA as Guam's state self-advocacy organization.

I thank you for your consideration,

Sincerely,

Ginger S. Porter, M.Ed.

Testimony for Public Hearing
Resolution No. 58-32
March 8, 2013

Raymond A. Salas

Yigo, Guam 96929

Good Afternoon Committee on Health & Human Services, Health Insurance Reform, Economic Development, and Senior Citizens Members. My name is Raymond A. Salas and I am a board member of the Guam Developmental Disabilities Council Executive Committee. It gives me great pleasure to join The Honorable Dennis G. Rodriguez in recognizing his legislative measure relative to the consideration of Self Advocate in Action (SINA) to become a state self-advocacy organization of Guam to promote and support the development of leadership and self-advocacy among people with developmental disabilities, family members and our island community. Therefore, I humbly and respectfully request that you join me today in support of SINA as our island's state self-advocacy organization.

My initial journey began with the adults with developmental disabilities while employed with Guma Ma'mi, Inc. from 1992 to 1994. I had the wonderful opportunity to work with great people from the Governor's Persons with Disabilities Office and the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR), now known as Department of Integrated Services for Individuals with Disabilities (DISID) on the first-ever "Territorial Forum" for Persons with Developmental Disabilities before departing Guma Ma'mi. Forward to today 2013, I continue to witness their plight to be fully recognized as individuals with abilities and to be fully accepted in our island community; Full Inclusion is all we ask for!

Much is accomplished by SINA. 1) In 2011, self-advocates approved a constitution and by-laws; 2) Board of Directors made of seven (7) members, sixty (60) regular members that are individuals with disabilities, fifteen (15) associate members, and an Advisor. 3) Active networks of seven (7) community organizations, ten (10) local agencies, two (2) regional, and is a member of Self Advocates Becoming Empowered (SABE), a national self-advocacy organization. In 2012, SINA was lauded for their participation at the Administration of Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (AIDD) Self Advocacy Summit in Honolulu, Hawaii.

SINA is ready to become Guam's state self-advocacy organization. Tohge I Man l'nutet! Biba SINA, Biba Guam....

Thank you for your valuable time and consideration.

Very respectfully.
