COMMITTEE REPORT DIGEST

I. OVERVIEW

The Committee on Transportation, Infrastructure, Lands, Border Protection, Veterans' Affairs and Procurement convened a public hearing on June 26, 2015 at 1:00 pm in I Liheslaturan Guahan's Public Hearing Room to receive public testimony on Bill No. 97-33 (COR).

Public Notice Requirements

Public Hearing notices were disseminated via email to all senators and all main media broadcasting outlets on June 19, 2015 (5-Day Notice) and again on June 24, 2015 (48-Hour Notice).

Senators Present

Senator Thomas C. Ada	Committee Chairperson
Senator Tina Rose Muña Barnes	Legislative Member
Senator V. Anthony Ada	Legislative Member

The public hearing was Called-to-Order at 1:00pm.

II. SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY AND DISCUSSION

Chairperson Ada called the Public Hearing to order and yields to the sponsor to give an introduction of the bill.

Senator V. Anthony Ada: He started by saying Bill No. 97 is a consumer protection measure, in cases where an insurance company determines it is not feasible to repair a vehicle. When a vehicle is deemed total loss or totaled, such vehicles should be issued a salvage title, by the Department of Revenue and Taxation. When the insurance companies determine a car is totaled and pays off the insured value of the car, it requires the insurer to sign over the title of the car. Then the insurance company usually sells the remnant of the car for parts but often repair shops restore these vehicles. He goes on to say an unsuspecting buyer would be unaware that it has been in a major collision.

These vehicles are then sold as used, without informing the buyer of the collision history. Buyers would not know if the chassis was welded or if the airbags were deployed or other major problems with the vehicle. The buyer should always be aware but having a salvage title for the vehicle will alert prospective buyers, that there may be more damages to the vehicle then is evident. Senator Anthony Ada then states that this bill is about a buyers right to know that the vehicles they are buying are safe to use on our roadways. It is also to prevent anyone from selling a total car that has been repaired.

Chairperson Ada continues by calling those who have signed up to give a testimony.

Jennifer Camacho, Cars Plus/GADA: She states that she is speaking on behalf of the Guam Automobile Dealers Association. The association consists of the 6 new auto dealers Cars Plus, Guam Auto Spot, Atkins Kroll, Nissan, Triple J and Prestige Automobiles. She then reads the testimony in support of Bill No. 97-33 by GADA from Jay B. Jones, President.

Senator Muña Barnes: She starts by saying one of the concerns that was brought to her attention as one of the co-sponsors of the bill, was if the vehicle was deemed a salvage title and is then refurbished, that none of the insurance companies will insure the vehicle and in order to drive on our streets the vehicle has to be insured. With that would liability insurance be the only available option or could a refurbished care get insured 100% and they too would also get notified that the care was salvaged and repaired?

Ms. Camacho: She replies that it may come from the insurance company, they are the ones that will deem the vehicle unsalvageable. The loophole may be in the smaller shops that take in the vehicles, which have been completely totaled and putting them together. So of course the vehicle looks good but the consumer doesn't know that the vehicle has been salvaged. She goes on to say that the drop in the system right now, is those shops are able to register the vehicle, not knowing it is a salvage unit.

Senator Muña Barnes: Could a salvage unit be insured?

Ms. Camacho: She responds, right now, yes. It is unknown that the vehicle is a salvage title, which is why GADA wants to come forth and push the bill forward. And the bill allows protection to be there.

Joey Crisostomo, Cars Plus, GADA: He begins by saying that on a vehicle that is salvage, whether it has been damaged by accident or in a flood, the values in those cars drop up to 60%. Banks don't want to finance the vehicle but they won't know that there is a salvage title because they will look at a blue book but yet the car has been totaled. Salvage vehicles can get insurance, liability insurance but the bank won't finance it and the values are much less. A real life situation is that someone buys a one-year-old car and bought it from a third-party, not knowing that it was a total loss vehicle, frustration then starts for that buyer.

He says over the past five years he has seen it personally; someone has bought a car not knowing it has been in a major accident. They can buy the car and the body shop puts it together but the main concern is the buyer being aware. The buyer is unaware going into a situation that the vehicle has been totaled. He then states that there are many totaled vehicles on Guam that make it back onto the streets, with the buyers not knowing.

Chairperson Ada: He reinstates, that when a car gets totaled, the insurance company pays the full value, that company then takes possession of the car, and gets the title documents as well. So when the repair shop buys that car from the insurance company and along with that comes the title, the car is then restored and sold to a buyer. So when the insurance company declares the vehicle as totaled and before it is sold, it has to be reported to?

Mr. Crisostomo: The Department of Revenue and Taxation, they will then brand the title as salvaged and that brand stays on the title forever, he responded.

Chairperson Ada: He goes on to saying that covers the vehicles here on Guam. There are also used cars that are bought into Guam, how are we to know the status of the vehicles being brought into Guam?

Mr. Crisostomo: He responds that this situation is practiced in the states. Every state has a branding title and there are several cars that have come into Guam with salvage titles.

Chairperson Ada: He asks if that is a process in all 50 states?

Mr. Crisostomo: All 50 states, he responded. They get branded titles, so he is able to pull up a program like CarFax and it pulls information from Department of Motor Vehicles in the mainland and it will show, salvage vehicle. He goes on to say that the buyer knows that there is no warranty and are aware of what they are purchasing.

Chairperson Ada: So that takes care of the situation off-island, it is the situation here on-island that is not covered?

Mr. Crisostomo: He goes on to say that when a person here goes to transfer their title to a Guam title, it will have a salvage stamp on the title coming in. It is important that Department of Motor Vehicles follows it and marks salvage on the new title from Guam.

Chairperson Ada: He asks if a Dodge vehicle comes into your shop and wants to claim their warranty, your shop would be able to detect if the vehicle was salvaged?

Mr. Crisostomo: He replies yes, they are able to go into a program using the VIN number and that will give the history of the car. In that history includes the day the car was built, to its first servicing, all the way to the day that it was salvaged. He goes on to say that information on who the dealer was, the previous owners, etc. can be found.

Chairperson Ada: He states but that is in the mainland, where the salvage title is being used. How about here on Guam?

Mr. Crisostomo: He replies that here on Guam they won't know that the vehicle was in an accident. In other words, if you got into an accident with your car and it was a total loss and you never came back to the dealer, there would never be any knowledge of the incident. He goes on to say, so the new buyer buys the car and brings it in for warranty, they would not know. It is a shame on him for not catching if the vehicle was salvaged but to give the buyer information that their car was in a major accident is also disheartening.

He continues that they have had discussion with some of the insurance carriers and they are in favor of the bill as well. They would have no problems with the bill but he is not speaking on their behalf.

Chairperson Ada ends the public hearing for Bill No. 97-33 (COR).

Re: Testimony in support of Bill 97-33

Dear Mr. Chairman,

On behalf of the members of the Guam Automobile Dealers Association, I would like to offer my support of Bill 97-33 regarding the issuance of salvage titles for vehicles deemed a "total loss" in insurance claims. The automobile dealers of Guam find that it is very difficult to determine the history of a vehicle in order to ensure that it is safe and reliable. This new law would protect dealers and consumers from unknowingly selling or purchasing vehicles that have been substantially damaged.

Furthermore, this new legislation will help regulate the sale of these "total loss" vehicles by individuals and repair shops throughout the island who exploit this loophole in Guam law. Often these vehicles are sold to unknowing consumers who have little recourse should there be future mechanical or safety concerns with these rebuilt vehicles.

Passage of this legislation would benefit all of the citizens of our island and therefore the Guam Automobile Dealers Association offers its full support.

Sincerely,

Jay B. Jones
President
