II. TESTIMONY & DISCUSSION

Chairman Michael San Nicolas convened the hearing on the nomination of Mrs. Janine Guevara. He mentioned that the Committee was in receipt of several testimonies in support of the nomination. Chairman San Nicolas called Mrs. Guevara forward to read her opening statement.

Mrs. Janine Guevara read from a prepared statement (see attached). She shared her experience with giving back to Guam as a volunteer, along with her family, to many community causes including Kamalen Karidat, St. Dominic's Senior Center, the Salvation Army, and the Alee Shelter. She stated that she desired serving as a member of the Commission so that she can help ensure that public parks are regularly maintained for use from tourists and locals. She also mentioned that she would like to further explore and expand partnerships between the Department of Parks and Recreation and local businesses to beautify island parks.

Chairman San Nicolas asked Mrs. Guevara her thoughts on allowing the use of DPR pavilions for local musicians to practice.

Mrs. Guevara stated that she comes from a family of singers and would support efforts to provide a venue for musicians to conduct practice.

Chairman San Nicolas mentioned that vendors and merchandise at the local parks need to be more aggressively marketed as to attract visitors and locals. He stated that more resources and funding need to go toward supporting the efforts of the Department.

Senator Mary Torres commended Mrs. Guevara for her enthusiasm and stated that she looked forward to seeing her confirmed.

Vice Speaker Benjamin Cruz jokingly pointed out to Mrs. Guevara her family's party affiliation if she ever decided to run for elected office, to which the nominee mentioned that she married a republican.

Senator Frank Aguon stated that he would like to see the Department give more focus to the Park Rangers program and the issue of expanding the existing public cemetery space. He expressed his support for the nominee.

Senator Tony Ada mentioned that he hoped the Mrs. Guevara suggests that the Department explore a public-private agreement with the existing public cemetery. He expressed his support for the nominee.

Senator Frank Blas thanked the nominee accepting the nomination to serve of the Board. He asked why she chose to serve and what some of her priorities would be if confirmed to the Board.

Mrs. Guevara stated that she wanted to continue her family's history of serving the island. She stated that her current schedule affords her additional time for more community involvement. Mrs. Guevara mentioned that she would like to prioritize beautifying local parks and improving the existing structures located in the parks so that it can be more enticing for and attractive to visitors.

Senator Tommy Morrison thanked Mrs. Guevara for her willingness to serve of the Board. He echoed the earlier sentiments of other senators to review the Department's jurisdiction over a public cemetery. Senator Morrison suggested that the Department use some of the limited gaming funds authorized by public law for facilities and equipment. He also encouraged Mrs. Guevara to work with the Board to find ways to make local parks safer for all who visit.

Chairman San Nicolas mentioned to Mrs. Guevara about the use of some of the Department's property for business opportunities including, but not limited to, restaurants, merchandising, and rentals. He suggested that the Department adopt formal regulations or procedures for these types of arrangements to be made with members of the public. He commended Mrs. Guevara for accepting the nomination and thanked her for her attendance.

Hafa Adai Chairperson San Nicolas, Senators, dignitaries:

I am here today because I have been nominated to be a member of the Parks & Recreation Commission, and humbly ask for your vote of approval. At 47 years old, I have many things that I am very proud of. I have been married for 23 years now, which in itself is a great feat, but that the marriage is a happy one, is a gift from God. I'm very proud to say I've helped raise 4 children: Jade Rene, Jordan Ray, Justin Ryan and Jake Russell.

Often times, parents teach life lessons through example. Through my grandparents, Amalia & Charles Perez, I learned that we should always serve by feeding those who are hungry. Mealtimes at my grandparents' house in Tamuning, meant two meals, and an army of family and Tamuning Boys.

Growing up, my mother would often take us to help feed at St. Dominics, when I asked why we did this, she just said, "because." For three years we fed every Monday at Kamalen Karidat, my dad would make the main dish, my mom the vegetables, my job was dessert and helping to serve. These are the lessons that taught me that I should not be happy to just be, but that I should take joy in serving others.

For my own kids, I've taught them that when they're asked to serve, they have to serve. They've served on Student Councils, Honor Choirs, in the National Honor Society, and in various plays. As teenagers, they've already helped to raise thousands of dollars for their schools and their island. I've taken them to help feed the homeless on Thanksgiving Day with the Salvation Army, where they've helped to serve and also provided entertainment. I've had them perform for the Alee Shelter kids on several occasions, and at the Relay for Life. I've taught them that when you see a need, you fill the need.

I know many of you through my mom, Dot Perez, you know her work ethic, so then you know mine. She served for several Governors and Senators and as Secretary to the Democratic Party for 9 years, which meant, I was there, serving in some way or another, because she was also my boss.

When she was diagnosed with Alzheimer's, I served her in a different way. My children and I helped care for her for 12 years before her passing. Now, we help care for my father. My parents instilled in me a great pride of our culture, and of our island. By serving as member on the Commission for Parks & Recreation, I want to do my part, in not only helping to provide beautiful parks for our locals and our tourists, but also to help improve what we have to offer thorough partnerships with local businesses and groups with the same goals.

I work well with others, and I work hard. My kids hate it when I tell them, "Can't means Won't!" But this is how I tackle a problem, don't tell me it can't be done, let's figure out how it CAN be done.

I come from a long line of proud and generous servants, I would be most grateful for your vote, and look forward to serving you!

Si Yu'us Ma'ase

Re: Appointment of Mrs. Janine Guevara as a member of the Department of Parks and Recreation Commission

Dear Senator San Nicolas:

Hafa Adai. Please accept my written testimony of support for Mrs. Janine Guevara to serve as a board member of the Department of Parks and Recreation Commission. I have known Janine Guevara for six years and attest to her integrity, strong family values, love of community and enthusiasm for all her work. I'm certain that when you meet and engage Mrs. Guevara, you will be impressed by her energy and genuine desire to help in any situation.

I worked alongside Janine on several team and school projects while both of our sons were enrolled at Father Duenas Memorial Catholic School. I was immediately impressed with her drive and leadership to quickly organize our various groups, network with people, secure resources and execute the necessary tasks to complete each project objective. She works productively and efficiently. She approached her work with great heart as a mother and parent, but also as a professional who communicated well with the school and external leaders and all group members.

Janine has been active in school and community sports for many years. She is also keenly aware of community and civic affairs having worked in Guam's real estate sector and operating her own business. No matter the issue or project or venue, Janine is results-oriented and passionate about all she does. All who know her want to be on her team and have the highest regard for her.

Mrs. Janine Guevara desires to and will serve the people of Guam well. She is smart, resourceful, analytical, an excellent listener and remains calm during stressful periods. She will be a strong asset to the Department of Parks and Recreation Commission. Her good work will improve the quality of life for Guam and her people.

I testify and recommend Mrs. Janine Guevara positively and without any reservations. Please let me know if you need further information.

Sincerely,

Re: Appointment of Mrs. Janine Guevara as Member of the Department of Recreation Commission

Hafa Adai Senator San Nicolas,

It is with great pleasure that I offer my written testimony in support of Mrs. Janine Guevara to serve as board member on the Department of Parks and Recreation Commission.

I have known Mrs. Guevara for over six years. I first met her when I was the Facilities Manager/Event Coordinator at the Father Duenas Memorial School Phoenix Center. I have witnessed her outstanding work ethic and leadership skills as she served in various booster clubs at Father Duenas Memorial School.

Janine is someone I've found I can count on, and consider her a Jane-of-all-trades. She has always been respectful, optimistic, organized, responsible, trustworthy, efficient and goal-oriented. Words cannot express the wonders of her achievements and the many lives she has touched through her selfless hard work. There are not enough adjectives to describe the outstanding human being that I now know her to be, her commitment goes well beyond the print.

Mr. Chairman, please accept my letter of support for Janine. If it is her desire to serve on this Commission, I have no doubt her outpouring commitment will result in nothing short of success. I wholeheartedly offer my support of her, and guarantee that, if chosen, you will never be disappointed for having her on your team.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 671-864-2671 or mgalang@usvetsinc.org.

Buenas yan Hafa Adai!

You have before you a fine member of our community that has stepped up to the plate to serve as a board member for the Department of Parks and Recreation. I assure you, exciting times are ahead for DPR.

I've known Ms. Janine Guevara in many capacities. Janine worked with me at Today's Realty as a real estate agent. She served her clients and customers well. She managed her transactions which led to smooth closings. Janine's trademark way of handling challenges that she faced can be summarized as 'inafamæolek'... working through things until everyone is happy. Janine cares.

I know Janine as a dedicated mother and wife. Her children, and her husband, are a reflection of Janine's priority in life... her family. She has an amazing ability to balance everything that comes her way. If you had the opportunity to talk to her husband or any of her children you will know right away that Janine is at the core of her family. Biba familiar Janine Guevara!

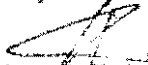

Janine is a dear friend. She's there when things are going great... but more importantly Janine is there when things are tough and challenging. Janine is loved.

I wasn't going to mention this, but I thought.. oh why not. Janine is an awesome cook and her deserts are incredibly delicious. I've always asked what her secret ingredient was for giving her creations that added appeal. Well, I've now figured that out, it's the same secret ingredient that went into her real estate business, her family life with her kids and her husband, and her friendship. It was simply Janine Guevara.

Janine has dedicated her life to so many others. She has actively serviced on boards of numerous civic organizations. Janine makes things happen.

Now, the Department of Parks and Recreation has the awesome opportunity for Ms. Janine Guevara to serve as a member of your board of directors. Janine is ready to serve!

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on my friend, Janine Guevara.

Dear Senator San Nicolas,

Hafa Adai! I am writing on behalf and in support of Ms. Janine Guevara as Member of the Department of Parks and Recreation Commission. I met and have known Janine for several years as parents of sons attending Father Duenas Memorial School (FDMS).

Since 2009, Janine has been an active member of the Parent Advisory Board of FDMS in addition to being a strong member of the FDMS Rugby, Football and Basketball Booster Clubs. She has provided constant support of these organizations and has continuously helped to raise much needed funds for school improvement projects as well as providing immeasurable encouragement and support of our sports teams.

Additionally, Janine has continually risen to the occasion when called upon, helping to organize several annual school events including Songfest and Christmas Dinner. When called upon to represent Father Duenas Memorial School, the Infant of Prague and the Mercy Sisters, she provided passionate and zealous testimony in opposition to Bills 334 and 335 which would have allowed a light industrial zone across Route 10 in Mangilao.

With her willingness to strive to exert boundless energy into her family, our community and our island, I am confident that you will find her to be an asset to the Department of Parks & Recreation Commission. I wholeheartedly support her in this endeavor and encourage you to do likewise.

Sincerely,

Leonard P. Calvo

Dear Senator Mike San Nicolas and Members of the Committee,

My name is Lou Leon Guerrero and would like to submit this testimony in support for the appointment of Ms. Janine Guevara to the Parks and Recreations Commission.

Janine is a longtime friend and I have been fortunate to work with her on many occasions. As a result I was able to experience her abilities and skills in organizing and managing projects. She is organized, focused and certainly committed. She is responsible and resourceful in regards to strategies and ways that would make an outcome successful. She is not shy to express her opinions, a trait that is essential in discussions and debates when deliberating decisions and actions to take in the pursuit of bettering the programs and services that Parks and Recreations have responsibilities for. The programs that Parks and Recreations have been mandated to manage and oversee are important to not only the quality of life for our people but also complements and supports our all too important Tourism industry. Because of this, it is critical that the people appointed to help govern and guide the management of Parks and Recreation have the skills that can make the Department successful in accomplishing their goals. I believe Janine is that person as she has demonstrated that in her work experience. This administration is fortunate that she is willing to do the work and be part of the team.

In closing, I would like to thank you for this opportunity to present my written testimony and ask for your favorable vote on the appointment of Janine to the Parks and Recreations Commission.

Respectfully,

Lou A. Leon Guerrero
