Kamia Dierking stated that she is grateful for the renomination and looks forward to continuing the work of the Board.

Chairman San Nicolas asked what her experience was with the land revaluation and appeals process.

Ms. Dierking mentioned that there are many appeals to review and all appeals will be presented at one time to the Board.

Chairman San Nicolas asked how the Board will approach the review process.

Ms. Dierking answered that the Real Property Division of the Department of Revenue and Taxation is in the process of going through all the appeals and will present those to the Board so they can decide how to conduct the review.

Chairman San Nicolas stated that the Committee will contact the Department and ask for a status update on the appeals so that the Board can begin the review process. He thanked the nominee for her acceptance of the nomination. He stated that her experience of having gone through the revaluation process will be invaluable to the Board over the course of future revaluations.
