Re: Reyna Calvo Recommendation to the CAHA Board

Hafa Adai Madame Speaker:

It is with great pleasure that I recommend Reyna A. Calvo to the Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA) Board. I have known Ms. Calvo for over seven years in the capacities of colleague and friend. This recommendation is founded on the interactions that we have had over the years and on our professional relationship while working with Client Services and Family Counseling (CSFC), Superior Court of Guam, the Association of Individual, Marriage and Family Therapists (AIMFT) and her professional business The L.I.F.E. Center.

Ms. Calvo graduated with a Master of Arts degree in Spiritual Psychology from the University of Santa Monica in 2009. She has an extensive background in theatre training, art, hypnotherapy and life coaching. From August 2012 to November 2013 I supervised her clinical hours as an Individual, Marriage and Family Therapist with the Guam Allied Health Board. During her clinical internship Ms. Calvo performed impressively while working with indigent and diverse populations. Her insightful and clinical interventions served many clients during her tenure. A brief summary of Ms. Calvo's arts and humanities and community service experiences are as follows:

Arts and Humanities Background

Ms. Calvo has extensive training from the American Society of Group Psychotherapy and Psychodrama and Play Therapy. Psychodrama is often used as a psychotherapy, in which clients use spontaneous dramatization, role playing and dramatic self-presentation to investigate and gain insight into their lives. It is a therapy developed by Jacob Moreno, M.D. and includes elements of theater usually conducted on a stage. Play therapy is a type of psychotherapy that uses play to communicate especially with children to prevent or resolve psychosocial challenges. Creative arts and expressive art therapies are related fields of play therapy and utilizes art, dance movement, music and therapy skills to help increase the quality of life for a wide variety of client populations.

Please ensure that the contents of this document are handled in a manner which protects the CONFIDENTIALITY of the client.

"The Judiciary of Guam is an equal opportunity employer and provider."

Community Service

Ms. Calvo has been involved in community work while working with the American Red Cross, private companies, the Judiciary of Guam, the Guam Department of Public Health and Social Services, and private non-profit groups in Los Angeles and Oakland, California. Her work with the courts extended beyond the attainment of clinical licensure. She continued to see the clientele on a voluntary basis. The current community service work Ms. Calvo is involved in pertains to providing services to veterans on Guam and in the region via the Red Cross. She underwent volunteer training as a facilitator for a Reconnection Workshop. This vital training will assist the veteran population and their families on Guam.

In conclusion, I believe that Ms. Calvo's qualification extends beyond the criteria as a board member of CAHA. Her expertise in the arts and humanities as well as her inherent commitment to volunteerism is demonstrated by her educational, professional and personal experiences. CAHA's mission relates to the development of programs in music, visual arts, cultural heritage, literature, and arts education. CAHA fosters opportunities for the participation in the arts and humanities. Their objectives include promoting the arts through promotional materials. Ms. Calvo will make a significant impact and addition to the CAHA board.

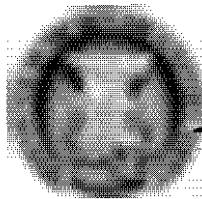

If you require additional information, I may be reached at 777-3764 or via e-mail at lisabaza@gmail.com. Si Yu'us ma'ase.

Confirmation Hearing for Ms. Reyna Calvo
Board Member, Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities
33rd Guam Legislature, February 23, 2015

Submitted by Monica Okada Guzman, Board Chair

Håfa Adai Speaker Won Pat and members of the Committee on Higher Education, Culture, Public Libraries and Women's Affairs. As Chair of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA), I'd like to express my sincere appreciation and Si Yu'os Ma'se for allowing me to testify in favor of Ms. Reyna Calvo to serve on our Board of Directors.

Let me start off by expressing the impact of the passage of Bill 427-32 now Public Law 32-224 which includes a representative of the Mayor's Council of Guam to be the 13th member to the CAHA Board of Directors and also allows for Board members to be reappointed.

During my time serving on the Council, we have had a very difficult time recruiting members to serve on the Board. I believe other Boards serving the arts and humanities are faced with the same challenges and it made me wonder why? The only reason I can think of is because it requires a very rare breed, a very special person. A person who understands the impact the arts, the humanities and our culture can have on our community and our island. No question; CAHA is not a large agency with only a staff of 5, and we don't have a huge budget.

BUT as small as we are, WE HAVE the potential to influence our entire island - through art, in the way we think, the way we act and the way we live.

I spoke to Reyna's last week and she is excited to serve the people of Guam. I read her resume and am also excited! With her background, training and experience, she will add another dimension to our Board, and that is the healing arts and theater.

Our island is in a major flux. Our people are suffering from many ailments, physically, spiritually, socially and economically. I strongly believe that despite all the challenges we face today, we can maintain a balance through art. And Reyna will be able to guide us through this.

I am anxious to hear her thoughts and ideas and want to work with her to enhance the work that CAHA is currently doing. It is my hope that you will confirm Reyna Calvo to serve on the Board of Directors of the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities.

Si Yu'os Ma'ase,

Monica Okada Guzman

Subject: Letter of Support for Ms. Reyna A. Calvo's appointment to the Guam Council of the Arts and Humanities Agency (C.A.H.A.)

Dear Madam Speaker Won Pat,

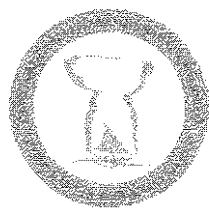

Hafa Adai! I am writing testimonial as a community member and not as a representative of the Guam Board of Social Work, American Medical Center L.L.C., or of the Military & Family Life Counseling Program. This testimonial is written in support of Ms. Reyna A. Calvo's appointment as Board Member to the Guam Council of the Arts and Humanities Agency (C.A.H.A.). I met Ms. Calvo three years ago while employed at the Department of Public Health & Social Services: Project Karinu, where she was employed as an Attachment Specialist. She and I are currently colleagues practicing as behavioral health providers.

Ms. Calvo worked with young children ages birth through five with social and emotional disturbances. She was instrumental in providing parents with the skillset necessary to facilitate healthy parent/child bonding through the use of play and art techniques. Ms. Calvo was particularly skilled in Drama Therapy, which is a therapeutic approach involving theatrics to engage in problem solving. Ms. Calvo brings an artistic side to behavioral health intervention. To date, I have seen Ms. Calvo's growth as she now is an independent behavioral health practitioner who provides a unique space that encourages a cultural perspective to the "the art of healing" via dance, art, acting, play, and music. Set aside from her practice, Ms. Calvo's humanness demonstrates compassion, humility, determination to connect with others, and a willingness to engage in self-reflection to become great as a healer in the community.

I am confident that Ms. Reyna A. Calvo will provide a unique perspective to the board. She is a native daughter of Guam, exemplifies passion for the art of healing via the performing arts, has experience in program development, and has characteristics which easily nurtures the growth of self and others. Your consideration to her nomination is greatly appreciated. Guam is fortunate to have another eclectic native return to the island ready and willing to serve the people.

Sincerely,

Hope Marie Pangelinan Cortez, MSW, IMF-120

on the Art and Humanities Agency

Håfa Adai Speaker Won Pat and members of the Committee on Higher Education, Culture, Public Libraries and Women's Affairs. As President of the Department of Chamorro Affairs which oversees the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency a.k.a. CAHA, I stand before you today in favor of the appointment of Ms. Reyna Calvo to the CAHA Board.

Well respected by her colleagues, the medical community and the community at large, Ms. Calvo would be as asset to the CAHA Board. Her objective as a family therapist is to "provide high quality service, utilizing a heart-centered holistic approach in restoring clients to balance and wholeness and to empower clients in attaining their highest potential.

It is no secret that art enhances the quality of life and is therapeutic. It is a means of expression that helps a person to interpret their feelings and to work through and resolves problems. It increases awareness of one's self and others; promotes personal development; improves self-esteem and increases coping skills.

Ms. Calvo's passion for singing, dancing and acting indicates that the arts are an important part of her life. Through her love for the arts and her professional expertise and contributions the well being all Guamanians will be enriched. She possesses the knowledge, expertise, and vision to move the Council and its initiatives forward. I believe in Ms. Calvo and am confident that through her the arts will flourish and thrive on Guam.

RE: Testimony of Reyna Calvo for Confirmation Hearing to CAHA Board.

Hafa Adai Speaker Judi Won Pat,

I ask for your confirmation to serve as a board member to the Council on the Arts & Humanities Agency, CAHA. I have always been an advocate for Artistic Expression. It has been a constant theme throughout my life both personally and professionally.

My first love was dancing hula at the age of 5 yrs. old. My first paying job was with a local dance troupe that performed regularly at PIC in Tumon. I am a former Screen Actors Guild member, with over 20 years of theatrical training and experience, both on stage and film. Furthermore, Upon my completion of my Masters degree in Psychology, I continued my education in various Creative and Expressive Art Therapies. And now, As a Licensed Individual Marriage and Family Therapist and Clinical Hypnotherapist, I continue to utilize the creative tools from the Expressive Arts because I know of its profound healing benefits.

Through Art, one can gain easier access to a visceral freedom that words alone cannot describe. The use of story-telling, through words, pictures, symbols, movement, date back to ancient times. Narrative work can serve as a powerful emotional outlet, or as a means of understanding our existence, individually or collectively as a culture. There are scientific findings now on the positive neurological benefits as well.

A famous writer and poet, Oscar Wilde, wrote: "Life imitates art far more than art imitates life." If that is an accurate statement, then it is imperative that we be responsible as a community, in using the arts in constructive manner; To bring forth awareness of our history; to assess where we stand today; and to create a vision of a bright and beautiful tomorrow; If Life does imitate art, then why not create an artistic masterpiece that can serve as a template or a model that we can play out on this stage of Life.

With my training, experience and abundant enthusiasm for the arts, I believe I can help in furthering CAHA's mission to encourage more community participation in arts and humanities, enhance programs designed to benefit citizens of all ages from every sector, and promote the significant role of the arts in the welfare and educational experience of our island residents.

With Guam hosting the 2016 Festival of Pacific Arts, the time is now to showcase to the world our Chamorro traditions and the beauty of our culture. Fest Pac is just one example of how we can unity as a people in celebration of our oneness with respect and appreciation for our diversity. It would be an honor to serve on the CAHA board. I ask for your confirmation. Thank you for your time and consideration
