Håfa Adai Speaker Won Pat and members of the Committee on Higher Education, Culture, Public Libraries and Women's Affairs. As Chairperson for the Guam Council on the Arts and President of the Department of Chamorro Affairs we stand before you today in favor of the appointment of Ms. Tes Reyes-Burrier and Mr. Francis J. For 10 years, CAHA collaborated with Ms. Reyes-Burrier while she was Director of Marketing at the Agaña Shopping Center for CAHA's Annual Arts and Humanities Month Celebration and Mes Chamorro Month. She has chaired numerous art activities and events.

We've both had the opportunity to work closely with Mr. Guerrero, with the Guam Museum Foundation as a member of its Board; the Guam Visitors Bureau' CHACO Committee and as the Chairman of the Guam Unique Merchandise & Art (GUMA). A talented musician/ singer and "VOICE" for the arts, his support is evident through his work throughout community. The arts are near and dear to his heart and have strongly influenced his life.

Dear Madam Speaker,

Buenas and Hafa Adai Madam Speaker and Members of the Committee on Higher Education, Culture, Public Library, and Women's Affairs.

Today, I would like to submit to you my support for the favorable consideration of Mrs. Tes Reyes-Burrier as a Board Member for the Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency. When one speaks of the Arts and Humanities of Guam, it is the culture, the identity of Guam that is communicated. Of all topics this one brings out the true passion and pride one feels in being part of this community. Whether of Chamorro decent or one who has chosen to make Guam their home. As a member of the C.A.H.A. Board Tes would bring with her this passion and pride for the advancement and recognition of Guam's Arts and Culture.

Tes has called Guam her home since 1987, and through her professional career she has taken every opportunity to showcase the importance of Guam. As Assistant General Manager of Agaña Shopping Center, Marketing Manager for United Airlines and Marketing and Sales Manager for Lotta Hotel, she has made use of every opportunity showcase what makes Guam special and market it as an international brand that all can be proud of.

As her husband I can attest to her energy and passion she puts into any task that she undertakes. This energy is contagious, infecting all around her. I know being around her energizes and encourages me to be and do more than I am. I support her in her nomination and strongly feel that Guam would benefit tremendously from her contribution.

Warm regards,

Daren Burrier

TESTIMONY OF ERNIE A. GALITO
BEFORE
COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION, CULTURE, PUBLIC LIBRARIES AND WOMEN'S AFFAIRS

June 11, 2015

Hafa Adai Madame Speaker Won Pat and Members of the Committee on Higher Education, Culture, Public Libraries and Women's Affairs.

My name is Ernie Galito and I thank the committee to allow me to present my testimony in support of Tes Reyes-Burrier as a Member of the Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency, also known as CAHA.

As some of you may already know, I was the Deputy General Manager of the Guam Visitors Bureau some years ago. I was also the project manager for the Lina'la' Cultural Park and later became the Director of Business Development for Baldyga Group.

In both of positions, our organizations strongly positioned the cultural identity of Guam as one of the top reasons for visiting Guam to its major source markets of Japan, Korea, Taiwan, as well as the emerging markets.

We recognized that we had to do more than just say we are culturally unique on Guam, we had to demonstrate it in our every day lives. Otherwise, visitors will pick up quite quickly that the position of Guam, as a unique culture was just an advertising tagline.

Over the years, Guam has made great headway in incorporating the cultural experience of Guam and expanding it into everyday life. It was mainly due to GVB's message to the people of Guam that tourism on Guam doesn't belong to the airlines, hotels, bus companies, option tours, or the tour operators. It belongs to everyone on Guam.

However, with ownership of tourism comes responsibility. Everyone on Guam has a stake in tourism and everyone should share in its care, upkeep, progress and its perpetuity.

GVB convinced the village majors to recognize that tourism on Guam doesn't mean tourism just in Tumon. It means visitors should have the chance to see and experience something uniquely Guam in every village.

The village murals, the Guam Island Fiesta Tours, the village festivals, "Maila Ta Fan Boka", and the business initiatives of the Hafa Adai Pledge and Buy Local are all examples how Guam's culture and tourism can and should go hand in hand.

However, the advocacy and the everyday celebration of Guam's culture and its impact on the identity of Guam should continue vigorously and vibrantly and we look to the Council of Arts and Humanity Agency to lead the way.

Additionally, promoting the Chamorro Culture is objective number 5 in GVB's Tourism 2020 Plan, which reads in part "Place Chamorro Culture Front and Center as Guam's Only Unique Competitive Differentiator".

I believe with hard working, passionate, and diligent members on its governing and advisory board, the work ahead will be a prosperous and measurable endeavor.

I have had the pleasure to know Tes Reyes-Burrier for a good many years. I first met her when she was the Senior Assistant Sales and PR manager for the Palace Hotel Guam. She comes from a well-versed background in Public Relations and she has an adept knowledge of the hospitality industry. It's a knowledge that encompasses not only good marketing fundamentals but also delivering an exceptional "guest experience".

Tes later became the marketing director and assistant general manager of the Agana Shopping Center for many years. There she excelled at promoting the local arts including cultural and performing arts and the Agana Shopping Center become known more for a venue for the promotion and appreciation for arts, crafts, story telling, cultural performances and school events than any other venue on Guam.

The Agana Shopping Center with Tes became the venue for the first Maila Tafan Boka cooking competition where celebrity judges from overseas travel and food publications came to sample locally prepared food and witness Chamorro cooking techniques. The judges were impressed and the public response was outstanding. Maila Tafan Boka launched a wave of introductory Chamorro dishes on the menus in hotels and national chain restaurants. Many locally owned Chamorro fusion restaurants have opened and thrived since then.

As Tes moved to United as its marketing manager for Guam and Micronesia, she was responsible for developing strategic marketing plans and deploying these marketing endeavors to improve the company's market share and yield.

Now in her position at the Lotte Hotel Guam, she is again in a strategic position to share the cultural experience of Guam with visitors and guests of a name brand and prestigious hotel property.

With Tes' business acumen and background in developing and executing strategic plans, she will bring a wealth of experience and expertise to CAHA's panel of subject matter experts and cultural practitioners.

I humbly support the nomination of Tes Reyes-Burrier to become a member of the Member of the Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency.

Thank you once again for allowing me to present my testimony.

RE: Letter of Support for Ms. Tes Reyes-Burrier

Hafa Adai, Madam Speaker:

I hope all is well! I write this letter in support of Tes Reyes-Burrier's nomination to the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Board of Directors. I have known Tes for over 15 years. During that span of time, I have had the opportunity to collaborate with her on numerous projects and believe that she will serve as a great addition to CAHA's board because of her proven track record and extensive experience in the areas of marketing, sales, and public relations.

Tes is a highly experienced and creative business executive who has demonstrated the ability to lead a diverse team of professionals to new levels of success in a variety of highly competitive operations, cutting edge markets, and fast-paced environments. Her leadership skills will no doubt prove to be valuable in carrying out CAHA's overall mission and vision. Given that one of CAHA's primary objectives is to continue to develop public interest, participation, and support of the arts, Tes's experience in developing strategic marketing plans and deploying marketing programs can significantly contribute toward the fulfillment of CAHA's goals.

Additionally, the business contacts and partnerships that she has established over the years will further enhance public awareness and support. She has an extensive network of colleagues and personal friends who will be willing to support CAHA's endeavors, simply by Tes asking for their help.

In the different roles that she has assumed throughout her extensive career, Tes has also shown that she has a good understanding of managing systems and promoting business development. She has been able to identify deficiencies and potential opportunities, develop innovative and cost-effective solutions for enhancing competitiveness, increased revenues, and customer offerings. Her wealth of knowledge and skills in systems analysis can help identify and address areas of improvement and promote CAHA's growth and progression.

In closing, Tes will make a good candidate for the position of board member and I fully endorse her nomination. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the contents of my letter, please feel free to contact me.

Dear Speaker Won Pat:

Hafa adai! Thank you for considering my letter of support for the nomination of Tes C. Reyes-Burrier to the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency. If confirmed, I have every confidence that Tes will be hard working, honorable and a key asset to CAHA.

Ms. Burrier has served our community and promoted our culture for decades. I first met Tes when she was working for the Agana Shopping Center and I was working at Town House, one of the anchor tenants. Tes was a key link in the Center's attempt to reach out to Government Agencies, Non-Government Organizations and Non-Profit Groups. She was essential in the efforts to make the Shopping Center a relevant and beneficial corporate citizen within our island, one that promoted the health, talent, achievements and aspirations of the neighborhood and the larger region.

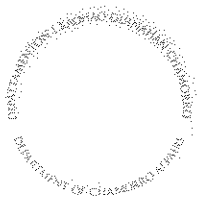

She has given a stage, literally, to many of our dance and singing groups, local bands and other performing arts. She has created opportunities for the visual arts to be showcased and young talent to be recognized. Ms. Burrier's background clearly qualifies her for the work necessary to benefit CAHA, but it is her spirit and her character that really makes her the ideal candidate to serve the people of Guam in this role.

I hope that you will look favorably on her nomination and vote affirmatively to confirm her for this position.

Re: Confirmation of Ma. Tess Reyes, CAHA Board

Hafa Adai Madam Chair and Members of the Committee:

I am pleased to provide this letter of support for the confirmation of Ms. Maria Tess Reyes as a member of the Board of Director for the Guam Council for the Arts and Humanities Agency.

I have known the nominee for over ten (10) years. Our acquaintance began during my tenure as Juvenile Drug Court Judge and my working relationship with the Guam Chamber of Commerce. Ms. Reyes was an active member of the Chamber and participated with many of our Juvenile Drug Court (JDC) programs. Her support for JDC helped to build rewarding programs for our youth.

We have continued our friendship both professionally and personally. I admire her professionalism and work ethic. She is a keen business woman, strong spoken, and creative. No task is impossible for her. The harder the task is the more inspired she is to meet the challenge. All the while she maintains excellent communication with those she works with. In fact communication is one of her strongest suits, second only to her marketing talents.

She will be an excellent addition to CAHA. I have no doubt she understands the mission of CAHA, and supports the diversity of cultures on our island. I wholeheartedly support her nomination, and look forward to her confirmation.

Hafa Adai Speaker Won Pat,

I would like to submit my support for Tes Reyes-Burrier to serve as a member on the Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency Board. I have known Tes for over ten years as a strategic partner, collaborator, and business resource. During this time, our professional relationship quickly grew into a wonderful friendship. When I first met Tes, she was the Assistant Manager for Agana Shopping Center. I solicited her for advertising support in my women's magazine publication. Tes was very kind and was genuinely interested in helping women and supporting local initiatives that will help the community. Since then, we have worked on many community projects, including the Smithsonian's Key Ingredients art exhibit hosted by the Guam Council of Women's Clubs and Agana Shopping Center. Tes committed herself and her team to our organization and was always available, working side by side with us to ensure a successful outcome. Tes has always been a person that could be trusted to take on projects and see them through to the end. Her excellent communication skills and standards for high quality authentic products and services that will ultimately benefit the community are just some of the reasons why she would be an ideal member on the CAHA board.

Subject: Written Testimony – Support for Tes Reyes-Burrier, Member of CAHA

Dear Honorable Speaker Won Pat and Members of the Committee:

Buenas yan Håfa Adai! It is with great pleasure that I present this positive testimony in support of Tes Reyes-Burrier's appointment as a member of the Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA). I have known Tes for almost 10 years in a professional capacity and can attest to her strong character and qualifications to serve on this very important Council.

The Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency serves a pivotal role in perpetuating the arts and culture of Guam as well as the developing programs to support music, visual arts, cultural heritage, literature, and arts education. I believe Tes' background adds a bit to the finadene' mix to effectuate the mission and strategic intent of CAHA through her knowledge, capabilities, and professional experiences.

Tes has been a member of the professional business community for over 20 years and has been very actively involved in supporting our island community in different capacities. In addition to her strong business acumen in strategic planning, business unit development, and project and retail management, she consistently exudes a high level of professionalism, respect and character that will complement the composition of CAHA. I am excited about the leveraged value she will bring through her diversified knowledge, planning capabilities, community and philanthropic networks, and extensive integrated marketing communications background—particularly in branding, promotions, and public relations, and strong collegial skillsets.

Tes is no stranger to Guam community activities, particularly in board positions. She chaired the Christmas Festival of the Guam Chamber of Commerce for three consecutive years. She has served as a member of the Membership and Tourism Attraction Fund Committee of the Guam Visitors Bureau, and the Public Relations & Marketing Committee of the Guam Hotel and Restaurant Association. As a board member, she has served on the Tourism Education Council, the American Cancer Society, the Girl Scouts of America, and the Guam Department of Labor-Guam Employment Investment Board. As a result of her active contributions in business and the not-for-profit sector, she was nominated as the 2010 First Hawaiian Bank Business Woman of the Year. These experiences will serve tremendous value while a member of the Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency.

Finally, Tes is very personable, dynamic, and is a proven team player. Her professional demeanor has made her a joy to work with. I am confident she will prove to be of tremendous value to the Council for the benefit of our island community stakeholders.

Subject: Appointment of Ms. Tes Reyes-Burrier, Board Member
Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA)

Madam Speaker,

I write in support of the appointment of Ms. Tess Reyes-Burrier, owner of MasterMinds, a Guam small business, to the board of the Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency (CAHA).

In 1992, our company, Sanford Technology Group LLC (STG) was a tenant at the Agana Shopping Center (ASC), when Tes was hired to be their Assistant General Manager. She brought with her a refreshing and calming management style. Her "results driven" leadership proved her efficiency in resolving tenants' issues, and her marketing directives were quite effective.

For three years, Tes successfully chaired the Guam Chamber of Commerce's annual Christmas festival event, a month long celebration culminating with a children's parade. This event focused on family and culture and required organizing private industry, government agencies and all the islands schools for student participation. Our community has unknowingly been the beneficiary of her great-organizational skills.

Her current business interest in the hotel and tourism industry, together with her many experiences with other community and government boards, are evidence of her commitment, powered by her big heart and much love, to our island community and its culture. I believe her board membership will bring a refreshing and results driven perspective to the CAHA.

Sincerely,

Antoinette D. Sanford
President
