Relative to congratulating the Guam Medical Society on its 2006 Induction Ball, commending the 2005 Guam Medical Society executive committee and congratulating 2006 Guam Medical Society executive committee.

1 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF I 2 MIN'BENTE OCHO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

1 WHEREAS, the Guam Medical Society is comprised of about one
2 hundred (100) physicians and Allied Health professionals throughout the 3 island; and

4 WHEREAS, the Guam Medical Society, through the leadership of its 5 2005 President, Vincent Taijeron Akimoto, M.D. is committed to providing the 6 standard of healthcare that the people of Guam deserve through public policy 7 advocacy and volunteer medical work; and

8 WHEREAS, the Guam Medical Society believes its solidarity and 9 collective voice is stronger than when speaking as individuals alone; and

10 WHEREAS, two (2) of the Guam Medical Society's goals have been to 11 educate physicians and the public about the medical implications of 12 inadequate access to care and to address other important healthcare issues 13 concerning Guam; and

14 WHEREAS, the Guam Medical Society strongly advocates increasing 15 the number of insured individuals in our community by providing income-16 related tax credits for the purchase of health insurance; and

17 WHEREAS, the Guam Medical Society promotes careers in health-
18 related fields and maintains a link with the University of Guam's nursing 19 school, creating a pool of healthcare professionals to both treat and educate 20 individuals in the areas of need established by the college, and offers clinical 21 externships to student nurses; and

22 WHEREAS, monthly meetings of the Guam Medical Society provide a 23 forum for island healthcare practitioners to exchange ideas, collaborate, and

1 foster understanding, that also include continuing medical education lectures
2 for physicians of Guam and Micronesia; and

3 WHEREAS, the Guam Medical Society elected its 2006 executive
4 committee President, Geoffrey Galgo, M.D.; immediate past President Vincent
5 Taijeron Akimoto, M.D.; President-Elect, Nathaniel Berg, M.D.; Secretary
