NEWS RELEASE

FOIA Council Adopts Internal Operations Procedures

June 3, 2014 – Members of the Guam Legislative Freedom of Information Advisory Council met today and adopted the official Internal Operations Procedures for the Freedom of Information Advisory Council.

Members also adopted the official complaint form that citizens can use in filing their complaints. A copy of the form can be downloaded at the Council's website at <http://www.guamlegislature.com/FOIA.htm>.

The council has notified citizens who had previously filed complaints that their complaints should be submitted in conformance with the newly adopted rules of procedure. The Council has already received a resubmission of the complaint from University of Guam professor Dr. Ron McNinch.

The next FOIA Council meeting will be announced at a later date.
