Footnotes:
1/ The Department of Labor (DOL), in its written testimony (attached) regarding Bill No. 376-32 (COR), is in full support of the requirement for an Independent Economic Impact "Study" to be completed relative to the Minimum Wage on Guam. The Bill requires that the DOL issue a Request for Proposal to conduct the one (1) year study no later than January 1, 2016. However, it notes that "Muga'laken Gudhan shall identify funds necessary to complete the study." An unofficial comment from the DOL Chief Economist notes "that a study could range from a few thousand using existing data to hundreds of thousands-some clarity about the scope, intent and purpose might be helpful in a preamble outlining expectations within the limits of budget, purpose and what is reasonably possible." Based on discussion with and information provided by the Port Authority of Guam relative to an economic impact study it contracted to be performed, and from the Chief Economist of the Bureau of Statistics and Plans on the projected costs to conduct an economic impact study, the Bureau estimates that the cost to conduct such economic impact study could range from $50,000 to $100,000.
