The Bureau requests that Bill No. 394-33 (COR) be granted a waiver pursuant to Public Law 12-229 as amended for the following reason(s):

Bill No. 394-33 (COR) is an Act to amend §80103 of Chapter 80, Title 21, Guam Code Annotated relative to the confirmation of Guam Ancestral Lands Commission (GALC) board members.

The proposed legislation intends to implement legislative confirmation hearings for members appointed by the Governor of Guam. Subsequently, the proposed legislation would implement terms of service for each member appointed to serve on the GALC board. In addition, the proposed legislation will amend the total board member requirement to constitute a quorum from five (5) members to four (4) members.

It should be noted that the proposed legislation does not make any amendments to the total composition of the GALC board (seven total members) nor does it amend the authorized compensation stipends for attendance at each GALC board meeting.

The intent of the Bill is administrative in nature and poses no fiscal impact upon any funds of the Government of Guam.
