(EC)

Introduced by:

A.R. UNPINGCO

RELATIVE TO COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING
REAR ADMIRAL ARTHUR J. JOHNSON, UNITED STATES
NAVY UPON COMPLETION OF HIS SECOND TOUR OF DUTY AS COMMANDER, NAVAL FORCES MARIANAS.

BE IT RESOLVED BY I LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, the start of Rear Admiral Arthur J. Johnson's second Tour of Duty as Commander, Naval Forces Marianas signaled the end of a tumultuous relationship between the Department of Defense as represented by the United States Navy and the residents of Guam; and

WHEREAS, through the guidance and leadership of Rear Admiral Arthur J. Johnson the United States Navy was able to forge a stronger bond between the various Tenant Commands and the community on Guam; and

WHEREAS, Rear Admiral Arthur J. Johnson, being knowledgeable of the economic hardship brought about through BRAC and A-76 reached out to the Business Community and kept them informed of the Command's Mission and how they may benefit from it; and

WHEREAS, Rear Admiral Arthur J. Johnson truly promoted a "Good Neighbor Policy" in his own backyard by partnering with the Port Authority of Guam and guiding the Port's managers towards obtaining much needed technical assistance and providing sanitized fill materials to assist the Port in their land reclamation project; and

WHEREAS, Rear Admiral Arthur J. Johnson encouraged the members of his Tenant Commands and their families to be involved with the island community by assisting the various schools throughout the island by using their spare time to spruce up the campus during various
