BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA' NUEBE NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Mr. Vicente "Vic" S. Angoco, Jr. is the eldest of three (3) brothers and one (1) sister born to Vicente S. Angoco, Sr. and Norma Godinet Angoco in Hagåtña, Guam; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Vic Angoco married Ms. Evelyn Estano on January 9, 1999 and have been blessed with three (3) sons - Nicholas, Austin, and Connor; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Vic Angoco attended public elementary and junior high school on Guam; graduated from Father Dueñas Memorial High School in 1984; earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Management from Oregon State University, Portland, Oregon in 1989; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Vic Angoco entered the shipping industry in 1990 joining Sea-Land Services, Inc., Guam as a marine coordinator with the responsibility of planning the discharge and loading of the vessels as they came into port each week. In 1991 he was promoted to operations manager responsible for vessel and container yard operations; and

WHEREAS, prior to joining Matson, Mr. Angoco was employed for four (4) years with American President Lines, Ltd (APL) as the marine manager and later becoming the operations and logistics manager that same year. He had overall responsibility for operations in Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas Islands (CNMI) and in Micronesia; and

WHEREAS, in February 1996, with Matson Navigation Company, Inc taking over the APL operations in Guam and Micronesia, Mr. Angoco joined as manager, operations, Guam and soon thereafter was promoted to manager, sales and customer service manager for the region. Mr. Vic Angoco joined Matson in 1996 as manager, operations, Guam, and soon after was promoted to manager, sales/customer service. His knowledge of Matson's customers in Guam, as well as the company's operations, made him particularly effective in managing the area's sales and customer service activities; and

WHEREAS, as part of a management development program, Mr. Angoco was transferred to Matson's headquarters in San Francisco in 2001 to become the Eastern Region Sales Manager. His areas of responsibility covered the entire area from the Rocky Mountains to the East Coast calling on major accounts such as Kmart, Wal-Mart, Anheuser-Busch, General Motors and Ford Motor Company to name a few. He received a Presidential Award that year for his performance in that position; and

WHEREAS, in June 2002, Mr. Angoco was then transferred to Honolulu, Hawaii where he became the container operations manager on Sand Island, Matson's largest terminal operation. He was responsible for coordinating cargo operations with the terminal operator to ensure cargo off the four (4) weekly ships was discharged efficiently and timely to meet the needs of the customers on Oahu and to meet the sailings of the three (3) Matson barges to all the Neighbor Islands; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Angoco joined a local tug and barge operator, Young Brothers, Limited, as the Vice President of Sales in August 2004. Young Brothers operates six (6) tugs and eleven (11) barges providing twenty (20) to twenty-two (22) sailings a week between

Honolulu and the Neighbor Islands. In April of 2005, he was promoted to Vice-President and General Manager of Young Brothers responsible for the overall operations throughout the State of Hawaii; and

WHEREAS, On December 26, 2006, Mr. Angoco returned to Matson Navigation Guam and was promoted to senior vice president and later that year Mr. Angoco assumed the position of General Manager for Guam and Micronesia; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Angoco was an active member of our community serving with the Rotary Club of Northern Guam, Junior Achievement and is a member of the Rotary Club of Guam, the Bookmobile Foundation and the Mount Carmel Endowment Foundation; and

WHEREAS, in his personal and professional life, Mr. Vic Angoco has constantly stressed integrity and respect for others and has served as a source of inspiration to his colleagues, friends, and family, to whom he has always encouraged personal and professional growth; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Vic Angoco originally from Guam, has been in the maritime industry since 1990, including thirteen (13) years in operations and sales management positions in Guam and, now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the members of I Mina' Bente Nuebe Na Liheslaturan Guåhan congratulate Mr. Vic Angoco on his promotion as Vice President, Pacific, Matson Navigation Company, Inc., Honolulu, Hawaii and further extend to him a sincere Un Dangkolo Na Si Yu'os Ma'åse' for the service and contributions he has made for the betterment of our Island Community; and, be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Secretary of the Legislature attests to, the adoption hereof and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Mr. Vic Angoco, Mr. James S.
