1. Memorandum of Understanding between Ed Benevente, Director of GALC, and Benny Crawford, Tiyan Taskforce Chairman regarding possible lands identified for a land swap. Dated May 20, 2009.

June 9, 2009

Dear Speaker Won Pat:

It is with great pleasure that I present this report on behalf of the Tiyan Taskforce. Over the course of the last several weeks we have discussed, researched, and revisited the options for land swaps available to us. Many hours have been spent talking to representatives at the Guam Ancestral Lands Commission, the Chamorro Land Trust, GPA, survey companies, etc., and our task to identify land for a land swap has not been an easy one. But we have come to the end with a solution we are excited about and hope our representatives in the Legislature will uphold for us.

It has been a struggle for us to identify alternative lands from a pool of rural options that make us feel just compensation for our Tiyan ancestral land is possible. Land is, by nature, unique; and, commercial land, like our ancestral Tiyan lots, is somewhat priceless. For example, it is our understanding that just one of the lots outside of the fence-line of the airport that was returned to the ancestral Tiyan heir (i.e. the property with the old barracks sold Core Tech and now leased for the temporary JFK location) resulted in great financial gain for that family. It seems only natural to then conclude all the lots inside of the fence-line - the lots that make up the heartbeat of our island's economy – have value many, many times above and beyond that one lot.

With all that said, we Tiyan heirs identified to date, bound in our ancestral claim, have determined the best solution for us is to join together in a Tiyan Trust ("Trust"). As a Trust we are requesting two parcels of currently rural land that we know is poised for great development and use by the Federal Government. By granting these parcels to our Trust a win-win solution occurs for all: (1) the Federal Government will be able to effectuate a long-term lease for the land to support its continued local buildup of military personnel; (2) the shareholders of the trust (each Tiyan heir) will reap financial benefit from the land just as we would have had the Tiyan property been returnable to us with its current infrastructure in place; and, (3) the local government will finally extinguish the longstanding Tiyan claims that have burdened hearts for years.

The report specifies the details of our Trust and gives insight into how this land was settled on. We look forward to seeing this solution put into effect.

Sincerely,

Benny Crawford
Chairman, Tiyan Taskforce

Pursuant to GPL 30-6, an Act repealing and re-enacting Section 4 of Public Law 26-100, relative to the composition and duties of the Taskforce and the return of Tiyan properties, the Tiyan Taskforce was instructed to:

- A) Identify the original owners of properties transferred to the AB Won Pat International Airport Authority, Guam (GIAA); and,
- B) Identify property of the government of Guam to be transferred to these original landowners to compensate them on a value for value and/or size for size exchange of their property that is now owned by the AB Won Pat International Airport Authority, Guam (GIAA).

Once landowners and properties were identified, the Taskforce was instructed to prepare and submit a report to the Speaker of I Liheslaturan Guahan and I Maga'lafen Guahan identifying the proposed property of the government of Guam to be transferred to the original landowners.

Accordingly, the Tiyan Taskforce hereby makes the following report:

- A. There are currently 110 ancestral lots totaling 1417 acres currently held by GIAA. (SEE APPENDIX A)
- B. We have identified approximately 37 heirs to the Tiyan lots and each one of these heirs has either completed, or is currently working through, the Guam Ancestral Lands Commission process as required for a land exchange. Current identified claims total approximately 730 acres of the GIAA property. SEE (APPENDIX B)
- C. The Taskforce is in unanimous agreement and hereby requests the Legislature establish a Tiyan Trust ("Trust") for the identified Tiyan heirs and transfer the following parcels from the GALC Excess Lands Registry into the Trust to compensate the currently identified and certified Tiyan heirs:
  - 1) Lot Navel Radio Station (R) Finegayan-1 (Formerly Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Site, also referred to as "Parcel N2", consisting of 2,758,882 square meters or 581.732 acres; and,

- 2) Andersen South, also known as Marbo Base Command "C" or Andersen South, consisting of approximately 1,598,877 square meters or 395.09 acres of land. (SEE APPENDIX C)
- D. The trust shall be comprised of 977 shares (the total number of acres between the two parcels) and every heir that has participated in this taskforce (see Appendix B) shall receive one share for each ancestral acre they have claim to.
- E. The Taskforce Chairman, Benny Crawford, and two Tiyan heir administrators (to be determined) will be responsible for retaining legal counsel for the Trust to establish the terms of the operating agreement and administer the Trust. The Trust shall empower an entity (to be determined) as the entity responsible for developing, leasing, and/or managing the lands to their highest and best use for the benefit of the Trust.
- F. Shareholders of the Trust have the right to opt out of the trust and instead move for a land swap with land out of the Ancestral Lands Excess Lands Registry or the Chamorro land Trust land inventory within the first twelve months of the establishment of the Trust.<sup>1</sup>
- G. Tiyan heirs that are unidentified as of the date of this report will not become shareholders of the Trust. Future identified heirs shall be required to file with GALC and complete all specified steps for a land swap and shall receive compensation with a comparable sized lot from either GALC Excess Lands Inventory or the Chamorro Land Trust land inventory.
- H. The Taskforce identified this land for the following reasons:
  - 1) 21 GCA Real Property, CH 80, Guam Ancestral Lands Commission, Sec 80104(a)(2) specifies that the Excess Land Registry shall be used for the purpose of identifying a specific lot or lots of land with which the Commission may use as just compensation in extinguishing ancestral claims. (APPENDIX D)

<sup>1</sup>. Shares that are abandoned when a Tiyan heir ops out of the Trust shall be assigned to the GALC Land Bank.

- 2) The Guam Ancestral Lands Commission (GALC) currently holds the identified parcels as part of the Excess Land Registry; and, the Director of GALC, Ed Benevente, has identified these parcels as land possible for land swap to compensate the Tiyan heirs. (APPENDIX E)
- 3) The land held by GIAA and unavailable for return to the ancestral heirs is arguably some of the most value land held by an agency of Guam.
- 4) Much of the land currently held in the land inventory of the Chamorro Land Trust and the GALC Excess Land Registry is located in rural, hard-to-access parts of the island. Tiyan heirs will not be justly compensated with a size for size swap with these lands; and, how to effectuate a value for value swap cannot be determined because of the significant value differences between rural lands and the prime commercial land held by GIAA for the airport.
- 5) A majority of the members of the Taskforce agree that the land identified, while currently rural and not immediately as valuable in a size for size swap, provides the greatest future realization of value for every landowner.

Re: Your September 9, 2007 letter

Dear Mr. Crawford:

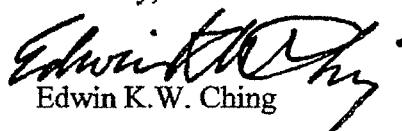

The A.B. Won Pat International Airport Authority ("GIAA"), has already informed you (verbally) that the approximate area of GIAA's property is 1,417 acres. None of GIAA's property is subject to any subsequent claims as mentioned in your letter.

As to your request for the "appraised value of that acreage," GIAA does not have that information available. GIAA does not have an appraisal report on the entire 1,417 acres.

I understand that you were verbally informed that GIAA may have such report, but we have verified that such statement is incorrect. GIAA has appraisal reports only on a portion of its property, and the bulk or majority of its property was not appraised. Appraisals were made only on certain buildings and lands for the purpose of entering into aeronautical related leases which would benefit the airport. Such appraisals were not based on the normal fair market value of the land; instead, the appraisal was based on the income approach of existing Airport buildings, and on some vacant lands upon which the lessee would be required to build and improve the land. Also, GIAA has some appraisals on buildings which were made only for insurance purposes. Basically, the appraisals were made on the basis that the buildings and the lands would be used only for the benefit of the airport, and not for other purposes.

It is my understanding that your family's land was designated as lot 5204 prior to the condemnation. GIAA does not have an appraisal of the land or any facilities that may be on said lot 5204. I apologize for not having the information that you desire. Please let me know if I may be of further assistance to you.

Sincerely,

Edwin K.W. Ching

Court ends Philip Morris appeal of $79.5M award

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten years and a day after a jury awarded Mayola Williams nearly $80 million in punitive damages in her fight with a cigarette maker, the Supreme Court said Tuesday she can collect her share.

The court threw out the appeal of that award by Altria Group Inc.'s Philip Morris USA, frustrating the efforts of business interests that hoped to use this case to get the court to set constitutional limits on damages awarded by juries.

Williams stands to collect between $60 million and $65 million from a pot that has grown to more than $155 million because of accrued interest.

"I think we can take from this long tale that if the behavior is sufficiently reprehensible, then larger awards are merited."

In a one-sentence order, the court left in place a ruling by the Oregon Supreme Court in favor of Williams, who sued the cigarette maker after her husband died of lung cancer. The state court has repeatedly upheld the verdict finding Philip Morris accountable for misleading people into thinking cigarettes were not dangerous or addictive.

"I don't know exactly how I feel," Williams said at a news conference in Portland, Ore.

"I know you people want to hear I am joyful and excited about this because of the money that is involved, but that is not the case," said Williams, whose husband died 12 years ago.

The justices heard arguments in the case in December. On Tuesday, with no explanation, justices said they are not passing judgment on the legal issues that were presented. Instead, it is as if the court had declined to hear the case at all.

Philip Morris had argued that the award should be thrown out and a new trial ordered because of flaws in the instructions given jurors before their deliberations.

Business interests had once hoped the high court would use the case to set firm limits on the award of punitive damages, intended to punish a defendant for its behavior and deter a repeat offense.

Because the court itself said nothing about the case, it is hard to read much into the decision, said experts on both sides of the case.

Murray Garnick, Altria's associate general counsel, expressed disappointment with the ruling, but said the decision does not undo earlier high court rulings reining in punitive damages awards. "While we had hoped for a different outcome, the Supreme Court has decided not to review a narrow procedural ruling by the state court," Garnick said.

Robert Peck, Williams' Washington-based lawyer, read the outcome differently. He said the court has signaled a willingness to allow large awards in certain circumstances. "I think we can take from this long tale that if the behavior is sufficiently reprehensible, then larger awards are merited," Peck said.

The case has bounced around appellate courts since shortly after Williams prevailed, on March 30, 1999, in the claims of fraud she pursued on behalf of her late husband, Jesse, a longtime smoker.

Jesse Williams was a janitor in Portland who started smoking during a 1950s Army hitch and died in 1997, six months after he was diagnosed with lung cancer.

His widow was awarded $800,000 in actual damages. The punitive damages are about 97 times greater. A state court previously cut the compensatory award to $521,000.

The original $79.5 million

punitive damages verdict grew at a rate of 9 percent a year, because of interest authorized by Oregon law. Sixty percent of the total is supposed to go to an Oregon crime victims fund, although the company said Tuesday it plans to contest the portion owed the state.

Williams' son, Glenn, said the marathon battle against Philip Morris began with his father's wish, and his mother's decision to follow through on a promise she made to her husband to hold Philip Morris accountable.

"This is for my father. This is what he wanted," Glenn Wil-iams said. "Today has been surreal for us."

The Oregon high court made its first decision in 2002, refusing to hear an appeal from Philip Morris.

Then the U.S. Supreme Court rejected the punitive damages, saying in another case that damages generally should be held to no more than nine times actual economic damages. It declined, however, to make that a firm rule.

Next, the Oregon Supreme Court upheld the punitive damages, citing "extraordinarily reprehensible" conduct by Philip Morris officials.

Then came the U.S. Supreme Court's second take on the case. In 2007, the court said in a 5-4 decision that jurors may punish a defendant only for harm done to someone who is suing, not other smokers who could make similar claims.

The state court was told to reconsider the award in the context of instructions for the trial jury that Philip Morris proposed and the trial judge rejected.

In January, the Oregon court said there were other defects in the instructions that violated Oregon law, and supported the trial judge's decision not to give the proposed instructions to the jury.

The case is Philip Morris USA v. Williams, 07-1216.

Trial begins for Marine accused of killing unarmed Iraqi

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. (AP) — A court-martial began Tuesday for a Marine accused of killing an unarmed captive in Iraq in a case officials knew nothing about until the defendant sought a Secret Service job and was asked about the most serious crime he had ever committed.

An attorney for Sgt. Ryan Weemer told the jury that prosecutors cannot prove their case because they have no body, no forensic evidence and no relatives complaining of a lost loved one.

Prosecutors, however, played recorded interviews in which Weemer said he and other Marines shot a total of four men in Fallujah in November 2004 after their squad suffered its first fatality.

Weemer, 26, of Hindsboro, Ill., is accused of the unpremeditated murder of one man and dereliction of duty. His former squad leader was acquitted of related charges in federal court and another squad member has yet to face court-martial.

The case came to light long after the battle.

In 2006, after he left the Marine Corps, Weemer applied for a job in the Secret Service.

Apple's iPhone emerges as a serious gaming platform

SAN FRANCISCO (Reuters)

- Apple's iPhone has emerged as a serious videogame platform, fulfilling the long-held promise of mobile phone gaming and positioning itself as a legitimate competitor to handheld consoles.

The Game Developers Conference in San Francisco last week was abuzz with plans about games for the iPhone and its WiFi-only cousin, the iPod touch.

With around 30 million devices on the market - 17 million iPhones and 13 million iPod Touches - and access to thousands of games at their slightest whim, consumers are buying and playing games by the tens of millions.

Meanwhile, game designers are diving headfirst into the market, churning out offerings at a furious pace.

Some say the iPhone's unique features - GPS capability, connectivity, a touch screen - and sheer variety of content gives it an edge over its more established handheld console competition, Nintendo's DS and Sony's PSP.

The DS franchise has shipped more than 100 million units and the PSP more than 50 million since both came to market in late 2004.

"The iPhone is a threat to other portable game platforms," said Mitch Lasky, a partner with venture capital firm Benchmark Capital, and the former CEO of Jamdat Mobile, which was sold to Electronic Arts in 2005 for $680 million. "It could be just massive."

Google could buy Twitter; blogs clash

NEW YORK (Reuters) - Two prominent technology news blogs clashed on Friday morning over a report one of them issued that said Google Inc. may try to buy Internet start-up Twitter.

TechCrunch proprietor Michael Arrington, citing three unnamed sources, said on Thursday night that Google would pay for Twitter in cash, stock or a combination of the two.

The companies are also considering working together on a Google real-time search engine, he wrote.

Hours after Arrington's blog entry, Kara Swisher reported on her Boomtown blog said the story was inaccurate, citing "a number of sources."

"In fact, Twitter and Google have simply been engaged in 'some product-related discussions,' according to one source," Swisher wrote.

Arrington could not be imme-

Patrick Morse shows off his Apple iPhone 3G after spending the night in line outside an Apple Store in Boston, Massachusetts on July 11, 2008.

"The mobile industry has been waiting for some sort of tipping point... when the App Store was launched, that was the tipping point."

Apple's App Store went live only last July, but an entire network of developers has sprung up to create thousands of games, ranging from puzzles and arcade games to action and shooter games. Developers take 70 percent of the revenue, while Apple keeps 30 percent.

Game publishers include big names such as Electronic Arts, Gameloft and Glu Mobile, up-and-coming outfits like Ngmoco and small developers working out of a cubicle.

Sanette Chao, director of public relations for Gameloft, said the company has made more money selling iPhone and iPod touch games in the past eight months than it has made overall from some other carriers.

"The mobile industry has been waiting for some sort of tipping point... when the App Store was launched, that was the tipping point," Chao said.

Gameloft offers 27 games in the App Store and has sold 2 million copies so far.

According to the latest data from analysts company MobiX, more than 7,300 of the iPhone's 31,000 applications are games, or roughly 23 percent. Around 5,500 of those games charge a fee.

Users play simpler games for an average of 6 to 8 minutes, but play more complex games for an average of 22 minutes, said MobiX co-founder Krishnamoorthy Subramanian.

"That shows it's a serious gaming platform," he said.

The prices on many games can shift quickly with demand. Ngmoco introduced its popular game "Rolando" last year for $9.99 before cutting it to $5.99 and then $4.99. Subatomic Studios introduced its "Fieldrunners" games for $4.99 and cut the price to $2.99 on a "spring break special" earlier this month.

Because of the volume of offerings on the App Store, developers say the key to success is maneuvering a game onto a top 10 or top 25 list, where consumers can easily find them.

John Casasanta, founder of iPhone application development company tap tap tap, said the App Store has been "hugely lucrative" for the company, generating more than $500,000 in sales.

The company scored a hit with a non-game offering, "Classics," after Apple featured it in an ad, and is currently trying to get traction with a 99-cent game called "Parablox" via word of mouth and mailing lists.

"One of the biggest problems with the App Store now is it's just hard to cut through for independent developers, there's just so many applications."

Apple will release its new iPhone 3.0 software this summer, including new features sure to please game makers, such as peer-to-peer capability allowing gamers to square off against one another. It will also enable developers to offer subscriptions and sell content within their applications.

Many analysts expect Apple to launch an updated iPhone device this summer, although the company has been mum on that point. The second-generation 3G iPhone was released last summer.

CH. 80 GUAM ANCESTRAL LANDS COMMISSION

(h) Conditional Awards Registry shall mean the registry into which is recorded information in relation to each determination made by the Commission with respect to an ancestral title and compensation application made by a claimant.

(i) Determination shall mean an administrative ruling by the Commission with respect to an applicant's request for an extinguishment of an ancestral claim.

(j) Excess Lands Registry shall be a listing of all lands declared excess by the Federal government and acquired by the government of Guam on or after the effective date of this Act.

(k) Just compensation for the purposes of Chapter 80 of Title 21 of the Guam Code Annotated, and Articles 9 and 9A of Title 12 of the Guam Code Annotated, as amended, shall mean only land recovery or land exchange, and shall also mean any other form of compensation other than a specifically described available land.

(l) Original land shall mean the actual specifically described land, in whole or in part, which was confiscated or condemned by the United States of America or the government of Guam on or after January 1, 1930, and have been thereafter declared excess to which a prior private ownership interest held by a resident of Guam on January 1, 1930 was previously attached.

(m) Original landowners registry shall mean the registry into which information pertaining to all lands taken and the names of owners whose properties were confiscated or condemned on or after January 1, 1930.

(n) Replacement land shall mean land surplus to the Federal government or the government of Guam, and not in public benefit use, or needed for public benefit use, to which no private ownership interest was attached on January 1, 1930, and which may be used as a replacement for original lands confiscated or condemned by the United States government or the government of Guam.

§ 80102. Affirmation of and Authorization to Exercise a Fundamental Civil Right in Ancestral Real Property Also Known as Lands.

The responsibility of the government of Guam to enforce rights in private property, as a civil right, pursuant to the laws of the United States of America applicable to Guam and the Laws of Guam is hereby acknowledged and reaffirmed. The responsibility of the government of

21 GCA REAL PROPERTY
CH. 80 GUAM ANCESTRAL LANDS COMMISSION

Guam to also enforce the entire community's rights in public property, as common property, is also hereby acknowledged and reaffirmed.

The government of Guam expects to eventually accept transfer of the ownership of lands to be disposed under 'The Guam Excess Lands Act' through the U. S. General Services Agency and as a result of decisions in 1993 and 1995 issued by the U.S. Base Realignment and Closure Commission, subject to certain specified encumbrances, including unrelinquished property rights retained either by the United States of America or other prior owners, with applicable judicial procedures available should disputes arise. However, it is recognized that a process does not now exist to recognize the ancestral land rights of landowners whose properties have not been declared surplus and may not ever be declared surplus by the military in the future. Likewise, the process established by Guam Public Law Number 22-145 for disposal of three thousand two hundred (3,200) acres of Guam excess lands does not apply to claimants whose claims are attached to excess land elsewhere.

I Liheslaturan Guåhan recognizes that the rights of landowners to full use and enjoyment of their private property was long deprived because of unsettled issues described in the foregoing § 80103 of this Chapter. Therefore, to restore the rights of landowners to the use of their ancestral lands, I Liheslaturan Guåhan through this Chapter hereby affirms and formally recognizes the 'Ancestral Property Right'; establishes an administrative process for the exercise of that right; and creates the Guam Ancestral Lands Commission and authorizes the Commission to administer the provisions of this Chapter in order that original landowners, their heirs and their descendants may expeditiously exercise all their fundamental civil rights in the property they own. The exercise of 'ancestral property right' claims shall be applicable to lands already declared excess by the Federal government and shall also be applicable to all future declaration of excess lands either by the United States Government or by the government of Guam.

§ 80103. Guam Ancestral Lands Commission.

There is within the government of Guam the Guam Ancestral Lands Commission to carry out the purposes of this Chapter. The Commission shall be composed of seven members, with seven people appointed by I Maga'lahan Guåhan, who shall be residents of Guam and descendants or heirs of ancestral land owners or claimants, and they shall serve terms of four years from the date of their appointment.

21 GCA REAL PROPERTY
CH. 80 GUAM ANCESTRAL LANDS COMMISSION

Four Commissioners present shall constitute a quorum of the Commission for the conduct of administrative business. Five Commissioners present shall constitute a quorum of the Commission to determine a land claim. A vote of a majority of the members of the Commission shall be required for any action of the Commission. The Commission shall adopt rules and regulations governing the conduct of its affairs. It shall elect a Chairman and Vice-Chairman from among the Commissioners, and may employ an executive director and such staff as is necessary to carry out the duties set forth in this Chapter, pending the submission and approval of a budget by I Liheslaturan Guåhan. Each Commissioner shall receive the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for attendance of each meeting of the Commission; provided, that such compensation shall not exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month, and provided that they are not members of I Liheslaturan Guåhan.

SOURCE: Amended by P.L. 25-1802 to reduce quorum requirement.

§ 80104. Powers and Duties of the Commission.

(a) Commission to Establish Ancestral Lands Registries. The Commission is directed to establish and maintain five (5) separate registries for the purposes of recording accurate information in the settlement of ancestral claims, as set out in the Subsections below.

(1) Original Landowners Registry. The Original Landowners Registry is a listing of all lands taken under the names of owners of record at the time of taking whose properties were confiscated or condemned by the United States of America, or by the government of Guam on or after January 1, 1930, as well as other pertinent location and ownership information in relation to the property. The Original Landowners Registry shall be used for the purpose of confirming an applicant's property claim, for future extinguishment upon receipt of just compensation, as defined by this Chapter.

(2) Excess Lands Registry. The Excess Lands Registry is a listing of all lands that have been declared excess by the Federal government or the government of Guam, including all lands that may be declared excess in the future by the government of Guam. The Excess Lands Registry shall be used for the purpose of identifying a specified lot or lots of land with which the Commission may use as just compensation in extinguishing ancestral claims.

(3) Claims Registry. The Claims Registry is a listing of all claims to ancestral title filed by applicants.

21 GCA REAL PROPERTY
CH. 80 GUAM ANCESTRAL LANDS COMMISSION

(4) Conditional Awards Registry. The Conditional Awards Registry is a listing of conditional awards of just compensation.

(5) Ancestral Title Registry. The Ancestral Title Registry is a listing of applicants granted land title in return for the surrender of all their ancestral property claims.

(b) Duties of Commission. In establishing all five (5) registries established in this Section, the Commission or designated staff shall investigate, record, file, report and respond to requests by ancestral land claimants for remedy, including government of Guam, whose land was taken by the United States or by the government of Guam on or after January 1, 1930. Remedy includes just compensation, as defined in § 80101 of this Act, which for purposes of this Chapter is defined as limited to the return of land or access to landlocked lots across public lands, if public lands block access to private property.

The Commission shall establish, in accordance with the Administrative Adjudication Law, written procedures for extinguishment of Claims, award of just compensation and recordation of Ancestral Land Title, as well as other rules and regulations required to administer this Chapter. The Commission shall promulgate rules and regulations to administer the Commission's functions in a fair, just, economical and expedient way, and shall establish fees and specify materials reasonably required to accompany applications in order to extinguish a claim in favor of a just compensation award.

(c) Four (4) Step Process for Extinguishment of Claims, Award of Just Compensation, and Recordation of Ancestral Land Title. The following four (4) step process shall be detailed within appropriate written procedures and rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commission.

Step 1: Filing of Ancestral Claim – Applicant in this first step submits an application to the Commission containing applicant's assertion that applicant and others, if any, hold ancestral title in relation to a specified lot of land by virtue of inheritance. Based upon the information provided, the Commission shall make a determination if in fact a valid basis for an ancestral title claim exists. The ancestral title claim shall then be entered in the Claims Registry. The Claims Registry shall contain the information required to be entered, as established by the Commission by rules and regulations. The

CH. 80 GUAM ANCESTRAL LANDS COMMISSION

Commission must accept an application for determination of claim, provided the following minimum information is given:

1. date on which application was submitted to the Commission;
2. whether the application was submitted to the Commission, or Commission's designee, and the name of the Commission or designee;
3. name and address for service of notification to the person(s) who is the claimant (This is the person who shall be the registered ancestral title claimant);
4. the area of land covered by the claim, including property descriptions and maps;
5. description of the persons who it is claimed hold the ancestral title; and
6. other details about the claim as the Commission may deem appropriate.

The Claims Registry may be inspected by any member of the public during normal business hours. No part of the Claims Registry are to be kept confidential from the public.

The Commission must ensure that the Claims Registry is kept updated with details of any claims contained in applications given to the Commission, or of any application for amendments to a claim after a determination.

Step 2: Ancestral Title and Compensation Application. An applicant may exercise applicant's right to extinguish an ancestral claim by submitting an application to the Commission for a determination of a conditional title and compensation award. An applicant may submit an application in prescribed form for any of the following three (3) categories defined:

Category 1: Ancestral Title Determination – for a determination of ancestral title in relation to an area for which there is no approved determination of ancestral title;

Category 2: Compensation Application. This Chapter sets forth two (2) forms of compensation for future title claims which shall be either the return of original ancestral land, or just compensation, as defined in § 80101 of this Act, based upon mutually satisfactory negotiations between the government and the applicant. Before relinquishment of exchange land the Commission shall certify that the exchange lands show no history of ancestral ownership or ancestral ownership claim on or after January 1, 1930.

21 GCA REAL PROPERTY
CH. 80 GUAM ANCESTRAL LANDS COMMISSION

The Commission must accept an ancestral title and compensation application provided the following requirements are met by the claimants:

- (1) that the kind of application falls within the three (3) categories defined above;
- (2) is in the prescribed form, as established by the Commission;
- (3) contains the information required and as prescribed in relation to the matters sought to be determined;
- (4) provide accompanying documents at the very minimum of which include:
  - (a) a sworn affidavit that the applicant:
    - (i) believes that ancestral title has not been extinguished in relation to any part of the land claimed; and
    - (ii) believes that all of the statements made in the application are true;
  - (b) a statement containing all information known to the applicant about interests in relation to any of the land or waters concerned that are held by persons other than as ancestral title holders;
  - (c) a description and map of the area over which the ancestral title is claimed;
  - (d) evidence of heirship;
  - (e) name and address of the person who is to be considered the claimant (The name of the person given under this item will become the registered ancestral title claimant); and

21 GCA REAL PROPERTY
CH. 80 GUAM ANCESTRAL LANDS COMMISSION

(5) all accompanying fees as prescribed by the Commission.

Step 3: Conditional Award of Just Compensation. In awarding ancestral title and just compensation, the Commission shall issue a Certification of Award of Just Compensation on Condition of Extinguishment of Ancestral Title Claim. The Certification of Award of Just Compensation shall be entered into the Conditional Awards Registry. The Conditional Awards Registry shall contain as much of the information in relation to each determination as must be entered into the Register, at a minimum of which shall consist of:

- (1) name of the Commission or designee that made the determination;
- (2) date on which the determination was made;
- (3) area, location, and description of specific land covered by the determination;
- (4) the matters determined; and
- (5) other details about the determination or decision as the Commission deems appropriate.

The Conditional Awards Registry shall be made available for the public's inspection during normal business hours.

Step 4: Extinguishment of Ancestral Land Claim - An ancestral land claimant is granted claimant's land title either by land exchange or land recovery on the condition that the ancestral title holder surrenders all rights and interests in relation to ancestral land claims thereby permanently extinguishing all rights, interests and claims to the claims.

Upon the Commission's issuance of title by an award of just compensation and extinguishment of claims, the ancestral title holder's name is removed from the Conditional Awards Registry, and is entered into the Ancestral Lands Title Register by the Commission. The Commission shall prescribe the appropriate form to effectuate issuance of compensation and extinguishment of ancestral claim. The Commission shall ensure that the ancestral title holder is issued a suitable property conveyance deed in full satisfaction of ancestral title holder's ancestral title award. Once listed as ancestral title holder after acceptance of specifically described land, the holder and all of holder's heirs, successors and assigns, and those who may assert subsequent claims derived from the holder, are forever barred from reentry into the Claims Registry.

(d) Director of Land Management to Reserve All Future Lands Received by Government of Guam Declared Excess for Entry into Excess Lands Registry. For the purposes of administering this Section, the Director of Land Management is authorized and required to reserve all future lands received by the government of Guam declared excess, and ensure that all information pertaining to excess lands, both current and future, are sent to the Commission for entry into the Excess Lands Registry. The Commission shall maintain and give the public the right to review the Excess Lands Registry.

(e) Land Bank. The Commission shall take title, as Trustees, of former Spanish Crown Lands and other non-ancestral lands that are conveyed by the Federal government to the government of Guam after the effective date of this Act, on behalf of ancestral landowners who, by virtue of continued government or public benefit use cannot regain possession or title to their ancestral lands.

The Commission shall establish a Guam-based trust to administer all assets and revenues of the land bank of the aforementioned lands and manage the lands, and act as the developer of the lands, if necessary, to the highest and best use. The Commission shall establish rules and regulations pursuant to the Administration Adjudication Law for the Guam-based trust. The resulting income shall be used to provide just compensation for those dispossessed ancestral landowners.

(f) Notification of Extinguishment of Ancestral Claims. The Commission shall ensure that all parties whose interests may be affected in the extinguishment of an ancestral claim are notified in writing, if at all possible, and through public notice in a Guam newspaper of general circulation.

(g) Appeal Through Judicial Process. If disputes arise from an application which cannot be resolved by the Commission, then any of the opposing parties may invoke the judicial process at the party's expense.
