(In the Matter of Dr. William Weare, Complainant vs. Sen. Ray Tenorio, Respondent)

Buenas Speaker Won Pat:

The Committee on Ethics & Standards of the 30th Guam Legislature hereby transmits the proceedings of Complaint #003 (In the Matter of Mr. Harold Cruz, Complainant) alleging that Senator Ray Tenorio (Respondent) committed unethical and fraudulent acts when he signed documents as “Raymond Tenorio” prior to June 3, 1997, when his legal name was formally changed from “Raymond Waddey, Jr.” by order of the Superior Court of Guam.

As well, the Committee on Ethics & Standards of the 30th Guam Legislature hereby transmits the proceedings of Complaint #004 (In the Matter of Dr. William Weare, Complainant), concerning Senator Ray Tenorio’s (Respondent’s) ability to serve as an ethical member of the Legislature in light of his alleged moral lapses regarding his duties of child support and visitation and “possible failure to inform the Election Commission and the people of Guam of adherence to (the Respondent’s) legal obligations and responsibilities in the past.”

With respect to Ethics Complaint #003, the Committee, via roll call of members present voted, with five (5) assenting votes, zero (0) dissenting votes and one (1) excused absence, to “Dismiss” Ethics Complaint #003 based on the findings and recommendation of the Committee’s Legal Counsel as contained in RULE 9(b) of the Committee’s Rules of Procedure relative to the screening of complaints.

With respect to Ethics Complaint #004, the Committee, via roll call of all members present voted, with four (4) assenting votes versus two (2) dissenting votes, to “Dismiss” Ethics Complaint # 004 based on the findings and recommendation of the Committee’s Legal Counsel as contained in RULE 9(b) of the Committee’s Rules of Procedure relative to the screening of complaints.

Thus, pursuant to the RULE 25(b) of the Committee’s Rules of Procedure, relative to Record-Keeping of complaints filed with the Legislature’s Committee on Ethics & Standards, the attached proceedings of Ethics Complaint #003 and Ethics Complaints #004 in hard copy, and digital electronic format are hereby transmitted to the Office of the Speaker of I Mina’Trenta na Liheslaturan Guahan for disposition.

Thank you for your time and kind attention towards these matters.

Senseraamente,

Judi P. Guthertz, DPA
