A 42 year old Chuukese woman and her two kids were housed on March 12, 2013. They were living temporarily with other family members in Yigo. The family moved to Guam from Chuuk in the summer of 2012 for a better education and employment opportunities. The woman has an associate degree in nursing, however, does not have a license to practice on Guam. She has been searching for employment prior to entry into Guma San Jose. While at Guma San Jose, staff informed her of the company Health Services of the Pacific. She applied and was later given an interview. However, the company informed her of a required valid Guam driver's license which she does not possess. Therefore, during the next few days she began studying for the driver's permit. On April 15, 2013 there was a housing opportunity provided by a family member who had an extra room in their home in Malojloj. The woman with her two kids moved out that day.
