The Honorable Eddie B. Calvo
Governor of Guam
Adelup Complex
Guam

Dear Governor Calvo:

For over five years I have had the honor and pleasure to serve you, your administration and the people of Guam as a Board of Commissioner for the Guam Housing and Urban Renewal Authority. During the many years as a Commissioner, I have learned so much what we can do, particularly, to make the Guamanian dream a reality for the families on Guam. I am proud that as a board member I have had the passion to improve housing for our people and I believe I have made significant and positive contributions, as a Commissioner, to meet your administration's affordable housing goals.

It is with deep regrets that I am submitting my letter of resignation from my position as Commissioner of the Guam Housing and Urban Renewal Board effective immediately. However, should a position where I can be of service to assist in your administration's efforts to achieve the Guamanian dream for our people become available, I humbly ask for your consideration.

It has truly been an honor to serve you, Governor Calvo, your administration and the people of Guam and I look forward to again serving our people in some capacity during your administration in the near future,

Sincerely yours,
