ABOUT US

The Office of the Attorney General functions as the law firm that represents the Government and the People of Guam and is comprised of six divisions: Administration, Child Support Enforcement, Civil Litigation/Solicitors, Consumer Protection, Family/Juvenile, and Prosecution. These divisions collectively work to ensure that the mission of the Office is upheld in the highest regard. Independently, each division functions and works to guarantee its clients and stakeholders are afforded due process and legal representation.

Leonardo M. Rapadas was the Attorney General in fiscal year 2014. Elizabeth Barrett-Anderson, the current Attorney General, took office on January 5, 2015. She is serving her second tenure having been appointed as Attorney General from 1987-1994.

How Have We Progressed Our Performance

Leonardo M. Rapadas
Former AG of Guam
2011-2014

The harsh and irreversible realities of drunk driving and improper child restraint could not be more apparent than in the heartbreaking story of a 4-year-old girl who was killed as a result of her father drinking and driving. That devastating event presented a unique opportunity for the OAG and other law enforcement entities to educate the community- specifically Chuukese residents – on safe driving habits and proper child car seat safety.

*Based on Calendar Year

 Total columns do not reflect all crimes charged

- The OAG filed 90% of all Driving While Intoxicated/Driving Under the Influence cases received from law enforcement. The conviction rate was 95% for all those cases filed in the Superior Court of Guam.
- The Victim Witness Ayuda Services unit saw an increase in transportation services provided to its victims, as well as an increase in its outreach activities.
- The OAG successfully litigated on behalf of the Guam Environmental Protection Agency against a couple who was using their private property as an illegal dump site. The OAG obtained $7.5 million in monetary damages and injunctive relief.

FY14 REVENUE ALLOCATION

Significant Changes to Revenues

- In FY 2014, appropriations increased for salaries and benefits, travel, building rent, equipment and miscellaneous.
- Miscellaneous appropriations increased mainly due to the "Competitive Wage Act of 2014" salary adjustments.

Total expenditures	$13,307,450	$14,901,063	$16,613,523	11.49%

*Utilities expenditures include costs allocated towards power, water and telephone. Not included are encumbrances, which represent commitments related to unperformed contracts for goods. As of September 30, 2014, encumbrances for General fund $267,678; and federal funds of $1,038,067.

Significant Changes to Expenditures

- Travel expenditures increased mainly due to witness and expert witness testimonies in an ongoing criminal case.
- Miscellaneous expenditures increased mainly due to the Hay Study implementation.
- Utilities expenditures decreased because they are included in the rental agreement when the OAG moved to the ITC Building.
- In fiscal year 2014, total expenditures from general and federal funds were 60% and 40% respectively.

OAG is included in the Government-Wide annual audit. An independent audit was conducted, resulting in a clean audit opinion. Complete financial information can be found at <http://opaguam.org/reports-audits/financial-audits>.

Challenges & Outlook

What's Next for OAG

Our Challenges

Some of the challenges the Office of the Attorney General faced during FY 2014:

- Unprecedented increase in jury trials
- Increased unfunded criminal justice mandates for victims and the agency

AG Barrett-Anderson and her staff commemorate victims and their service providers during National Crime Victims' Rights Week.

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

Future Outlook

The Office of the Attorney General seeks to accomplish the following:

- Enhance institutional authority of the OAG
- Provide quality services
- Employee development and satisfaction
- Develop necessary infrastructure for technology, facilities, administration, and financial practices
