Hon. Gov. Eddie Baza Calvo
Governor of Guam

Dear Gov. Eddie B. Calvo;

It is with great sentiment and regret that I send this letter of resignation as a Board Director of Guam Visitor's Bureau. As much as I would like to continue serving your good purpose, I am in need of time to attend to matters of great importance to my family.

I have nothing but the best of compliments to my fellow directors, and everyone in Guam Visitor's Bureau. They have shown professionalism, leadership, and utmost kindness. My high regards to the leadership of Chairman of the Board Mark Baldyga, mentorship of Deputy Director Telo Taitague and the remarkable assistance of Regina Nedlic who are all hard-working individuals. They are true assets to Guam Visitor's Bureau.

I shall forever be grateful for the confidence and honor you bestowed upon me through my appointment. I have enjoyed working side-by-side great minds with a common goal, which is to help and contribute to our island community.

From this experience, I carry with pride and appreciation the opportunity to have served you and your administration. Your leadership is unparalleled and I have only the utmost regards to you and everything that you have done to make a difference.

I apologize for whatever inconveniences my resignation may have caused your office. I wish you more power in your quest to better our island Guam.

With sincerest admiration and respect,

Shelly V. Calvo
GVB Board Director
