Objective

Industry Interest

Although my business background is somewhat diversified, I recognize tourism as the single largest contributor to the economic health of our island. Tourism will also supply the many jobs demanded by Guam's workforce. Furthermore, Tourism has to continue to grow in order to open up those opportunities as the island's workforce increases.

As a local businessman, I fully appreciate the economic benefits of tourism. I feel my background in managing financial and marketing aspects of different business organizations, will allow me to contribute positively to various functions of GVB. As a local residence tourism will provide the infrastructure and public service support needed to compliment the growth of our island. The successful blending and interchange between business and local interest are necessary for the overall prosperity of the Island.
