AN ACT TO AMEND AND ADD CERTAIN SECTIONS TO THE GUAM CODES FOR THE PURPOSES OF PROVIDING CERTAIN MANDATORY SENTENCES FOR CERTAIN CRIMES.

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE TERRITORY OF GUAM:

2       Section 1. Section 80.37 is added to the Criminal and 3       Correctional Code to read:

4             "Section 80.37. Unlawful possession or use of a 5       deadly weapon in commission of a felony; mandatory sentence.
6       Whoever unlawfully possesses or uses a deadly weapon in the 7       commission of a felony punishable under the laws of Guam 8       shall, in addition to the punishment imposed for the commis-9       sion of such felony, be imprisoned for a term of not less 10      than five (5) years nor more than twenty-five (25) years.
11      The sentence shall include a special parole term of not 12      less than three (3) years in addition to such term of 13      imprisonment. No person convicted and sentenced hereunder 14      shall be eligible for parole or probation until he shall 15      have served at least five (5) years in prison. No person 16      convicted or sentenced hereunder shall be eligible to parti-17      cipate in any work release program until he shall have 18      served at least five (5) years. The term required to be 19      imposed by this section shall not run concurrently with any 20      term of imprisonment imposed for the commission of any other 21      felony."

1           Section 2. Section 8935 of the Government Code is amended 2           to read:

3           "Section 8935. Unlawful possession. Every person not 4           in lawful possession of an explosive who knowingly has any 5           explosive in his possession is guilty of a third degree 6           felony."

7           Section 3. Section 25.15(b) of the Criminal and Correctional 8           Code is amended to read:

9           "(b) Aggravated rape is a felony of the first degree 10          if, in the course thereof, the defendant inflicts serious 11          bodily injury on his victim or if his conduct violates both 12          paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (a). In the case of 13          rape as a felony of the first degree, the court shall impose 14          a sentence of imprisonment of a minimum term of ten (10) 15          years and may impose a maximum sentence of up to twenty-five 16          (25) years; said minimum term imposed shall not be suspended 17          nor may probation be imposed in lieu of said minimum sentence 18          nor shall parole or work release be granted before completion 19          of the minimum term. The sentence shall include a special 20          parole term of not less than three (3) years in addition to 21          such term of imprisonment. Otherwise, aggravated rape is a 22          felony of the second degree."

23           Section 4. Section 22.20(b) of the Criminal and Correctional 24           Code is amended to read:

25           "(b) Kidnapping is a felony of the first degree unless 26          the defendant voluntarily releases the victim alive and in a 27          safe place prior to trial, in which case it is a felony of 28          the second degree. In the case of kidnapping as a felony of 29          the first degree, the court shall impose a sentence of 30          imprisonment of a minimum term of ten (10) years and may im-31          pose a maximum sentence of up to twenty-five (25) years; said

1 minimum term shall not be suspended nor probation be imposed 2 in lieu of said minimum term nor shall parole or work release 3 be granted before completion of the minimum term. The 4 sentence shall include a special parole term of not less than 5 three (3) years in addition to such term of imprisonment."

6 Section 5. Section 40.10(b) and Section 40.20(b) of the 7 Criminal and Correctional Code are amended to read:

8 "Section 40.10(b). Robbery in the first degree is 9 a felony of the first degree. In the case of robbery in 10 the first degree, the court shall impose a sentence of 11 imprisonment of a minimum term of ten (10) years and may 12 impose a maximum term of up to twenty-five (25) years; the 13 minimum term imposed shall not be suspended nor probation be 14 imposed in lieu of said minimum term nor shall parole or work 15 release be granted before completion of the minimum term.
16 The sentence shall include a special parole term of not less 17 than three (3) years in addition to such term of imprisonment.

18 Section 40.20(b). Robbery in the second degree is a 19 felony of the second degree. In the case of robbery of 20 the second degree as a felony of the second degree, the court 21 shall impose a sentence of imprisonment of a minimum term 22 of five (5) years and may impose a maximum term of up to 23 ten (10) years; the minimum term imposed shall not be sus-24 pended nor may probation be imposed in lieu of the minimum 25 term nor shall parole or work release be granted before
26 completion of the minimum term. The sentence shall include 27 a special parole term of not less than three (3) years in 28 addition to such term of imprisonment."

1           Section 6. Section 34.20(b) of the Criminal and Correctional 2       Code is amended to read:

3           "(b) Aggravated arson is a second degree felony.
4       In the case of aggravated arson as a felony of the second 5       degree, the court shall impose a sentence of imprisonment of 6       a minimum term of five (5) years and may impose a maximum 7       term of up to ten (10) years; the minimum term imposed shall 8       not be suspended nor may probation be imposed in lieu of the 9       minimum term nor shall parole or work release be granted be-10      fore completion of the minimum term. The sentence shall 11      include a special parole term of not less than three (3) 12      years in addition to such term of imprisonment."

13       Section 7. Section 37.20(b) of the Criminal and Correctional 14      Code is repealed and reenacted to read:

15           (b) Burglary is a felony of the second degree. In 16      the case of burglary as a felony of the second degree, the 17      court shall impose a sentence of imprisonment of a minimum 18      term of five (5) years and may impose a maximum term of up 19      to ten (10) years; the minimum term imposed shall not be 20      suspended nor may probation be imposed in lieu of the minimum
21      term nor shall parole or work release be granted before
22      completion of the minimum term. The sentence shall include 23      a special parole term of not less than three (3) years in 24      addition to such term of imprisonment. Provided, however, 25      that in the case of an offender not previously convicted of 26      a felony, the court may sentence the offender to not more 27      than five (5) years imprisonment and the provisions of this 28      subsection prohibiting probation, suspension, parole or work 29      release shall not be applicable to such offender."

1                   Section 8. Section 43.20 of the Criminal and Correctional 2 Code is repealed and reenacted to read:

3                   "Section 43.20. (a) Theft constitutes a felony of 4 the second degree if the amount involved exceeds One Thousand 5 Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) or if the property stolen is 6 a bus, truck, automobile, aircraft, motorcycle or motor boat 7 or in the case of theft by receiving stolen property, if 8 the defendant is in the business of buying or selling stolen 9 property. In the case of theft as a felony of the second 10 degree, the court shall impose a sentence of imprisonment of 11 a minimum term of five (5) years and may impose a maximum 12 term of up to ten (10) years; the minimum term imposed shall 13 not be suspended nor may probation be imposed in lieu of the 14 minimum term nor shall parole or work release be granted be-15 fore completion of the minimum term. The sentence shall in-16 clude a special parole term of not less than three (3) years 17 in addition to such term of imprisonment provided, however, 18 that in the case of an offender not previously convicted of a 19 felony or an offense constituting theft, the court may 20 sentence the offender to not more than five (5) years 21 imprisonment and the provisions of this subsection prohibiting 22 probation, suspension, parole or work release shall not be 23 applicable to such offender.

24                   (b) Theft constitutes a felony of the third degree if 25 the amount involved is less than One Thousand Five Hundred 26 Dollars ($1,500) but exceeds Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or 27 if the property stolen is a firearm or motorized vehicle 28 other than those set forth in subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Theft not constituting a felony of the second or third degree is a misdemeanor if the amount involved exceeds Fifty Dollars ($50) or if the property stolen is a credit card or if the property was taken from the person or by extortion.

(d) Theft not constituting a felony of the second or third degree or a misdemeanor is a petty misdemeanor.

(e) The amount involved in a theft shall be the fair market value of the property or services which the defendant stole or attempted to steal. Whether or not they have been issued or delivered, written instruments not having a readily ascertained market value shall be evaluated as follows:

(1) The value of an instrument constituting an evidence of debt, such as a check, draft or promissory note, shall be the amount due or collectible thereon or thereby, that figure ordinarily being the face amount of the indebtedness less any portion thereof which has been satisfied.

(2) The value of any other instrument that creates, releases, discharges or otherwise affects any valuable legal right, privilege or obligation shall be deemed the greatest amount of economic loss which the owner of the instrument might reasonably suffer by virtue of the loss of the instrument.

(f) Amounts involved in thefts committed pursuant to one scheme or course of conduct, whether from the same person or several persons or amount involved in thefts by a servant, agent or employee from his principal or employer in any period of twelve (12) consecutive months, may be aggregated in determining the grade of the offense."

1                   Section 9. Section 60.10 of the Criminal and Correctional 2                   Code is repealed and reenacted to read:

3                   "Section 60.10. (a) Unless otherwise provided by 4                   law, the court may suspend the imposition of sentence of a 5                   person who has been convicted of a crime in accordance with 6                   Section 60.60, may order him to be committed in lieu of 7                   sentence in accordance with Section 60.30 or may sentence 8                   him as follows:

- 9                   (1) to imprisonment for a term required by law;
10                  (2) to imprisonment and to an additional parole; 11                  (3) to pay a fine or make restitution as authorized 12                  by law;
13                  (4) to be placed on probation as authorized by 14                  law; or 15                  (5) to pay a fine, to make restitution and to be 16                  placed on probation; to make restitution and imprisonment 17                  or to pay a fine and imprisonment.

18                  (b) Where the judgment of conviction includes more 19                  than one crime, the sentences imposed shall run concurrently 20                  except as provided in Sections 60.38, 60.40 and 60.42.

21                  (c) The court may suspend the imposition of sentence 22                  on a person who has been convicted of a violation or may 23                  sentence him to pay a fine or make restitution as authorized 24                  by Section 60.50.

25                  (d) Nothing in this Code deprives the court of any 26                  authority otherwise conferred by law to decree or forfeiture 27                  of property, suspend or cancel the license, remove a person 28                  from office or impose any other civil penalty, such a 29                  judgment or order may be included in the sentence."

2       Section 16. Section 80.30 of the Criminal and Correctional 3       Code is repealed and reenacted to read:

4                 "Section 80.30. Except as otherwise provided by law, 5       a person who has been convicted of a felony may be sentenced 6       to imprisonment as follows:

7                 (a) In the case of a felony of the first degree, 8       the court shall impose a sentence of not less than five 9       (5) years and not more than twenty (20) years;

10                 (b) In the case of a felony of the second degree, 11       the court shall impose a sentence of not less than 12       three (3) years and not more than ten (10) years; and

13                 (c) In the case of a felony of the third degree, 14       the court may impose a sentence of not more than five 15       (5) years."

16       Section 11. Section 80.31 is added to the Criminal and 17       Correctional Code to read:

18                 "Section 80.31. In the cases to which Section 80.30 is 19       applicable as to the sentencing of the person, a person who 20       has not previously been convicted of a criminal offense and 21       has been convicted of a felony for the first time may be 22       sentenced to imprisonment as follows:

23                 (a) In the case of a felony of the first degree, 24       the court shall impose a sentence of not less than 25       three (3) years and not more than fifteen (15) years;

26                 (b) In the case of a felony of the second degree, 27       the court shall impose a sentence of not less than one 28       (1) year and not more than eight (8) years; and 29                 (c) In the case of felony of the third degree, the 30       court may impose a sentence of not more than three (3) 31       years."

as a separate portion of the sentence, a term of parole or of recommitment for violation of the conditions of parole which governs the duration of parole or recommitment after the offender's first conditional release on parole. The term is three (3) years unless the conviction was for a misdemeanor in which case it is one (1) year."

Section 18. Section 80.72 of the Criminal and Correctional Code is repealed and reenacted to read:

"Section 80.72. (a) Unless otherwise provided by law, every person confined in a territorial penal or correctional institution shall be eligible for release on parole at any time after the service of two-thirds (2/3) of his fixed sentence or after a greater time set by the court, which shall state reasons therefor or in the case of a person sentenced to life imprisonment, after such person has been confined for fifteen (15) years.

(b) The Board shall consider the desirability of parole of each inmate at least sixty (60) days prior to his first eligibility. Following such consideration, the Board shall issue a formal order granting or denying parole. If parole is denied, the Board shall state in its order the reasons therefor and the approximate date of next consideration, which shall not be more than one (1) year from the date of the previous consideration. The Board need not state any reasons for denial if to do so would impair a course of rehabilitative treatment of the inmate."

Section 19. This Act shall become operative on October 1, 1973. Except as otherwise provided in this section, this Act does not apply to offenses committed prior to its effective date and prosecutions for such offenses shall be governed by the prior law which is continued in effect for that purpose as if this Act were not in force. For the purposes of this section, an offense was committed after the operative date of this Act if any of the elements of the offense occurred subsequent thereto. Provisions of this Act governing the treatment and the release or discharge of prisoners, probationers and parolees shall not apply to persons under sentence for offenses committed prior to the operative date of this Act who shall be governed by the law in effect with respect to each at the time of his sentencing which is continued in effect for that purpose as if this Act were not in force.

(b) The Department shall provide a container into which controlled substances may be deposited by debarking passengers prior to passenger inspection. Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, no person shall be criminally liable for an offense under Article 6 of Chapter 67 of the Criminal and Correctional Code if such person deposits a controlled substance in such container after debarking from an air or sea carrier."
