Committee Report

on

Bill No. 374

July 17, 1985, 9:10 a.m.

"AN ACT TO REQUEST GUAM'S CONGRESSMAN
TO DELIVER AN ANNUAL ADDRESS TO THE
PEOPLE OF GUAM ON FEDERAL-TERRITORIAL ISSUES."

Senator F.R. Santos, Chairman of the Committee on Federal, Foreign and Legal Affairs convened the public hearing on the review of Bill No. 374, an act to request Guam's Congressman to deliver an annual address to the people of Guam on federal-territorial issues. Present at the commencement was Senator F.R. Santos, Chairman. Attending later in the hearing were other members of the Committee, Senators Ted Nelson, John Aguon and Joseph Ada; sitting in was Senator Eddie Duenas.

There were no oral or written testimonies on behalf, or against Bill No. 374.

The Committee has no reservation in recommending passage of Bill No. 374 and, in fact, feels the need for a law which requires Guam's non-voting delegate to the U.S. Congress to deliver an annual "State of the Federal-Territory Relations Address."

Based on legal requirements that the Governor and the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court deliver an annual address on the executive and judicial state of affairs, respectively, the Committee sees the additional need for an annual review of the federal-territorial state of affairs.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION

The Committee, therefore, recommends immediate passage of Bill No. 374.
