GOVERNOR OF GUAM

SEP 17 2002

The Honorable Joanne M. S. Brown
Legislative Secretary
I Mina'Bente Sais na Liheslaturan Guåhan
Twenty-Sixth Guam Legislature
Suite 200
130 Aspal Street
Hagåtña, Guam 96910

Dear Legislative Secretary Brown:

Enclosed please find Substitute Bill No. 180 (COR) "AN ACT TO ADD § 834 TO TITLE 1 OF THE GUAM CODE ANNOTATED, RELATIVE TO NAMING THE NEW DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE BUILDING AS THE 'FRANCISCO M. ISEZAKI BUILDING'," which I have signed into law as Public Law No. 26-138.

This legislation names the new building for the Department of Agriculture after Mr. Francisco M. Isezaki. Mr. Isezaki was the first law enforcement officer on Guam to die in the line of duty, and he served as a Conservation Officer for the then Division of Fish and Wildlife of the Department of Agriculture. He had approached poachers and was subsequently killed. It is fitting that the Department of Agriculture's building be named after him as he gave his life for the conservation of wildlife.

Very truly yours,

Carl T. C. Gutierrez
I Maga'Lahen Guåhan
Governor of Guam

TESTIMONY TO NAME
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
FRANCISCO M. ISEZAKI

Good Morning Senator(s)

First of all I want to thank you for allowing me to present my testimony to consider the naming of the Department of Agriculture to Francisco M. Isezaki building. People wonder, who is this person and what did he contribute to the community that would earn him to honor his name and be remembered.

Conservation Officer Francisco M. Isezaki is a native born Chamorro who was married and raised a family here on Guam. In the early sixty's, he became a Conservation Officer and dedicated his profession to enforce the fish, game, and forestry laws of Guam. On October 31, 1964, Conservation Officers Francisco M. Isezaki and Joaquin Acfalle were on a mission in the Naval Magazine area when they spotted illegal hunters and pursued the suspected individuals on foot with no additional back up units. Three individuals were confronted in an isolated area. Upon confrontation, Officer Isezaki was in the process in disarming the gunner while two individuals fled. Officer Acfalle pursued the two individuals, who finally apprehended them when he heard shots and rushed back to where the confrontation was made and discovered his partner, Officer Isezaki mortally wounded in the chest and abdomen area. The assailant fled into the jungle. Officer Isezaki was killed in the line of duty on his birthday. Later a suspect was arrested and the island's first grand jury was impaneled and an indictment of murder in the first degree was returned towards the suspect. However, after the trial, the suspect was acquitted of the charges.

Thirty-Seven years (37) ago, as of yesterday the soul of Officer Isezaki has not rested knowing that his murderer has not been brought to justice. To a-peace his soul after paying the ultimate sacrifice in protecting our resources, it would be a small token on our part to honor him by placing his name under the Department of Agriculture the Francisco M. Isezaki Building.

In closing, as the grandfather of Conservation Officers, we continue to carry his dedication, thoughts and feelings as a public servant to protect our valuable resources to the utmost so that our future generation of people will enjoy those resources that we ourselves enjoy today.

LT. WAYNE W. BIGLER
Chief Conservation Officer
