Dear Madame Speaker:

Attached is Bill No. 278-32 (COR), entitled, “An act to prioritize the funding of the classified and unclassified employees of the government of Guam by setting the salaries of I Maga’lahen Guåhan, I Segundo na Maga’lahen Guåhan, the Senators of I Liheslaturan Guåhan, the Attorney General of Guam, the Public Auditor of Guam, and the appointed heads of the Departments and Agencies of the Executive Branch to October 1, 2013 salary rates,” which lapsed into law as new Public Law 32-136.

I disagree with the way that Bill 278 changes the Hay Plan. Nevertheless, there has been enough discussion on this subject, and I have repeatedly made my position clear as is set forth in the editorial to the People that I am including again here.

Now that the will of the I Liheslaturan has become law, I hope that the Senators will direct their attention and efforts to our schools and teachers, our homeless and foster children, crime, and the other important issues affecting our community.

Senseramente,

EDDIE BAZA CALVO

Editorial on Bill 278
By Eddie Baza Calvo
March 4, 2014

I'm writing this editorial, not because I believe it's important Bill 278 becomes law, but because Guamanians have a right to know why it disappoints me that senators have denied just compensation to the people's Cabinet. I'm talking about the agency heads of the Executive Branch, to include their elected Public Auditor and Attorney General.

Bill 278 changes the recently-implemented Hay Study. It reverts the salaries of senators, the Governor and Lieutenant Governor, cabinet members, the Public Auditor, and the Attorney General to original levels.

As I've said several times, Ray and I are not taking the recommended pay raise, and senators could have simply declined theirs as well, if they wanted to. As a matter of fact, the additional proceeds from my first paycheck after the Hay raises went to two places: GMH and J.Q. San Miguel Elementary School. The proceeds from last Friday's check went to GMH and Simon Sanchez High School. Inarajan Middle School would have received the next one, and other schools down the row every paycheck would have received this, along with GMH. But the Legislature instead decided to make a statement.

The legislature had the occasion to make this same statement last year, when Sen. Mike Limtiaco introduced very similar legislation. That bill would have cut senatorial salaries back to its pre-raise levels. The year before that, Sen. Chris Duenas introduced the same bill; it proposed to give the savings to the purchase of school buses. Both bills never saw the light of day until an opportunity came in this election year to stick it to the Cabinet, the AG, and the Public Auditor.

Let me be the first to be straight up with you on this issue. It was conceived as a political maneuver, nothing more, nothing less. Some senators want to damage our administration as much as possible as we approach the election this year. This is all understandable. I get it. This is what happens in the world of politics, much as I detest it. But these unseemly ways come at the expense of principle and, above all, people. In any good organization, excellent work is rewarded. The Cabinet has been doing an excellent job. Look at the turnaround in this government. That was because of them and their employees. They deserve the compensation the Legislature is so willing to deny them.

I don't agree completely with this bill. But it will lapse into law without my signature for one reason more important than all others: it's time for the Legislature to concentrate on more important matters. Guamanians gain nothing from politicians prolonging this debate. This bill will lapse so the debate ends, and lawmakers can move on.

It is my sincere hope the senators who pushed this through will now work with us on the 10-point agenda we outlined in the State of the Island address. Ironically, there was such an insistence to pass Bill 278 that nine (Democrats) out of 15 senators felt it was an emergency to pass this bill and skip the annual report to the Guamanian people, which contained the 10-point agenda (The Republican senators, along with Sens. Aguon and Barnes did show up after session ended). Let's just call this for what it was: a boycott. Senatorial leaders, you can dislike me, but please respect that this is the office of the people. I don't quite understand how senatorial salaries are more important than school construction, universal pre-K, teacher bonuses, housing for the homeless, crime suppression, foster homes, mass transit for all, roads, property taxes, Hagatna redevelopment, or the Ordot Dump. But, now that the salaries question is out of the way, I'm very hopeful the nine senators can come to the table on these 10 points, and other issues of importance to our people.
